PART 1340—FUEL

[MPR 137,[1] as Amended March 30, 1943]

PETROLEUM PRODUCTS SOLD AT RETAIL

Section 1340.91 (r) is amended by Amendment 29 so that Maximum Price Regulation 137 shall read as follows:

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the prices of motor fuel and Diesel fuel, sold at service stations, have risen or are threatening to rise to an extent, and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 are necessary to check inflation and to effectuate the purpose of the Act.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 are generally fair and equitable. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator gave due consideration to prices prevailing between October 1 and 15, 1941, and to relevant factors of general applicability. So far as practicable the Price Administrator consulted with representatives of the industry which will be affected by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137.

A statement of the considerations[2] involved in the issuance of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Therefore, under the authority invested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 is hereby issued.

Sec.

1340.95 Transfer or changes in operators of service stations.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1340.81 to 1340.95, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1340.81 Maximum prices for petroleum products sold at retail establishments. On and after May 18, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver petroleum products at retail establishments at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in Appendix A, incorporated herein as § 1340.91; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to sell petroleum products at retail establishments at prices higher than the maximum prices.

[NOTE: Under Supplementary Order No. 13 (7 F.R. 6523) retail sellers operating more than one establishment may apply for authorization to determine and use uniform maximum prices.]

§ 1340.82 Federal and state taxes. Any tax upon or incident to the sale, delivery, processing, or use of petroleum products, imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum price for such petroleum products and in preparing the records of such seller with respect thereto:

(a) As to a tax in effect during March 1942. (1) If the seller paid such tax, or if the tax was paid by any prior vendor, irrespective of whether the amount thereof was separately stated and collected from the seller, but the seller did not customarily state and collect separately from the purchase price during March, 1942, the amount of the tax paid by him or tax reimbursement collected from him by his vendor, the seller may not collect such amount in addition to the maximum price, and in such case shall include such amount in determining his maximum price under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137.

(2) In all other cases, if, at the time the seller determines his maximum price, the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does state it separately, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of the tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected, and in such case the seller shall not include such amount in determining the maximum price under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137.

(b) As to a tax or increase in a tax which becomes effective after March 13, 1942. If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax or increase does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax or increase separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax or increase actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased: Provided, however, That in the case of the increase in the federal excise on lubricating oils provided by the Revenue Act of 1942, effective November 1, 1942, a seller of motor lubricating oil subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 who separately states the amount of such increase and who actually pays the amount of such increase or an amount equal thereto paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased, may collect in addition to the maximum price, an additional sum as follows:

On each sale of five quarts or less, one cent; on each sale of more than five quarts, the total amount of the increase, adjusted to the nearest cent.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 31 (7 F.R. 9894) provides that: "Notwithstanding the provisions of any price regulation, the tax on transportation of all property (excepting coal) imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 shall, for purposes of determining the applicable maximum price of any commodity or service, be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by every person engaged in the business of transporting property for hire. It shall not be treated, under any provision of any price regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price."]

§ 1340.83 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in Appendix A (§ 1340.91), may be charged, demanded or offered.

§ 1340.84 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to petroleum products sold at retail establishments, alone or in connection with any other commodity by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no person subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 shall change his customary allowances, discounts or other price differentials unless such change results in a lower price.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 29 (7 F.R. 9816) lists certain services customarily offered by retailers which may be curtailed or eliminated without a compensating reduction in ceiling prices.]

§ 1340.85 Records and reports—(a) Base period records. Every person selling petroleum products at service stations subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 shall:

(1) Preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration all his existing records relating to the prices which he charged for such petroleum products as he delivered during March 1942 and his offering prices for delivery of petroleum products during such month; and

(2) Prepare, on or before July 1, 1942, on the basis of all available information and records, and thereafter keep for examination by any person during ordinary business hours, a statement showing:

(i) The highest prices which he charged for such petroleum products as he delivered during March 1942, and his offering prices for delivery of petroleum products during such month, together with an appropriate description or identification of such petroleum products by reference to kind and grade;

(ii) All his customary allowances, discounts and other price differentials.

(b) Current records. Every person selling petroleum products at service stations subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 shall keep, and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration records of the same kind as he customarily kept, relating to the prices which he charged for such motor fuel as he sold at service stations after May 18, 1942, and, in addition, records showing as precisely as possible, the basis upon which he determined maximum prices for such motor fuel.

§ 1340.86 Statement and posting of maximum prices of motor fuels sold at retail establishments. (a) Every person selling petroleum products at service stations subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 shall post the maximum price chargeable to purchasers of the class to whom he made the bulk of his sales for each grade of petroleum products in a manner plainly visible to and understandable by, each purchaser. Such postings shall be marked "maximum prices", "ceiling prices" or "our ceiling", beneath which shall be marked each grade of the petroleum product offered for sale and opposite each grade shall be stated the maximum price for that grade. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the General Maximum Price Regulation[4] or in § 1340.86 (d) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 every person whose maximum prices are increased pursuant to authorization by the Office of Price Administration shall indicate separately either for 60 days after such authorization or for so long as the increase remains effective, whichever period is shorter, the amount by which the maximum prices were increased, and the fact that such increase was authorized by the Office of Price Administration. In making this representation such person shall use the following language: "Amount of Increase—cents per gallon—Approved by the Office of Price Administration" or any other statement supplying the same information.

(b) On or before July 1, 1942, every person subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 shall file with the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board of the Office of Price Administration a statement showing his maximum price for each grade of motor fuel together with an appropriate description of its specifications. Such statement shall be kept up to date by such person by filing on the tenth day of every succeeding month a statement of his maximum price for each grade of motor fuel newly offered for sale by him at a service station during the previous month together with an appropriate description of its specifications.

[Paragraphs (a) and (b) as amended by Amendment 10, 7 F.R. 7902]

(c) Any person subject to the provisions of this section may mark or post maximum prices for commodities for which maximum prices are established by this regulation, either in accordance with the provisions of this section or with the provisions of § 1499.13 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

[Paragraph (c) as amended by Amendment 14, 7 F.R. 11088]

(d) (1) Any seller who takes advantage of § 1340.91 (f) and after October 4, 1942, increases the price charged for a particular grade of motor fuel above the level that he would otherwise be permitted to charge shall file with the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board of the Office of Price Administration within five days after such adjustment is required or made, a statement setting forth the following with respect to such grade:

(i) the seller's maximum price as determined by § 1340.91 (a) (b) and or (c) and his delivered cost at the time the adjustment is made;

(ii) the exact extent of the margin enjoyed by him during the major portion of the period October 1–15, 1941;

(iii) the prices charged by him for the particular grade of motor fuel at that retail establishment during the major portion of the period October 1–15, 1941;

(iv) the delivered cost of the particular grade of motor fuel on which the margin enjoyed during the major portion of the period, October 1–15, 1941, was calculated.

(2) Any seller who makes an initial increase after October 4, 1942, in the price charged for a particular grade of motor fuel under § 1340.91 (f), and reports that increase under (1) above, may hereafter have a further adjustment in price, either by being required to lower the price or by raising the price upon being granted permission for an increase. In the case of either such adjustment the seller shall file with the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board of the Office of Price Administration, within five days after such adjustment is required or made, a statement setting forth his delivered cost at the time the adjustment in his selling price is made, and his new maximum price.

(3) Any seller who increases his price upon the basis of § 1340.91 (c) for a particular grade of motor fuel shall at the time he makes his initial increase file a statement setting forth his maximum price for that grade prior to the increase and his delivered cost at the time the adjustment is made. The statement shall be filed with the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board of the Office of Price Administration within five days after the seller makes such increase. If the seller increases his price upon more than one grade, the seller may file either separate statements or one combined statement.

(4) Any seller who increases or decreases his price under § 1340.91 (c), after reporting an initial increase under (3) above, shall file with the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board within five days thereafter a statement setting forth his delivered cost at the time the increase or decrease is made, and his new maximum price.

(e) (1) Any person subject to the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 selling naphthas, solvents, mineral spirits, kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and heavier distillate fuel oil as anti-freeze preparations at retail establishments shall file with the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board within 5 days after February 1, 1943, or the initial sale, whichever is later, a written statement setting forth the following with respect to such petroleum fractions:

(i) The seller's maximum price as determined by § 1340.91 (l),

(ii) The delivered cost at the particular retail establishment, and

(iii) A description thereof by reference to trade name and type, such as naphtha type or kerosene type.

(2) Any change in delivered cost of naphthas, solvents, mineral spirits, kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and heavier distillate fuel oil sold as an anti-freeze preparation shall be reported in writing to the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board within 5 days after such change occurs.

[Paragraph (e) added by Amendment 19, 8 F.R. 1226]

§ 1340.87 Sales slips and receipts. Any person subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137, who has customarily given a purchaser a sales slip, receipt or similar evidence of purchase shall continue to do so. Upon request from a purchaser any person subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 shall give the purchaser a receipt showing the date, the name and address of the seller, the kind, grade and quantity of the petroleum products sold, and the price received for it.

§ 1340.88 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings and suits for treble damage provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest field or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1340.88a Licensing; applicability of the registration and licensing provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation. The registration and licensing provisions of §§ 1499.15 and 1499.16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation are applicable to every person subject to this Maximum Price Regulation selling at wholesale or retail any petroleum product covered by this Maximum Price Regulation. When used in this section the terms "selling at wholesale" and "selling at retail" have the definitions given to them by §§ 1499.20 (p) and 1499.20 (o) respectively of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Said registration and licensing provisions became effective as to persons selling at wholesale on May 11, 1942, and as to persons selling at retail on May 18, 1942.

§ 1340.89 Procedure for adjustment or amendment. (a) The Office of Price Administration or any duly authorized representative thereof, may adjust any maximum price established under the Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 in the case of any seller of a petroleum product at a retail establishment who shows:

(1) That such maximum price is abnormally low in relation to the maximum price of such petroleum product established for other sellers thereof at retail establishments; and

(2) That this abnormality subjects him to substantial hardship.

Applications for adjustment under this paragraph (a) shall be filed in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

No application for adjustment filed after November 30, 1942 will be granted under this paragraph (a).

[Paragraph (a) as amended by Amendment 11, 7 F.R. 8938]

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

[Paragraph (c) added by Amendment 6; revoked by Amendment 11, 7 F.R. 8938]

[NOTE: Procedural Regulation No. 6 (7 F.R. 5087, 5665) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment of maximum prices for commodities or services under Government contracts or subcontracts. Supplementary Order No. 9 (7 F.R. 5444) makes the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 6 applicable to all price regulations, with the exception of those on scrap, waste, and salvage materials.]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 28 (7 F.R. 9619) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment or petitions for amendment based on a pending wage or salary increase requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board.]

§ 1340.90 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137, the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, any other organized group of persons, legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States, any agency thereof, any other government, or any of its political subdivisions and any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Motor fuel" means liquid fuel, including Diesel fuel, used for the propulsion of motor vehicles or motor boats, and shall include any liquid fuel to which Federal gasoline taxes apply except liquid fuel used for the propulsion of aircraft.

(3) "Service station" means any place of business or part thereof, where motor fuel is delivered into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles or motorboats,

(4) "Appropriate War Price and Rationing Board" means the War Price and Rationing Board for the area in which is located the seller's service station from which petroleum products are offered for sale.

[Paragraph (4) as amended by Amendment 4, 7 F.R. 4853]

(5) "Seller." (i) Where a seller makes sales through more than one service station, each separate service station shall be deemed to be a separate seller, except that for the purposes of § 1499.16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation, granting licenses to sellers subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137, the owner of the business shall be considered the seller regardless of the number of separate places of business he owns.

(ii) "Seller of the same class" means a seller (a) performing the same function, (b) of similar type, (c) dealing in the same type of commodity, and (d) selling to the same class of purchaser.

[Paragraph 5 as amended by Amendment 1, 7 F.R. 3749]

(6) "A seller's most closely competitive seller of the same class" shall be a seller of the same class who: (i) is selling the same commodity, (ii) is closely competitive in the sale of such commodity and (iii) is located nearest to the seller.

(7) "Offering price" means the price at which petroleum products were offered for sale at the seller's motor fuel pumps. But "offering price" shall not include a price offered as a bargaining price by a seller who usually sells at a price lower than his asking price.

(8) "Purchaser of the same class" refers to the practice adopted by the seller in setting different prices for petroleum products at service stations to different purchasers or kinds of purchasers located in different areas or for different quantities or grades under different conditions of sale.

[Paragraphs (7) and (8) as amended by Amendment 4, 7 F.R. 4853]

(9) "Sell" includes sell, supply, dispose, barter, exchange, transfer and deliver, and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing.

(10) "Highest price charged during March, 1942" means the highest price which the seller charged for motor fuel delivered by him at a service station during March 1942; or if the seller made no such delivery during March, 1942, his highest offering price for delivery during that month.

(11) "Curtailment area" means:

(i) The entire eastern part of the continental United States up to and including all of the counties of Wayne, Ontario and Steuben in the State of New York; Tioga, Lycoming, Clinton, Centre, Blair and Bedford in the State of Pennsylvania; Allegany in the State of Maryland; Mineral, Grant and Pendleton in the State of West Virginia; Highland, Bath, Alleghany, Craig, Giles, Pulaski, Wythe and Grayson in the State of Virginia; Ashe, Watauga, Avery, Mitchell, Yancey, Madison, Haywood, Swain, Graham and Cherokee in the State of North Carolina; Fannin, Murray, Whitfield, Catoosa, Dade, Walker, Chattooga, Floyd, Polk, Haralson, Carroll, Heard, Troup, Harris, Muscogee, Chattahoochee, Stewart, Quitman, Clay, Early, Seminole and Decatur in the State of Georgia; and Gadsden, Liberty and that part of Franklin which lies east of the Apalachicola River in the State of Florida: Provided, That if any part of any incorporated or unincorporated city, town or village or if any part of any service station is located within the aforementioned area, all of such city, town, village or service station shall be considered as within the said area.

(ii) The States of Oregon and Washington.

[Paragraph (11) added by Amendment 1, 7 F.R. 3749]

(12) "Petroleum products" means motor fuel as defined in § 1340.90 (a) (2), kerosene, prime white distillate, Nos. 1 and 2 fuel oil and range oil, cleaner's or other naphthas, motor lubricating oil, and solvents, mineral spirits and all distillate fuel oils and other petroleum fractions when sold as anti-freeze preparations.

(13) "Eastern seaboard" means the states of Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, east of the Apalachicola River, Georgia, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, and the District of Columbia.

(14) "Retail establishment" means the physical location of the store, shop, garage, service station, or other place of business in which petroleum products are sold at retail other than by delivery in tank wagon or larger lots.

[Paragraphs (13) and (14) added by Amendment 4, 7 F.R. 4853]

(15) "Margin" means the difference between the selling price of the particular grade of motor fuel at the retail establishment and the delivered cost thereof to the retail establishment.

[Paragraph (15) added by Amendment 10, 7 F.R. 7902]

(16) "Delivered cost" for the purposes of paragraphs (c) and (f) of § 1340.91 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 shall consist of one of the following:

(i) In the case of tank wagon buyers, the net price charged to such buyer.

(ii) In the case of tank car or transport truck buyers who buy on a delivered basis, (a) the net laid-down cost at the point of buyer's central storage, and (b) the actual cost of transportation from the buyer's point of central storage to the buyer's retail establishment.

(iii) In the case of tank car or transport truck buyers who buy f. o. b. a shipping point, (a) the net f. o. b. shipping point price, (b) the actual cost of transportation to the point of buyer's central storage, and (c) the actual cost of transportation from the point of buyer's central storage to the buyer's retail establishment.

(iv) In the case of a retail establishment operated by a supplier who is a refiner, the net tank wagon price charged by the supplier to undivided dealers in the tank wagon circuit in which the particular retail establishment is located.

[Paragraph (16) added by Amendment 10; amended by Amendment 14, 7 F.R. 11008]

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1340.91 Appendix A: Maximum prices for petroleum products sold at retail establishments. (a) The seller's maximum price for each grade of a petroleum product shall be:

(1) The highest price charged to a purchaser of the same class by a seller during March 1942 for each grade of a petroleum product.

(2) If seller did not sell a particular grade of a petroleum product at a retail establishment during March 1942, the highest price charged to a purchaser of the same class during March 1942 by the most closely competitive seller of the same class for a petroleum product of the same grade.

[Paragraph (a) as amended by Amendment 4, 7 F.R. 4853]

(b) Eastern seaboard. In the Eastern seaboard, and within the corporate limits of Bristol, Tennessee, the maximum price of gasoline sold at service stations, determined under § 1340.91 (a) (1) and (2) may be increased by not more than 0.4 of a cent a gallon. In the Eastern seaboard the maximum price determined under § 1340.91 (a) (1) and (2) of kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and range oil sold at retail establishments may be increased by not more than 1.4 cents a gallon and of Diesel fuel sold at retail establishments by not more than 1.1 cents a gallon.

[Paragraph (b) as amended by Amendment 8, 7 F.R. 6057 and Amendment 23, 8 F.R. 3365]

(c) A seller of motor fuel at a retail establishment may, at any time, choose his maximum price for any particular grade in either one of two ways:

(1) He may accept the maximum price as determined under the other provisions of § 1340.91.

(2) He may fix a maximum price at the particular retail establishment which will permit him a margin of 3 cents a gallon. His "margin" shall be computed as defined in § 1340.90 (a) (15).

A maximum price fixed upon the basis of a 3-cent margin will change automatically as the seller's margin is affected by changes in the delivered cost. When the delivered cost goes up thus reducing a seller's margin below 3 cents a gallon, then the maximum price will go up by the amount the margin is reduced below 3 cents. When the delivered cost goes down, then the maximum price will go down by the amount the margin exceeds 3 cents a gallon, except that the seller does not have to reduce his maximum price below that provided for in other provisions of this § 1340.91. For the purposes of this provision, the margin is deemed to change not at the time the delivered cost changes, but only after the seller has sold an amount equal to that volume on hand at the time the change in the delivered cost occurs. Any seller who increases or decreases his price upon the basis of this 3-cent margin provision shall file a statement as provided in § 1340.86 (a) (3) and (4).

Illustration: A service station operator's maximum price on December 1 was 19 cents a gallon. On that date he received at his station a delivery by tank wagon of 500 gallons at a delivered cost of 16.5 cents a gallon. He had on hand 500 gallons. Prior thereto his delivered cost had been 15.5. After he has sold 500 gallons at a price no higher than 19 cents a gallon he may increase his price to 19.5 cents a gallon.

Assuming that he increases his price to 19.5 cents a gallon, the tank wagon price may later be reduced. Suppose that he has 400 gallons on hand on December 28, and that the tank wagon price is then reduced to 16.2 cents a gallon. After he sells 400 gallons, he is required to reduce his price to 19.2 cents a gallon or less.

[Paragraph (c) added by Amendment 1, 7 F.R. 3749; amended by Amendment 14, 7 F.R. 11008]

(d) Montana. Maximum prices as determined under § 1340.91 (a) (1) and (2) for service station operators within the Great Falls, Montana tank wagon area who reduced their prices on third grade and regular grade gasoline between February 25 and February 28, 1942, inclusive, are increased by the amount of such decrease but by not more than 1½ cents per gallon.

[Paragraph (d) added by Amendment 5, 7 F.R. 5363]

(e) Pennsylvania grade motor oils in the Pacific Coast Area. (1) Maximum prices as determined under § 1340.91 (a) (1) and (2) for sellers at retail establishments of all S. A. E. grades of Pennsylvania grade motor oils marketed by The Pennzoil Company are increased to 35 cents a quart in any case where the maximum prices of such sellers under said § 1340.91 (a) (1) and (2) are below that amount.

(2) Maximum prices as determined under § 1340.91 (a) (1) and (2) for sellers at retail establishments of all S. A. E. grades of Pennsylvania grade motor oils marketed by Hyvis Oils, Inc., of California are increased to 35 cents a quart in any case where the maximum prices of such sellers under said § 1340.91 (a) (1) and (2) are below that amount.

(3) Maximum prices as determined under § 1340.91 (a) (1) and (2) for sellers at retail establishments of all S. A. E. grades of Pennsylvania grade motor oils marketed by Kern Oil Company, Limited are increased to 30 cents a quart in any case where the maximum prices of such by this regulation are and will be sellers under said § 1340.91 (a) (1) and (2) are below that amount.

[Paragraph (e) added by Amendment 9, 7 F.R. 6896]

(f) When the maximum price for any grade of motor fuel at a retail establishment as determined by paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) permits the seller a margin for a particular grade of motor fuel below that enjoyed by the seller at that particular retail establishment during the major portion of the period October 1–15, 1941, such seller's maximum price shall be increased to a level which will permit him a margin equal to that enjoyed during the major portion of the above period. In no event, however, shall the seller exceed the price received by him for such grade of motor fuel during the major portion of the period October 1–15, 1941, plus the total of any increases authorized or permitted by the Price Administrator and currently in effect. The maximum price of a seller for a particular grade of motor fuel at the particular retail establishment shall be automatically adjustable as the seller's margin changes. For the purposes of this provision, the margin is deemed to change not at the time the delivered cost changes but only after the seller has sold an amount equal to that volume on hand at the time the change in the delivered cost occurs.

[Paragraph (f) added by Amendment 10, 7 F.R. 7902; corrected 7 F.R. 8353, 10684]

(g) Puerto Rico. (1) In addition to the maximum price as determined by § 1340.91 (a) (1) and (2), sellers of gasoline at retail establishments in the Territory of Puerto Rico may charge from and after December 1, 1942, 3 cents per gallon inasmuch as the additional excise tax of 3 cents per gallon, which became effective on December 1, 1942, is not collectible, in addition to the maximum price, pursuant to § 1340.82 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137. This additional charge may not be collected from the United States Government, its agencies or instrumentalities when sold to them for their exclusive use.

(2) In addition to the maximum price as determined by § 1340.91 (a) (1) and (2) sellers of lubricating oil at retail establishments in the Territory of Puerto Rico may charge, from and after March 5, 1943, $3\frac{1}{2}$ cents per gallon to cover the tax increase on lubricating oils imposed by Act No. 25 enacted by the Legislature of Puerto Rico, and approved December 4, 1942, except that the total amount charged on each lot shall be adjusted to the nearest cent.

[Paragraph (g) added by Amendment 13, 7 F.R. 10684, amended by Amendment 26, 8 F.R. 3105]

(h) Notwithstanding the provisions of other paragraphs of this section, the maximum prices for kerosene, range oil, No. 1 or Pacific Specification No. 100 fuel oil and diesel fuel oil for sellers at retail establishments in the States of Connecticut, Delaware, Florida (east of the Apalachicola River), Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, Washington, Wisconsin and in the District of Columbia shall be 0.3 of a cent per gallon above the maximum prices in the above states and the District of Columbia as determined under any provision of this maximum price regulation which would otherwise govern, except that the total amount charged on each lot sold shall be adjusted to the nearest cent.

[Paragraph (h) added by Amendment 15, 7 F.R. 11112, and amended by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2152, and Amendment 27, 8 F.R. 3327]

(i) In the Metropolitan Boston, Massachusetts Area comprising the following towns and cities: Arlington, Belmont, Boston, Braintree, Brookline, Cambridge, Canton, Chelsea, Cohasset, Dedham, Dover, Everett, Hingham, Lexington, Lynn, Malden, Medford, Melrose, Milton, Nahant, Needham, Newton, Quincy, Reading (but not North Reading), Revere, Saugus, Somerville, Stoneham, Swampscott, Wakefield, Waltham, Watertown, Wellesley, Weston, Westwood, Weymouth, Winchester, Winthrop and Woburn, the maximum price for sellers at retail establishments of kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and range oil shall be 12.3 cents a gallon.

[Paragraph (i) added by Amendment 16, 7 F.R. 11075 and amended by Amendment 28, 8 F.R. 3365]

(j) In Quincy, Illinois, the maximum prices of regular and premium grade gasoline sold at retail establishments determined under § 1340.91 (a) (1) and (2) may be increased by not more than 1.5 cents a gallon.

[Paragraph (j) added by Amendment 17, 8 F.R. 231]

(k) Within the corporate limits of New York City, New York, the maximum prices for sellers at retail establishments of kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and range oil, also known as stove oil, shall be 14.0 cents per gallon.

[Paragraph (k) added by Amendment No. 18, 8 F.R. 232 and amended by Amendment 28, 8 F.R. 3365]

(l) The maximum price at a retail establishment for naphthas, solvents, mineral spirits, kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil or heavier distillate fuel oil when sold as anti-freeze preparations shall be the sum of the delivered cost per gallon thereof at the retail establishment and 3¢ per gallon. The maximum price for the particular product at the particular retail establishment shall be automatically adjustable as the delivered cost thereof at the particular retail establishment changes. For the purposes of this paragraph (l) the delivered cost shall be deemed to change only after the seller has sold an amount equal to the volume on hand at the time the change in the delivered cost occurs.

(2) In connection with each sale at a retail establishment of naphthas, solvents, mineral spirits, kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil or heavier distillate fuel oil as an anti-freeze preparation, the seller shall notify the purchaser that the anti-freeze preparation is a petroleum fraction describing it by reference to type such as naphtha type or kerosene type and that the preparation may cause overheating and rubber deterioration.

[Paragraph (l) added by Amendment 19, 8 F.R. 1226. Corrected 8 F.R. 1586]

(m) If the maximum tank wagon price of a particular petroleum product to a retail dealer is increased pursuant to § 1340.159 (b) (11) of Revised Price Schedule No. 88 or if such maximum price is increased pursuant to any amendment to Revised Price Schedule No. 88 adopted after February 13, 1943, such retail dealer's maximum price for such petroleum product shall be increased by the same amount.

[Paragraph (m) added by Amendment 20, 8 F.R. 1799]

(o) Within the counties of Genesee, Macomb, Washtenaw, Monroe, Oakland and Wayne in the State of Michigan the maximum prices for sellers at retail establishments of kerosene, prime white distillate, Nos. 1 and 2 fuel oil and range oil, also known as stove oil or heater oil, shall be as follows:

	Cents per gallon
In the case of kerosene	14.2
In the case of range oil, also known as stove oil or heater oil	11.2
In the case of prime white distillate and Nos. 1 and 2 fuel oil	10.7

[Paragraph (o) added by Amendment 22, 8 F.R. 2152]

(p) In the Bridgeport, Connecticut Area, comprising the townships and cities of Bridgeport, Easton, Fairfield, Monroe, Stratford, Trumbull, Weston and Westport, the maximum price for sellers at retail establishments of kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and range oil shall be 12.5 cents per gallon.

(q) In the New Haven, Connecticut Area, comprising the townships and cities of Bethany, Branford, East Haven, Hamden, Milford, North Branford, North Haven, New Haven, Orange, West Haven and Woodbridge, the maximum price for sellers at retail establishments of kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and range oil shall be 12.5 cents per gallon.

(r) In the Hartford, Connecticut Area, comprising the townships and cities of Bloomfield, East Hartford, Glastonbury, Hartford, Newington, Wethersfield, Windsor, Windsor Locks, East Windsor, South Windsor and West Hartford, the maximum price for sellers at retail establishments of kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and range oil shall be 12.7 cents per gallon.

PART 1364—FRESH, CURED AND CANNED MEAT AND FISH

[Revised MPR 169[1] as amended March 30, 1943]

BEEF AND VEAL CARCASSES AND WHOLESALE CUTS

Revised Maximum Price Regulation 169 is amended by Amendment 4 as follows:

Preamble: In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper, in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended and Executive Order No. 9250 issued by the President on October 3, 1942, to maintain as the maximum prices for processed products the prices prevailing with respect thereto during the period March 16 to March 28, 1942, inclusive, and to establish for beef and veal carcasses and wholesale cuts specific prices slightly higher than those prevailing during such period. These prices are established as provided in §§ 1364.451 and 1364.452 for beef; §§ 1364.466 and 1364.467 for veal; and § 1364.476 for processed products. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of beef and veal carcasses and wholesale cuts prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of said Act and Executive Order. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

The maximum prices established herein are not below prices which will reflect to producers of the agricultural commodities from which beef and veal carcasses and wholesale cuts and processed products are produced a price for their products equal to the highest of the prices required by the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and by the Executive Order of October 3, 1942.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250 and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 is hereby issued.

[NOTE: Preamble as amended by Amendment 4, issued March 30, effective April 3, 1943]

SUBPART A—GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 1364.401 Prohibition against selling beef and veal carcasses and wholesale cuts, and processed products at prices above the maximum—(a) Beef carcasses and wholesale cuts. On and after December 16, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation no person shall sell or deliver any beef carcass or beef wholesale cut, and no person shall buy or receive any beef carcass or beef wholesale cut at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by § 1364.451; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing. The provisions of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of beef carcasses or beef wholesale cuts to a purchaser, if, prior to December 10, 1942, such beef carcasses or beef wholesale cuts have been received by a carrier other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser. "Person," "beef carcass," and "beef wholesale cut" are defined in § 1364.455.

(b) Veal carcasses and wholesale cuts. On or after April 3, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver any veal carcass or veal wholesale cut and no person shall buy or receive any veal carcass or veal wholesale cut at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by § 1364.466, and no person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing. The provisions of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of veal carcasses or veal wholesale cuts if, prior to April 3, 1943 such veal carcasses or veal wholesale cuts have been received by a carrier other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser. "Person," "veal carcass," and "veal wholesale cut" are defined in § 1364.470.

(c) Processed products. On and after December 16, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver any processed product and no person shall buy or receive any processed product at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by § 1364.476; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing. "Person" and "processed product" are defined in § 1364.477.

(d) Maximum prices for slaughtering services. Any person who slaughters cattle or calves as a service for the purchaser of such cattle or calves shall remit to such purchaser an amount sufficient to make the cost of the dressed beef or veal carcass or of the wholesale cuts derived therefrom, to such purchaser, equal to or less than the costs which would be incurred by the purchaser, if he purchased the carcass or cuts from the slaughterer at the slaughterer's maximum prices therefor: Provided, That this requirement shall not apply in cases where the purchaser does not acquire the carcasses or cuts for resale in any form: Provided further, That this requirement shall not apply with respect to the slaughter of cattle or calves for a purchaser who resells the meat derived therefrom other than at retail in those cases where the following circumstances exist and the slaughterer and purchaser have filed with the appropriate district, state, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration, evidence based upon regular business records showing that: (1) the slaughterer during the period January 1941 to March 1942 inclusive, (i) did not sell any beef or veal carcasses or wholesale cuts and (ii) regularly slaughtered cattle or calves for such purchaser on a continuing contractual basis; and (2) during such period the purchaser (i) did not himself slaughter cattle or calves and (ii) procured at least 75 percent of the beef or veal sold by him from cattle or calves slaughtered for him by such slaughterer.

To enable the slaughterer to determine the amount to be remitted to the purchaser, it shall be the duty of such purchaser to advise the slaughterer of the amount paid for the cattle or calves slaughtered.

[Paragraphs (b) and (d) amended, paragraph (c) added by Amendment 4 issued March 30, effective April 3, 1943]

§ 1364.402 Exempt sales. The provisions of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 shall not apply

(a) To sales at retail:

(1) As defined in § 1364.455 with respect to sales of beef; and

(2) As defined in § 1364.470 with respect to sales of veal; and

(3) As defined in § 1364.477 with respect to sales of processed products;

(b) To deliveries of beef made to any political subdivision or agency of any state or of the United States, under contracts entered into prior to December 10, 1942: Provided, That this exemption shall not be construed to permit the upward revision of any prices fixed in such contracts;

(c) To deliveries of veal made to any political subdivision or agency of any state or of the United States, under contracts entered into prior to April 3, 1943: Provided, That this exemption shall not be construed to permit the upward revision of any prices fixed in such contracts;

[Paragraph (a) amended, (c) added, (d) redesignated by Amendment 4, issued March 30, effective April 3, 1943]

(d) To sales outside of the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

§ 1364.403 Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export any beef carcass or wholesale cut, veal carcass or wholesale cut, processed product, or other meat item subject to this Revised Regulation shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1364.404 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established in §§ 1364.451, and 1364.452, for beef, in §§ 1364.466 and 1364.467 for veal and in § 1364.476 for processed products may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

[§ 1364.404 amended by Amendment 4, issued March 30, effective April 3, 1943]

§ 1364.405 Conditional agreements. No seller subject to this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 shall enter into an agreement permitting or providing for the adjustment of the prices of beef carcasses or wholesale cuts, veal carcasses or wholesale cuts, processed products or other meat items subject to this Revised Regulation to prices which may be higher than the maximum prices provided by §§ 1364.451 and 1364.452 for beef, by §§ 1364.466 and 1364.467 for veal and by § 1364.476 for processed products, in the event this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 is amended, or is determined by a court to be invalid, or upon any other contingency; Provided, That if a petition for amendment has been duly filed, and such petition requires extensive consideration, and the Administrator determines that the public interest would be served, the Administrator may grant an exception for the provisions of this section permitting the making of contracts adjustable upon the granting of the petition for amendment. Request for such an exception may be included in the aforesaid petition.

§ 1364.406 Evasion. (a) The price limitations set forth in this Revised Regulation shall not be evaded, either by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of, or relating to beef, veal, or processed products separately or in conjunction with any other commodity or services, or by way of any commission, service, transportation, wrapping, packaging or other charge, or discount premium or other privilege, or by tying agreement or other trade understanding, or by changing the selection of, grading, or the style of dressing, cutting, trimming, cooking or otherwise processing or the canning, wrapping or packaging of beef, veal or processed products, or otherwise: Provided, That a payment by a buyer to a seller for icing services performed by the seller after April 2, 1943, and before delivery of any beef carcass or wholesale cut or veal carcass or wholesale cut to a railroad whose charges are paid directly to such railroad by the buyer shall not be construed as an evasion of such price limitations, if the charge for such icing services is no higher than the cost actually incurred by the seller in performing such service and in no event, higher than the charge which could lawfully have been made by the railroad if such services had been performed by the railroad.

(b) Specifically, but not exclusively, the following practices are prohibited:

(1) Unnecessarily routing beef or veal through any distribution point in order to obtain a higher zone price or for the purpose of making a higher transportation or local delivery charge.

(2) Falsely or incorrectly grading or invoicing beef, veal, or processed products.

(3) Selling or invoicing kosher beef, kosher veal, or kosher processed products to purchasers who are not bona fide buyers of kosher meat.

(4) Selling or invoicing beef or veal at the prices established for sales by hotel supply houses to buyers other than bona fide purveyors of meals, war procurement agencies, or other government agencies.

(5) Offering, selling or delivering beef, veal or any processed product on condition that the purchaser is required to purchase some other commodity.

(6) Making or receiving a charge for delivery on the basis of a route different from that actually followed and in excess of that permitted for the route by which beef or veal was actually delivered.

(7) Selling or transferring title to cattle or calves by a purchaser thereof at a lower price than was paid for such cattle or calves and/or repurchasing, purchasing or receiving title to dressed carcasses or wholesale cuts derived from such cattle or calves after the cattle or calves have been slaughtered by a custom slaughterer.

(8) Charging, paying, billing, or receiving any consideration for or in connection with any service for which a specific allowance has not been provided in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169.

[Paragraphs (a), (b) (1), (4), (6), and (8) amended by Amendment 4, issued March 30, effective April 3, 1943]

§ 1364.407 Records and reports. The reporting and recording provisions of this regulation are approved by the Bureau of the Budget.

(a) Not later than December 16, 1942, every person making sales subject to § 1364.476 of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 shall keep for examination by any purchaser during ordinary business hours, a statement showing and enumerating separately the maximum selling prices of each grade of processed product for (1) carloads, (2) car routes, and (3) sales other than in carload lots and via car routes.

(b) Every person making a sale of any beef carcass, beef wholesale cut, veal carcass, or veal wholesale cut, processed product, or other meat item subject to this revised regulation, on or after December 16, 1942, in the course of trade or business or otherwise dealing therein, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, is in effect, complete and accurate records of each such sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer and seller, the quantity, grade or grades and weight of all beef carcasses, beef wholesale cuts, veal carcasses, veal wholesale cuts, processed products or other meat items subject to this revised regulation sold, and the price charged or received therefor.

(c) Persons affected by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 shall, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942, submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may from time to time require.

(d) Not later than May 3, 1943 every person who slaughters cattle or calves and whose slaughter plant or plants are located north of the Potomac River in the area designated as Zone 9 in § 1364.452 (i) (1) shall file with the Office of Price Administration at Washington, D. C., a true copy of the abattoir stamp used in each slaughter plant, and shall identify each abattoir stamp by indicating alongside thereof the name and business address of the slaughter plant at which each such abattoir stamp is used.

(e) (1) Every person making sales to purveyors of meals, war procurement agencies, or other government agencies pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (o) of § 1364.452 shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, is in effect, a complete and accurate record in schedule form for each calendar month commencing with January 1943, showing separately: (i) the total inventory in pounds at the beginning of each month of each grade of each beef carcass, beef wholesale cut, fabricated beef cut, beef offal item and beef byproduct (bones, fat, tallow, waste, etc.); the total additions to inventory in pounds during the month for each grade of each such item; and the total inventory in pounds at the end of each month for each grade of each such item; (ii) the total sales in pounds during the month of each grade of beef carcass, beef wholesale cut, fabricated beef cut, beef offal item, and beef byproduct (bones, fat, tallow, waste, etc.), showing separately the sales in pounds of each grade of each item made to purveyors of meals, war procurement agencies and other government agencies and the sales in pounds made to other buyers; (iii) the total sales realization for each item separately enumerated in (ii) hereof and the average selling price therefor, (all sales of kosher meat shall be shown separately).

(2) Not later than January 11, 1943, every person making sales to purveyors of meals, war procurement agencies, or other government agencies pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (o) of § 1364.452, shall file with the Office of Price Administration at Washington, D. C., a statement of the applicable zone price for each grade of each fabricated beef cut determined in accordance with subparagraph (2) thereof.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Amendment 2, 8 F.R. 164, effective 1-8-43]

(f) Every person making a sale of any beef carcass, beef wholesale cut, veal carcass, veal wholesale cut, processed product or other meat item subject to this revised regulation shall furnish to the purchaser at the time of delivery a written statement setting forth the name and address of the buyer and seller; identifying each such item sold; and setting forth the quantity, the grade, including sex identification as to cow, stag, and bull, and the weight thereof, and the price charged and received therefor, including a separate statement of the transportation and local delivery charge as required by § 1364.454 (a) (6).

§ 1364.408 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, proceedings for suspension of licenses, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended: Provided, That no war procurement agency, or any contracting or paying finance officer thereof, shall be subject to any liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 or the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, or any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest district, state, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration, or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1364.409 Licensing—(a) Applicability of Supplementary Order No. 14.[1] The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 14 (§ 1305.18 Licensing sellers of meat and meat products) are applicable to every seller subject to this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 now or hereafter selling any beef carcass, beef wholesale cut, veal carcass, veal wholesale cut, processed product, or other meat item for which maximum prices are established by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169. For the purposes of this § 1364.409, the term "seller" shall have the meaning given it by Supplementary Order No. 14.

§ 1364.410 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, as amended, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

[NOTE: Procedural Regulation No. 6 (7 F.R. 5087, 5665) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment of maximum prices for commodities or services under Government contracts or subcontracts. Supplementary Order No. 9 (7 F.R. 5444) makes the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 6 applicable to all price regulations, with the exception of those on scrap, waste, and salvage materials.]

§ 1364.411 Duty to maintain and identify grades. No person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver or break any beef carcass or veal carcass, unless each such carcass has been identified by grade in accordance with the provisions of this section. No custom slaughterer shall ship or deliver any beef carcass or wholesale cut, or veal carcass or wholesale cut unless each such carcass or wholesale cut has been identified by grade in accordance with the provisions of this section. Each person shall maintain uniform grades, as specified in paragraph (a) of this section; shall determine his maximum prices upon the basis of such uniform grades rather than upon the basis of his own grades, as provided in paragraph (b) of this section; and shall have his products identified by grade designations, as provided by paragraph (c) of this section.

(a) Uniform grades. (1) Beef carcasses and wholesale cuts derived from steers, heifers and cows shall be graded into the following uniform grades: choice, good, commercial, utility, cutter and canner; except, that no cow carcass or wholesale cut shall be graded choice. Beef carcasses and wholesale cuts derived from bulls and stags shall be graded in the same manner, except that no bull carcass or wholesale cut shall be graded choice or good, and no stag carcass or wholesale cut shall be graded choice. In determining the grade of each beef carcass or beef wholesale cut, the "Specifications for Official United States Standards for Grades of Carcass Beef",[3] set forth in Appendix C hereof, and incorporated herein as § 1364.528, shall be used, except that the specifications therein for the two grades, prime and choice, shall be combined and treated as a single grade choice, and the specifications therein for the two grades, cutter and canner, shall be combined and treated as a single grade.

(2) Veal carcasses and wholesale cuts shall be graded into the following uniform grades: choice, good, commercial, utility, and cull. In determining the grade of each such carcass or wholesale cut the "Specifications for Official United States Standards for Grades of Veal and Calf Carcasses",[4] set forth in Appendix D hereof, and incorporated herein as § 1364.529, shall be used except that the specifications therein for the two grades, prime and choice, shall be combined and treated as a single grade, choice.

(b) Duty to determine maximum prices on the basis of uniform grades. The word "grade", as used in §§ 1364.451, 1364.452, 1364.466 and 1364.467 and in paragraph (c) of this section, means any uniform grade referred to in paragraph (a) of this section, and shall not be construed to mean the private grade of an individual seller.

Irrespective of the private grading system heretofore used by the seller, it shall be the duty of the seller, except as provided in paragraph (c) (3), to have classified into the uniform grades provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, by an official grader of the United States Department of Agriculture, the beef carcasses and beef wholesale cuts of cattle and the veal carcasses and veal wholesale cuts of calves slaughtered by the seller or sold by the seller, and then to determine the maximum price for each grade of beef carcass and beef wholesale cut by reference to §§ 1364.451 and 1364.452, and veal carcass and veal wholesale cut by reference to §§ 1364.466 and 1364.467.

(c) Duty to identify products by grade marks. (1) No person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver or break any beef or veal carcass unless a stamp has been placed thereon with harmless marking fluid conforming to the formula for violet branding fluid approved by the United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Animal Industry, set forth in Appendix A hereof, and incorporated herein as § 1364.526, marking the appropriate grade letter, as hereinafter designated, in such manner as to identify by such letter the uniform grade of each beef wholesale cut or veal wholesale cut which may be derived from the carcass, except that in the case of a calf or veal carcass sold with the skin on, the grade letter shall be stamped only on the shanks and briskets. The purchaser of a calf or veal carcass with the skin on shall not sell, offer to sell or break such carcass after removal of the skin unless a stamp has been placed thereon, marking the appropriate grade letter, as hereinafter designated, in such manner as to identify by such letter the uniform grade of each veal wholesale cut which may be derived from such carcass.

The sex identification shall be similarly stamped on all bull and stag carcasses and wholesale cuts. The grade and prescribed sex identification of each beef carcass and wholesale cut, and veal carcass and wholesale cut must appear on the seller's invoice.

(2) The appropriate grade letter for each uniform grade shall be as follows:

Beef grade	Grade letter	Veal grade
Choice	AA	Choice.
Good	A	Good.
Commercial	B	Commercial.
Utility	C	Utility.
Cutter, Canner	D	Cull.

The grade letter shall be at least ½ inch in height and width. In stamping any beef or veal carcass determined by an official grader of the United States Department of Agriculture to conform to the grade standards contained in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169, such official grader may use the grade designations U. S. choice or choice, U. S. good or good, U. S. commercial or commercial, U. S. utility or utility, U. S. cutter or cutter, U. S. canner, or canner, U. S. cull or cull, whichever is appropriate, in lieu of the grade letters established in this subparagraph.

(3) No person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver or break any beef or veal carcass irrespective of grade unless such carcass has been examined and graded by an official grader of the United States Department of Agriculture in accordance with the "Rules and Regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture Governing the Grading and Certification of Meats, etc."[5] as modified to the extent set forth in Appendix B hereof, and thus incorporated herein as § 1364.527, and unless a stamp has been placed upon such carcass by such official grader in the manner set forth in paragraph (c) (1) of this section: Provided, That in any instance where any person is unable to procure the services of an official grader within 24 hours after such person has made an application for grading, pursuant to Section 3 of Regulation No. 4 (Grading Service) contained in § 1364.527 hereof, then the provisions of this subparagraph shall not apply, for so long a period as the Food Distribution Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture certifies in writing that it is unable to provide such person with the services of an official grader. During such period such beef and veal carcasses shall be graded by the seller in the manner provided in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) (1) and (c) (2) of this § 1364.411.

[Paragraphs (a), (b), (c) (2) and (3) amended by Amendment 4, issued March 30, effective April 3, 1943]

(4) Whenever any person having a financial interest in any beef or veal carcass which has been graded and grade stamped by an official grader pursuant to paragraph (c) (3) hereof or otherwise, is dissatisfied with the determination of such official grader, such person may appeal the grading and grade stamping by making an application for appeal grading in the manner provided in Regulation No. 5 (appeal grading) contained in § 1364.527 hereof, and shall thereafter give immediate notice in writing to the Office of Price Administration at Washington, D. C., of such appeal.

(d) Use of other grading and branding systems. Any seller may use a private grading and branding system in addition to that required by the foregoing paragraphs of this section: Provided, That he shall identify his private grading and branding system in such manner as to distinguish it from the official grade stamp as required by paragraph (c) of this section.

§ 1364.412 Applicability of General Maximum Price Regulation.[6] The provisions of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this revised regulation.

§ 1364.413 Revocation of orders issued under Maximum Price Regulation No. 169. (a) The order issued in the matter of Meyer Kornblum Packing Company (Docket No. 3169–8; July 27, 1942) and orders numbered 2, 3, 4, 5, 9, 10, 13, 15, 16, and 17 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 are hereby revoked.

(b) The orders issued in the matters of Jones Country Veal (Docket No. 3169–66[7]; October 2, 1942, Order No. 11, and Earl H. Schurr (Docket No. 3169–43); October 28, 1942, Order No. 18, under Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 are hereby revoked.

SUBPART B—PROVISIONS AFFECTING BEEF

§ 1364.451 Maximum prices for beef carcasses and wholesale cuts. Subject to the pricing instructions contained in paragraph (a), the maximum price of each grade of each beef carcass or wholesale cut shall be the maximum price determined as provided in paragraph (b).

(a) Pricing instructions. (1) Whenever used in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169, the term "lower price zone" means a price zone having a lower zone price, and the term "higher price zone" means a price zone having a higher zone price; the words "lower" and "higher" used in the respective terms shall not be construed to refer to the numerical designation of any zone.

(2) Except for the additions permitted in Schedule III hereof, incorporated herein as § 1364.454, the zone price shall be the delivered price anywhere within the zone to which such price applies. Schedule I (paragraphs (a) to (j), inclusive) hereof, incorporated herein as § 1364.452, contains a statement describing the geographical limits of each price zone and the zone prices established therefor.

(3) The applicable zone price shall be the price specified in Schedule I (§ 1364.452) for the zone in which is located the seller's distribution point:

(i) At which the buyer takes actual physical possession of the meat; or

(ii) From which local delivery to the buyer's place of business begins; or

(iii) From which the meat, consigned to the buyer, (a) is delivered to a common carrier, other than a railroad, for shipment to the buyer, who pays the shipping charges directly to the carrier, or (b) is delivered to a railroad for shipment at the carload rate to the buyer who pays the shipping charges directly to the carrier.

(iv) In the case of a less than carload rail shipment, other than an express shipment to a purveyor of meals, the applicable zone price shall be the price for the zone in which is located the rail unloading station nearest to the buyer's place of business.

(v) On sales to purveyors of meals the distribution point may be, in addition to those listed, the point at which meat consigned to the buyer is delivered to a railway express company for shipment by express to the buyer who pays the shipping charges directly to the carrier.

(4) Except as permitted in paragraph (l), (m), (n), or (o) of Schedule I (§ 1364.452), regardless of any contract, agreement or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver any beef or any part or portion of any beef carcass and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any beef or any part or portion of any beef carcass unless such beef or part or portion is a beef carcass or a beef wholesale cut as defined in § 1364.455, for which applicable prices have been established.

(b) Maximum price. The maximum price for each grade of each beef carcass or beef wholesale cut shall be the applicable zone price determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of this § 1364.451 and specified in Schedule I (incorporated herein as § 1364.452), minus the required deductions, if any, specified in Schedule II (incorporated herein as § 1364.453), plus the permitted additions, if any, specified in Schedule III (incorporated herein as § 1364.454).

[2] Prices subject to condition 1 hereinafter set forth.

Condition 1: The price established for kosher boneless bull forequarters shall apply only on sales of kosher boneless processing beef as such to processors of kosher processed products and no seller shall sell or deliver any boneless bull forequarter at the price established therefor or at a price higher than established for non-kosher boneless bull meat in column I hereof, unless the buyer of such kosher boneless bull forequarter is a bona fide processor of kosher processed products. For the sale of any kosher boneless bull forequarter to a person other than a bona fide processor of kosher processed products, the price shall be determined by use of the applicable zone price established for non-kosher boneless bull meat in column I, and the seller shall remove all stamps and designations which identify the boneless bull meat as kosher.

Condition 2: For kosher boneless bull forequarters derived from bologna bulls (equivalent of cutter and canner grade) slaughtered in that portion of Zone 9 north of the Potomac River, and which clearly bear the abattoir stamp at the time of sale, the seller may charge the price established in column III hereof: Provided, That such kosher boneless bull forequarter shall be sold to a bona fide processor of kosher processed products located in that portion of Zone 9 north of the Potomac River. The column III price shall not be charged or received for the sale of any kosher boneless bull forequarter which does not bear the abattoir's stamp clearly legible.

Condition 3: Revoked by Amendment 4, issued March 30, 1943 and effective April 3, 1943.

(3) "Boneless processing beef" as used in this paragraph (n) of this § 1364.452 means any beef carcass of cutter and canner grade, including any bull carcass of equivalent grade, commonly designated as "bologna bull", from which the bones have been removed and which has been trimmed. Boneless processing beef includes the items, beef tenderloins and boneless chucks (regular chucks from which the bones have been removed), derived from boneless carcasses of cutter and canner grade, including bologna bulls. Beef trimmings of any grade, boneless foreshanks of any grade, and boneless hindshanks of cutter and canner grade are separate items of boneless processing beef.

(o) Applicable zone prices for fabricated beef cuts sold by hotel supply houses. (1) Subject to the pricing instructions contained in paragraph (a) of § 1364.451, the maximum price for each grade of each fabricated beef cut shall be the applicable zone price determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (o) (2) of this § 1364.452, minus the required deductions, if any, specified in Schedule II (§ 1364.453, substituting for the purposes of this paragraph (o) the term "fabricated beef cut" whenever the words "wholesale cut" or "wholesale cuts" are used in said paragraphs of Schedule II), plus the permitted additions, if any, specified in Schedule III (§ 1364.454, substituting for the purposes of this paragraph (o) the term "fabricated beef cut" whenever the words "wholesale cut" or "wholesale cuts" are used in said Schedule III).

(2) The applicable zone price for each grade of each fabricated beef cut sold by a hotel supply house to a purveyor of meals, war procurement agency or other government agency shall be determined as follows:

(i) Each individual hotel supply house shall fix a price for each such fabricated cut on the basis of the relationship which prevailed during the month of November, 1942, between the price received by such hotel supply house for such fabricated cut and the prices received by it for the other fabricated cuts derived from the beef wholesale cut of the same grade: Provided, That no packing or slaughtering plant, packing branch house, wholesaler or other distributor shall sell fabricated cuts unless regularly engaged in such practice during November, 1942.

(ii) In the event that the total gross proceeds obtainable through sales at the prices so fixed of all fabricated cuts derived from such beef wholesale cut and sales at the maximum prices of all bones, fat, waste, trimmings and/or processed products obtained in making such fabricated cuts exceeds 120% of the applicable zone price for the beef wholesale cut, the hotel supply house shall adjust downward the prices of such cuts to remove the excess. In making such adjustments, the seller shall not change the relationship of such prices as established pursuant to paragraph (o) (2) (i). The price so fixed and adjusted shall be the applicable zone price for the fabricated beef cut.

(3) "Fabricated beef cut" as used in this paragraph (o) means any part or portion of a beef wholesale cut (i. e. roasts, steaks, stewing meat, etc.) made for a purveyor of meals, which part or portion is obtained by boning or sawing through the bones of the beef wholesale cuts so as to prepare these fabricated cuts for cooking without further cutting or trimming. Beef wholesale cuts which have been trimmed and from which at least 25% of the bone has been removed, to facilitate cutting into steaks or roasts by a purveyor of meals, shall also be considered fabricated beef cuts.

[In § 1364.452 box heads in tables in (d) (2) and (3), table in (n) (2) (A) and Condition 2, paragraph (o) (2) (i), amended; Condition 3 in (n) (2) (A) revoked by Amendment 4, issued March 30, effective April 3, 1943]

§ 1364.453 Schedule II: Amounts which must be deducted from zone prices listed in Schedule I. As hereinafter provided, the following shall be deducted from the applicable zone prices:

(a) For beef carcasses and beef wholesale cuts not graded by an official grader. For the sale of any beef carcass or beef wholesale cut which does not bear the grade mark and identification of an official grader of the United States Department of Agriculture at the time of sale, the seller shall deduct 12½ cents per cwt. from the applicable zone price.

(b) Carload discount. For all beef carcasses and/or beef wholesale cuts, and or other meat items subject to this subpart B delivered in a straight or mixed carload shipment or sold as part of a straight or mixed carload sale, the seller shall deduct 75¢ per cwt. from the applicable zone price.

(c) Wholesaler's quantity discount. For beef carcasses and/or beef wholesale cuts sold to a wholesaler in a straight or mixed less-than-carload sale, the seller shall deduct 50¢ per cwt. from the applicable zone price.

§ 1364.454 Schedule III: Amounts which may be added to zone prices listed in Schedule I. Subject to the conditions hereinafter provided, the following may be added to the applicable zone price:

(a) For transportation and/or local delivery. (1) For transportation from the point at which the meat was slaughtered in Price Zone 3 or 4 to a distribution point located in either of those price zones, other than another slaughter, packing or processing plant owned or controlled by the same seller, the seller may add the actual cost of transportation computed at the lowest common carrier rate for the method of transportation used, but in no event more than 50¢ per cwt.

(2) For transportation from the point at which the meat was slaughtered in Price Zone 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, or 10 to a distribution point located in the same price zone as the slaughter point, other than another slaughter, packing or processing plant owned or controlled by the same seller, the seller may add the actual cost of transportation computed at the lowest common carrier rate for the method of transportation used, but in no event more than 25¢ per cwt.

(3) For local delivery made within a radius of 25 miles from a slaughter plant, packing house, car-route unloading point, railroad unloading station or branch house, to the place of business of a seller at retail, wholesaler (not owned or controlled by the shipper or consignor), hotel supply house (not owned or controlled by the shipper or consignor), or commercial user, or the designated delivery point of a war procurement agency, or other government agency; or

For local delivery made within a radius of 25 miles from the place of business of a wholesaler or hotel supply house, to the place of business of a seller at retail, purveyor of meals, or commercial user, or the designated delivery point of a war procurement agency, or other government agency: the seller may add 25¢ per cwt.

(4) For local delivery made from a slaughter plant, packing house, car-route unloading point, railroad unloading station or branch house, located in Price Zone 3 or 4 to the place of business of a seller at retail, wholesaler (not owned or controlled by the shipper or consignor), hotel supply house (not owned or controlled by the shipper or consignor), or commercial user, or the designated delivery point of a war procurement agency, or other government agency, located more than 25 miles from such shipping point; or

For local delivery made from the place of business of a wholesaler or hotel supply house located in Price Zone 3 or 4 to the place of business of a seller at retail, purveyor of meals, or commercial user, or the designated delivery point of a war procurement agency, or other government agency, located more than 25 miles from such shipping point: the seller may add the actual cost of local delivery computed at the lowest common carrier rate for the method of transportation used, but in no event more than 75¢ per cwt.

(5) For local delivery made from a slaughter plant, packing house, car-route unloading point, railroad unloading station, or branch house, located in Price Zone 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, or 10, to the place of business of a seller at retail, wholesaler (not owned or controlled by the shipper or consignor), hotel supply house (not owned or controlled by the shipper or consignor), or commercial user, or the designated delivery point of a war procurement agency, or other government agency, located more than 25 miles from such shipping point; or

For local delivery made from the place of business of a wholesaler or hotel supply house located in Price Zone 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, or 10, to the place of business of a seller at retail, purveyor of meals or commercial user, or the designated delivery point of a war procurement agency or other government agency, located more than 25 miles from such shipping point: the seller may add the actual cost of local delivery computed at the lowest common carrier rate for the method of delivery used, but in no event more than 50¢ per cwt.

(6) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of paragraph (a) (1) to (a) (5), inclusive, of this § 1364.454, nothing therein contained shall be construed to permit a total charge for transportation and/or local delivery from the point at which the meat was slaughtered to the place of business or receiving point of a retail seller, purveyor of meals, war procurement agency, other government agency or commercial user of more than 50¢ per cwt. in Price Zone 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, or 10, or 75¢ per cwt. in Price Zone 3 or 4. The transportation and local delivery additions permitted in this paragraph (a) are on a hundredweight basis, and the charge for transportation and/or local delivery for any fraction of a hundredweight shall be reduced accordingly. The additions specified in this paragraph (a) for transportation and/or local delivery may be charged: Provided, That the seller shall itemize separately on an invoice to the buyer the amount charged the buyer for transportation and/or local delivery, except that if such separate statement of transportation charges is prohibited by local law, the seller shall maintain in his own record of the transaction a separate statement of any addition for transportation or local delivery which is included in the maximum price charged.

(b) For kosher beef wholesale cuts. The applicable zone price established for kosher beef wholesale cuts (which includes the additions permitted) shall apply only on sales of kosher beef as such to buyers of kosher meat and no seller shall sell or deliver any kosher beef wholesale cut and no buyer shall buy or receive any kosher beef wholesale cut at the price established therefor or at a price higher than established for the corresponding non-kosher wholesale cut in § 1364.452 (Schedule I), unless the buyer of such wholesale cut is a bona fide buyer of kosher meat. For the sale of any kosher beef wholesale cut to a buyer other than a bona fide buyer of kosher meat the maximum price shall be determined by use of the applicable zone price established for the corresponding non-kosher wholesale cut, and the seller shall remove all stamps and designations which identify the wholesale cut as kosher. Any beef carcass or wholesale cut which has been derived from cattle slaughtered in the manner of kosher slaughter but rejected as non-kosher shall not be sold, unless all stamps and designations which identify the carcass or wholesale cut as kosher have been removed.

(c) For kosher wholesale cuts derived from cattle slaughtered in a limited area of Zone 9. (1) For any grade of kosher beef triangle or kosher beef wholesale cut or cuts obtained from the kosher triangle, except the grades utility, cutter or canner, which cuts are derived from steers or heifers slaughtered in that portion of Zone 9 north of the Potomac River and which clearly bear the abattoir stamp at the time of sale, the seller may add $1.50 per cwt. to the applicable Zone 9 price: Provided, That such wholesale cut shall be sold to a bona fide buyer of kosher meat located in that portion of Zone 9 north of the Potomac River. In the case of kosher forequarters derived from steers, heifers or bulls slaughtered in the same area and sold under the same conditions, the seller may add $1.20 per cwt. to the applicable Zone 9 price.

(2) [Revoked by Amendment 4, issued March 30 and effective April 3, 1943]

(3) The provisions of paragraph (b) of this section governing the sale of kosher wholesale cuts shall apply to sales made pursuant to this paragraph (c). No addition permitted by this paragraph (c) shall be added for the sale of any kosher wholesale cut which does not bear the abattoir's stamp clearly legible. No slaughterer shall charge the addition for kosher beef slaughtered in the limited areas of Price Zone 9 described in subparagraphs (1) or (2) hereof, until he shall have filed the report required in paragraph (d) of § 1364.407 of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169.

(d) Wholesaler's and independent hotel supply house's selling addition. On sales of any beef carcass or beef wholesale cut not obtained through custom slaughtering, a wholesaler or independent hotel supply house may add 25¢ per cwt. to the applicable zone price.

(e) Packaging for war procurement agencies. On sales of beef carcasses and beef wholesale cuts to a war procurement agency, the seller may add for packaging or wrapping, and freezing, (U. S. Government specifications) ..... 50¢ per cwt.

(f) Boxing. On sales to a seller at retail, purveyor of meals, war procurement agency, commercial user (not wholesaler, branch house, hotel supply house, etc.), war procurement agency, or other government agency, the seller may add 15¢ per cwt. for packing in boxes.

(g) Peddler-truck selling addition. On a peddler truck sale involving delivery of not more than 100 pounds of beef in a total delivery of not more than 150 pounds of meats and meat products in any one day from such peddler-truck to any buyer's store door, a peddler may add to the prices specified in § 1364.452 (Schedule I) the sum of $1.25 per cwt. This addition shall be in lieu of any local delivery and/or transportation addition permitted in § 1364.454.

[Paragraph (c) (1) amended, (c) (2) revoked, (g) added by Amendment 4, issued March 30, and effective April 3, 1943]

§ 1364.455 Definitions applicable to beef. (a) When used in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 and when applicable to beef, the term:

(1) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association or other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any agency of any of the foregoing: Provided, That no punishment provided by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 shall apply to the United States or to any such government, political subdivision, or agency.

(2) "Carload" means:

(i) A shipment by rail of fresh or frozen wholesale meat cuts, and/or cured meat cuts, meat or processed products and/or carcasses, or any combination of the foregoing to a single delivery point, of at least the minimum weight upon which the railroad carload rate from the point of shipment to the delivery point, as evidenced by the tariffs of railroad carriers, is based: Provided, That where the transportation charge for shipment of a lesser weight at the railroad carload rate would be lower than the transportation charge for such a shipment at the railroad less-than-carload rate, such lesser weight shall be considered a carload;

(ii) A shipment by motor truck or trucks to a single delivery point of 15,000 pounds or more of fresh or frozen wholesale meat cuts and/or cured meat cuts, meat or processed products and/or carcasses, or any combination of the foregoing, as a single bulk sale transaction; and

(iii) Any single bulk sale transaction wherein the buyer takes delivery at the seller's place of business of 15,000 pounds or more of fresh or frozen wholesale meat cuts and/or cured meat cuts, meat or processed products and/or carcasses, or any combination of the foregoing.

(3) "Beef" means meat derived from the carcasses of bovine animals which does not qualify as veal as defined in § 1364.470 (3) of this regulation.

(4) "Car route unloading point" means any point on a car route at which a stop is made for the purpose of transferring meat to the possession of the buyer or to a truck for local delivery to the buyer.

(5) "Distribution point" includes a packing or slaughtering plant, packer's branch house, wholesaler's or jobber's or hotel supply house's warehouse, car route unloading point, or railroad unloading station.

(6) "Local delivery" means delivery by the seller otherwise than by rail, commencing at the seller's distribution point, or in the case of car routes, at the car unloading point and continuing to the buyer's place of business or other point of delivery.

(7) "Price Zone 1 to 10, inclusive" means the geographical areas described in § 1364.452.

(8) "Beef carcass" means and is limited to the dressed carcass, side, or sides of beef, which shall be dressed with the 1st and 2nd tail (caudal) vertebrae, kidney knob or knobs and hanging tender left on. The beef carcass shall not be broken in any other manner than provided in paragraph (a) (9) of this § 1364.455.

(9) "Beef wholesale cut" means and is limited to any of the following cuts meeting the following minimum specifications, derived from the beef carcass, but excluding the offal and any item not included herein. (All measurements prescribed herein shall be made with a rigid straight ruler. All cuts shall be made according to the definite guides and measurements specified. Ribs are designated as 1st to 13th, inclusive, counting as the 1st rib that one which is nearest the neck end of the side.)

(i) "Hindquarter" means the posterior portion of the side remaining after the severance of the 12-rib forequarter from the side, and comprising the round, full loin including the 13th rib, flank, kidney and hanging tender all in one piece, which posterior portion shall be obtained by cutting the beef side between the 12th and 13th ribs keeping the knife firmly against the 12th rib while cutting down the length of the rib to the point at the end of the rib where the rib joins the rib (costal) cartilage, from which point passing through the cartilage and meat of the flank and short plate in the same straight line, completing the cut.

(ii) "Forequarter" means the anterior portion of the side remaining after the severance of the 1-rib hindquarter from the side, and comprising the rib, regular chuck, brisket, short plate and foreshank all in one piece, which anterior portion contains the 1st to the 12th rib, inclusive. All heart (mediastinal) fat, but no other fat, shall be removed from the forequarter. The skirt (diaphragm) shall not be removed from any cut or part of the forequarter to which it is attached.

(iii) "Round" means the portion of the hindquarter remaining after the severance of the untrimmed full loin, and flank from the hindquarter, which portion shall be obtained as follows: the untrimmed full loin and flank shall be severed from the hindquarter by cutting in a straight line perpendicular to the contour of the outside or skin surface of the hindquarter. The cut shall be made on a straight line formed by and starting from that point on the backbone which is the juncture of the last (5th) sacral vertebra and the first (1st) tail (caudal) vertebra, and passing through that point which just misses the end of the protuberance of the femur bone and exposes the ball of the femur bone, continuing in the same straight line beyond the second point to complete the cut. Two tail vertebrae shall be left on the round. Attached to the tail bone of the round shall be the tip or rear corner of the fifth sacral vertebra. All cod, udder and pelvic fat remaining on the round after its severance from the full loin and flank shall remain on the round.

(iv) "Trimmed full loin" means the portion of the hindquarter remaining after the severance of the round, flank, hanging tender (from the open side), kidney knob and excess loin (lumbar) and pelvic (sacral) fat from the inside of the loin, from the hindquarter, and comprising the short loin and sirloin (loin end) in one piece, the back bone of which portion shall include one and one-half (1½) thoracic vertebrae, six (6) lumbar vertebrae, and five (5) sacral vertebrae (the tip or rear corner of the fifth sacral vertebra shall have been sawed off in severing the round from the full loin and flank), and which portion shall be obtained as follows: Part of the kidney knob, all of the kidney and the fat lying closely around the kidney in open (left) and closed (right) sides shall be removed first by a cut starting at the rear end of the kidney and slanting directly to the front edge of the half of the 12th thoracic vertebra at the point of severance of the hindquarter and forequarter.

Second, the hanging tender, which means the cylindrical shaped piece of lean meat attached at one end under the kidney knob in open (left) side hindquarters shall be removed entirely from open side loins by being severed at a point opposite the juncture of the 1st and 2nd lumbar vertebrae.

Third, after the severance of the round from the hindquarter, the flank shall be severed from the full loin by a cut starting at the heavy end of the full loin at the ventral point of severance of the round from the hindquarter and continuing in a straight line to a fixed point on the inside of the 13th rib determined by measuring off ten inches in a straight line from the center of the protruding edge of the 13th thoracic vertebra, but in making the cut no more than one (1) inch of cod or udder fat shall be left on the flank side of the face of the loin.

NOTE: The 10-inch measurement shall be made from the center of the protruding edge of the 13th thoracic vertebra and not from the hollow of the chine bone where the 13th rib joins the 13th thoracic vertebra.

Fourth, the excess loin (lumbar) and pelvic (sacral) fat shall be trimmed from the inside of the full loin by placing the full loin upon a flat surface, with no other support to change its position, meat side down, and removing all fat which extends above a flat plane parallel with the flat surface supporting the full loin and on a level with the full length of the protruding edge of the lumbar section of the chine bone. Then all fat shall be removed which extends above a flat plane using the following two lines as guides for each edge of the plane: an imaginary line parallel with the full length of the protruding edge of the lumbar section of the chine bone which line extends 1 inch directly above such protruding edge; a line on the inside of the loin two inches from the flank edge and running parallel with such edge for the full length of the loin. All fat obstructing the measurement of the second line shall first be removed. In addition to the foregoing all rough fat in the pelvic cavity of the heavy end of the loin (sirloin) shall be trimmed smooth and trimming by a knife shall be apparent. No fat remaining in the pelvic cavity shall exceed one inch in depth.

(v) "Flank" means the portion of the hindquarter remaining after the severance of the round and untrimmed full loin from the hindquarter, which shall be obtained after the removal of the round by separation from the untrimmed full loin, starting the cut at the point at the lower end of the loin end (sirloin) which was the ventral point of separation of the full loin and round, leaving no more than one inch of cod or udder fat attached to the flank side of the face of the full loin, and continuing in a straight line to a fixed point on the inside of the 13th rib determined by measuring off ten inches in a straight line along the 13th rib from the center of the protruding edge of the 13th thoracic vertebra.

NOTE: The 10-in. measurement shall be made from the center of the protruding edge of the 13th thoracic vertebra and not from the hollow of the chine bone where the 13th rib joins the 13th thoracic vertebra.

(vi) "Flank steak" means the flat, oval-shaped lean muscle of meat imbedded in the cod or udder end of the flank which shall be obtained by loosening the narrow end of the steak piece at the cod or udder end of the flank, cutting through the membrane along both sides of the steak, then pulling and cutting the steak loose and severing it from the thick membrane which lies directly under and to which it is attached. None of the thick membrane shall be left on the steak. All fat shall be trimmed from the steak, but the thin membrane on the top surface of the steak shall not be removed.

(vii) "Short loin" means that portion of the trimmed full loin remaining after the severance of the sirloin (loin end) from the trimmed full loin, which portion shall be obtained by a cut perpendicular to the contour of the outside or skin surface of the trimmed full loin begun at a point which is the juncture on the chine bone of the 5th and 6th lumbar vertebrae and continuing in a straight line perpendicular to the contour of the outside or skin surface of the trimmed full loin to and through a point flush against the end of the hip (pin) bone, but leaving no part of the hip (pin) bone in the short loin. The backbone of the short loin shall include five (5) lumbar vertebrae, one and one-half (1½) thoracic vertebrae and part of the 13th rib.

(viii) "Sirloin" (loin end) means the thick portion of the trimmed full loin remaining after the severance of the short loin from the trimmed full loin. The backbone of the sirloin shall include one (1) lumbar vertebra, five (5) sacral vertebrae (the tip or rear corner of the fifth (5th) sacral vertebra shall have been sawed off in separating the round from the trimmed full loin and flank), and the entire hip bone (ilium).

(ix) "Cross cut chuck" (kosher or trefer) means the portion of the forequarter remaining after the severance of the rib and short plate from the forequarter, and comprising the regular chuck, brisket and foreshank all in one piece, which portion shall be obtained by cutting through the forequarter in a straight line between the 5th and 6th ribs, keeping the knife firmly against the 5th rib while cutting to the point where the 5th rib joins the rib (costal) cartilage, at which point the cut shall continue in the same straight line through the cartilage, the breast bone (sternum) and the meat of the brisket and short plate to complete the severance. The cross cut chuck shall contain five (5) ribs (1st to 5th, inclusive).

(x) "Regular chuck" means the portion of the cross cut chuck remaining after the severance of the foreshank and brisket from the cross cut chuck, and containing most of the blade bone (scapula), part of the (humerus) arm bone, parts of the five ribs (1st to 5th, inclusive), that section of the back bone attached to the ribs, and the neck bone (cervical vertebrae from 1 to 7, inclusive), which portion shall be obtained by a cut through the cross cut chuck made in a straight line perpendicular to the contour of the outside or skin surface of the cross cut chuck (thereby separating the brisket and foreshank from the cross cut chuck) starting at a fixed point on the inside of the 5th rib determined by measuring off ten (10) inches along the 5th rib in a straight line from the center of the protruding edge of the 5th thoracic vertebra, continuing in the same straight line to the tip of the forward end of the breast bone (forward end of 1st segment of sternum), and passing through the (humerus) arm bone in the same straight line to complete the cut.

NOTE: The 10-inch measurement shall be made from the center of the protruding edge of the 5th thoracic vertebra and not from the hollow of the chine bone where the 5th rib joins the 5th thoracic vertebra.

(xi) "Foreshank" means the portion of the cross cut chuck remaining after the severance of the regular chuck and brisket from the cross cut chuck, which portion shall be obtained (after separation of the regular chuck) by separation from the brisket by a cut following the natural seam and leaving the entire lip, or web muscle on the brisket.

(xii) "Brisket" means the portion of the cross cut chuck remaining after the severance of the regular chuck and foreshank from the cross cut chuck, which portion contains parts of four ribs (2nd to 5th, inclusive), part of the breast bone and the rib (costal) cartilages which connect the ends of the rib bones with the breast bone. All heart (mediastinal) fat, but no other fat shall be removed from the brisket.

(xiii) "Rib" means the portion of the forequarter remaining after the severance of the cross cut chuck and short plate from the forequarter, and containing parts of seven ribs (6th to 12th, inclusive), that section of the back bone attached to the ribs, posterior tip and cartilage of the blade bone (scapula), part of the blade bone (scapula) which portion shall be obtained (by separation from the short plate) by a straight cut across the ribs starting at a fixed point determined by measuring off 10 inches on the inside of the 12th rib along the 12th rib from the center of the inside protruding edge of the 12th thoracic vertebra and continuing to and through a fixed point determined by measuring off 10 inches on the inside of the 6th rib along the 6th rib from the center of the inside protruding edge of the 6th thoracic vertebra.

NOTE: The 10-inch measurements shall be made from the centers of the protruding edges of the 6th and 12th thoracic vertebrae, and not from the hollow of the chine.

(xiv) "Short plate" means the portion of the forequarter remaining after the severance of the cross cut chuck and the rib from the forequarter, and containing parts of seven ribs (6th to 12th, inclusive), the rib (costal) cartilages attached to them, and part of the breastbone.

(xv) "Back" means the portion of the forequarter remaining after the severance of the short plate, brisket and foreshank from the forequarter, and containing the rib and regular chuck all in one piece, which portion shall be obtained by a cut made in a straight line starting at a fixed point determined by measuring off 10 inches on the inside of the 12th rib along the 12th rib from the center of the inside protruding edge of the 12th thoracic vertebra and continuing to and through a fixed point at the tip of the forward end of the breastbone (forward end of 1st segment of sternum) through the (humerus) arm bone in the same straight line to complete the cut.

NOTE: Measurements shall be made from the center of the protruding edge of the 12th thoracic vertebra, and not from the hollow of the chine.

(xvi) "Triangle" (kosher or trefer) means the portion of the forequarter remaining after the severance of the rib from the forequarter, and containing the short plate, brisket, foreshank and regular chuck all in one piece, which portion shall be obtained by removing the rib from the forequarter by a straight cut across the ribs starting at a fixed point determined by measuring off 10 inches on the inside of the 12th rib along the 12th rib from the center of the inside of the protruding edge of the 12th thoracic vertebra and continuing to a fixed point determined by measuring off 10 inches on the inside of the 6th rib along the 6th rib from the center of the inside protruding edge of the 6th thoracic vertebra, and severing the rib from the forequarter by a second cut made in a straight line between the 5th and 6th ribs keeping the knife firmly against the 5th rib to the point where the second cut meets the end of the first cut.

NOTE: Measurements shall be from the center of the protruding edge of the 12th and 6th thoracic vertebra, and not from the hollow of the chine.

(xvii) "Arm chuck" means the portion of the cross cut chuck remaining after the severance of the brisket from the cross cut chuck and containing the regular chuck and foreshank all in one piece.

(10) "Kosher beef wholesale cut" means any beef wholesale cut derived from cattle or calves slaughtered, approved and stamped as kosher under rabbinical supervision, and sold under rabbinical supervision.

(11) "Buyer of kosher meat" means a person who maintains a selling establishment at or through which he regularly and generally sells kosher meat as such, or a person who is a purveyor of kosher meals.

(12) "War procurement agency" includes the War Department, the Department of the Navy, the United States Maritime Commission, the Lend-Lease Section of the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, the Marine Corps, the Coast Guard, the War Shipping Administration, or any agency of the foregoing.

(13) "Hotel supply house" means a seller of beef, veal or processed products who as an established practice handles and bones, trims, cuts or otherwise fabricates beef and or veal for sale to hotels, restaurants or other purveyors of meals.

(14) "Wholesaler" means a person other than a hotel supply house or peddler-truck seller who buys beef carcasses and or beef wholesale cuts for resale other than at retail and who does not own or control, in whole or in substantial part, any slaughtering plant or facilities, and who is not owned or controlled, in whole or in substantial part, by another person who owns or controls in substantial part any slaughtering plant or facilities.

(15) "Independent hotel supply house" means a hotel supply house which buys beef for resale to hotels, restaurants, and other purveyors of meals and which does not own or control, in whole or in substantial part, any slaughtering plant or facilities, and which is not controlled in whole or in substantial part, by any other person who owns or controls in substantial part any slaughtering plant or facilities.

(16) "Sales at retail" means sales to the ultimate consumer: Provided, That no wholesaler, processor, packer, slaughterer, branch house, car route, hotel supply house, purchaser for resale, commercial user, purveyor of meals, war procurement agency, or other government agency shall be deemed to be an ultimate consumer, except that a sale to a purveyor of meals on usual retail terms by a retailer at least 80% of whose sales of meat during the preceding calendar month were made to ultimate consumers shall be deemed a sale at retail.

(17) "Peddler-truck sale" means a sale of beef from a truck by a person who purchases beef at or below the maximum price from a seller with whom he has no other financial affiliations or relationship, who takes a delivery at the seller's place of business, and who does not sell or deal in meat in any manner other than sales out of stock carried in a truck, owned and driven by him: Provided, That the first record of the transaction is made by the salesman concurrently with the delivery of the products sold.

[Paragraphs (a) (3), (13), (14) amended (17) added, by Amendment 4, issued March 30, effective April 3, 1943]

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.

SUBPART C—PROVISIONS AFFECTING VEAL

[NOTE: Title of Subpart C amended and §§ 1364.466 to 1364.470 added by Amendment 4, issued March 30, effective April 3, 1943]

§ 1364.466 Maximum prices for veal carcasses and wholesale cuts. Subject to the pricing instructions contained in paragraph (a), the maximum price of each grade of each veal carcass or veal wholesale cut shall be the maximum price determined as provided in paragraph (b).

(a) Pricing instructions. (1) Whenever used in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169, the term "lower price zone" means a price zone having a lower zone price, and the term "higher price zone" means a price zone having a higher zone price; the words "lower" and "higher" used in the respective terms shall not be construed to refer to the numerical designation of any zone.

(2) Except for the additions permitted in Schedule VI hereof, incorporated herein as § 1364.469, the zone price shall be the delivered price anywhere within the zone to which such price applies. Schedule IV (paragraphs (a) to (j), inclusive) hereof, incorporated herein as § 1364.467, contains a statement describing the geographical limits of each price zone and the zone prices established therefor.

(3) The applicable zone price shall be the price specified in Schedule IV § 1364.467, for the zone in which is located the seller's distribution point:

(i) At which the buyer takes actual physical possession of the meat; or

(ii) From which local delivery to the buyer's place of business begins; or

(iii) From which the meat, consigned to the buyer, (a') is delivered to a common carrier, other than a railroad, for shipment to the buyer, who pays the shipping charges directly to the carrier, or (b') is delivered to a railroad for shipment at the carload rate to the buyer who pays the shipping charges directly to the carrier.

(iv) In the case of a less than carload rail shipment, other than an express shipment to a purveyor of meals, the applicable zone price shall be the price for the zone in which is located the rail unloading station nearest to the buyer's place of business.

(v) On sales to purveyors of meals the distribution point may be, in addition to those listed, the point at which meat consigned to the buyer is delivered by a railway express agency for shipment by express to the buyer who pays the shipping charges directly to the carrier.

(4) Except as permitted in paragraph (l), (m) or (n), of Schedule IV § 1364.467, regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver any veal or any part or portion of any veal carcass, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any veal or any part or portion of any veal carcass unless such veal or part or portion is a veal carcass or a veal wholesale cut as defined in § 1364.470 for which applicable prices have been established.

(b) Maximum price. The maximum price for each grade of each veal carcass or veal wholesale cut shall be the applicable zone price determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of this § 1364.466 and specified in Schedule IV incorporated herein as § 1364.467, minus the required deductions, if any, specified in Schedule V incorporated herein as § 1364.468, plus the permitted additions, if any, specified in Schedule VI incorporated herein as § 1364.469.

§ 1364.467 Schedule IV: Veal price zones and applicable zone prices—(a) Zone 1. (1) Zone 1 includes the area designated as Zone 1 in § 1364.452 (a) (1) and is incorporated herein by reference.

(2) Veal carcass and veal wholesale cut prices applicable in Zone 1. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (k) of this section, the Zone 1 price for each grade of veal carcass and veal wholesale cut shall be the price specified therefor in paragraph (d) hereof (the applicable Zone 4 price) plus $2.50 per cwt.

(b) Zone 2. (1) Zone 2 includes the area designated as Zone 2 in § 1364.452 (b) (1) and is incorporated herein by reference.

(2) Veal carcass and veal wholesale cut prices applicable in Zone 2. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (k) of this section, the Zone 2 price for each grade of veal carcass and veal wholesale cut shall be the price specified therefor in paragraph (d) hereof (the applicable Zone 4 price) plus $1.50 per cwt.

(c) Zone 3. (1) Zone 3 includes the area designated as Zone 3 in § 1364.452 (c) (1) and is incorporated herein by reference.

(2) Veal carcass and veal wholesale cut prices applicable in Zone 3. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (k) of this section, the Zone 3 price for each grade of veal carcass and veal wholesale cut shall be the price specified therefor in paragraph (d) hereof (the applicable Zone 4 price) plus $.75 per cwt.

(d) Zone 4. (1) Zone 4 includes the area designated as Zone 4 in § 1364.452 (d) (1) and is incorporated herein by reference.

(2) Veal carcass and veal wholesale cut prices applicable in Zone 4. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (k) of this section, the applicable zone prices for Zone 4 are as follows:

	Grade
	Choice or AA	Good or A	Commercial or B	Utility or C	Cull or D
1. Carcass—hide on—57 lbs. to 170 lbs.	21 50	20 50	18 25	17 00	14 75
2. Carcass—hide on—over 170 lbs. to 375 lbs.	22 00	20 00	18 25	16 50	14 25
3. Carcass—hide on—under 57 lbs.	19 75	20 00	18 25	16 50	14 25
4. Carcass or side—hide off—50 lbs. to 375 lbs.	22 00	21 00	19 00	17 00	14 50
5. Carcass or side—hide off—under 50 lbs.	22 00	20 00	18 00	16 00	13 50
6. Foresaddle or forequarter[1]	19 50	19 00	17 75	16 25	13 00
7. Kosher foresaddle or forequarter[1]	20 00	19 50	18 25	16 75	13 50
8. Hindsaddle or hindquarter[1]	24 75	23 25	20 50	18 00	16 25
9. Leg, double or single[1]	21 75	20 75	18 50	17 75	14 75
10. Loin or leg[1]	25 75	24 00	21 25	18 75	17 00

[1] To be sold only from veal carcasses weighing 50 to 375 pounds hide off.
[2] These prices are further subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of Schedule VI (§ 1364.469).

NOTE: All prices are on dollars per hundredweight basis; the price for any fraction of a hundredweight shall be computed accordingly. Weight limitations apply to entire carcass and not to sides.

The applicable zone price of each veal carcass or veal wholesale cut which does not bear a grade stamp (required by paragraph (c) of § 1364.411) when offered for sale, sold or delivered shall be the price of the lowest-priced carcass or corresponding wholesale cut.

The applicable zone price of each kosher veal foresaddle or forequarter which does not bear a grade stamp (required by paragraph (c) of § 1364.411) when offered for sale, sold or delivered shall be the price of the lowest priced kosher wholesale cut.

(e) Zone 5. (1) Zone 5 includes the area designated as Zone 5 in § 1364.452 (e) (1) and is incorporated herein by reference.

(2) Veal carcass and veal wholesale cut prices applicable in Zone 5. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (k) of this section, the Zone 5 price for each grade of veal carcass and veal wholesale cut shall be the price specified therefor in paragraph (d) hereof (the applicable Zone 4 price) plus 50 cents per cwt.

(f) Zone 6. (1) Zone 6 includes the area designated as Zone 6 in § 1364.452 (f) (1) and is incorporated herein by reference.

(2) Veal carcass and veal wholesale cut prices applicable in Zone 6. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (k) of this section, the Zone 6 price for each grade of veal carcass and veal wholesale cut shall be the price specified therefor in paragraph (d) hereof (the applicable Zone 4 price) plus 75 cents per cwt.

(g) Zone 7. (1) Zone 7 includes the area designated as Zone 7 in § 1364.452 (g) (1) and is incorporated herein by reference.

(2) Veal carcass and veal wholesale cut prices applicable in Zone 7. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (k) of this section, the Zone 7 price for each grade of veal carcass and wholesale cut shall be the price specified therefor in paragraph (d) hereof (applicable Zone 4 price) plus $1.00 per cwt.

(h) Zone 8. (1) Zone 8 includes the area designated as Zone 8 in § 1364.452 (h) (1) and is incorporated herein by reference.

(2) Veal carcass and veal wholesale cut prices applicable in Zone 8. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (k) of this section, the Zone 8 price for each grade of veal carcass and veal wholesale cut shall be the price specified therefor in paragraph (d) hereof (the applicable Zone 4 price) plus $1.25 per cwt.

(i) Zone 9. (1) Zone 9 includes the area designated as Zone 9 in § 1364.452 (i) (1) and is incorporated herein by reference.

(2) Veal carcass and veal wholesale cut prices applicable in Zone 9. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (k) of this section, the Zone 9 price for each grade of veal carcass and veal wholesale cut shall be the price specified therefor in paragraph (d) hereof (the applicable Zone 4 price) plus $1.50 per cwt.

(j) Zone 10. Zone 10 includes the area designated as Zone 10 in § 1364.452 (j) (1) and is incorporated herein by reference.

(2) Veal carcass and veal wholesale cut prices applicable in Zone 10. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (k) of this section, the Zone 10 price for each grade of veal carcass and veal wholesale cut shall be the price specified therefor in paragraph (d) hereof (the applicable Zone 4 price) plus $1.75 per cwt.

(k) Applicable zone price of miscuts. For any veal wholesale cut which has been miscut or for any piece or portion of veal which has been cut in a manner not authorized by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169, the zone price used for the determination of the maximum price shall be the applicable zone price of the lowest-priced wholesale cut.

(l) Frozen boneless veal (Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation Specifications). (1) On or after April 3, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver frozen boneless veal (F. S. C. C. Specifications) to any purchasing agency of a war procurement agency at a price higher than the maximum price permitted therefor in paragraph (1) (2) of this section.

(2) The maximum f. o. b. boning plant price for frozen boneless veal (F. S. C. C. Specifications), including cost of boxing and freezing, in each of the following price zones shall be:

Price zone:	Zone price per cwt.
1.	$26 25
2.	25 25
3.	24 50
4.	23 75
5.	24 25
6.	24 50
7.	24 75
8.	25 00
9.	25 25
10.	25 50

(3) Frozen boneless veal (F. S. C. C. Specifications) as used in this paragraph means veal derived from veal carcasses of the cull grade, and satisfying the specifications and requirements of Item 69–a of Schedule FSC–10 (as amended) of the Food Distribution Administration, issued December 2, 1942.

(m) Boneless and miscellaneous veal cuts. (1) On or after April 3, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver any boneless or miscellaneous veal cut and no person shall buy or receive any boneless or miscellaneous veal cut at a price higher than the maximum price permitted therefor in paragraph (m) (2) of this section.

(2) The maximum price for each boneless or miscellaneous veal cut, not including boxing, in each price zone shall be:

Items	Zone 1	Zone 2	Zone 3	Zone 4	Zone 5	Zone 6	Zone 7	Zone 8	Zone 9	Zone 10
1. Boneless veal leg or round	28.25	27.25	26.50	25.75	26.25	26.50	26.75	27.00	27.25	27.50
2. Boneless veal sirloin strip	28.00	27.00	26.25	25.50	26.00	26.25	26.50	26.75	27.00	27.25
3. Veal tenderloin	28.00	27.00	26.25	25.50	26.00	26.25	26.50	26.75	27.00	27.25
4. Boneless veal regular (rib) roll	27.75	26.75	26.00	25.25	25.75	26.00	26.25	26.50	26.75	27.00
5. Boneless veal shoulder clod	27.25	26.25	25.50	24.75	25.25	25.50	25.75	26.00	26.25	26.50
6. Boneless veal shoulder clod, rolled and tied veal roll	26.00	25.00	24.25	23.50	24.00	24.25	24.50	24.75	25.00	25.25
7. Boneless veal trimmings	24.50	23.50	22.75	22.00	22.50	22.75	23.00	23.25	23.50	23.75
8. Boneless kosher veal forequarter (Note 1)	25.00	24.00	23.25	22.50	23.00	23.25	23.50	23.75	24.00	24.25
9. Veal neckbones	7.50	6.50	5.75	5.00	5.50	5.75	6.00	6.25	6.50	6.75

All prices are on dollars per hundredweight basis; the price for any fraction of a hundredweight shall be reduced accordingly.

All prices are fresh or frozen, unless purchased by a war procurement agency in which case freezing charge may be added if product is frozen.

NOTE 1: The prices established for the sale of boneless kosher veal forequarter shall apply only on sales to a bonafide buyer of kosher meat. For the sale of any boneless kosher veal forequarter to a buyer other than a buyer of kosher meat, the maximum price shall be determined by use of the applicable zone price established for boneless veal trimmings. Any veal carcass or wholesale cut which has been derived from calves slaughtered in the manner of kosher slaughter but rejected as non-kosher shall not be sold, unless all stamps and designations which identify the carcass or wholesale cut as kosher have been removed.

(n) Applicable zone prices for fabricated veal cuts sold by hotel supply houses.

(1) Subject to the pricing instructions contained in paragraph (a) of § 1364.456, the maximum price for each grade of each fabricated veal cut shall be the applicable zone price determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (n) (2) of this § 1364.467 minus the required deductions, if any, specified in Schedule V, § 1364.469, substituting for the purposes of this paragraph (n) the term "fabricated veal cut" whenever the words "wholesale cut" or "wholesale cuts" are used in paragraphs (b) and (c) of said Schedule V, plus the permitted additions, if any, specified in Schedule VI (§ 1364.469, substituting for the purposes of this paragraph (n) the term "fabricated veal cut" whenever the words "wholesale cut" or "wholesale cuts" are used in said Schedule VI, except in paragraph (d) of said Schedule VI.)

(2) The applicable zone price for each grade of each fabricated veal cut sold by a hotel supply house to a purveyor of meals, war procurement agency or other government agency shall be determined as follows:

(i) Each individual hotel supply house shall fix a price for each such fabricated cut on the basis of the relationship which prevailed during the month of November 1942, between the price received by such hotel supply house for such fabricated cut and the prices received by it for the other fabricated cuts derived from the veal wholesale cut of the same grade; Provided, That no packing or slaughtering plant, packing branch house, wholesaler or other distributor shall sell fabricated cuts unless regularly engaged in such practice during November 1942.

(ii) In the event that the total gross proceeds obtainable through sales at the prices so fixed of all fabricated cuts derived from such veal wholesale cut and sales at the maximum prices of all bones, fat, waste, trimmings and or processed products obtained in making such fabricated cuts exceeds 120% of the applicable zone price for the veal wholesale cut, the hotel supply house shall adjust downward the prices of such cuts to remove the excess. In making such adjustments, the seller shall not change the relationship of such prices as established pursuant to paragraph (n) (2) (i). The price so fixed and adjusted shall be the applicable zone price for the fabricated veal cut.

(3) "Fabricated veal cut" as used in this paragraph (n) means any part or portion of a veal wholesale cut (i. e. roasts, steaks, chops, cutlets and stewing meat) made for a purveyor of meals, which part or portion is obtained by boning or sawing or otherwise cutting through the bones of the veal wholesale cut so as to prepare these fabricated cuts for cooking without further cutting or trimming. Veal wholesale cuts which have been trimmed and from which at least 25% of the bone has been removed, to facilitate cutting into roasts, steaks, cutlets or chops by a purveyor of meals, shall also be considered fabricated veal cuts.

§ 1364.468 Schedule V: Amounts which must be deducted from zone prices listed in Schedule IV. As hereinafter provided, the following shall be deducted from the applicable zone prices:

(a) For veal carcasses and veal wholesale cuts not graded by an official grader. For the sale of any veal carcass or veal wholesale cut which does not bear the grade mark and identification of an official grader of the United States Department of Agriculture at the time of sale, the seller shall deduct 12½ cents per cwt. from the applicable zone price.

(b) Carload discount. For all veal carcasses and or veal wholesale cuts, and or other meat items subject to this Subpart C delivered in a straight or mixed carload shipment or sold as part of a straight or mixed carload sale, the seller shall deduct 75 cents per cwt. from the applicable zone price.

(c) Wholesaler's quantity discount. For veal carcasses and or veal wholesale cuts sold to a wholesaler in a straight or mixed less-than-carload sale, the seller shall deduct 50 cents per cwt. from the applicable zone price.

§ 1364.469 Schedule VI: Amounts which may be added to zone prices listed in Schedule IV. Subject to the conditions hereinafter provided, the following may be added to the applicable zone price:

(a) For transportation and/or local delivery. (1) For transportation from the point at which the calf or calves were slaughtered in Price Zone 4 to a distribution point located in this price zone, other than another slaughter, packing or processing plant owned or controlled by the same seller, the seller may add the actual cost of transportation computed at the lowest common carrier rate for the method of transportation used, but in no event more than 50 cents per cwt.

(2) For transportation from the point at which the calf or calves were slaughtered in Price Zone 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, or 10 to a distribution point located in the same price zone as the slaughter point, other than another slaughter, packing or processing plant owned or controlled by the same seller, the seller may add the actual cost of transportation computed at the lowest common carrier rate for the method of transportation used, but in no event more than 25 cents per cwt.

(3) For local delivery made within a radius of 25 miles from a slaughter plant, packing house, car-route unloading point, railroad unloading station or branch house, to the place of business of a seller at retail, wholesaler (not owned or controlled by the shipper or consignor), hotel supply house (not owned or controlled by the shipper or consignor), or commercial user, or the designated delivery point of a war procurement agency, or other government agency; or

For local delivery made within a radius of 25 miles from the place of business of a wholesaler or hotel supply house, to the place of business of a seller at retail, purveyor of meals, or commercial user, or the designated delivery point of a war procurement agency, or other government agency: the seller may add 25 cents per cwt.

(4) For local delivery made from a slaughter plant, packing house, carroute unloading point, railroad unloading station or branch house, located in Price Zone 4 to the place of business of a seller at retail, wholesaler (not owned or controlled by the shipper or consignor), hotel supply house (not owned or controlled by the shipper or consignor), or commercial user, or the designated delivery point of a war procurement agency, or other government agency, located more than 25 miles from such shipping point; or

For local delivery made from the place of business of a wholesaler or hotel supply house located in Price Zone 4 to the place of business of a seller at retail, purveyor of meals, or commercial user, or the designated delivery point of a war procurement agency, or other government agency, located more than 25 miles from such shipping point; the seller may add the actual cost of local delivery computed at the lowest common carrier rate for the method of delivery used, but in no event more than 75 cents per cwt.

(5) For local delivery made from a slaughter plant, packing house, car route unloading point, railroad unloading station, or branch house, located in Price Zone 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, or 10, to the place of business of a seller at retail, wholesaler (not owned or controlled by the shipper or consignor), hotel supply house (not owned or controlled by the shipper or consignor), or commercial user, or the designated delivery point of a war procurement agency, or other government agency, located more than 25 miles from such shipping point; or

For local delivery made from the place of business of a wholesaler or hotel supply house located in Price Zone 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, or 10, to the place of business of a seller at retail, purveyor of meals or commercial user, or the designated delivery point of a war procurement agency or other government agency, located more than 25 miles from such shipping point; the seller may add the actual cost of local delivery computed at the lowest common carrier rate for the method of delivery used, but in no event more than 50 cents per cwt.

(6) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of paragraphs (a) (1) to (a) (5), inclusive, of this § 1364.469, nothing therein contained shall be construed to permit a total charge for transportation and or local delivery from the point at which the meat was slaughtered to the place of business or receiving point of a retail seller, purveyor of meals, war procurement agency, other government agency or commercial user of more than 50 cents per cwt. in Price Zone 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, or 10, or 75 cents per cwt. in Price Zone 4. The transportation and local delivery additions permitted in this paragraph (a) are on a hundredweight basis, and the charge for transportation and or local delivery for any fraction of a hundredweight shall be reduced accordingly. The additions specified in this paragraph (a) for transportation and or local delivery may be charged: Provided, That the seller shall itemize separately on an invoice to the buyer the amount charged the buyer for transportation and or local delivery, except that if such separate statement of transportation charges is prohibited by local law, the seller shall maintain in his own record of the transaction a separate statement of any additions for transportation or local delivery which is included in the maximum price charged.

(b) For kosher veal foresaddle or forequarter. The applicable zone price established for kosher veal foresaddle or forequarter (which includes the additions permitted) shall apply only on sales of kosher veal as such to buyers of kosher meat; and no seller shall sell or deliver any kosher veal foresaddle or forequarter and no buyer shall buy or receive any kosher veal foresaddle or forequarter at the price established therefor or at a price higher than that established for the corresponding non-kosher foresaddle or forequarter in § 1364.467 (Schedule IV) unless the buyer of such wholesale cut is a bona fide buyer of kosher meat. For the sale of any kosher veal foresaddle or forequarter to a buyer other than a bona fide buyer of kosher meat the maximum price shall be determined by use of the applicable zone price established for the corresponding non-kosher foresaddle or forequarter, and the seller shall remove all stamps and designations which identify the wholesale cut as kosher. Any veal carcass or veal wholesale cut which has been derived from calves slaughtered in the manner of kosher slaughter but rejected as non-kosher shall not be sold, unless all stamps and designations which identify the carcass or wholesale cut as kosher have been removed.

(c) For kosher foresaddles or forequarters derived from calves slaughtered in a limited area of Zone 9. (1) For any grade of kosher veal foresaddle or forequarter, except the cull grade, which cuts are derived from calves slaughtered in that portion of Zone 9 north of the Potomac River and which clearly bear the abattoir stamp at the time of sale, the seller may add $1.50 per cwt. to the applicable Zone 9 price: Provided, That such foresaddle or forequarter shall be sold to a bona fide buyer of kosher meat located in that portion of Zone 9 north of the Potomac River.

(2) The provisions of paragraph (b) of this section governing the sale of kosher foresaddle or forequarter shall apply to sales made pursuant to this paragraph (c). No addition permitted by this paragraph (c) shall be added for the sale of any kosher foresaddle or forequarter which does not bear the abattoir stamp clearly legible. No slaughterer shall charge the addition for kosher veal foresaddle or forequarter from calves slaughtered in the limited area of Price Zone 9 described in subparagraph (1) hereof until he shall have filed the report required in paragraph (d) of § 1364.407 of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169.

(d) Wholesalers' and independent hotel supply houses' selling addition. On sales of any veal carcass or veal wholesale cut not obtained through custom slaughtering, a wholesaler or independent hotel supply house may add 25 cents per cwt. to the applicable zone price.

(e) Packaging and wrapping for war procurement agencies. On sales of veal carcasses or veal cuts to a war procurement agency, the seller may add to the applicable zone price:

(i) For wrapping veal carcasses or veal cuts for domestic shipment, U. S. Army or Navy specifications, 25 cents per cwt.

(ii) For wrapping veal carcasses or veal cuts for overseas shipment, U. S. Army or Navy specifications, 75 cents per cwt.

(iii) For wrapping veal carcasses or veal cuts, Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation Specifications, 50 cents per cwt.

(f) Boxing or barreling. On sales to a seller at retail, purveyor of meals, commercial user (not wholesaler, branch house, hotel supply house, etc.), or government agency, other than a war procurement agency, the seller may add 25 cents per cwt. for packing in closed or sealed boxes or barrels, delivered to the buyer's place of business.

(g) Wrapping for civilian sales. (1) For wrapping veal carcasses or wholesale cuts in one stockinette or Kraft paper bag, there may be added 12½ cents per cwt.

(2) For wrapping veal carcasses or wholesale cuts in two stockinettes or one stockinette and one Kraft paper bag or for other special wrapping or dressing involving a cost in excess of 12½ cents per cwt., there may be added 25 cents per cwt.

(h) Freezing and storage. On sales of veal carcasses and cuts to a war procurement agency, the seller may add the cost of freezing and storage: Provided, That the cost shall not exceed 35 cents per cwt.

(i) Peddler-truck selling addition. Where the seller makes a peddler-truck sale involving delivery of not more than 100 pounds of veal in a total delivery of not more than 150 pounds of meat and meat products in any one day from such peddler-truck to any buyer's store door, he may add to the price specified in § 1364.467 (Schedule IV), the sum of $1.25 per cwt. This addition shall be in lieu of any local delivery and or transportation addition permitted in this § 1364.469.

(1) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association or other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any agency of any of the foregoing; Provided, That no punishment provided by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 shall apply to the United States or to any such government, political subdivision, or agency.

(2) "Carload" means:

(i) A shipment by rail of fresh or frozen wholesale meat cuts, and or cured meat cuts, meat or processed products and or carcasses, or any combination of the foregoing to a single delivery point, of at least the minimum weight upon which the railroad carload rate from the point of shipment to the delivery point, as evidenced by the tariffs of railroad carriers, is based: Provided, That, where the transportation charge for shipment of a lesser weight at the railroad carload rate would be lower than the transportation charge for such a shipment at the railroad less-than-carload rate, such lesser weight shall be considered a carload;

(ii) A shipment by motor truck or trucks to a single delivery point of 15,000 pounds or more of fresh or frozen wholesale meat cuts and or cured meat cuts, meat or processed products and or carcasses, or any combination of the foregoing, as a single bulk transaction; and

(iii) Any single bulk transaction wherein the buyer takes delivery at the seller's place of business of 15,000 pounds or more of fresh or frozen wholesale meat cuts and or cured meat cuts, meat or processed products and or carcasses, or any combination of the foregoing.

(3) "Veal" means meat derived from the carcasses of immature bovine animals, including calf carcasses as well as veal carcasses, which have predominantly veal characteristics as determined by United States Department of Agriculture standards,* and particularly by the color and texture of the flesh and by the color and consistency of the fat and bones. Such carcasses shall not exceed 275 pounds, skin off, chilled, or 315 pounds, skin on, chilled.

(4) "Car route unloading point" means any point on a car route at which a stop is made for the purpose of transferring meat to the possession of the buyer or to a truck for local delivery to the buyer.

(5) "Distribution point" includes a packing or slaughtering plant, packer's branch house, wholesaler's or jobber's or hotel supply house's warehouse, or a car route unloading point, or railroad unloading station.

(6) "Local delivery" means delivery by the seller otherwise than by rail, commencing at the seller's distribution point, or in the case of car routes, at the car unloading point and continuing to the buyer's place of business or other point of delivery.

(7) "Price Zones 1 to 10, inclusive" means the geographical areas described in § 1364.452.

(8) "Veal carcass" means and is limited to the dressed carcass, "skin on", or "skin off", or side of veal which shall be dressed with the kidney knob or knobs in, pluck out, and without caul fat dressing. Tail or caudal vertebrae are not to exceed two in number. The veal carcass shall not be broken in any manner other than provided for in paragraph (a) (9) or (a) (10) of this § 1364.470.

(9) "Veal wholesale cut" means and is limited to any of the following cuts meeting the following minimum specifications, derived from the veal carcass, but excluding the offal and any item not included herein. Ribs are designated as first to thirteenth, inclusive, counting as the first rib that one which is nearest the neck end of the side.

(i) "Hindsaddle or hindquarter" means the portion of the carcass or side, respectively, remaining after the severance of the 12-rib foresaddle or forequarter and comprising the legs or leg, and loin, double or single, including the 13th rib, flank and kidney, all in one piece, which portion shall be obtained by cutting the veal carcass or side between the 12th and 13th ribs, keeping the knife firmly against the 12th rib and following the curvature of the rib to the point where the 12th rib turns, from which point the cut shall be continued by following a line through the cartilage and meat of the flank in the same straight line at right angles to the chine bone, completing the cut. Tail or caudal vertebrae to be left on the hindsaddle or hindquarter are not to exceed 2 in number.

(ii) "Foresaddle or forequarter" means the anterior portion of the carcass or side, respectively, remaining after the severance of the one-rib hindsaddle or hindquarter, which anterior portion shall be obtained by cutting the veal carcass or side between the 12th and 13th ribs keeping the knife firmly against the 12th rib and following the curvature of the rib to the point where the 12th rib turns, from which point the cut shall be continued by following a line through the cartilage and meat of the flank in the same straight line at right angles to the chine bone, completing the cut.

(iii) "Legs or leg" means the portion of the hindsaddle or hindquarter remaining after the severance of the loin from the hindsaddle or hindquarter, which portion shall be obtained by cutting squarely in a line at a right angle to the chine bone, starting at the juncture of the 5th and 6th lumbar vertebra and continuing in the same straight line through a point flush against the anterior end or pin bone end of the pelvis, leaving all the hipbone in the leg. The cut shall be made in a straight line perpendicular to the contour of the outside or skin surface of the hindsaddle. The pair of legs may be split through the center to make 2 single legs. The tail or caudal vertebrae remaining on the legs or leg are not to exceed 2 in number.

(iv) "Loin, double or single", means that portion of the hindsaddle or hindquarter remaining after severance of the legs, which portion shall be obtained by cutting in a straight line at a right angle to the chine bone, starting at the juncture of the 5th and 6th lumbar vertebrae, and continuing through a point flush against the anterior end or pin bone end of the pelvis, leaving all the hipbone in the leg. The cut shall be made in a straight line perpendicular to the contour of the outside or skin surface of the hindsaddle or hindquarter. The double loin is split through the center of the chine bone to make 2 single loins. The loin includes the 13th rib and is untrimmed, that is, it includes the flank, kidney, and fat.

(v) "Kosher veal foresaddle or forequarter" means a veal foresaddle or forequarter derived from calves slaughtered, approved and stamped as kosher under rabbinical supervision, and sold under rabbinical supervision.

(10) "Boneless and miscellaneous veal cuts" means and is limited to any of the following cuts meeting the following minimum specifications, derived from veal carcasses of the cull grade:

(i) "Boneless veal leg or round" means the single veal leg separated from the loin as described in paragraph (a) (9) (iii) of this section from which all bone, the gambrel cord (Achilles tendon) and the shank meat have been removed. The shank muscles and shank bone shall be completely removed by a cut following the natural seam starting on the inner side of the gambrel cord and extending the cut through the stifle joint and by severing the gambrel cord where it joins the muscle. The cod fat or udder fat and the flank are left intact.

(ii) "Veal tenderloin" means the muscle lying in the body cavity of the veal carcass between the kidney fat and chine bone, extending from the butt end of the loin to approximately the 13th rib. The tenderloin shall be entirely boneless and the surplus fat shall be smoothed and tapered down from the butt end to the point where the fat is firmly attached and in no case shall the fat extend beyond the center of the length of the tenderloin. All strings and ragged edges are to be removed.

(iii) "Boneless veal sirloin strip" means the eye or top muscle of the single veal loin, extending from the pin bone end of the pelvis to and over the 13th rib, entirely boneless and with the flank removed by a cut parallel to the side of the eye and one-half inch from the eye muscle.

(iv) "Boneless veal regular (rib) roll" means the rib eye muscle that extends over the top of the veal rib bones from the 3rd to the 12th rib, inclusive. The small wedge-shaped muscle that lies along the plate edge and the covering over the rib eye muscle shall all be removed.

(v) "Boneless veal shoulder clod" means the thick meaty muscle which lies over the blade bone of the veal shoulder and which extends from the chine bone edge to the elbow joint of the shoulder. The chine bone end of the clod shall not be more than four inches wide and the cut along the rib side of the clod shall be straight and at a right angle to the four inch chine bone end.

(vi) "Boned, rolled and tied veal roll" means the complete forequarter of the veal carcass from which all bone, cartilage and gristle have been removed. The heavy sinews from the navel section of the plate and from the chuck and rib also shall be excluded. The rib eye muscle and the shoulder clod muscle shall be included. It is rolled into a cylindrical shape and tied with circular loops one and one-half inches apart, each loop being individually tied. The ends of the roll shall be squared or trimmed of loose or irregular portions. It is permissible in the case of heavy veal to divide the boneless meat from each veal forequarter into two or more rolls.

(vii) "Boneless kosher forequarter veal" means the boneless meat from the entire kosher veal forequarter, but excluding sinews, cords and neckstraps.

(viii) "Boneless veal trimmings" means boneless veal meat from any part of the veal carcass, but excluding the pluck, kidneys, sinews, cords and neckstraps.

(ix) "Veal neckbones" means the neck (cervical) vertebrae with some meat left between the projections on the vertebrae, but generally reasonably well trimmed in accordance with practical operations.

(11) "Buyer of kosher meat" means a person who maintains a selling establishment at or through which he regularly and generally sells kosher meat as such, or a person who is a purveyor of kosher meals.

(12) "War procurement agency", includes the War Department, the Department of the Navy, the United States Maritime Commission, the Lend-Lease Section of the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, the Marine Corps, the Coast Guard, the War Shipping Administration, or any agency of the foregoing.

(13) "Hotel supply house" means a seller of beef, veal or processed products who as an established practice handles and bones, trims, cuts or otherwise fabricates beef and/or veal for sale to hotels, restaurants or other purveyors of meals.

(14) "Wholesaler" means a person other than a hotel supply house or peddler truck seller who buys veal carcasses and veal wholesale cuts for resale other than at retail and who does not own or control, in whole or in substantial part, any slaughtering plant or facilities, and who is not owned or controlled, in whole or in any substantial part, by another person who owns or controls in substantial part any slaughtering plant or facilities.

(15) "Independent hotel supply house" means a hotel supply house as defined in subparagraph (13) hereof, which buys veal for resale to hotels, restaurants, and other purveyors of meals and which does not own or control, in whole or in substantial part, any slaughtering plant or facilities, and which is not controlled, in whole or in substantial part, by any other person who owns or controls in substanial part any slaughtering plant or facilities.

(16) "Sales at retail" means sales to the ultimate consumer: Provided, That no wholesaler, processor, packer, slaughterer, branch house, car route, hotel supply house, purchaser for resale, commercial user, purveyor or meals, war procurement agency, or other government agency shall be deemed to be an ultimate consumer, except that a sale to a purveyor of meals on usual retail terms by a retailer at least 80% of whose sales of meat during the preceding calendar month were made to ultimate consumers shall be deemed a sale at retail.

(17) "Peddler-truck sale" means a sale of veal from a truck by a person who purchases veal at or below the maximum price from a seller with whom he has no other financial affiliation or relationship, who takes delivery at the seller's place of business, and who does not sell or deal in meat in any manner other than sales out of stock carried in a truck owned and driven by him: Provided, That the first record of the transaction is made by the salesman concurrently with the delivery of the products sold.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.

SUBPART D—PROVISIONS AFFECTING PROCESSED PRODUCTS

[NOTE: Subpart D title inserted, §§ 1364.476 and 1364.477 amended by Amendment 4, issued March 30, effective April 3, 1943.]

§ 1364.476 Maximum prices for processed products. Except as provided by paragraphs (d), (e), (f), and (j) of this section, each seller's maximum prices for processed products which are shipped otherwise than via car route or by carload shall be computed as provided by paragraph (a) of this section; his maximum prices for such processed products shipped via car route shall be computed as provided by paragraph (b) of this section; and his maximum prices for such processed products shipped by carload shall be computed as provided by paragraph (c) of this section. Maximum prices for processed products which cannot be determined under paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) shall be computed as provided by paragraph (g). Maximum prices for processed products which cannot be determined under paragraph (a) or (g) shall be determined pursuant to paragraph (h). Maximum prices for processed products which cannot be determined under paragraph (c) or (g) shall be computed pursuant to paragraph (i). Each seller shall report to the Office of Price Administration his maximum prices as provided in paragraph (k).

(a) Maximum prices for processed products not shipped via car route or by carload. Except as provided in paragraphs (d) and (j) of this section, each seller's maximum price for each grade of processed product not shipped via car route or by carload shall be computed as follows:

(1) The maximum price for each grade of each processed product shall be the highest price actually charged by the seller during the period March 16 to March 28, 1942, at or above which at least 70% of the total weight volume of the seller's sales of processed products of the same grade were made during such period.

Example: Assume that the seller's sales of a processed product, during the base period March 16 to March 28, 1942, were as follows:

Price per lb.	Weight volume in lbs.	Percentage of total weight volume (percent)
24¢	1,000	4
23¾¢	2,000	8
23½¢	4,000	16
23¼¢	5,000	20
23¢	8,000	32
22¾¢	4,000	16
21½¢	1,000	4
Total weight volume	25,000

The seller's maximum price for the processed product is 22¾¢ per lb. for that is the highest price actually charged by him at or above which he made at least 30% of the total weight volume of his sales of such processed product during the base period; 23¢ cannot be his maximum price, because only 28% of the total weight volume of sales was made at or above that price; 22½¢ cannot be his maximum price, for he made no sales during the base period at that price.

(2) The maximum price for each grade and brand of each processed product (i. e., beef and veal which are canned, ground, or processed) shall be the highest price actually charged by the seller during the period March 16 to March 28, 1942, at or above which at least 30% of the total weight volume of the seller's sales of such processed product was made during such period.

Note: In making computations of total weight volume required by paragraph (a) of this section, the seller shall omit all sales of products which he shipped via car route or by carload.

(b) Maximum prices for processed products, shipped via car route. Except as provided in paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section, each seller's maximum price for each grade of each processed product delivered via car route shall be computed as follows:

(1) The seller shall ascertain zones for all car routes operated from the same shipping point, upon the basis of 25¢ per cwt. differences in transportation and icing charges. If the car route is operated by truck, such transportation and icing charges shall be determined by reference to the tariff of any common carrier trucker who has filed such tariff with the Interstate Commerce Commission.

(2) As used in this paragraph (b) of § 1364.476, the term "average transportation charge" means the transportation charge in any zone determined by adding to the lowest transportation and icing charge in such zone the highest transportation and icing charge in such zone and dividing the resulting sum by two.

(3) The seller shall deduct from the prices charged by him for products delivered in each zone during the period March 16 to March 28, 1942, the average transportation and icing charge in such zone.

(4) Using the prices computed under paragraph (b) (3) of this section, the seller shall determine f. o. b. shipping point prices for each grade of each processed product in the manner provided for in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph (a) of this section.

(5) Maximum prices in each car route zone shall be determined by adding to the f. o. b. shipping point prices determined under paragraph (b) (4) of this section the average transportation charge in such zone, except that in sales to a war procurement agency or to the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation the maximum prices shall be determined by adding to such f. o. b. shipping point prices the transportation charge to destination which is actually incurred, which actual transportation charge shall in no instance exceed the highest transportation charge used as the basis for determining the average transportation charge in the zone of such destination point.

(c) Maximum prices for processed products shipped by carload. Except as provided in paragraphs (d) and (j) of this section, each seller's maximum price, f. o. b. the seller's shipping point of each grade of each processed product sold for carload delivery, shall be the highest price actually charged by the seller during the period March 16 to March 28, 1942, at or above which at least 30% of the total weight volume of the seller's sales of processed products were sold in carload shipments from such shipping point during such period: Provided, That, in determining such maximum price, the seller shall deduct from all delivered prices charged in his carload sales during such period the actual transportation costs from the shipping point to all points of delivery.

(d) Maximum prices for products purchased by certain governmental agencies. The maximum price for each grade of each processed product which is purchased for any institution of any state, or political subdivision thereof, or of the United States by an authorized purchasing agency (other than purchases by a war procurement agency or the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation) shall be either:

* Circular No. 103, Market Classes and Grades of Dressed Veal and Calf Carcasses, United States Department of Agriculture, issued as revised February, 1937.

(1) The highest price which such agency contracted to pay for such grade of processed product in contracts specifying comparable delivery and entered into during the 30-day period commencing on March 16, 1942, or actually paid for such grade of processed products during such period; or

(2) The seller's maximum price determined under the applicable provisions of paragraph (a), (b), or (c) of this section. The purchaser shall, in issuing requests for bids, state which of the two formulae for determining maximum prices set out in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph (d) shall be applicable to such bids: Provided, That, if the purchaser states that the maximum price is the alternative set forth in said subparagraph (1), the purchaser shall quote in its invitation for bids the maximum price for each grade of processed product to be purchased.

(e) Adjustment of maximum prices for products sold to certain governmental agencies to include certain special charges. In any sale of processed products to a war procurement agency or to the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation the seller may add to the maximum prices determined under paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section the actual cost of freezing and wrapping or packaging such products if such products are frozen and wrapped or packaged pursuant to specifications applicable to products for overseas shipment or supply ship delivery: Provided, That the actual cost of freezing shall in no event exceed the lowest commercial rate for such freezing in the market area.

(f) Adjustment of maximum prices. In the event that any maximum price computed pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) of this section results in a price containing a fraction of a cent which fraction is indivisible exactly into eighths, the seller shall adjust such maximum price to the nearest eighth of a cent.

(g) Maximum prices which cannot be priced under the foregoing paragraphs. Except as provided in paragraph (j) of this section, if the maximum price for any grade of any processed product cannot be determined under paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) of this section, the maximum price for such processed product shall be the maximum price of the most nearly competitive seller.

(h) Maximum prices for products which cannot be priced under paragraphs (a) or (g). If the maximum price for any processed product cannot be determined under paragraph (a) or (g) of this section, the seller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for authorization to establish a maximum price, setting forth in such sworn application a detailed description of the grade and kind of processed product for which a price is sought, including, where appropriate: a description of the nature and degree of processing and the maximum prices, if any, established for the sale by the seller of other grades of processed product; the manner in which the processed product differs from the most similar processed product for which a maximum price is established, and the maximum price for such processed product; the costs of any of the operations which are added to or eliminated from the processing of the most similar processed product; a statement of the reasons why the new manner of processing is being undertaken; a statement of the price requested, and the method by which the requested price was arrived at. Authorization to establish a maximum price for such processed product will be accompanied by instructions as to the method for determining the maximum price. Within 10 days after such price has been determined, the seller shall report the price to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., under oath or affirmation. The price so reported shall be subject to adjustment at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

(i) Maximum prices for products which cannot be priced under paragraphs (c) or (g). Except as provided in paragraph (j) of this section, if the maximum price for any grade of any processed product shipped by carload cannot be determined under paragraph (g) of this section, the maximum price, f. o. b. the seller's shipping point for each grade of each processed product sold for carload delivery, shall be determined by subtracting ½¢ per pound from the seller's maximum price for such grade of processed product as determined pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, or as determined pursuant to paragraph (g) or (h) in lieu of paragraph (a), if such maximum price cannot be determined pursuant to paragraph (a).

(j) Maximum prices for products sold for export. The maximum price at which a person may sell or deliver any commodity for export shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(k) Duty to report maximum prices and adhere to reported prices. Each seller shall report to the Office of Price Administration, pursuant to the provisions of § 1364.407, his maximum prices on all processed products which he sells. The seller shall in no event charge any prices higher than those so reported as his maximum prices.

§ 1364.477 Definitions applicable to processed products. (a) When used in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 and when applicable to processed products the term:

(1) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing: Provided, That no punishment provided by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 shall apply to the United States or to any such government, political subdivision, or agency.

(2) "Seller" means any person who sells, supplies, disposes, barters, exchanges, transfers or delivers, and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing. Where a person makes sales from more than one place of business, each separate place of business of such person shall be deemed to be a separate seller, except that all places of business owned or controlled by the same person, and selling in the same market area shall be regarded as a single seller. Each shipping point from which a car route or car routes originate shall be deemed a separate seller. If more than half of the sales at any one place of business are sales of kosher processed products the sales at such place of business shall not be included with sales at any other place of business in computing maximum prices. All sales by any person to hotels and restaurants from one or more selling places in the same market area may be treated, at the option of such person, as sales by a separate seller.

(3) "Processed products" means ground, cured, pickled, spiced, smoked, dried or otherwise processed beef and or veal, including ground hamburger and sausage containing any proportion of beef or veal: Provided, That any beef carcass, or cut thereof, including any beef wholesale cut which has been boned as permitted in subpart B of this Revised Regulation or otherwise, or any veal carcass, or cut thereof, including any veal wholesale cut which has been boned as permitted in subpart C of this Revised Regulation or otherwise shall not be deemed a processed product. Products of each grade and brand, and in each stage of processing, shall be considered separate processed products. Each type of canned and packaged meat, made entirely from beef and or veal shall be considered a separate processed product. Kosher processed products shall for the purposes of § 1364.476 be regarded as separate processed products.

(4) "War procurement agency" includes the War Department, the Department of the Navy, the United States Maritime Commission, the Lend-Lease Section of the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, the Marine Corps, the Coast Guard, the War Shipping Administration or any agency of the foregoing.

(5) "Carload" means:

(i) A shipment by rail of fresh, frozen and/or processed meat, and/or wholesale cuts or meat and/or carcasses, to a single delivery point of at least the minimum weight as set forth in the tariffs of railroad carriers, upon which shipment the railroad carload rate from the point of shipment to the point of destination is based: Provided, That where a smaller quantity is shipped which could move at a railroad carload rate rather than at a railroad less-than-carload rate because a lower transportation charge is produced thereby, such smaller quantity shall be considered a carload lot;

(ii) A shipment by motor truck or trucks, to a single delivery point of 15,000 pounds of fresh, frozen and/or processed meat and/or wholesale cuts or meat and/or carcasses as a single bulk sale transaction; and

(iii) Any single bulk sale transaction wherein the buyer takes delivery, at the seller's place of business, of 15,000 pounds or more of fresh, frozen and/or processed meat and/or wholesale cuts or meat and/or carcasses.

(6) "Purchasing agency" refers to the authorized purchasing agency which contracts for future delivery of any processed products according to fixed specifications.

(7) "Sales at retail" means sales to the ultimate consumer: Provided, That no wholesaler, processor, packer, slaughterer, branch house, purchaser for resale, car route or commercial user, shall be deemed to be an ultimate consumer, except that a sale to a purveyor of meals, by a person regularly and generally engaged in selling at retail, made on usual retail terms, shall be regarded as a sale at retail.

(8) "Car route" means a shipment by rail or truck, other than a carload, to a place outside of the market area in which the shipping point is located.

(9) "Market area" means any municipality or group of municipalities, each of which has a common boundary with another: Provided, That such market area shall in no event extend in any direction further than 50 miles from the seller's shipping point.

(10) "Packaged meat" means meat sold in prepared containers of uniform size and appearance, which containers bear an identification of the contents and a statement of the weight of volume thereof.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1364.478 Petitions for adjustment. (a) The Office of Price Administration may, by order, adjust any maximum price established under §§ 1364.401 to 1364.413, inclusive, §§ 1364.476 and 1364.477 for any seller who petitions for such adjustment in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[9] issued by the Office of Price Administration, in any case in which such seller shows:

(1) That such maximum price causes him hardship and is abnormally low in relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers:

(2) That establishing for him a maximum price bearing a normal relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers will not cause or threaten to cause an increase in the level of retail prices.

No application for adjustment filed after December 15, 1942, will be granted under this section.

[§ 1364.478 added by Amendment 2, 8 F.R. 164, effective 1-8-43.]

SUBPART E—APPENDICES

[NOTE: Subpart E redesignated by amendment 4, issued March 30, and effective April 3, 1943.]

§ 1364.526 Appendix A: Formula for meat marking fluid. The following formula has been approved by the United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Animal Industry, Meat Inspection Laboratory, to be used for marking meats under the provisions of meat inspection law:

Water	gallons	45
Pure grain alcohol, 95 percent	gallons	38
Granulated cane sugar	pounds	100
Methyl violet	pounds	10

The methyl violet is dissolved in the alcohol and a portion of the water; the sugar is dissolved in the remaining portion of the water and added to the methyl violet solution. Thorough stirring facilitates solution of the methyl violet.

It is not necessary that the above-mentioned formula be adhered to in every detail, but the proportions indicated should not be subjected to any considerable variation; otherwise the marking qualities of the fluid may be impaired. Instead of the pure grain alcohol specified in the formula there may be employed pure grain alcohol, denatured according to formula 33 of the United States Bureau of Internal Revenue. When such denatured alcohol is used, it should be employed in the proportion indicated above. No additional methyl violet should be added. Instead of granulated cane sugar, pure granulated glucose may be used in the same proportion, or heavy corn sirup, if of suitable purity, may be used, provided due allowance is made for the water introduced in that way. All the ingredients used in preparing the marking fluid must be free from poisonous and harmful substances.

REGULATION 1 DEFINITIONS

Section 1. Words in these regulations in the singular form shall be deemed to import the plural, and vice versa, as the case may demand.

Section 2. For the purpose of these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, the following terms shall be construed, respectively, to mean—

Paragraph 1. Secretary. Secretary or Acting Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

Paragraph 2. Bureau.[10] Agricultural Marketing Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Paragraph 3. Official grader. Employee of the Department of Agriculture or other person authorized by the Secretary to investigate and certify to shippers and other interested parties the class, quality, grade, and condition of products under the act.

Paragraph 4. Office of grading. The office of an official grader of products covered by these regulations.

Paragraph 5. Grading certificate. Certificate of the class, quality (grade), and condition of products issued by an official grader under the act.

Paragraph 6. Interested party. Anyone having a financial interest in the products involved, including the shipper, the receiver, or the carrier, or any authorized person in behalf of such party.

Paragraph 7. Regulations. Rules and regulations of the Secretary under the act.

Paragraph 8. Class. Class is a subdivision of a given commercial product based on essential physical characteristics that differentiate between major groups of the same kind or species, for instance, the classes in beef are: steer, heifer, cow, stag, and bull.

Paragraph 9. Quality. Quality in a product is a combination of its inherent properties which determines its relative degree of excellence.

Paragraph 10. Condition. Condition of a commercial product denotes those characteristics affecting its merchantability—with special reference to state of preservation, cleanliness, soundness, wholesomeness, and fitness for human food.

Paragraph 11. Grade. Grade is the last important commercial subdivision of a product based on certain definite value and preference-determining factors, such as conformation, finish, and quality in meats.

Paragraph 12. Products. Includes carcasses and wholesale cuts.

REGULATION 4 GRADING SERVICE

Section 1. Kind of service. Examination, identification, and certification of products shall be made according to class, quality (grade), and condition.

Section 2. Who may obtain service. Application for grading may be made by any financially interested person or his authorized agent, including Federal, State, county, and municipal governments, and common carriers.

Section 3. How to make application. Application for grading shall be filed in the office of grading or with an official grader. It may be made in writing, orally, or by telegraph or telephone. If made orally, the official grader may require that it be confirmed in writing or by telegraph, stating the facts required by Section 4 of this regulation.

Section 4. Form of application. Each application for grading shall include the following information: (a) the date of application; (b) the description and location of the product to be graded; (c) the name and post office address of the applicant and of the person, if other than the applicant, making the application in his behalf; (d) the interest of the applicant (except an official of the Federal Government or a State) therein; (e) the name, post office address, and interest of all other known parties, except carriers, interested in the products involved; (f) the shipping point and destination of the product; (g) type of service desired; and (h) such other information as may be necessary for proper identification of the product or as may be required by the Chief of Bureau.

Section 5. When application deemed filed. An application for grading shall be deemed filed when delivered to the proper office of grading. Record showing date and time of filing shall be made in such office.

Section 6. When application may be rejected. Any application may be rejected by the official grader in charge of the office of grading in which it is filed for noncompliance with the act or any applicable regulation thereunder, failure to make product available for examination, abusive language or act of violence, or interference with grader while performing grading, and such official grader shall immediately notify the applicant of the reasons for such rejection.

Section 7. Authority of agent. Proof of the authority of any person applying for service in behalf of another may be required in the discretion of the official grader.

Section 8. Accessibility of product. The applicant shall cause the products for which service is requested to be made accessible for grading and to be so placed as to disclose class, quality, and condition.

Section 9. Basis of service. Examination, identification, and certification for class, grade, and condition shall be based upon the official or tentative standards of the Department of Agriculture as contained in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 169.

[9] 7 F.R. 8961.

[10] "Agricultural Marketing Administration" is substituted wherever the terms, "Bureau" or "Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture" are used in this § 1364.527. This is in accordance with the Order issued by the Secretary of Agriculture.

Section 10. Order of grading. Service shall be rendered in the order in which applications are received, except that precedence may be given to applications made by another branch of the Federal Government, a State, or a municipality, and appeal grading.

Section 11. Financial interest of official grader. No official grader shall grade any products in which he is directly or indirectly financially interested.

Section 12. Investigation on motion of graders. A grader may of his own motion and without the use of any force, when authorized by the Chief of the Bureau, investigate the class, quality (grade), and condition of any products at such points as are provided under regulation 3, and may issue and transmit to the shipper of such products and other parties interested therein certificates or copies thereof showing the results of such investigations.

Section 13. Certificate, form of. Certificates shall include the following information: (1) the number of the certificate; (2) name of designated market and place of grading; (3) date and time of grading, (4) names and addresses of applicant, party in possession, and shipper and buyer, if known; (5) exact number of carcasses, sides, quarters, cuts, and packages of products by classes and grades examined, if graded; (6) if previously examined, reference to previous certificate by numbers; (7) if rejected or not graded, reason for rejecting or not grading; (8) for purposes of identification, the weight of each class, grade and lot; (9) the amount of fees and expenses; (10) name of official grader or graders; (11) additional facts necessary to fully describe condition, class, and grade, or as may be required by the Chief of Bureau.

Section 14. Certificates, issuance. The official grader shall sign and issue certificates covering lots of products personally graded by him unless through special arrangements approved by the Chief of Bureau this be not required, in which case complete records of the grading shall be furnished the Bureau; but in no case shall any grader sign a certificate covering any product not graded by him. Graders shall stamp, brand, tag, label, seal, or otherwise identify or supervise the stamping, branding, tagging, labeling, sealing, or otherwise identifying of each unit of product or package or container thereof with its class and quality (grade) as far as practicable, or the applicant may issue, when authorized by the Chief of the Bureau, certificates of quality of such forms as are approved by the Chief of the Bureau, the certificates of quality issued by the applicant to be used only by the applicant in such manner and for such purpose as is approved by the Chief of the Bureau.

Section 15 Disposition of certificates. The original certificate, and not to exceed two copies if requested, upon issuance shall be immediately delivered or mailed to the applicant or a person designated by him. One copy shall be filed in the office of the official grader and one copy forwarded to the Chief of Bureau. Copies will be furnished to other financially interested parties as outlined in regulation 7, section 1, paragraph 6.

Section 16. Advance information. Upon request of an applicant, all or any part of the contents of the certificate may be telegraphed, telephoned, or radioed to him, or to any person designated by him, at his expense

REGULATION 5. APPEAL GRADING

Section 1. When appeal may be taken. An application for appeal grading may be made whenever any financially interested party is dissatisfied with the determination stated in the original certificate.

Section 2. How to obtain. Appeal grading may be obtained by the applicant or other person financially interested in the product by filing a request for such appeal grading (a) with the official in charge of the meat grading service at nearest designated market, or (b) with the grader who did the original grading, or (c) with the Chief of the Bureau. The application for appeal shall state the reasons therefor, and may be accompanied by a copy of any previous grading certificate or report, or any other information which the applicant shall have received regarding the product at the time of the original grading. Such application may be made in writing or orally, by telegraph, telephone, or otherwise. If made orally, the person receiving the application may require that it be confirmed in writing.

Section 3. Record of filing time. A record showing the date and time of filing such application shall be immediately made by the receiver thereof.

Section 4 When appeal may be refused. If it shall appear that the reasons stated in an application for appeal grading are frivolous or unsubstantial, or that the quality or condition of the products has undergone a material change since the original grading, or that the products cannot be made accessible for thorough grading, or that the identity has been lost, or that these regulations have not been complied with, the application may be denied.

Section 5. When appeal may be withdrawn. An application for appeal grading may be withdrawn by the applicant at any time before the appeal grading has been performed upon payment of any expenses incurred in connection therewith.

Section 6. When second grading is not an appeal. Gradings requested to determine factors of quality or condition which may have undergone material change since the original grading shall not be considered appeal gradings within the meaning of this regulation. Second grading, requested for the purposes of securing an up-to-date certificate and not involving any question as to the correctness of the original certificate covering the lot in question, shall not be considered appeal grading within the meaning of this regulation.

Section 7. Order in which made. Appeal gradings shall be performed as far as practicable at time requested by applicant and in the order in which applications are received. They shall take precedence over all other pending applications.

Section 8. Who shall pass upon appeals. Appeal grading shall be passed upon by official graders designated therefor by the Chief of Bureau, and such grading shall be conducted jointly by two official graders when practicable. No appeal grader shall pass upon an application involving the correctness of a certificate issued by him.

Section 9. Appeal findings. Immediately after an appeal grading has been made a certificate designated as "appeal grading certificate" shall be signed and issued referring specifically to the original certificate and stating the quality and condition of the product as shown by the appeal grading. In all other respects the provisions of regulation 4 shall apply to such appeal grading certificates except that if the applicant for appeal grading be not the original applicant, a copy of the appeal grading certificate shall be mailed to the original applicant.

Section 10. Superseded certificates. When a grading certificate shall have been superseded under these regulations by an appeal grading certificate such grading certificate shall become null and void and shall not thereafter represent the class, quality, or condition of the product described therein. If the original and all copies of the superseded certificate are not delivered to the person with whom the application for appeal grading is filed, the officer or officers issuing the appeal grading certificate shall forward notice of such issuance and of the cancelation of the original certificate to such persons as he considers necessary to prevent fraudulent use of the canceled certificate.

REGULATION 7. FEES AND EXPENSES

Section 1. Amount of, rates, etc. * * *

Paragraph 1. Basis for charges. Fees and charges for grading services shall be based on the actual time required to render the services, including the time required for travel of the official grader in connection therewith, at the rate of $2.20 per hour for each official grader assigned unless otherwise provided by special agreement approved by the Chief of the Bureau: Provided, That no grading services shall be rendered for less than a minimum charge of $1.10; Provided further, That the Chief of the Bureau may, in lieu of the fixed charge of $2.20 per hour, fix other reasonable charges for the grading and certification of products at rates which, in his judgment, will cover the costs of the services.

Paragraph 2. Charges by graders employed or licensed by Department of Agriculture. Charges for services by employees of the Department and by graders licensed by the Secretary shall be at rates established herein.

Paragraph 3. Charges under cooperative agreement. Charges for grading under cooperative agreements shall be those provided for by such agreements.

Paragraph 4. For appeal grading. Fees and charges for appeal grading shall be double those for original grading; except that appeal grading for Federal Government agencies shall be at actual cost; provided that when on appeal grading it is found that there was error in determination based upon the original grading equal to or exceeding 10 percent of the total weight of the products, no charge will be made unless special agreement with applicant is made in advance.

Paragraph 5. For copies of grading certificates. For not to exceed three copies of a certificate to any person financially interested in a product involved the fee shall be $1.

Section 2. How fee shall be paid. Fees and other charges shall be paid by the applicant in accordance with directions on the fee bill furnished him, and in advance if required by the official grader.

Section 3. Disposition of fees.

Paragraph 1. By graders exclusively employed by the Department. Fees for grading done by graders exclusively employed by the Department shall be remitted to the Bureau for deposit into the Treasury as Miscellaneous Receipts.

Paragraph 2. By graders under cooperative agreements. Fees for grading done by graders acting under cooperative agreements with a State or municipal organization or other cooperating party, shall be disposed of in accordance with the terms of such agreements. Such portion of fees collected under cooperative agreements as may be due the United States shall be remitted to the Bureau for deposit into the Treasury.

§ 1364.528 Appendix C: Specifications for grades of carcass beef—(a) Choice. Choice grade beef carcasses and wholesale cuts shall be relatively blocky and compact and thickly fleshed throughout. Loins and ribs shall be thick and full. The rounds shall be plump. The chucks shall be short and thick, and the neck and shanks short. The fat covering shall be fairly smooth and uniform and shall extend over the entire exterior surface of the carcass. The interior fat shall be abundant in the pelvic cavity and over the kidney. The protrusion of fat between the chine bones shall be fairly liberal and the "overflow" of fat over the inside of the ribs shall be distinctly in evidence and fairly evenly distributed. The intermingling of fat with the lean in evidence between the ribs, called feathering, shall be extensive. Both the interior and the exterior fat shall be firm, brittle, and somewhat waxy, but may be slightly wavy or rough. The fat is usually white or creamy white but a slight yellowish tinge will not exclude beef from this grade, provided the character of the fat meets the requirements for the grade in other respects. The cut surface of the lean muscle shall be firm and possess a smooth velvety appearance. It shall be well marbled and the marbling shall be relatively extensive, especially in the heavier carcasses. The color shall be uniform and bright and may range from a pale red to a deep blood red. The bones are usually soft and red, terminating in soft pearly white cartilages but some ossification of the cartilages and hardening in the bone as indicated by a tinge of whiteness will not disqualify beef produced from mature cattle from this grade.

Only beef produced from beef-type steers and heifers that show a relatively high degree of perfection in breeding and feeding will qualify for the choice grade. Beef produced from cows is not eligible for this grade.

(b) Good. Good grade beef carcasses and wholesale cuts shall be moderately blocky and compact and shall be moderately thick-fleshed throughout. A tendency for the loins and ribs to be slightly flat and for the rounds to be slightly flat and to taper toward the shank is permitted. Chucks and neck may be only moderately short and thick and shanks may be only moderately short. The fat covering shall extend well over the exterior surface but may show a moderate degree of waste or patchiness, particularly in heavy mature beef. The interior fat shall be fairly plentiful in the pelvic cavity and around the kidney. There is usually a slight protrusion of fat between the chine bones. The "overflow" of fat over the inside of the ribs may be apparent to a slight extent. A limited amount of intermingling of fat with the lean between the ribs, called feathering, shall be in evidence. Both the interior and the exterior fat are usually fairly firm and brittle. The quantity of fat required of beef within this grade will vary within relatively wide limits dependent upon the age and class of cattle from which it is produced. That produced from lightweight steers and heifers which were slaughtered when relatively young may have a relatively thin exterior fat covering and only a moderate quantity of interior fat, whereas that produced from heavier, older cattle may possess a relatively thick exterior fat covering and fairly heavy interior fat deposits in the pelvic cavity, over the kidney, and on the inside of the forequarters. The fat is usually creamy white but it may possess a distinctly yellowish tinge. The cut surface of the lean muscle may be only moderately firm and smooth and velvety in appearance. Beef within this grade will show a relatively wide range of marbling. That produced from young cattle may show only a limited degree of marbling which is apparent only in the thicker cuts whereas that produced from the older, more mature cattle shall show rather extensive marbling throughout. The color is usually uniform and bright but may be slightly two-toned or slightly shady. It usually ranges from a light red to a slightly dark red. The bone will range from soft and red in lightweight beef produced from young cattle to a relatively hard bone that is tinged with white in the beef produced from older, more mature cattle. It is, however, necessary that the chine bones show cartilages, termed "buttons", in order to qualify for this grade.

Beef produced from steers, heifers, and relatively young well-finished beef-type cows may qualify for the Good grade.

(c) Commercial. Commercial grade beef carcasses and wholesale cuts may be somewhat rangy, angular, and irregular in conformation and the fleshing may be slightly thin throughout. Loins and ribs tend to be flat and somewhat thinly fleshed. The rounds are relatively long, flat, and tapering. Chucks are usually slightly flat and thinly fleshed. The neck is somewhat long and thin and the shanks somewhat long and tapering. The quantity of fat required of beef within this grade will vary within wide limits dependent upon the age and class of cattle from which it is produced. That produced from relatively young lightweight steers and heifers that were slaughtered when relatively young may have a thin exterior fat covering that does not extend over the round or chucks and a relatively small quantity of interior fat. In such beef there will be practically no protrusion of fat between the chine bones and there will be no "overflow" of fat on the inside of the ribs and no feathering between the ribs. Beef produced from heavier, older cattle, and particularly from mature animals, will possess a moderately thick exterior fat covering that may be uneven and wasty, and fairly heavy interior fat deposits in the pelvic cavity, over the kidney, and on the inside of the forequarters. The fat may be slightly yellow, somewhat soft, and slightly oily. The cut surface of the lean muscle may be somewhat soft and watery in beef produced from younger cattle, but in that produced from older cattle it is usually firm but is also usually coarse. Beef within this grade produced from yearling cattle will have little if any marbling whereas that produced from mature cattle, and particularly cows, will show a moderate degree of marbling through the thicker cuts. The color may be two-toned or shady and usually ranges from a light red to a dark red. The character of the bone will vary from fairly soft and red in the beef produced from the young cattle to white and hard in that produced from mature cattle.

Beef produced from steers, heifers, and cows may qualify for the commercial grade.

(d) Utility. Utility grade beef carcasses and wholesale cuts may be decidedly rangy, angular, and irregular in conformation. The fleshing is usually thin. The loins and ribs are flat and thinly fleshed. The rounds are long, flat, and tapering. The chucks are flat and thinly fleshed. The neck and shanks are long and tapering. The hip and shoulder joints are prominent. The degree of fat covering varies from very thin in beef produced from young steers and heifers to a slightly thick covering that may be somewhat uneven in beef produced from cattle that are more or less advanced in age. The quantity of interior fat varies from very little in beef that is produced from young and immature steers and heifers to a moderate quantity in that produced from mature cattle. The fat is usually soft and varies in color from a grayish white to decidedly yellow. The cut surface of the lean muscle is usually soft and watery in the beef produced from younger cattle but in that produced from more mature cattle it is usually fairly firm but coarse. The beef in this grade will show practically no marbling except in that produced from aged cattle which may show a little marbling in the thicker cuts. The color may be two-toned or shady and usually ranges from a light red to a very dark red. The bone is usually hard and white.

The utility grade of beef may be produced from steers, heifers, or cows.

(e) Cutter and canner. Cutter grade beef carcasses and wholesale cuts may be very rangy, angular, and irregular in conformation and very thinly fleshed throughout. The loins and ribs are very flat, thin, and shallow. The rounds are very long, flat, and tapering. The chucks are very flat, thin, and shallow. The neck and shanks are very long and tapering, the hip and shoulder joints are very prominent. The degree of exterior fat covering may vary from a very thin covering that is confined almost entirely to the ribs and loins in the beef produced from younger cattle to a thin, more extensive covering in the beef produced from mature cattle. The interior fat is confined largely to the pelvic cavity and the kidney and may vary from a very small quantity, if any, in these parts in beef produced from younger cattle to a limited quantity in that produced from mature cattle. The color of both the interior and the exterior fat may vary from grayish white to a deep yellow. The cut surface of the lean muscle shows no marbling, is coarse, and is usually soft and watery. The color may be two-toned or shady and usually ranges from a slightly dark red to a very dark red. The bone is usually hard and white.

The cutter grade of beef may be produced from steers, heifers, and cows. That produced from cows constitutes a relatively large percentage of the beef eligible for this grade.

Canner grade beef carcasses and wholesale cuts shall be extremely rangy, angular, and irregular in conformation and extremely thinly fleshed throughout. All cuts are extremely thinly fleshed. Loins and ribs are extremely thin, flat, and shallow. The rounds are very long, flat and tapering, and the chucks are extremely thin, flat, and shallow. The neck and shanks are extremely long and the hips and shoulder joints are extremely tapering. Beef of this grade is practically devoid of both interior and exterior fat. The outside surface usually has a very dark appearance. The cut surface of the lean muscle is usually coarse and is soft and watery in appearance. It shows no marbling. The color may be two-toned or shady and usually ranges from a moderately dark red to an extremely dark red or brownish black. The bones are nearly always hard and white.

A very large percentage of the beef of the canner grade is produced from mature cows that are somewhat advanced in age.

§ 1364.529 Appendix D: Specifications for grades of veal carcasses—(a) Choice. A choice grade veal carcass is markedly superior in conformation, finish and quality.

In general shape or outline it is blocky and compact. It is broad and deep in proportion to its length. All parts are thickly fleshed, each part having its proper proportionate thickness. Because of the thickness of fleshing the carcass presents a plump, full, well-rounded appearance. The different parts are developed and balanced in such a way as to result in a high proportion of back, loin, and round combined.

The shanks are short and thick. Rounds are thick and bulging. Loin and back are full and plump. Shoulders and breasts are broad and thick. The neck is short and thick.

There is a thin covering of fat over the rump, loin, back and top of the shoulders, and over the inner walls of the chest and abdomen. There are moderately large deposits of fat in the breast, flanks, and crotch, and around the kidneys. All exterior fat is smooth. The color of fat is a creamy white tinged with pink.

The flesh ranges from light gray to pinkish brown in color. It is firm, fine-grained and, in a cut surface, is velvety to sight and touch. All bones are small in proportion to the size and weight of the carcass and are soft and red.

(b) Good. A good grade veal carcass possesses a moderately high degree of conformation, finish, and quality.

In general shape or outline it tends to be blocky and deep in proportion to its length. All parts are moderately broad and deep in proportion to its length. All parts are moderately thick-fleshed, each part having its proper proportionate thickness. Because of the thickness of fleshing, the carcass presents a moderately plump, full, well-rounded appearance. The different parts are developed and balanced in such a way as to result in a moderately high proportion of back, loin, and round combined.

The shanks are moderately short and thick. Rounds are moderately thick and bulging. Loin and back are moderately full and plump. Shoulders and breast are moderately broad and thick. The neck is moderately short and thick.

There is a very thin covering of fat over the loin and back and over the inner walls of the chest and abdomen. There are slightly small deposits of fat in the breast, flanks, and crotch, and around the kidneys. All exterior fat is moderately smooth. The color of fat is usually a creamy white. The flesh ranges from a pinkish brown to a light tan in color, is moderately firm, fine-grained and, in a cut surface, is moderately velvety but may be slightly moist to sight and touch. All bones are moderately small in proportion to the size and weight of the carcass and are moderately soft and red.

(c) Commercial. A commercial grade veal carcass is slightly deficient in conformation, finish, and quality.

In general shape or outline it is slightly rough and rangy. It is slightly narrow and shallow in proportion to its length. All parts are slightly deficient in fleshing, each part being proportionately lacking in this respect. Because of the relative thinness of fleshing the carcass presents a slightly empty, sunken, or hollowed-out appearance. The different parts are developed and balanced in such a way as to result in a slightly low proportion of back, loin, and round combined.

The shanks are slightly long and thin. Rounds are slightly thin and tapering. Loins and back are slightly depressed. Shoulders and breast are slightly narrow and thin. The neck is slightly long and thin.

There are extremely thin patches of fat over the back and loin and over a portion of the inner walls of the chest and abdomen. There are very small deposits of fat in the breast, flanks, and crotch, and around the kidneys, the latter usually being incompletely covered. The color of fat is white but it lacks the pinkish tinge.

The flesh is usually pinkish brown in color, is slightly soft, is coarse-grained and, in a cut surface, is slightly moist to the touch. All bones are slightly large in proportion to the size and weight of the carcass, are moderately soft but are slightly lacking in redness.

(d) Utility. A utility grade veal carcass is very deficient in conformation, finish, and quality.

In general shape or outline it is very rough and rangy. It is very narrow and shallow in proportion to its length. All parts are very deficient in fleshing, each part being proportionately lacking in this respect. Because of the relative thinness of fleshing the carcass presents a very depressed or hollowed-out appearance. The different parts are developed and balanced in such a way as to result in a very low proportion of back, loin, and round combined.

The shanks are very long and thin. Rounds are very thin and tapering. Loin and back are very shallow and depressed. Shoulders and breast are very narrow and thin. The neck is very long and thin.

There is no fat covering over the back, loin, or inner walls of the chest and abdomen. Usually there are extremely small deposits of fat in the breast, flanks, and crotch, and around the kidneys. The color of the fat usually is grayish white tinged with yellow.

The flesh ranges from pinkish brown to dark tan in color, is soft, very coarse-grained and, in a cut surface, is very moist to the touch. All bones are large in proportion to the size and weight of the carcass, are moderately soft but are lacking in redness.

(e) Cull. A cull grade veal carcass is extremely deficient in conformation, finish, and quality.

In general shape or outline it is extremely narrow and shallow in proportion to its length. All parts are extremely deficient in fleshing, each part being proportionately lacking in this respect. Because of the relative thinness of fleshing the carcass presents an extremely shallow, depressed, or hollowed-out appearance. The different parts are developed and balanced in such a way as to result in an extremely low proportion of back, loin, and round combined.

The shanks are extremely long and thin. Rounds are extremely thin and tapering. Loin and back are extremely depressed. Shoulders and breast are extremely narrow and thin. The neck is extremely long and thin.

There is no fat covering over any part of the exterior of the carcass and none on the inner walls of the chest and abdomen. There are no discernible fat deposits in the breast, flanks, or crotch, and only extremely small quantities around the kidneys.

The flesh usually is reddish brown in color, is very soft, coarse-grained and watery. All bones are very large in proportion to the size and weight of the carcass and are decidedly lacking in softness and redness.

PART 1381—SOFTWOOD LUMBER

[MPR 94[1], Amendment 1]

WESTERN PINE AND ASSOCIATED SPECIES OF LUMBER

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 94 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1381.502 (b) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Species and areas covered. The following species from the following areas are covered by this regulation:

(i) Ponderosa pine (pinus ponderosa), Idaho White pine (pinus monticola), Sugar pine (pinus lambertiana), Lodgepole pine (pinus contorta), Mexican White pine (pinus strobiformis), Limber pine (pinus flexilis), Arizona pine (pinus arizonica), Apache pine (pinus apacheca), Chihuahua pine (pinus chihuahuana), and any other pine commercially sold as Ponderosa, Western, or Mexican pine, produced in Oregon, Washington, California, Idaho, Montana, South Dakota, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Arizona, New Mexico, or in Canada or Mexico.

(ii) Douglas fir (pseudotsuga taxifolia), West Coast hemlock (tsuga heterophylla, tsuga mertensiana), True fir (abies), and Inland Larch (larix occidentalis), produced in Idaho, Montana, South Dakota, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Arizona, New Mexico, and California, and in those portions of Washington, Oregon, and Canada east of the crest of the Cascade Mountains. If a mill is located near the crest of the Cascade Mountains or in California and has customarily graded and sold its lumber of these species under the West Coast Lumbermen's Association Standard Grading and Dressing Rules No. 11, it may apply to the Portland, Oregon office of the Office of Price Administration for special permission to use the maximum prices in Maximum Price Regulation No. 26, instead of the prices in Maximum Price Regulation No. 94.

(iii) Engelmann Spruce (picea), Red cedar (thuja plicata), and Incense cedar (libocedrus decurrens) produced in Idaho, Montana, South Dakota, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, California, Mexico, and in those portions of Oregon, Washington and Canada east of the crest of the Cascade Mountains.

2. Section 1381.504 (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Private truck. (i) When shipment is by truck owned or controlled by the seller, the following amounts may be added for transportation: For distances up to and including 10 miles, $1.50 per M'; over 10 and up to and including 20 miles, $2.00 per M'; and over 20 and up to and including 30 miles, $2.50 per M'. Where the distance is greater than 30 miles, the seller may charge the amount of the railroad charge at the carload rate for the most similar haul or $3.00 per M', whichever is greater. Distance, as used in this paragraph, means the distance from the mill to the point of destination as measured by the speedometer. No addition may be made for the return trip.

(ii) The provisions of this § 1381.504 (a) (2) and (3) shall not apply to sales and deliveries of mixed species, log run lumber from mills in the "fringe area." As to these transactions, the permitted additions for trucking by private truck and trucking to railhead are shown separately in footnotes (1) and (2) to Table 1 under § 1381.521, Appendix I.

3. Section 1381.504 (a) (4) is amended to read as follows:

(4) Truck delivery after rail haul. When truck delivery follows a rail haul, there may be added for the delivery an amount not greater than the addition permitted by subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, whichever is applicable.

4. Section 1381.513 The text is amended to read as follows:

§ 1381.513 Appendix A: Maximum prices for Ponderosa pine lumber. For Ponderosa pine lumber (and other species commercially sold as Ponderosa, Western, or Mexican pine lumber, if not specifically priced in another appendix) the maximum prices f. o. b. mill per one thousand feet board measure, surfaced, and air dried or kiln dried (except where otherwise specified in price tables), in mixed or straight load shipments, shall be as follows:

5. Section 1381.513 Table 1, Note 2 (B) is amended to read as follows:

(B) For restricted random lengths 10' and longer, 4/4 and thicker, add $2.00.

6. Section 1381.513 Table 1, note 2 (F) is amended to read as follows:

(F) For stained selects that for defects other than stain would grade B and Better, deduct $5.00 from the price of B and Better Select. For stained selects that for defects other than stain would grade C or C and Better, deduct $5.00 from the price of C Select. For stained selects that for defects other than stain would grade D Select or D and Better, deduct $5.00 from the price of D Select.

7. Section 1381.513. Table 2 is amended to read as follows:

No. 1, 4'	$5.00
No. 2, 4'	4.00
No. 1, 32"	2.25
Fence Lath (80% No. 1—20% No. 2)	6.25

17. Section 1381.513, Table 13, is amended by inserting a price "$47.00" in the column for D, 9/16".

18. Section 1381.513. In the Table entitled Differentials and Rules Applicable to All Grades of Ponderosa Pine, Rules 13 and 19 are amended and Rules 20 and 21 are added, to read as follows:

13. Patterns not conforming to Association Standard Patterns where additional expense is entailed due to special machine set-ups and or making special knives, add $2.50.

19. All prices shown, except where otherwise specified (plank and timbers), are for dry lumber. For green lumber not specified green in tables, No. 1 Common and lower grades, deduct $2.00, No. 1 Dimension and lower grades, deduct $2.00, Mill Run Box Lumber, deduct $1.50, all other grades deduct 10 percent from dry price. Lumber shall be considered green if, when shipped, the moisture content is greater than 19 percent.

20. Any prices based on a percentage addition or deduction are to be figured to the nearest 25 cents.

21. When 8/4 Common is resawn for the purpose of procuring 4/4 boards, the product must be regraded and sold at the grade price applying to the 4/4 size of the grade actually produced.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

33. Section 1381.516, Table 1, Note 5, is amended to read:

5. Additions and deductions for thickness:
(A) 5/4 and 6/4—4 to 10", add $5.00.
(B) 5/4 and 6/4—12" add $3.00.
(C) 5/4 and 6/4—4" and wider add $4.00.
(D) 8/4—4", 6" and 8" add $3.00.
(E) 8/4—10" and 12" add $2.00.

34. Section 1381.516, Table 2 is amended by deleting the words "or rough" in the column heading "RL, S2S, S4S or rough".

35. Section 1381.516, Table 2, Note "Specified Lengths" items (1) through (5) are revoked and new items (1), (2), and (3) are added to read as follows:

(1) No. 4 and No. 5 for specified lengths 10 to 20' add $2.00; 8' same as Random length.
(2) For specified lengths 8 to 20' in No. 1 and 2, No. 3 and No. 3 and Better, add $2.00 to Random length price.
(3) 6' all widths and all grades, deduct $3.00 from Random length price.

36. Section 1381.516, Table 2, Note "Miscellaneous", items (7) and (8) are added to read as follows:

(7) For 5/4 and thicker in No. 1 and 2, No. 3 and No. 3 and Better, add $3.00.
(8) For 5/4 and thicker in No. 4 and No. 5, add $2.00.

37. Section 1381.516, Table 3. Notes (1) through (7) are revoked and new Notes (1) through (8) are added to read as follows:

Notes on No. 1 Dimension (Larch-Douglas Fir and Hemlock).
1 RL same price as 14'.
2 1¼₆" dimension, deduct $2.00.
3 For 1¾" add: No. 1—$2.25, No. 2—$2.00, No. 3—$1.75.
4 No. 2 Dimension, deduct $3.00.
5 No. 3 Dimension, deduct $10.00.
6. For Common Structural, add $3.00
7 Worked to pattern, D and M, shiplap and well curbing, add $2.00.
8 6' all widths $2.00 less than 8'.

38. Section 1381.516, Table 4. Notes (1) through (5) are revoked and new Notes (1) through (7) are added, to read as follows:

Notes on No. 1 Plank and Timbers (Larch-Douglas Fir and Hemlock) Green.
1 Common Structural, add $3.00.
2. 8' length, same as 16' price.
3. No. 2 plank and timbers, deduct $5.00 from No. 1 price.
4. No. 3 plank and timbers, deduct $10.00 from No. 1 price.
5. Worked to pattern, add $2.00.
6. For dry, add $10.00.
7. Random Length same price as 14'.

39. Section 1381.516, Table 5 is amended to read as follows:

50. Section 1381.521 is revoked, and a new § 1381.521 is added to read as follows:

§ 1381.521 Appendix I: Maximum prices for mixed species, log run. For Mixed Species (not separated as to species) Log Run (not separated as to grade), produced in the States of South Dakota, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Nevada, Arizona, and New Mexico, the maximum prices f. o. b. mill per thousand feet board measure, in any size load or shipment, shall be as follows:

TABLE 1—Mixed species—log run

Green rough----------		$28.50
For surfaced stock----------	add--	3.00
For dry----------	add--	2.00
For specified lengths----------	add--	1.00

Notes on mixed species—log run.

(1) Trucking delivery by private truck. When shipment is by truck owned or controlled by the seller, the following amounts may be added for transportation: For distances up to and including 10 miles, $1.50 per M; over 10 miles and up to and including 20 miles, $2.00 per M; over 20 miles and up to and including 30 miles, $2.50 per M; over 30 miles an addition of 5 cents per mile per M feet may be added to the $2.50 per M charge permitted for first 30 miles. Distance, as used in this paragraph, means the distance from the mill to the point of destination as measured by the speedometer. No addition may be made for the return trip.

(2) Trucking to railhead. When a truck haul precedes rail shipment, as when a mill located away from a railhead hauls lumber by truck to the railhead, no addition may be made for the truck haul. However, in the following two cases a mill may apply for special permission to make an addition:

(i) Where the mill prior to the shortage of tires and gasoline shipped lumber to the particular final destination principally by all-truck haul, and now wishes to convert to truck-and-rail haul to save tires and gasoline;

(ii) Where a mill's rail connection has been abandoned since September 5, 1941.

The application should be made by letter to the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and may be acted upon by letter. The addition may not be made on quotations or sales until permission has been received.

51. Section 1381.522 is added to read as follows:

§ 1381.522 Appendix J: Maximum prices in the "fringe area" and Canada and Mexico. In the States of South Dakota, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Nevada, Arizona, and New Mexico, in that part of California within or south of the Counties of Monterey, San Benito, Fresno, Madera, and Inyo, and in Canada and Mexico, when the lumber is separated as to species and sold on grade, the maximum prices per thousand feet board measure, shall be the prices set up in preceding Tables covering various species and grades, plus freight based on the estimated weights in Appendix K, times the freight rate from Spokane, Washington, Klamath Falls, Oregon, or Susanville, California, whichever is lower.

52. Section 1381.523 is added to read as follows:

§ 1381.523 Appendix K: Permitted estimated weights. The following estimated weights for dry lumber may be used in computing freight charges even though higher than actual weights.

When shipped with a moisture content greater than 19 percent, the estimated green weights may be used in quoting a delivered price, even though higher than actual weights.

§ 1418.1 Maximum prices. (a) Maximum prices are established as follows:

(1) On and after January 4, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver rice in the Territory of Puerto Rico and no person shall buy or receive rice in the Territory of Puerto Rico at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in § 1418.14 (a), Table I; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing. The provisions of this subparagraph shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of rice to a purchaser if prior to July 20, 1942, such rice had been received by a carrier other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller for shipment to such purchaser.

[Paragraph (1) as amended by Amendment 16, 8 F.R. 324]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 7 (7 F.R. 5176) provides that the prohibition contained in any price regulation against buying or receiving any commodity or service at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by such regulation shall not apply to any war procurement agency or government whose defense is vital to the defense of the United States.]

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[1] 7 F.R. 5620, 8 F.R. 8961.

(2) On and after January 4, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, or of any price regulation heretofore issued by the Office of Price Administration, no person shall sell or deliver pork fat backs in the Territory of Puerto Rico and no person shall buy or receive pork fat backs in the Territory of Puerto Rico at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in § 1418.14 (b) Table II; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing. The provisions of this subparagraph shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of pork fat backs to a purchaser if prior to August 20, 1942, such pork fat backs had been received by a carrier other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller for shipment to such purchaser.

[Paragraph (2) added by Amendment 2, F.R. 6659; amended by Amendment 16]

(3) On and after October 1, 1942, regardless of any price regulation heretofore issued by the Office of Price Administration, no person shall sell or deliver cigarettes at retail in the Territory of Puerto Rico and no person shall buy or receive cigarettes in the Territory of Puerto Rico at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in § 1418.14 (c), Table III; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

[Paragraph (3) added by Amendment 4, 7 F.R. 7843]

(4) On and after October 5, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, or of any price regulation heretofore issued by the Office of Price Administration, no person shall sell or deliver canned corned beef to retailers or at retail in the Territory of Puerto Rico, and no person selling at retail or buying at retail shall buy or receive canned corned beef in the Territory of Puerto Rico at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in § 1418.14 (d), Table IV; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

[Paragraph (4) added by Amendment 5, 7 F.R. 7945]

(5) On and after October 21, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, or of any price regulation heretofore issued by the Office of Price Administration, no person shall sell or deliver bulk or bottled milk, whether raw or pasteurized, or require a deposit on any glass bottle container used in connection therewith, in the Territory of Puerto Rico, and no person shall buy or receive such fluid milk or leave a deposit on any glass bottle container used in connection therewith, in the Territory of Puerto Rico, at prices or in amounts higher than the maximum prices set forth in § 1418.14 (e); and no person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

(6) On and after April 6, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, or of any price regulation heretofore issued, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy codfish or bloaters in the Territory of Puerto Rico at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in § 1418.14 (f), Table VI; and no person shall offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

(7) On and after January 4, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, or of any price regulation heretofore issued, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy, dried beans in the Territory of Puerto Rico at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in § 1418.14 (g), Table VII; and no person shall offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

(9) On and after January 4, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation, or of any price regulation heretofore issued, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy butter in the Territory of Puerto Rico at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in § 1418.14 (i), Table IX; and no person shall offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

[Paragraphs (7), (8) and (9) added by Amendment 9, 7 F.R. 9341 and amended by Amendment 16]

(10) On and after November 13, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation, or of any price regulation heretofore issued, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy evaporated milk in the Territory of Puerto Rico at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in § 1418.14 (j), Table X; and no person shall offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

[Paragraph (10) added by Amendment 9]

(11) On and after November 21, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation, or of any price regulation heretofore issued, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy corn meal and cheese in the Territory of Puerto Rico at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in § 1418.14 (k), Table XI; (o), Table XV; and no person shall offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing. On and after January 4, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation, or of any price regulation heretofore issued, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy certain cereals, certain packing house products and garlic in the Territory of Puerto Rico at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in § 1418.14 (l), Table XII; (m), Table XIII; (n), Table XIV; and no person shall offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

[Paragraph (11) added by Amendment 10, 7 F.R. 9731; amended by Amendment 16, 8 F.R. 324]

(12) On and after December 5, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, or of any price regulation heretofore issued, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy laundry soap or canned Vienna sausage in the Territory of Puerto Rico at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in § 1418.14 (r), Table XVII; (s), Table XVIII; and no person shall offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing. On and after January 4, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, or of any price regulation heretofore issued, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy wheat flour in the Territory of Puerto Rico at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in § 1418.14 (q), Table XVI; and no person shall offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

(13) On and after December 9, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation, or of any price regulation heretofore issued, no person shall sell or deliver oleomargarine in the Territory of Puerto Rico at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in § 1418.14 (u), Table XIX; and no person shall offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing. On and after January 4, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation, or of any price regulation heretofore issued, no person shall sell or deliver certain processed fruits and vegetables in the Territory of Puerto Rico at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in § 1418.14 (v), Table XX; and no person shall offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

(14) On and after December 15, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation, or of any price regulation heretofore issued, no person shall sell or deliver frozen pork loins or turkeys in the Territory of Puerto Rico at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in § 1418.14 (x), Table XXI; and (y), Table XXII; and no person shall offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

[Paragraph (14) added by Amendment 13, 7 F.R. 10559]

(15) On and after January 4, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation, or of any price regulation heretofore issued, no person shall sell or deliver cattle sold for slaughter in Puerto Rico, beef produced from such cattle at wholesale or beef from such cattle at retail in the Territory of Puerto Rico at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in § 1418.14, paragraph (aa), Table XXIII; and no person shall offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

[Paragraph (15) added by Amendment 15, 8 F.R. 149]

(16) On and after February 16, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver and no person shall buy or receive bread in the Territory of Puerto Rico at prices higher than the maximum prices permitted by § 1418.14 (cc), and no person shall offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

[Paragraph (16) added by Amendment 19, 8 F.R. 2158]

(17) On and after April 6, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver and no person shall buy or receive matches of any variety in the Territory of Puerto Rico, at prices higher than the maximum prices permitted by § 1418.14 (dd), Table XXV, and no person shall offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

§ 1418.2 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 183 may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.

§ 1418.3 Adjustable pricing. Any person may offer or agree to adjust or fix prices to or at prices not in excess of the maximum prices in effect at the time of delivery. In an appropriate situation, where a petition for amendment or for adjustment or exception requires extended consideration, the Administrator may, upon application, grant permission to agree to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition of the petition.

§ 1418.4 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 183 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of, or relating to the commodities covered herein, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1418.5 Records and reports—(a) Records to be kept. (1) Every person making sales at wholesale of the commodities subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 183 shall, on and after the date any such commodity becomes subject to this regulation, keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, for a period of not less than one year, complete and accurate records of each purchase and each sale made by such person, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer and seller, the direct cost thereof, the price paid or received, the mark-up charged, and the quantity purchased or sold.

(2) Every person making sales at retail of the commodities subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 183 shall, on and after the date any such commodity becomes subject to this regulation, keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, for a period of not less than one year, complete and accurate records of each purchase made by the seller, the date thereof, the name and address of the person selling to the seller, the direct cost thereof, the price paid, the quantity purchased, and the mark-up charged by the seller to the buyer.

(b) Prices to be marked and posted. On and after the date any commodity becomes subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 183, every person offering to sell at retail any such commodity shall mark the maximum price of such commodity in a manner plainly visible to and understandable by, the purchasing public. The maximum prices may be marked on the commodities themselves or may be posted at the place in the establishment where the commodities are offered for sale, and may be posted by price lines if the selling price of each commodity is marked thereon. The maximum prices shall be indicated in the form "Ceiling Price $------" or "Our Ceiling $------".

(c) Lists to be filed. On or before 30 days following the date commodities become subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 183, every person offering to sell at retail commodities subject to this regulation, shall file with the Office of Price Administration for the Territory of Puerto Rico a list showing the maximum price for each commodity subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 183 then offered for sale, together with an appropriate identification of each such commodity. Such statement shall be kept up-to-date by such person by filing on the tenth day of every succeeding calendar month a statement of his maximum price for any commodity subject to this regulation newly offered for sale during the previous calendar month, together with an appropriate description or identification of the commodity.

(d) Sales slips and receipts. Every seller at retail of the commodities subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 183 who has customarily given purchasers sales slips or receipts shall continue to do so. Upon request from a purchaser, every such seller, regardless of previous custom, shall give the purchaser a receipt showing the date, the name and address of the seller, the commodity sold, and the price received for it.

§ 1418.6 Licensing—(a) License required. A license as a condition of selling, is hereby required of every person subject to this regulation now or hereafter selling a commodity for which a maximum price is established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 183.

(b) License granted. Every person subject to this regulation now or hereafter selling a commodity for which a maximum price is established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 183 is hereby granted a license as a condition of selling any such commodity. Such license shall be effective on the effective date of this regulation, or when any person becomes subject to the maximum price provisions of this regulation, and shall, unless suspended as provided by the Act, continue in force so long as and to the extent that said regulation or any amendment or supplement thereto remains in force.

(c) Licensing section of General Maximum Price Regulation superseded. This section supersedes the provisions of § 1499.16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation [3] insofar as said section may be applicable to persons selling any commodity for which a maximum price is established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 183.

§ 1418.7 Registration of licensees. Every person hereby licensed may be required to register with the Office of Price Administration at such time and in such manner as the Administrator may hereafter by regulation prescribe.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No 33 (7 F.R. 10535) requires sellers of commodities and industrial and institutional buyers of food commodities in Puerto Rico to register on December 12, 1942 with the Office of Price Administration. Any wholesale, retail, industrial or institutional establishment established after December 12, 1942 is required to be registered within 10 days after such establishment is opened for business.]

§ 1418.8 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 183 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, proceedings for the suspension of licenses, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 183, or any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation, are urged to communicate with the Office of Price Administration for the Territory of Puerto Rico or the principal Office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1418.9 Applicability of General Maximum Price Regulation. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 183 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except as otherwise provided herein, with respect to sales or deliveries of commodities for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

§ 1418.10 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 183 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

[§ 1418.10 amended by Amendment 8, 7 F.R. 8946]

§ 1418.10a Applications for adjustment. Any person seeking an adjustment of the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 183 may file a petition for adjustment in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 7.[4]

[§ 1418.10a added by Amendment 8]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 31 (7 F.R. 9894) provides that: "Notwithstanding the provisions on any price regulation, the tax on transportation of all property (excepting coal) imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 shall, for purposes of determining the applicable maximum price of any commodity or service be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by every person engaged in the business of transporting property for hire. It shall not be treated, under any provision of any price regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price."]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 28 (7 F.R. 9619) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment or petitions for amendment based on a pending wage or salary increase requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board.]

§ 1418.11 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 183, the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States, or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the foregoing.

(2) "Sale at wholesale" means a sale by a person who receives delivery of a commodity and resells it, without substantially changing its form, to any purchaser for resale or to a commercial or industrial user.

(3) "Sale at retail" means a sale or selling to an ultimate consumer other than an industrial or commercial user, except that (i) a "sale at retail" shall not include any sale by a producer, manufacturer, or fabricator of any commodity produced, manufactured, or fabricated by him, and (ii) a "sale at retail" shall not include any sale to the United States, any other government or any of its political subdivisions, any religious, educational or charitable institution, any institution for the sick, deaf, blind, disabled, aged or insane, or any school, hospital, library or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(4) "The direct cost to the seller" means the price which the seller paid for the commodity, less discounts allowed to the seller plus all costs of shipment actually incurred by the seller: Provided, That in computing the costs of shipment incurred by the seller, war risk insurance costs shall not exceed the amount represented by the charge for war risk insurance by the War Shipping Administration on an identical shipment.

[Paragraph (4) amended by Amendment 1, 7 F.R. 6744]

(5) "Sales and deliveries to buyers in the Territory of Puerto Rico" does not include sales from a seller outside the Territory of Puerto Rico to a purchaser in the Territory of Puerto Rico. Export sales, from a seller in the continental United States to a purchaser in the Territory of Puerto Rico shall be governed by the maximum prices established for export sales by the Maximum Export Price Regulation.[5]

(6) "Pocket" means a bag or other container of 100 pounds net of rice.

(7) "To deliver" means to transfer actual possession of the commodity to the purchaser or to any carrier, including a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to the purchaser.

(8) "Records" include books of account, sales lists, sales slips, orders, vouchers, contracts, receipts, invoices, bills of lading, and other papers and documents.

(9) "Milk" means cow's milk produced, processed, distributed, and sold for consumption in fluid form as whole milk.

(10) "Pasteurized milk" means milk that has been pasteurized by submitting it to a temperature between 142° F. and 145° F. for thirty minutes, and that has been immediately cooled and thereafter maintained at a maximum temperature of 53.6° F. or of 12° C., and has not been repasteurized.

(11) "Raw milk" means milk that has not been pasteurized.

(12) "Bulk milk" means milk sold from containers having a liquid measure of more than one (1) quart.

(13) "Bottled milk" means milk specially bottled for sale and delivery to consumers in glass bottle or paper containers of quart, pint, or half-pint size.

(14) "Producer of milk" means any person who is in the business of selling milk to distributors.

(15) "Distributor of milk" means any person, not excluding a producer of milk, who sells at wholesale, or who sells and delivers directly to ultimate consumers, not through a store.

(16) "Store" means any retail establishment, including a puesto, booth, stall, stand, or any retail outlet of any distributor of milk, selling milk at retail to ultimate consumers.

[Paragraphs (9) through (16) added by Amendment 6, 7 F.R. 8558]

(17) "Cattle" means all animals of the domesticated bovine species.

(18) "Cows" means only those female cattle which have conceived or which are five years or more of age.

(19) "Oxen" means castrated male cattle which are five years or more of age and which have been worked two years or more, or male cattle which are five years or more of age.

(20) "Arroba" means the live weight equivalent of 25 pounds of dressed meat.

(21) "Tenderloin" means filete.

(22) "Round meat" (carne de bifte) means lomillo, masa de cadera, masa redonda, masa larga, bubilla and landrecilla.

(23) "Stew meat" (carne de guisar) means faldilla, pecho, cubrepecho, pescuezo, espalda and sobrelomo.

(24) "Soup meat" (carne de sopa) means garrón, patas and bones with 25% or more of meat.

[Paragraphs (17) through (24) added by Amendment 15, 8 F.R. 149]

(25) "Bread" means the article of food sold in standard loaves prepared by moistening, kneading and baking meal or flour usually with the addition of yeast or leaven, such as "pan francaise" or "pan de agua" (French bread), "pan de sandwich" (Sandwich bread), and "pan sobado" (Breaked bread (sic)).

(26) "Specialty bread" means raisin bread, cracked wheat bread or any variety of bread, other than "pan francaise", "pan de agua", "pan de sandwich" or "pan sobado", which constituted 10% or less of the gross sales of the bread produced by the bakery during the month of January, 1943.

[Paragraphs (25) and (26) added by Amendment 19, 8 F.R. 2158]

(27) "Boxed wooden safety matches" means wooden matches, with a specially prepared head such as Signal Light, Palmer, Independence, Hav-a-Lite, Red Top and Criterion, which normally light only when struck on a specially prepared chemical surface and which are packed in two piece wooden splint or paperboard boxes generally containing 35 to 50 matches.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to the terms used herein.

§ 1418.14 Tables of maximum prices.

(a) Table I: Maximum prices for rice. (1) The maximum prices for rice sold or delivered in the Territory of Puerto Rico shall be:

	Sales to wholesalers	Sales at wholesale	Sales at retail
	Price per pound	Price per pound	Price per pound
All grades of imported rice	$.0655	$.07	$.08

For sales of different quantities the maximum price shall be computed proportionately.

[Paragraph (a) as amended by Amendment 18, 8 F.R. 324]

(b) Table II: Maximum prices for pork fat backs. (1) The maximum prices for pork fat backs sold or delivered in the Territory of Puerto Rico shall be:

	Sales to wholesalers	Sales at wholesale	Sales at retail
	Price per cwt.	Price per cwt.	Price per pound
Pork fat backs, dry salt	$14.00	$15.55	$0.18
Pork fat backs, pickled	14.17	15.55	.18

For sales of different quantities the maximum price shall be computed proportionately.

[Paragraph (b) added by Amendment 2; amended by Amendment 16]

(c) Table III—Maximum retail prices for cigarettes. (1) The maximum retail prices for cigarettes sold or delivered in the Territory of Puerto Rico shall be:

Brands	Maximum retail price per package of 20 cigarettes
Camel	$.16
Chesterfield	.16
Lucky Strike	.16
Old Gold	.16
Philip Morris	.16
Raleigh	.16
Pall Mall	.16

The maximum retail price for these brands of cigarettes not sold in packages of 20 cigarettes shall be a maximum price in line with the above prices. Any reduction in the number of cigarettes shall be accompanied by a proportionate reduction in price. For example: The maximum retail price for 10 cigarettes shall be 8 cents, the maximum retail price for 5 cigarettes shall be 4 cents, and the maximum retail price for any quantity less than 5 cigarettes shall be 1 cent per cigarette.

The maximum retail price for all other brands of cigarettes shall continue to be governed by the General Maximum Price Regulation.

On and after the effective date of this amendment, all persons selling cigarettes to retailers in the Territory of Puerto Rico shall insert in the first shipment to each retailer the following notification:

The maximum retail price for Camels, Chesterfields, Lucky Strikes, Old Golds, Philip Morris, Raleighs and Pall Mall which you are allowed to charge is 16 cents per package. Any reduction in the number of cigarettes shall be accompanied by a proportionate reduction in price. For example: The maximum retail price for 10 cigarettes shall be 8 cents, the maximum retail price for 5 cigarettes shall be 4 cents, and the maximum retail price for any quantity less than 5 cigarettes shall be 1 cent per cigarette. The maximum retail price for all other brands of cigarettes continues to be the highest price charged by you between April 10 and May 10, 1942.

[Paragraph (c) added by Amendment 4, 7 F.R. 7843]

(1) The maximum prices for present stocks of canned corned beef sold to retailers or at retail in the Territory of Puerto Rico shall be:

	Sales to retailers		Sales at retail
	Per case of 48 12 oz. tins	Per case of 48 8 oz. tins	12 oz. tin	8 oz. tin
First grade (sold by Libby, McNeill & Libby under the "Libby" brand label)	$13.03	$11.00	$0.32	$0.25
Second grade (all others)	11.25	9.50	.27	.21

The maximum prices for all other sizes of canned corned beef shall be a price in line with the maximum prices set forth above. The maximum prices for other tin sizes are to be computed by adding to or subtracting from the maximum prices set forth above the customary trade price differentials for tins of other sizes.

(2) Every person selling to a retailer shall, after the effective date of this amendment, before or at the time of his first delivery to each purchaser, supply the purchaser with the following statement:

OPA maximum prices for present stocks of canned corned beef in the Territory of Puerto Rico.

	Sales at retail
	12 oz. tin	8 oz. tin
Second grade (all others)	.27	.21

The maximum prices for all other sizes of canned corned beef shall be a price in line with these maximum prices. The maximum price for other tin sizes are to be computed by adding to or subtracting from the maximum prices set forth above the customary trade price differentials for tins of other sizes. For future supplies these maximum prices will be revised by the Director of the Office of Price Administration for the Territory of Puerto Rico.

(3) Future supplies. The Director of the Office of Price Administration for the Territory of Puerto Rico, may, if the costs of imported canned corned beef increases or decreases, revise these maximum prices, both as to existing and future supplies, whenever in his judgment such action is advisable. Such revision shall be made by amendment to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 183 and the prices so established shall be fair and equitable. The maximum prices established by the Director in such an amendment shall in no event permit any person selling at

(1) Deposits on glass bottle containers. No deposit in excess of 5 cents on any glass bottle container delivered in connection with the sale of bottled milk shall be required, and no person shall deposit more than 5 cents for any such glass bottle container. The deposit shall be refunded by the seller upon the return of such glass bottle container.

(2) Charges for long distance deliveries. No increase in the prices set forth in paragraph (e) of § 1418.14 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 183 shall be made, nor shall any charges for deliveries be collected, regardless of the distance required to be traveled in the delivery of milk to any purchaser: Provided, however, That, in connection with the sale and delivery of milk to the armed forces of the United States and to municipal and Insular institutions, the following charges may be added:

Less than 20 kilometers	No charge.
20 kilometers and less than 60 kilometers	1¢ per quart.
60 kilometers and less than 100 kilometers	2¢ per quart.
100 kilometers or more	3¢ per quart.

The above distance shall be computed, not from the place of business of the seller, but from the nearest business establishment of any distributor of similar milk via the shortest route to the point of delivery.

(3) The prices set forth in paragraph (e) of § 1418.14 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 183 are gross prices, before discounts of any nature, and include all commissions and other charges.

[Paragraph (e) added by Amendment 6]

(f) Table VI: Maximum prices for codfish and bloaters. (1) The maximum prices for codfish and bloaters sold and delivered on and after April 6, 1943, shall be:

	Sales to wholesalers (price per pound)	Sales at wholesale (price per pound)	Sales at retail (price per pound)
Codfish, hard dried	$0.145	$0.155	$0.18
Bloaters, hard dried, semi-dried, smoked	0.145	0.155	0.18

The maximum prices for all other grades of codfish and bloaters are to be computed by subtracting from the maximum price set forth above the customary trade price differentials.

(2) Every person selling to a retailer shall on and after April 6, 1943, before or at the time of his first delivery to each purchaser, supply the purchaser with the following statement:

Hens, 8 to 14 pound unit	.455	.60
Toms, 16 to 20 pound unit	.415	.60
Toms, over 20 pounds

For sales of different quantities the maximum price shall be proportionately computed.

The maximum price for all other grades of turkeys shall be a price in line with the maximum prices above, and shall be computed by adding to or subtracting from the maximum prices set forth above the customary trade price differentials for other grades.

(z) Every person selling any of the commodities listed in paragraphs (x) and (y) of this section, to a retailer on and after December 15, 1942, before or at the time of his first delivery to each purchaser shall supply the purchaser with a statement of the maximum retail prices set forth above for the commodity or commodities delivered.

[Paragraphs (x), (y), and (z) added by Amendment 13]

(aa) Table XXIII. Specific maximum prices for cattle and beef. (1) The maximum prices for cows and oxen sold for slaughter shall be $5.00 per arroba. For all other cattle sold for slaughter the maximum price shall be $6.25 per arroba. Where the estimated weight involves a fraction of an arroba the maximum price of such fractional part shall be proportionately computed.

(2) The maximum wholesale price for all meat derived from cattle slaughtered in the Territory of Puerto Rico shall be 21¢ per pound.

(3) The maximum retail prices for beef derived from cattle slaughtered in Puerto Rico shall be:

(i) Where the seller customarily sold beef in accordance with the classifications: Tenderloin, round meat, stew meat and soup meat, he shall continue to sell by these classifications at prices no higher than the following:

	Sales at retail (per pound)
Tenderloin	$0.65
Round meat	0.45
Stew meat	0.25
Soup meat	0.12

(ii) Where the seller has not customarily sold beef in accordance with the classifications set forth in paragraph (i) above, the maximum retail prices shall be as follows:

	Sales at retail (per pound)
Tenderloin	$0.65
All meat excepting tenderloin	0.27

Meat sold at 27¢ per pound in accordance with this paragraph shall not contain more than 25% of bone.

(bb) Every person selling any of the commodities listed in paragraph (aa) of this section, to a retailer on and after January 4, 1943, before or at the time of his first delivery to each purchaser shall supply the purchaser with a statement of the maximum retail prices set forth above for the commodity or commodities delivered.

[Paragraphs (aa) and (bb) added by Amendment 15, 8 F.R. 149]

(cc) Table XXIV: Specific maximum prices for bread.

(1) The maximum prices for bread sold or delivered in the Territory of Puerto Rico shall be:

At bakery to wholesaler	At bakery to retailers	Delivered to retailers	Delivered to institutional and commercial users	All sales at retail
Price per lb.	Price per lb.	Price per lb.	Price per lb.	Price per lb.
$0.0775	$0.080	$0.085	$0.085	$0.10

For sales of different quantities the maximum price shall be completed proportionately. Maximum prices for specialty bread continue to be governed by the General Maximum Price Regulation.

[Paragraph (cc) added by Amendment 19, 8 F.R. 2158]

(dd) Table XXV: Specific maximum prices for matches. (1) The maximum prices for all varieties of boxed wooden safety matches to retailers and at retail shall be as follows:

Sales at wholesale: $1.15 per gross, or a price derived by applying a mark-up over direct cost of 10¢ per gross, whichever results in a lower price.

Sales at retail: 1¢ per box

(2) No sale of matches other than boxed wooden safety matches, imported after the effective date of this amendment, shall be made by the importer until the maximum price for such matches has been authorized by the Director of the Office of Price Administration for the Territory of Puerto Rico. An importer who seeks a maximum price for such matches, shall file with the Puerto Rico office of the Office of Price Administration an application setting forth:

(i) A description of the matches for which the maximum price is sought;

(ii) A complete statement of all costs in connection with such matches;

(iii) The quantity of such matches for which an order has been placed, or which have been imported and are awaiting distribution, or which are on hand; and

(iv) Any other facts which the seller wishes to submit in support of his application. The seller shall also submit such additional pertinent information as the Puerto Rico office of the Office of Price Administration may require. Such authorized price will be given in the form of an amendment or of an order by the Director of the Office of Price Administration for the Territory of Puerto Rico, prescribing the maximum price for the applicant or for sellers of matches generally including purchasers for resale, or for a class of such sellers.

(3) The maximum prices established on sales by importers of matches, by wholesalers, and by retailers, shall be fair and equitable and shall consist of mark-ups not to exceed:

(i) A mark-up of 10% over direct cost on all sales by an importer of matches, except on sales direct to retailers, in which case a 15% mark-up may be authorized;

(ii) A mark-up of 10% on sales by wholesalers; and

(iii) A mark-up of 25% on sales at retail.

In establishing maximum prices in accordance with this section, fractions of one-half cent or more shall be adjusted to the next higher cent, and fractions of less than one-half cent to the next lower cent.

(4) The direct cost to the importer may not exceed the cost of a reasonably expeditious shipment via the most efficient, readily and regularly available route and means.

(5) Every sale, except at retail, of matches, shall be accompanied either by a sales invoice or by a statement containing whichever of the following statements applies to the particular case:

(i) Boxed wooden safety matches:

OPA MAXIMUM PRICES FOR MATCHES IN THE TERRITORY OF PUERTO RICO

PART 1404—RATIONING OF FOOTWEAR

[RO 17,[1] Amendment 7]

SHOES

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 17 is amended in the following respect:

1. Section 1.7a is added to read as follows:

§ 1.7a Employer may get stamps for safety shoes. (a) Any employer having employees who require safety shoes for the protection of their health or safety and whose plant is not served by a Plant Area Board may make application to, and upon approval obtain from, the district office the number of special shoe stamps (or temporary shoe purchase certificates) necessary to allow the acquisition by his employees of a two months' supply of safety shoes. The employer shall apply in writing and shall furnish to the district office all information necessary to show his eligibility and the number of stamps required during the two month period.

(b) Any employer acquiring stamps under this section shall appoint some person or committee to issue the stamps to his employees and shall notify the district office of the appointment and obtain its approval of the appointment. When a stamp is issued by such person or committee to an employee, he shall write on it the date of issuance and the number of the employee's War Ration Book or if the employee does not have a War Ration Book, he shall write on it the words "No book". A stamp may be issued only to an employee who has filled out an application under section 1.5 and who meets the need requirements of section 1.5. These individual applications shall be filed by the employer with the district office when he makes his next application under this section. Application may be made by the employer before he has exhausted his supply of stamps but he must state in his application the number of stamps he has on hand and the number of individual applications he is forwarding.

(c) Whenever the term "stamp" is used in this section it shall refer also to a "temporary shoe purchase certificate".

This amendment shall become effective April 5, 1943.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Order 353 under § 1499.3 (b) of GMPR]

MAXIMUM PRICES FOR ALUMINUM PIG

For reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register,* and pursuant to and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, Executive Order No. 9250, and section 3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, It is hereby ordered:

§ 1499.1789 Maximum prices for aluminum pig. (a) The following maximum prices are specifically authorized for aluminum pig sold by producers of primary aluminum:

Grade	Maximum price (cents per pound)
(1) Unalloyed grades (average aluminum content):
97% minimum	13
99% minimum	14
99.6% minimum	14½
99.7% minimum	15
99.8% minimum	16
99.85% minimum	17
99.9% minimum	24
(2) Alloy grades (approximate composition):
80-20 Al-Cu	14
88-8-4 Al-Cu-Ni	15
88-12 Al-Si	14
90-10 Al-Si	14
87.5-10-2.5 Al-Si-Cu	14½
95-5 Al-Mn	14
90-10 Al-Ni	16½
97.5-2.5 Al-Cr	16

(b) The average aluminum content of all aluminum pig supplied under any single order or contract shall determine the classification of the unalloyed grades.

(c) The maximum prices authorized in this order shall be subject to the discounts, quantity premiums, transportation allowances and other terms of sale employed by producers in sales of primary aluminum ingot during March 1942.

(d) (1) "Pig" is unrefined aluminum of variable composition, as cast from the electric reduction furnaces. It is ordinarily supplied in pieces weighing approximately 50 pounds.

(2) "Producer" means the Aluminum Company of America, The Olin Corporation, Reynolds Metals Company and any other person producing aluminum principally from alumina.

(e) This order may be revoked or amended by the Administrator at any time.

Issued and effective this 30th day of March, 1943.

[RPS 1,[3] Amendment 3]

SECOND-HAND MACHINE TOOLS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1301.1a is added to read as follows:

§ 1301.1a Sales by Defense Plant Corporation. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Revised Price Schedule, the maximum price applicable to the sale by the Defense Plant Corporation of any second-hand machine tool or extra which was acquired by the Defense Plant Corporation for purposes of rental shall be computed as provided in subparagraphs (a) and (b) below:

(a) Where the purchaser is the first lessee of the machine tool or extra under an agreement with the Defense Plant Corporation. The maximum price shall be computed by adding the sum of the following:

(1) The cost of the machine tool or extra to the Defense Plant Corporation, f. o. b. the plant of the manufacturer of the machine tool or extra;

(2) The freight paid by the Defense Plant Corporation from the plant of the manufacturer of the machine tool or extra to the plant of the purchaser;

(3) The cost to the Defense Plant Corporation of unloading the machine tool or extra at the plant of the purchaser;

(4) The cost to the Defense Plant Corporation of the installation of the machine tool or extra in the plant of the purchaser;

(5) Interest on Items (1) to (4), inclusive, at the rate actually charged the purchaser under the agreement of lease between the Defense Plant Corporation and the purchaser, or if no interest rate was specified in such agreement the average rate charged by the Defense Plant Corporation to other lessees of comparable machine tools and extras, such interest to be computed from the date that each of such items was paid by the Defense Plant Corporation to the date of sale.

(6) Direct expenses actually incurred by Defense Plant Corporation and normally charged the purchaser under the agreement of lease between Defense Plant Corporation and the purchaser; or, if no provision for direct expenses is specified in such agreement, direct expenses actually incurred by Defense Plant Corporation and normally charged by Defense Plant Corporation to other lessees of comparable machine tools and extras.

From the sum of Items (1) to (5), inclusive, deduct depreciation on the original total cost of acquisition by Defense Plant Corporation at the rate of eight per cent (8%) per annum from the date of installation and initial use after acquisition by Defense Plant Corporation of such machine tool or extra to the date of sale, except that in the event of sale within ninety (90) days after such initial use no depreciation shall be deducted.

(b) Where the purchaser is a person other than the first lessee of the machine tool or extra. The maximum price delivered to the plant of the purchaser shall be computed by adding the sum of the following:

(1) The cost of the machine tool or extra to the Defense Plant Corporation, f. o. b. the plant of the manufacturer of the machine tool or extra;

(2) An allowance equal to the freight charge for the transportation of such machine tool or extra from the location of the machine tool or extra at the time of sale by Defense Plant Corporation to the plant of the purchaser. From the sum of Items (1) and (2), deduct depreciation on the original total cost of acquisition by Defense Plant Corporation at the rate of eight per cent (8%) per annum from the date of installation and initial use after acquisition by Defense Plant Corporation of such machine tool or extra to the date of sale, except that in the event of sale within ninety (90) days after such initial use no depreciation shall be deducted.

CERTAIN TISSUE PAPER PRODUCTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 266 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1347.515 (a) (3) (iii) is added to read as follows:

(iii) In special cases in which test runs of toilet tissue are made at the request of the War Production Board, such runs to be of limited quantities only, and for a limited period of time, and to be made only to discover improved methods of conserving materials, and for cost-finding purposes, the Administrator may, if he deems such procedure to be in the interest of the successful prosecution of the war, authorize by letter appropriate temporary maximum prices for such test runs of toilet tissue. The temporary maximum price or prices may in no event exceed the maximum price for that product for which the substitution is made. Any manufacturer desiring to obtain such temporary maximum prices for such purposes may request permission by letter, setting forth fully the reasons for such test-run, its duration and scope, the temporary maximum price or prices requested, and any other pertinent information.

2. Section 1347.516 (a) (2) is amended by designating the undesignated paragraph following the words "Special products" as subdivision (i).

3. Section 1347.516 (a) (2) (ii) is added to read as follows:

(ii) In special cases in which test runs of paper towels are made at the request of the War Production Board, such runs to be of limited quantities only, and for a limited period of time, and to be made only to discover improved methods of conserving materials, and for cost-finding purposes, the Administrator may, if he deems such procedure to be in the interest of the successful prosecution of the war, authorize by letter appropriate temporary maximum prices for such test runs of paper towels. SECTION 1 Export sales to procurement agencies of the United States for the account of the Office of Lend-Lease Administration. On a sale to a procurement agency buying for the account of the Office of Lend-Lease Administration, established under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States," the maximum price shall be the seller's maximum domestic price applicable to the transaction plus the following charges if separately shown on the seller's invoice:

(a) Extra packing costs to be determined in accordance with Supplementary Order No. 34[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration;

[1] 7 F.R. 10779.

(b) The difference between the greater cost of installation and other necessary services involved in the sale and the cost of installation and other necessary services which would have been involved in a domestic sale, if such installation or services are contracted for by an agency of the United States, whether such installation or services are performed directly by the seller or by his distributor or agent:

Except that if the applicable domestic price regulation expressly allows and provides for any of the expenses on sales for the account of the Office of Lend-Lease Administration, that provision of the domestic price regulation shall govern.

SEC. 2 Sales to exporters. On a sale to a person who buys for his own account a commodity for shipment outside the continental United States, the maximum price shall be the seller's maximum domestic price applicable to the transaction plus the following charges if separately shown on the seller's invoice:

(a) Extra packing expenses as allowed by section 4 (b); and

(b) The difference between the greater cost of installation and servicing involved in the sale and the cost of installation and servicing involved in a comparable domestic sale, whether such installation or servicing is performed directly or by a distributor or agent:

Except that if the applicable domestic price regulation expressly provides for installation and servicing on such sales, that provision of the domestic price regulation shall govern.

SEC. 3 Maximum export prices for export sales other than to procurement agencies of the United States for an account of the Office of Lend-Lease Administration. On and after April 5, 1943, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase, or of any export license thereafter issued by the Board of Economic Warfare or other governmental agency, no exporter or other seller in a transaction dealt with below shall sell, offer to sell, transport, ship, or participate in the transportation or shipment of, any commodity at a price in excess of the following maximum prices:

(a) In the case of an exporter other than the manufacturer or producer of the commodity the maximum export price shall be either:

(1) The price at which the commodity was acquired or the maximum domestic price which would be applicable to a current sale of the commodity to the exporter by the supplier thereof, plus the additions thereto authorized by paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 4 and less the deductions provided by section 5 (a); or

(2) The maximum domestic price, at the point from which the commodity is to be shipped for export, which would be applicable to a sale of the commodity by the exporter to a domestic purchaser similar to the purchaser outside the Continental United States, plus the allowable expenses authorized by section 4 (b), and less the deductions provided by section 5 (a). In the event that a maximum domestic price for such a sale of the commodity by the exporter is not determinable, a price in line with the maximum undelivered price which would be applicable to such a sale by the domestic jobber or wholesaler located nearest the point from which the commodity is to be shipped for export may be substituted as the basic price and the addition of allowable expenses authorized by section 4 (b) and the deductions provided by section 5 (a) made thereto: Provided, That on an export sale of the goods dealt with in section 7, a premium not in excess of that specified therein may be added.

(b) In the case of an exporter who is the manufacturer or producer of the commodity to be exported, the maximum export price shall be his maximum domestic price for the commodity to a domestic purchaser similar to the purchaser outside the continental United States or, in case there is no such price, shall be his maximum domestic price to such a similar purchaser for the most nearly similar commodity of equal or lower quality or grade plus the additions thereto authorized by sections 4 (a) or 7, and 4 (b), and less the deductions provided by section 5 (b).

(c) In the case of an exporter who is the manufacturer or producer of a commodity which is not sold domestically by any seller and for which there is no similar domestic product, or which is not sold domestically by any manufacturer or producer to the class of purchaser to which the exporter sells outside the continental United States, the maximum export price shall be the highest price charged in the export market by the manufacturer or producer to the same purchaser or to a similar purchaser outside the continental United States during the period March 1 to April 15, 1942, or the price on the last sale of the commodity by the exporter to such a purchaser prior to that period. No such price shall be charged until after an affidavit has been filed with the Office of Export-Import Price Control, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. stating either that no similar product sold in the domestic market exists, or that no similar product is sold domestically by any manufacturer or producer of the product to a purchaser of the same class as the purchaser outside the continental United States; showing the maximum export price proposed to be charged on export sales of the commodity, and indicating the transaction or transactions in the March 1 to April 15, 1942 period or prior to that period upon which the proposed price is based. The Price Administrator may disapprove or adjust the prices proposed if in his opinion the requirements of this section are not met, or if in his opinion the price is excessive.

(d) In the case of solid fuels exported to the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, the Dominion of Canada and Newfoundland, the maximum export price shall be that established by Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 120, 121, and 122 to the extent that such regulations are applicable.

In calculating the maximum export price on sales of bituminous coal to all other destinations, the maximum domestic price to be used shall be the maximum price for the same coal at the port of embarkation, determined by the seller under Maximum Price Regulation No. 189, unless the sale shall have been made on a prepared size basis, in which event the maximum domestic price shall be determined in accordance with the applicable domestic price regulation.

SEC. 4 Export premiums and allowable expenses on export sales other than to procurement agencies of the United States for the account of the Office of Lend-Lease Administration. (a) An amount (stated either as a percentage of the basic price or as a flat amount, depending upon the customary practise in the trade) not in excess of 125 per cent of the average premium charged in the export trade during the period July 1 to December 31, 1940 for the particular services or functions performed, or 125% of the average premium charged in the export trade during the period March 1 to April 15, 1942, for the particular services or functions performed, whichever figure is the lower, may be added by the exporter to his maximum domestic price or other basic price, as provided in section 3 of this regulation. If the commodity being exported was, during the period March 1 to April 15, 1942, covered by a specific price schedule or regulation which contained no express provision for export sales or which expressly prohibited the charging of an export premium, the maximum premium shall be 125 per cent of the average premium charged during the period July 1 to December 31, 1940. In determining the applicable premium, due recognition shall be given to differences in the amount of the premium charged by different types of exporters during the controlling base period, and to differences in premiums resulting from variations in the size or value of exports, the terms of credit, the destination of the goods, and the functions performed by agents or subsidiaries at the destination: Provided, That no premium may be included in a maximum export price computed under section 3 (a) (2) unless otherwise provided for therein, or under section 3 (c): Provided further, That the applicable average export premium shall not be increased by reason of the fact that more than one exporter participates in the process of exportation.

(b) An amount may be added by the exporter to his basic price to compensate for expenses, such as freight, marine and war risk insurance, consular fees, freight forwarders' fees packing costs in excess of those incurred on domestic sales, demurrage charges, and other shipping charges, incident to exporting the commodity and incurred or to be incurred by the exporter. When the maximum domestic price which is used by the exporter as his basic price under sections 3 (a) (2) or 3 (b) is a delivered price and the exporter uses an emergency port of exit, he may add to the maximum delivered price at the normal port of exit the difference between the inland freight actually incurred to the emergency port and the freight which would have been incurred had a normal port of exit been used. When the maximum domestic price which is used by the exporter as his basic price under sections 3 (a) (2) or 3 (b) is established f. o. b. interior shipping point with an allowance of all or part of the inland freight and the exporter uses an emergency port of exit, he may add to such basic price the inland freight actually incurred to the emergency port less the amount of freight which he would be required to allow on shipments to the normal port.

SEC. 5 Deductions from maximum export price on export sales other than to procurement agencies for the account of the Office of Lend-Lease Administration. (a) Where an exporter other than the manufacturer or producer of the commodity is entitled and lays claim to any drawback of import duties or excise taxes or export subsidy the amount of such drawback or such subsidy, with allowance for the expenses incurred in obtaining such drawback or subsidy, shall be deemed an addition to the price charged by the exporter and may only be retained by him provided that it does not increase his premium beyond the amount allowed by sections 4 (a) or 7 of this regulation.

(b) Where an exporter who is the manufacturer or producer of the commodity is entitled and lays claim to any drawback of import duties or excise taxes or export subsidy the amount of such drawback or subsidy, with allowance for the expenses incurred in obtaining such drawback or subsidy, shall be deemed an addition to the price charged by the exporter to the extent to which his cost of manufacture of the commodity is reduced below the cost of manufacture of the same or similar commodity sold domestically. This addition may be retained to the extent that it does not increase his premium beyond the amount allowed by sections 4 (a) or 7 of this regulation.

SEC. 6 Promulgation of specific maximum export premiums for export sales other than to procurement agencies for the account of the Office of Lend-Lease Administration. The Office of Price Administration may from time to time promulgate figures which shall reflect the average premium charged in the export trade for the particular services or functions performed during either the period July 1 to December 31, 1940 or March 1 to April 15, 1942, whichever average premium is lower.

Moreover, if the periods July 1 to December 31, 1940 or March 1 to April 15, 1942 are determined by the Price Administrator to be inappropriate base periods, or where the trade or industry finds great difficulty in discovering an appropriate premium in the base periods the Office of Price Administration may promulgate a specific export premium for the trade or industry. In case of such promulgation, and pursuant to and subject to the terms of the promulgation, the premium therein stated shall become the maximum premium to be charged in the export trade unless the alternative of the average export premium of the trade is specifically allowed by the Administrator. Such promulgation or promulgations, shall be in the form of amendments to this Maximum Export Price Regulation, and shall be inserted as subparagraphs of section 7.

SEC. 7 Specific maximum export premiums for export sales other than to procurement agencies for the account of the Office of Lend-Lease Administration—(a) Textiles. The maximum export premium to be charged on an export sale of textiles, whether woven, twisted, or knitted, containing 75 per cent or more by weight of cotton or artificial fiber, or a mixture of cotton and artificial fiber, including but not limited to finished piece goods and grey goods regardless of width, and articles which are transformed from piece goods into finished articles simply by cutting and or hemming and or overedging (but not including wearing apparel), and yarn, thread, twine and rope of cotton or artificial fiber, shall be either:

(1) An amount as defined in section 4 (a), which may be added to the basic price as defined in sections 3 (a) (1) or 3 (b); or

(2) An amount not in excess of 7 per cent of the domestic maximum price which is applicable to a sale by the exporter to a domestic purchaser similar to the purchaser located outside the continental United States, which may be added to the basic price as defined in sections 3 (a) (2) or 3 (b).

(b) Domestic chrome ores and concentrates. The maximum export premium to be charged on an export sale of domestic chrome ores and concentrates of 38% to 44% to Cr_2O_3 content shall be $6.00 per gross ton of 2240 pounds.

(c) Bituminous coal. The maximum export premium to be charged on an export sale of bituminous coal, except to the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, the Dominion of Canada and Newfoundland, shall be 25 cents per net ton of 2,000 pounds.

SEC. 8. Export prices for iron and steel products subject to Revised Price Schedule 6 or Revised Price Schedule 49 in the domestic market. (a) In the case of an exporter who is a producer of iron and steel products as defined in Revised Price Schedule No. 6 (Iron and Steel Products), the maximum export price of such a product sold under a contract of sale entered into on or after April 2, 1943 shall be either:

(1) The aggregate of:

(i) The domestic or export base price of the product at the governing or emergency basing point, plus applicable domestic and export extras, as provided in Revised Price Schedule No. 6, and plus inland transportation charges (at export rates where applicable) from such governing or emergency basing point (whichever is applicable) to the port of exit: Provided, however, That if an emergency basing point is used the transportation charges shall in no case exceed the actual transportation charges from the producing mill to the port of exit; and

(ii) Expenses incident to exportation and incurred or to be incurred by the exporter such as demurrage, storage, transfer to the export carrier, ocean or other export freight, marine and war risk insurance, and consular fees; or

(2) The aggregate of:

(i) The export base price of the product quoted by the United States Steel Export Company f. a. s. the port of exit on April 16, 1941, plus applicable export extras, as provided in Revised Price Schedule No. 6 (see its appendix D for such export base prices for principal ports); and

(ii) Expenses incident to exportation and incurred or to be incurred by the exporter for demurrage, storage, and transfer to the export carrier, in excess of the amounts of such charges which were normally included in the price under section 8 (a) (2) (i) above; and

(iii) Other expenses incident to exportation and incurred or to be incurred by the exporter such as ocean freight, marine and war risk insurance, and consular fees; or

(3) Where a product has no basing point base price, the maximum price established by section 8 (a) (2) above, or the aggregate of:

(i) The export price, including applicable extras, which was or would have been charged for the product by the producer on April 16, 1941, plus inland transportation charges (at export rates where applicable) from the producing mill to the port of exit (except that portion of those charges which was or would have been included in such price); and

(ii) Expenses incident to exportation and incurred or to be incurred by the exporter in excess of the amounts, if any, of such expenses which were normally included in the price under section 8 (a) (3) (i) above.

Provided, That on a sale to a procurement agency buying for the account of the Office of Lend-Lease Administration, the maximum price shall be the maximum domestic price established by Revised Price Schedule No. 6, except that (a) where there are no published or filed domestic extras, export extras shall apply; (b) inland transportation charges shall be computed at export rates where applicable, otherwise at domestic rates; and (c) where there is no established domestic ceiling price for the product, the maximum price shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of sections 8 (a) (2) or 8 (a) (3) above.

(b) In the case of an exporter who is not a producer but a seller of iron and steel products as defined in Revised Price Schedule No. 49,[3] the maximum export price of such a product sold under a contract of sale entered into on or after April 2, 1943 shall be either:

(1) Where the exporter has put the product being exported through "the operations commonly known as the warehousing of iron or steel products" as defined in § 1306.157 (s) of Revised Price Schedule No. 49, the aggregate of:

(i) The maximum price, including applicable extras, as provided in Revised Price Schedule No. 49 which would be applicable to a sale of the product by the exporter to a domestic purchaser within the exporter's city or free delivery area (which price shall include delivery f. o. b. inland carrier within such city or free delivery area or, if shipment is to be made by boat from port located within such city or free delivery area, shall include delivery f. a. s. vessel);

(ii) Expenses incident to exportation and incurred or to be incurred by the exporter, such as inland transportation charges (at export rates where applicable), demurrage, storage, transfer to the export carrier, ocean or other export freight, marine and war risk insurance, and consular fees; or

(2) Where the exporter has not put the product being exported through "the operations commonly known as the warehousing of iron or steel products" as defined in § 1306.157 (s) of Revised Price Schedule No. 49, the aggregate of:

(i) The maximum price, including applicable extras, which would be applicable to a current sale of the product to the exporter by the supplier thereof; and

(ii) An amount not in excess of 12½ per cent of such maximum price (but which need not be less than $20) when the total price of the order to the exporter computed at such maximum price does not exceed $1,000, or 10 per cent (but not less than $125) when such total price is over $1,000 but does not exceed $4,000, or 8 per cent (but not less than $400) when such total price is over $4,000 but does not exceed $10,000, or 6 per cent (but not less than $800) when such total price is over $10,000; and

(iii) An additional amount calculated as a percentage of the maximum price under section 8 (b) (2) (i) above, as follows: if the terms of payment call for letter of credit payable against ocean documents, 1½ per cent; or, if the terms call for draft payable abroad and no letter of credit is involved, 2 per cent if such draft is payable at sight plus an additional ½ of 1 per cent for each 30 days from sight at which such draft is payable; or, if the sale is made on open account, 2 per cent if the terms stated are cash on receipt of invoice, plus an additional ½ of 1 per cent for each 30 days of credit extension stipulated on the invoice, but in no event more than a total of 3½ per cent; and

(iv) Expenses incident to exportation and incurred or to be incurred by the exporter, such as inland transportation charges (at export rates where applicable), demurrage, storage, transfer to the export carrier, ocean or other export freight, marine and war risk insurance, and consular fees.

(c) Where shipment has actually been made to the intended point of exportation and war exigencies require the use of another point of exportation, the maximum export prices shall be those established under sections 8 (a) and 8 (b) above, except that such maximum prices may include the additional amount actually incurred by the exporter to effect delivery at the point of exportation finally used.

(d) The maximum export prices established by sections 8 (a) and 8 (b) above shall include and shall not be increased by reason of interest or financing charges connected with the transaction or by reason of any fees or commissions, including commissions paid to intermediaries, whether domestic or foreign.

SEC. 9 Exceptions. (a) The Provisions of this Maximum Export Price Regulation shall not be applicable to any export made pursuant to a contract of sale entered into prior to April 30, 1942 for which an export license is not required or which is made under a validly outstanding export license issued by the Board of Economic Warfare or the Department of State prior to April 30, 1942: Provided, That the exception here granted shall apply to exports for which an export license is not required or which are made under general or unlimited licenses issued by the Board of Economic Warfare only if the commodity was actually transported outside of the continental United States prior to October 1, 1942.

(b) The Administrator, subject to such terms and conditions as he shall determine to be necessary or desirable, may grant an exception to the provisions of this Maximum Export Price Regulation in any case in which a certificate is received by the Administrator from the Board of Economic Warfare certifying that such exception is necessary for considerations of political or military necessity or because of the requirements of economic warfare.

(c) The provisions of this regulation shall not be applicable to any export under a contract of sale entered into prior to April 30, 1942, the price for which was determined under the export provisions of a specific price schedule or regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration prior to April 25, 1942.

(d) The provisions of this regulation shall not apply to commodities shipped into the continental United States from outside thereof for transhipment, in bond, to any destination outside the continental United States.

(e) The provisions of this regulation shall not be applicable to goods sold while stored in a free port established by the laws of the United States.

(f) The provisions of this regulation shall not be applicable to the export sale of a commodity which would not be governed by a domestic price regulation if sold domestically by the exporter to a domestic purchaser of the same class as the foreign purchaser.

(g) The provisions of this regulation shall not be applicable to sales or resales by an agent of the exporter or a firm owned or controlled by the exporter when the commodity has been sold or invoiced to such agent or firm at a price not in excess of the price permitted by this regulation, if

(1) The agent or the owned or controlled firm has processed, fabricated or otherwise substantially changed the form of the commodity exporter; or

(2) The sale by the agent or the owned or controlled firm is through a regularly established retail outlet owned or operated by the agent or subsidiary; or

(3) The sale is made by an agent of a manufacturer or producer of the commodity, or by a firm controlled by the manufacturer or producer and is made in the United Kingdom, the Dominions of Australia, New Zealand, the Union of South Africa and Canada.

(h) The provisions of this regulation shall not be applicable to export sales by the United States Commercial Company made under a directive of the Board of Economic Warfare in connection with its preclusive buying program.

SEC. 10. Records. (a) Each exporter, in connection with any export for which a specific export license is required either in the space provided under question 17 of the duplicate and triplicate copies of the export license application to be filed with the Office of Export Control, Board of Economic Warfare, or in the space provided in any form of export license application hereafter promulgated, or in any other manner which the Office of Price Administration or the Board of Economic Warfare shall prescribe, shall state the following information:

(1) In the case of an exporter other than the manufacturer, the price at which the commodity was acquired or other basic price (exclusive of any expenses incident to export), or in the case of the manufacturer, the maximum domestic price or other basic price to which the additions authorized by paragraphs (a) and (b) of sections 4 or 7 are to be made, and

(2) The amount of the premium to be added pursuant to sections 4 (a) or 7.

(b) In addition, each exporter shall, for a period of not less than two years from the date of export, retain a record of each export transaction which shall contain all the facts pertinent thereto, including:

(1) (i) In the case of an export by a person other than the manufacturer, the price at which the commodity was acquired and name and address of the person from whom the commodity was acquired, or other basic price authorized by section 3 (a).

(ii) In the case of an export by a manufacturer or producer the maximum domestic price or other basic price authorized by paragraphs (b) and (c) of section 3.

(2) The name and address of the importer to whom the export sale was made, and

(3) The aggregate price charged, the amount of the premium added pursuant to section 4 (a) or 7 and the amount of each additional item of expense added pursuant to section 4 (b) together with a copy of the invoice, bill of lading or other statement rendered to the importer in connection with the export sale.

(c) Such records shall be available for inspection by duly authorized representatives of the Office of Price Administration and the Administrator may require their submission for periodical inspection if he deems such inspection necessary or desirable.

SEC. 11 Definitions. (a) When used in this maximum export price regulation the term:

(1) "Export" or "export sale" means:

(i) Any sale of a commodity by a seller or his agent in the continental United States to a purchaser outside thereof in which the selling or invoicing is done in the continental United States, or is done outside the continental United States on behalf of a principal or parent firm in the continental United States, and the commodity sold is or has been transported from the continental United States to a point outside thereof;

(ii) Any sale to a procurement agency of the United States for the account of the Office of Lend-Lease Administration;

(iii) Any sale to an agency of a foreign government;

(iv) Any sale to an agent in the United States who discloses that he takes title on behalf of a principal outside the continental United States, provided such disclosure is noted by the seller on his invoice; and

(v) Any sale of the exported commodity by an agent abroad of the exporter for the exporter's account, or by a firm owned or controlled by the exporter, within a period of two years after the date of shipment of the commodity from the continental United States except as provided in section 9 (g).

(2) "Exporter" means any individual, partnership, association or corporation, including a manufacturer, export agent, export merchant, or commission merchant, engaging or participating, as the seller or his agent in any selling or invoicing in connection with an export sale.

(3) "Continental United States" means only the forty-eight States and the District of Columbia.

(4) "Maximum domestic price" means the highest price at which the seller may, under any applicable price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, sell, offer to sell, deliver or transfer a particular commodity to a given class of purchaser within the continental United States.

(5) "Exporter who is the manufacturer or producer" shall include wholly owned subsidiaries, related companies all of whose stock is owned by a common parent, and persons to whose specifications and under whose supervision products are manufactured by another, as well as the actual manufacturer or producer.

(6) The term "domestic purchaser similar to the purchaser outside the continental United States" means a domestic purchaser of the same general class as the purchaser outside the continental United States, e. g., manufacturer, wholesaler, jobber, exclusive distributor, retailer, government agency, public institution, individual consumer, or other class of purchaser for which the seller has an established price.

(7) "Basic price" shall mean the cost of acquisition or other domestic price referred to in section 3 of this regulation.

(8) "Similar commodities" shall have the meaning given it in § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(9) "Normal port of exit" means the port of exit in the continental United States from which the commodity being exported would have customarily been shipped in export to a particular destination during the period July 1 to December 31, 1941.

(10) "Emergency port" means the port from which the commodity being exported is actually shipped in export, when the "normal port of exit" is not available.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.

SEC. 12. Petitions for adjustment. Any person seeking an adjustment of any provision of this Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation may file a petition for adjustment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

SEC. 13 Enforcement. (a) Any person violating either directly or indirectly the provisions of this maximum export price regulation shall be subject to the civil and criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages or other enforcement procedures authorized by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Any person having evidence of any violation of this regulation or any maximum price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration is urged to communicate with the nearest regional or field office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

(c) No exporter shall invoice goods, whether to his buyer or any other person at a price in excess of the maximum export price which he may charge that person under the terms of this regulation: Provided, That an exporter may include in his invoice to a purchaser outside the continental United States any purchasing commission which he paid to his buyer's purchasing agent in the continental United States under specific instructions of the buyer: Provided, That such commission is separately stated on the invoice rendered to the buyer.

SEC. 14 Existing maximum price schedules, regulations or orders. No provision of any maximum price schedule, regulation or order heretofore promulgated by the Office of Price Administration shall be deemed to authorize any action inconsistent with the provisions of this regulation and, to the extent that the provisions of any existing schedule, regulation or order are inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of the Maximum Export Price Regulation, such provisions are hereby revoked and superseded.

Nothing in this regulation shall be construed as superseding any provision in any schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration which requires the filing or reporting of

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[SR 14 to GMPR, Amendment 145]

TEA BAGS OR TEA BALLS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Supplementary Regulation No. 14 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1499.73 (a) (88) is added to read as follows:

(88) Tea packers' maximum price for tea bags (tea balls) packed 200 and 250 to the pound which were formerly packed in other weights—(i) Calculations of prices for new size tea bags by tea packers. Packers who formerly packed tea in weights other than 200 and 250 tea bags to the pound and have changed them to those new sizes shall determine their maximum prices for such new weights of tea bags by calculating as follows:

(a) Calculate the total weight of tea in the shipping case containing the old size tea bags (tea bags packed other than 200 and 250 to the pound).

(b) Calculate the total weight of tea for the same number of new size tea bags (tea bags packed 200 or 250 to the pound).

(c) Subtract the smaller weight from the larger weight determined in (a) and (b)

(d) Multiply the difference in weight of tea found in (c) by the "cost per pound of tea." "Cost per pound of tea" shall mean the delivered maximum price per pound of bulk tea, used in the manufacturers blend, determined in accordance with the provisions of §§ 1351.261 and 1351.262 of RPS 91 with ocean freight, war risk insurance and marine insurance computed at the lowest rates available on the effective date of this amendment.

(f) If the shipping case containing the new size bags does not contain the same number of tea bags as the shipping case containing the old size tea bags, the figure obtained in (e) above shall be changed in the exact proportion that the number of new size tea bags bears to the number of old size tea bags.

(g) If the price results in a fraction of one-half cent or more, it shall be raised to the next higher cent. If it results in a fraction of less than one-half cent, it shall be lowered to the next lower cent. The result of the above calculation shall be the maximum price for a shipping case of the new size tea bags.

Example: A tea packer desires to obtain a new maximum price on "XX" Brand Tea Bags formerly packed 175 to the pound of tea, in packages containing 25 tea bags each and sold in shipping cases of 24 packages at a ceiling price of $5.40, which he intends to pack 200 to the pound of tea, 25 bags to the package, 12 packages to the shipping case. He intends to use a blend of bulk tea which cost at maximum prices determined according to §§ 1351.261 and 1351.262 of RPS 91, 48½¢ per pound. He makes the following calculation:

(a)	Weight of tea in the old size case of tea bags. 25 tea bags in packages multiplied by 24 packages in case = 600 tea bags 600 tea bags divided by 175 tea bags to the pound = 3.42 lbs. of tea
(b)	Weight of tea in the same number of new size tea bags. 600 tea bags divided by 200 tea bags to the pound = 3 lbs. of tea.
(c)	Subtract from the weight of the tea in the old size tea bags (the larger figure)	3.42 lbs.
	the weight of the tea in the new size tea bags (the smaller figure)	3. lbs.
		.42 lbs.
(d)	Difference in weight of	.42 lbs.
	Multiplied by the cost per lb. of tea	$ .465
	Total	$ .19530
(e)	The maximum price for the old size tea bags	$5 40
	Less the figure obtained in (d)	.1953
		$5.2047

(f) Since the shipping container of the new size tea bags contains only 300 tea bags, we must take 300 600ths or ½ of $5.2047, the figure obtained in (e) which results in the figure $2.6023.

(g) Since 23 100ths of a cent is less than ½ cent, round out the figure of $2.6023 to $2.60.

(ii) Definitions. "Tea packers" means the processor and packer of tea bags or tea balls or one who sells tea bags or tea balls which are packed for his account by another.

(iii) Report of prices. Within 30 days after determining the established maximum prices under the provisions of this subparagraph 88, the tea packers shall send to the Imported Foods Section, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a letter enclosing a copy of the detailed figures for each brand by which their maximum prices were calculated, explained as in the example in (i) above.

(iv) Customary discounts, allowances and price differentials. The same customary discounts, allowances, and price differentials which apply to sales and deliveries of the old size tea bags shall apply to sales and deliveries of the new size tea bags.

This amendment shall become effective March 31, 1943.

TRANSPORTATION OF MOLASSES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment issued simultaneously herewith has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In § 1499.73 (a) (43) (i) (a), the proviso is amended to read as follows:

(a) Provided, That in no case may the seller add to the applicable f. o. b. price an amount in excess of the lower of the following:

(1) The exact charge, at the lowest available freight rate for the transportation of an identical quantity from the mill or factory producing the molasses being sold to the point designated by the buyer as his receiving point, or

(2) the exact sum in dollars and cents actually paid for the transportation of the molasses being shipped, at the lowest available freight rate, from the mill or factory producing the molasses being sold to the buyer's designated receiving point.

This amendment shall become effective the 5th day of April 1943.

PART 301—CONTROL OF EXPLOSIVES AND THEIR INGREDIENTS IN TIME OF WAR OR NATIONAL EMERGENCY

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Pursuant to the authority conferred by section 18 of the act of December 26, 1941 (55 Stat. 863), as amended, the regulations under the Federal Explosives Act heretofore promulgated are hereby amended as follows:

[NOTE: See 7 F.R. 305, 1103, 1976, 3876, 4758, 5901, 8175, 9606; 8 F.R. 1343, 3080.]

Section 301.3 is amended by changing paragraph (a) (4) and the title to paragraph (b) (3) to read as follows:

§ 301.3 Application of act and regulations; exceptions—(a) Persons and operations excepted. * * *

(4) Exportation and importation. No license under the Federal Explosives Act is required for the exportation or importation of explosives or ingredients, license for which is required under the provisions of the following statutes, or under any proclamation or regulation issued pursuant thereto: Act of January 31, 1922 (42 Stat. 361), prohibiting unrestricted export of arms to certain countries where domestic violence occurs; the Neutrality Act of November 4, 1939 (54 Stat. 4); and the National Defense Act of July 2, 1940 (54 Stat. 712). However, persons who export or import explosives or ingredients under the above statutes must keep a record of such transactions, which shall include the quantity and description of the explosives and ingredients, the dates of shipment and delivery, the name of the vessel used, the name and address of the consignee, consignor, vendor, purchaser, carrier, and other interested parties. This record shall be retained by the exporter or importer until called for by the Director, or until one year after the termination of the present war, and shall be open for inspection at all times by the Director or his authorized representatives. No license under the Federal Explosives Act is required for the exportation of explosives or ingredients which constitute defense articles within the meaning of section 2 of the Lend-Lease Act of March 11, 1941 (55 Stat. 31), and which under the authority of section 3 (a) (2) of that Act have been disposed of to the government of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States.

(b) Explosives and ingredients excepted. * * *

(3) Cartridges and ships' equipment. * * *

Section 301.5 (a) is amended by substituting for the first sentence, the following sentences:

§ 301.5 Licenses, term and transferability—(a) Term of licenses. Licenses are valid for a term of one year from the date of issuance. They may be reissued as provided in § 301.23.

Section 301.10 is amended by changing the title and paragraphs (a) and (b) to read as follows:

§ 301.10 Copies of licenses—(a) Duplicates to replace licenses lost, destroyed, defaced or stolen. A licensee needing a duplicate copy of a license to replace a license that has been lost, destroyed, defaced, or stolen shall make application for the duplicate to the licensing agent who issued the original license. If that licensing agent has resigned, died or been removed, the application shall be addressed to his successor, or, if his successor does not have the original records, to the Director. Duplicate copies of original licenses issued by the Director may be obtained only from the Director. No form is provided for applications for duplicate copies of licenses, but such applications must be executed and sworn to in the same manner as is required for original licenses, must state all the facts known to the applicant concerning the loss, destruction, defacement or theft of the original license, and must refer to the application upon which the original license was issued. If the issuing officer applied to is satisfied with the showing made by the applicant, he shall issue a duplicate copy of the license on a special unnumbered form for duplicate licenses and shall insert the same number and date as on the original license. Duplicates issued by successor licensing agents shall bear the name of the orginal licensing agent and, in addition, shall be endorsed by the successor licensing agent. If a defaced license is available, or if a lost or stolen license is afterwards recovered, it must be surrendered to the issuing officer who issued the duplicate.

(b) Certified copies of licenses. A licensee needing a certified copy of his license in the conduct of his business may make applications for it to any licensing agent or to the Director, but if made to an issuing officer other than the one who issued the original license, the original license must be exhibited. No form is provided for applications for certified copies of licenses, but such applications must be in writing and signed by the licensee, and must state the number of copies desired and the purpose for which they are sought. If the issuing officer applied to is satisfied with the showing made by the applicant, he shall issue the certified copies on special unnumbered forms for certified copies and shall insert the same number and date as on the original license. Certified copies issued by an issuing officer other than the one who issued the original license shall bear the name of the issuing officer who issued the original license, and, in addition, shall be certified by the signature of the issuing officer issuing the copy.

Section 301.11 (c) is amended by changing the first sentence to read as follows:

§ 301.11 Licensing Agents; instructions. * * *

(c) Forms and records. Licensing agents will be supplied with all necessary forms.

Section 301.18 (a) is amended by changing the second sentence to read as follows:

§ 301.18 Special instructions for vendors—(a) Necessity for license. * * * Every jobber, even though he does not physically handle the explosives or ingredients dealt in, as well as every person to whom explosives or ingredients are consigned for sale, must have his own individual vendor's license.

Section 301.19 (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 301.19 Special instructions for manufacturers—(a) Licenses needed. Every manufacturer of explosives or ingredients, except as provided in § 301.3, will require:

(1) A manufacturer's license.

(2) A vendor's license if a part of the sales made by the manufacturer consists of explosives or ingredients which he has purchased for the purpose of resale.

R. R. SAYERS,
Director.

Approved: March 30, 1943.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Food Distribution Administration

PART 930—MILK IN THE TOLEDO, OHIO, MARKETING AREA

ORDER SUSPENDING CERTAIN PROVISIONS

Order suspending certain provisions of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area.

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 (7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act," and of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area, it is hereby determined that the provision of such order which provides seasonal minimum prices for Class I milk during the months of April, May, and June 1943, is a provision which obstructs and does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to producers of milk under such order.

It is therefore ordered, That, effective as of the date of execution hereof, the following provisions of § 930.5 (a) (1) of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area, are hereby suspended:

* * * during the delivery period of June 1942; and thereafter add the following amount per hundredweight:

Delivery period:	Amount (dollars per hundredweight)
July through March	0.90
April, May, and June	.80

Done at Washington, D. C., this 31st day of March 1943. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] CLAUDE R. WICKARD,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Chapter XI—Food Distribution Administration

[FDO 19-1, Am. 1]

PART 1455—SPICES

RESTRICTED SPICES QUOTAS

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Food Distribution Order No. 19 (8 F.R. 1827), issued by the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States on February 8, 1943, under the authority of Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and in order to effectuate the purposes of such orders, It is hereby ordered, That Director Food Distribution Order No. 19-1 (8 F.R. 1829) be, and the same hereby is, amended to read as follows:

§ 1455.2 Quotas for restricted spices. (a) For the quarterly period of three months beginning on April 1, 1943, and for each subsequent quarterly period of three months, the quota of any restricted spice, as listed hereinafter, for any packer, any receiver, or any industrial user shall be the following percentage of the amount of such spice delivered by such person (if a packer), accepted by such person (if a receiver), or used by such person (if an industrial user) during the corresponding quarterly period of 1941 or during such other base period as is provided for in § 1455.1 (b) (5) of Food Distribution Order No. 19:

Restricted spice:	Quota percentage
Black pepper	45
Cassia (cinnamon)	30
Cloves	90
Ginger	100
Mace	40
Nutmeg	60
Pimento (allspice)	75
White pepper	45

(b) Any packer may, in lieu of a quota computed pursuant to (a) hereof, avail himself of a quota of a total of one hundred pounds of any restricted spice or any combination of restricted spices.

(c) This order shall take effect at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., April 1, 1943. With respect to any violation of Director Food Distribution Order No. 19-1 prior to the effective time of this amendment, Director Food Distribution Order No. 19-1

PART 1460—FATS AND OILS

RESTRICTIONS ON USE

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and in order to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of fats and oils to meet war and essential civilian needs, It is hereby ordered, As follows:

1460.1 Use of fats and oils. (a) Definitions. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) The term "fats and oils" means all the raw, crude, refined, and pressed fats and oils, whether vegetable, animal, fish, or other marine animal, their by-products and derivatives, including grease (lard) oil, sulfonated and similarly processed fats and oils, fatty acids, and lard and rendered pork fat, but not including cocoa butter, butter, wool greases, essential oils, tall oil, mineral oils, and vitamin-bearing oils derived from fish or other marine animal livers or viscera.

(2) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity.

(3) The term "manufacturer" means any person who uses any fats or oils in the manufacture of any finished product, and shall include all other persons directly controlling or controlled by such person and all persons under direct or indirect common control with such person. The term shall not include any crusher, renderer, refiner, or other processor except as and to the extent that his operations result in the production of a finished product, and shall also not include any person who uses fats and oils in the home in the preparation of food for household consumption. Blending alone shall not constitute a person a manufacturer.

(4) The "inventory" of a manufacturer at any time shall include all fats and oils held or controlled by him and all fats and oils purchased by him for future delivery.

(5) The term "finished product" means any product of a manufacturer produced for sale as his finished product and carried on his books as his finished product. Other than for the purposes of paragraph (d) hereof, "finished product" shall not include:

(i) grease (lard) oil; (ii) sulphonated or similarly processed fat or oil; (iii) fatty acids; (iv) lard or rendered pork fat; (v) any fat or oil product intended for sale to another manufacturer for further processing in the manufacture of, or for inclusion in, any product (excepting a product falling within paragraph (a) (5) (vi) hereof); (vi) any edible product of which a fat or oil is not the principal ingredient; (vii) any edible product produced by any hotel or restaurant for consumption on the premises; (viii) any medicinal preparation, including vitamin preparations, other than medicated soap; (ix) olive oil; or (x) poultry fat.

(6) The term "crusher" means any person who presses, expels, or extracts oils from any seed, bean, nut, or corn or other oil-bearing materials.

(7) The term "principal ingredient" as used in paragraph (a) (5) (vi) hereof means the largest single ingredient by weight, subject to the qualification that mayonnaise and salad dressing are to be considered products of which a fat or oil is not the principal ingredient regardless of the fat or oil composition thereof in the particular case.

(8) The term "soap" means the product commonly known by that term, including all types of shaving soap and cream, excluding, however, soap used for non-detergent purposes (including the processing of textiles).

(9) The term "base period use" means the average use during the corresponding calendar quarter of the years 1940 and 1941.

(10) The term "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by such Director.

(b) Restrictions on manufacture. (1) No manufacturer, except as provided in paragraph (b) (5) hereof, shall in any calendar quarter use or consume any fat or oil in any class of use listed in Schedule A annexed hereto in a quantity in excess of the percentage specified in such Schedule A of his average quarterly use or consumption of fats and oils in such class of use during the corresponding calendar quarters of the two years, 1940 and 1941.

(2) If any manufacturer does not, in any calendar quarter, use or consume the quantity of fat or oil permitted by paragraph (b) (1) hereof, the unused part of his quota for such quarter shall, for the purposes of such paragraph (b) (1), be carried forward and added to his permitted quota for the succeeding quarters: Provided, however, That any unused part of his permitted quota for any prior quarter shall not be carried forward beyond June 30, 1943, and beyond the 30th day of June of each year thereafter.

(3) For the purpose of determining the quantity of raw "foots" which may be used or consumed, use or consumption shall be calculated on the basis of total fatty acid content.

(4) The restrictions on the use or consumption of fats and oils imposed hereby are imposed with respect to the use or consumption of fats and oils in the aggregate, and such restrictions are not to be construed to limit a manufacturer to the use or consumption of the same fat or oil used or consumed by him in the base period.

(5) Nothing in paragraph (b) (1) hereof shall restrict:

(i) The use or consumption of fats and oils in any calendar quarter by any manufacturer whose aggregate use or consumption of fats and oils in such period is less than 6,000 lbs.

(ii) The use of fats and oils in the manufacture of any edible product or soap delivered or to be delivered to:

(a) the Army of the United States (including post exchanges outside the continental United States);

(b) the Navy of the United States (including the Coast Guard and Marine Corps, and including ships' service stores outside the continental United States);

(c) the War Shipping Administration;

(d) the Panama Railroad Company;

(e) any agency of the United States for delivery to or for the account of the government of a foreign country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act);

(f) the Food Distribution Administration for export, or for shipment to any territory or possession of the United States;

(g) any wholesaler or jobber for delivery to any of the persons or agencies named in this paragraph (b) (5 (ii) hereof;

(h) any person, feeding, under contract (directly or indirectly), personnel of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard, for use in the preparation of meals for such personnel;

(i) any person using an edible product in the preparation of meals to be served on vessels operated under the War Shipping Administration; or

(j) another manufacturer for use in the manufacture of any edible product to be delivered to any of the persons or agencies named in this paragraph (b) (5) (ii) hereof.

Deliveries to the persons named in paragraphs (b) (5) (ii) (g), (h), (i), and (j) hereof shall be non-quota only if supported by a certificate issued to the person having the prime contract with the agencies named in paragraphs (b) (5) (ii) (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f) hereof. This certificate shall be issued by the Quartermaster General of the Army, the Chief of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts or the Chief of the Bureau of Naval Personnel of the Navy, the Commandant of the United States Coast Guard, the Quartermaster of the United States Marines, the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration, the Vice President of the Panama Railroad Company, the Director, or the duly authorized representative of any of them. It shall specify the name of the manufacturer supplying such fats and oils or soap, and shall state that the final products are for direct Army, Navy, Coast Guard, or Marine Corps issue or for sale in post exchanges or ships' service stores outside the continental United States, for contract feeding of Army, Navy, Coast Guard, or Marine Corps personnel, for consumption on ships operated under the War Shipping Administration, for consumption in the Panama Canal Zone, for export or shipment to any territory or possession of the United States, or for delivery pursuant to such Lend-Lease Act; and that the delivery or manufacture of such products will require a stated quantity of fats and oils or soap. The prime contractor shall furnish copies of such certificate, certified by him to be true and correct, to the persons from whom he obtains such products, and such certified copies shall be transmitted through trade channels to the manufacturer named thereon.

(iii) The use of fats and oils in the manufacture of all protective coatings, coated fabrics, linoleum, oilcloth, and felt base floor coverings, delivered or to be delivered to, or used on or incorporated in material and equipment delivered or to be delivered to, the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, to the United States Maritime Commission, or to the United States War Shipping Administration, or delivered pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941 (Lend-Lease Act), and for the military, naval, and maritime requirements of the United Nations: Provided, however, That any manufacturer claiming exemption under this paragraph (b) (5) (iii) hereof shall file War Production Board Form PD–600, or such other form or forms that may be prescribed by the Director, and receive authorization for such exemption from the Director. Forms may be obtained at local field offices of the War Production Board or the Food Distribution Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture. Five copies shall be prepared, four of which shall be forwarded to the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref. FD 42; the fifth to be retained in the manufacturer's files. For the purpose of this order, if War Production Board Form PD–600 is used, it shall be completed in the manner prescribed therein, subject to the following special instructions:

(a) Under the heading Table 1, change to "Application for exemption", instead of "Application for delivery and/or use required for your next month's operations".

(b) In the heading, under "Name of chemical", specify linseed oil, sardine oil, or other kind of fatty oil or fatty acid required; under "WPB order No." specify FD 42; under "Name of company", state name; under "Mailing address", state mailing address; under "Delivery destination", leave blank; under "Supplier with whom this order is placed", leave blank; under "Shipping point", leave blank; under "Unit of measure", state pounds.

(c) Under column 1, specify grade required, for example: boiled linseed oil, soyabean oil, herring oil, fatty acid, dehydrated castor oil.

(d) Under column 2, specify the quantity for each kind or grade of fatty oil required and the end use for which the finished coating or material is to be used.

(e) Under column 3, specify paint, varnish, lacquer, enamel, oilcloth, synthetic resin (specify type).

(f) Under column 4, specify ultimate use of product (for example, airplane, warship, rifle, merchantship, anti-aircraft gun, military trucks).

(g) Under column 9, specify contract number and award date.

(h) Under column 10, specify procurement agency, such as Signal Corps, United States Army, Signal Corps, United States Marine Corps, Naval Bureau of Ordnance, Quartermaster General of the Army, Food Distribution Administration.

(i) In table 2 under column 11, list each grade of each type of fatty oil or fatty acid.

(j) Column 13, fill in.

(k) Column 14, show the quantity of each grade for which exemption is claimed.

(l) Column 15, show quantity of each grade on hand at the end of the month preceding date of filing.

(m) Columns 15–a, 15–b, 15–c, leave blank.

(n) Column 16, state quantity of each grade used applying against your quota.

(o) In table 3, under column 17, each applicant on his first request for exemption shall state his allowable quota on the basis of 70 percent of the base period use for the first calendar quarter of 1943, and the allowable quota for the second quarter of 1943 (April 1 to June 30) on the basis of an allowed quota of 50 percent of the base period use.

(iv) The use of fats and oils in the manufacture of products to be exported (a) to the Dominion of Canada where such Dominion has granted a license for the import of such products, or (b) to any other country pursuant to any export license issued by the Board of Economic Warfare.

(6) For the purposes of determining a manufacturer's permissible use or consumption under paragraph (b) (1) hereof there shall be excluded from the calendar quarter during which use or consumption is hereby limited, any fat or oil used in the manufacture of the products referred to in paragraph (b) (5) (ii), (iii), and (iv) hereof, and there shall be excluded from the base period use any fat or oil used by such manufacturer in such base period in the manufacture of any product delivered by him to the Army or Navy of the United States or delivered by him, as a prime contractor, pursuant to the Lend-Lease Act, or exported to the Dominion of Canada or to any other country, or shipped to any territory or possession of the United States except Hawaii, either directly or through wholesalers or jobbers.

(7) A person who acquires all the manufacturing facilities of another person in a particular class of use shall thereby become entitled to the quota of such other person in such class of use, whether or not he continues to operate such facilities in whole or in part: Provided, however, That he shall within 30 days following such acquisition inform the Director of the facilities acquired, their location, whether or not operation will be continued in the same or another location, and the amount of quota which he claims to have acquired in each class of use.

(8) Fats and oils processed by a person pursuant to toll agreement shall be chargeable, not to the quota of the processor, but to the quota of the owner of such fats and oils: Provided, however, That title to the product shall remain in the hands of the owner of the fats and oils and that such owner shall market, invoice, and collect for such product through his own organization.

(9) Each manufacturer of soap may, in any calendar quarter, substitute, in whole or in part, for the fats and oils (other than foots made from domestic vegetable oils or the fatty acids made from such foots) which he would be entitled to use under Schedule A in such manufacture, foots made from domestic vegetable oils or the fatty acids made from such foots. The quantity of such foots or their fatty acids which may be used or consumed shall be 100 percent of the base period use of fats and oils.

(c) Restrictions on deliveries of linseed oil. (1) No person selling linseed oil (whether crushed or processed by him or purchased for resale) shall deliver in the aggregate to persons other than manufacturers during any calendar quarter more linseed oil (whether raw or processed) than 50 percent of the average quarterly amount of linseed oil so delivered by him during the corresponding calendar quarters of the two years, 1940 and 1941.

(2) In reducing deliveries pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) hereof, no person shall make discriminatory cuts as between customers, whether new or old.

(3) This order shall not restrict the delivery by any person of linseed oil to the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, to the United States Maritime Commission, or pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941 (Lend-Lease Act), and any amount so delivered by him shall be excluded both from the base period use on which his quota is based and from the period or quarter during which future deliveries are hereby limited.

(d) Restrictions on processing and inventories. (1) No person shall accept delivery of fats and oils for his raw material inventory if the fats and oils in his raw material inventory are, or would through such acceptance become, in excess of a practicable working minimum inventory. This paragraph (d) (1) does not, however, restrict the inventories of any fat or oil in the form in which it is first produced by the crusher or renderer of any vegetable oil foots or their fatty acids.

(2) No manufacturer shall hereafter change the condition of any fat or oil in his raw materials inventory, or add any additional materials thereto, except to the extent necessary to store any such fat or oil in his raw materials inventory in a form necessary to prevent deterioration thereof, or except to put such fats or oils into process for the manufacture of his products subject to the limitations of paragraph (d) (3).

(3) No manufacturer shall hereafter increase the rate at which fats and oils are put into process by him, except to the extent necessary to meet the required deliveries of his finished products within the limitations established by this order and to maintain only a practicable minimum working inventory of such finished products. The term "practicable minimum working inventory" as used in paragraph (d) (1) and (3), shall be strictly construed. The mere fact that the turn-over has increased, or that materials are difficult to obtain, does not justify maintaining inventories above the minimum at which his operations can be continued.

(e) Prohibited uses of fats and oils. (1) No person shall use or consume any butter or any of the following fats and oils in any class of use listed in Schedule A other than the manufacture of margarine or the manufacture of other edible finished products:

Lard
Rendered pork fat
Oleo oil
Oleo stearin
Oleo stock
Edible tallow
Edible olive oil
Peanut oil
Sunflower oil
Sesame seed oil
Raisin seed oil
Tomato seed oil
Cottonseed oil
Corn oil
Soyabean oil
Whale oil (excluding sperm)

(2) No person shall use or consume, in the manufacture of soap, any sardine oil, pilchard oil, or herring oil.

(3) Nothing in paragraphs (e) (1) or (e) (2) hereof shall restrict the use of any fat or oil in any inedible product or soap where and to the extent that:

(i) the quantity of any such fat or oil owned by such person on December 31, 1942, is less than 60,000 lbs.;

(ii) any such fat or oil is used in the manufacture, preparation, or finishing of protective coatings and coated fabrics under the provisions of paragraph (b) (5) (ii) hereof, or in the manufacture of USP XII soap for medicinal use; or soft soap, hospital grade, according to United States Army specifications No. 4–1027A (February 5, 1941) for delivery to the United States Army;

(iii) any such fat or oil is a by-product or residue (except stearin) of the permitted processing of any fat or oil; or consists of tank bottoms of any fat or oil;

(iv) such fat or oil consists of soyabean oil and is used either in the manufacture of synthetic resins or as a plasticizer in the manufacture of lacquers and coated fabrics, exclusive of linoleum and oil cloth; or

(v) the use by any person of any such fat or oil in any class of use which has been specifically authorized by the Director, on such person's establishing to the satisfaction of the Director by letter addressed to the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD 42, that such fat or oil was owned by him on December 31, 1942, and was on such date unfit for edible use.

(f) Existing contracts. The restrictions of this order concerning delivery, acceptance, use, processing, and consumption of fats and oils shall be observed without regard to existing contracts or any rights accrued or payments made thereunder.

(g) Records and reports. (1) Each manufacturer, who in any calendar quarter uses or consumes more than 6,000 lbs. of fats and oils in the aggregate, shall file with the Bureau of Census, Washington, D. C., each of the following reports in the following manner.

(i) He shall file on or before the 20th day of each month Bureau of Census Form BM 1, or such other form or forms as may be prescribed by the Director, showing the consumption of fats and oils during the preceding month; and

(ii) He shall file on or before the 20th day of the second month of the succeeding quarter, Bureau of Census Form BM 2, or such other form or forms as may be prescribed by the Director, showing the consumption of fats and oils during the preceding quarter.

(2) Every manufacturer and every other person subject to this order shall maintain such records for at least two years (or for such other period of time as the Director may designate) and shall execute and file such reports upon such forms and submit such information as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and within such times as he may prescribe.

(h) Audits and inspections. Every person subject to this order shall, upon request, permit inspections, at all reasonable times, of his stocks of fats and oils and premises used in his business, and all of his books, records, and accounts shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by the Director.

(i) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may petition in writing (in triplicate) for relief to the Director, setting forth all pertinent facts and the nature of relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate and such action shall be final.

(j) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order or willfully conceals a material fact concerning a matter within the jurisdiction of any department or agency of the United States may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of any material subject to allocation; and such further action may be taken against him as the Director deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under Section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 80), under paragraph 5 of Section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all other applicable laws.

(k) Communications to the Department of Agriculture. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref.: FD 42.

(l) Effect of other orders. Insofar as any other order of the Secretary of Agriculture or the Director, heretofore or hereafter issued, limits or curtails to a greater extent than herein provided the use, acquisition, or disposition of any fat or oil, the limitations of such other order shall control.

(m) General Preference Order M–71 superseded. This order supersedes in all respects General Preference Order M–71[1] of the War Production Board except that as to violations of said order or rights accrued, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken under said order prior to the effective date hereof said General Preference Order shall be deemed in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, or liability. Any appeal pending under said General Preference Order shall be considered under paragraph (i) hereof.

(n) Territorial extent. This order applies to all persons in the United States, its territories and possessions, and the District of Columbia.

[1] 8 F R 315.

(o) Bureau of the Budget approval. The reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942. Subsequent specific record keeping or reporting requirements by the Director will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(p) Effective date. This order shall be effective on April 1, 1943.

PART 1460—FATS AND OILS

RESTRICTIONS ON USE, PROCESSING, SALE, AND DELIVERY OF COCOANUT, BABASSU, PALM KERNEL, AND OTHER HIGH LAURIC ACID OILS

Pursuant to authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of cocoanut, babassu, palm kernel, and other high lauric acid oils to meet war and essential civilian needs, It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1460.10 Use, processing, sale, and delivery of cocoanut, babassu, palm kernel, and other high lauric acid oils restricted.—(a) Definitions. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) The term "high lauric acid oils" means cocoanut oil, babassu oil, palm kernel oil, and all other oils having a lauric acid content of thirty-five percent (35%) or higher, whether crude, refined, bleached, or deodorized.

(2) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity.

(3) The term "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by such Director.

(b) Prohibited uses. The use or consumption by any person of high lauric acid oils in the following manufactures, processes, or uses is prohibited:

(1) Any manufacture, process, or use in which glycerine is not produced;

(2) Any manufacture or process in which glycerine is produced, where the recovery of glycerine does not meet the requirements of Food Distribution Order No. 33. (8 F. R. 3475)

(c) Permitted uses. (1) Any person may use or consume high lauric acid oils without regard to the restrictions imposed by paragraphs (b) (1) and (b) (2) hereof, in the following instances:

(i) Where the total use or consumption of high lauric acid oils by any person is less than 3,000 pounds in each of the several three month periods of the year commencing January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1; or

(ii) Where any person uses or consumes Tucum and Muru-muru oils in the manufacture of any edible product, without limitation on such use or consumption: Provided, That such use or consumption shall be subject to the provisions of paragraph (f) hereof.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (c) (1) (i) and (ii) hereof, no person shall use or consume high lauric acid oils in the manufacture of any margarine, shortening, or cooking fats.

(d) Reports of unusable oils. Any high lauric acid oils at any time remaining in the hands of any person which, by reason of any of the provisions of paragraphs (b) (1) and (2) and (c) (1) (i), (ii) and (2) hereof, may not be used or consumed by him, shall be reported to the Director.

(e) Restrictions on processing. After the effective date of this order, no person shall process or change the condition of any high lauric acid oils in preparation for any manufacture or use permitted by this order, except to the extent necessary for such preparation, and then only in such quantities as may be necessary to meet his normal production schedule or, if such oils are to be manufactured or used by another person, then the normal production schedule of such other person.

(f) Withholdings of high lauric acid oils. Every person who was required by General Preference Order M-60 (7 F.R. 2185) of the War Production Board to set aside an inventory quota shall use, put in process, sell, or deliver, all or any part of such inventory quota only upon express instruction of the Director: Provided, That this paragraph (f) shall not be construed to prevent crushing of copra or other seeds or nuts, or to prevent changing the condition of such oil so set aside to the extent necessary to prevent deterioration while carried in inventory. Such quota shall be held subject to the direction of the Director.

(g) Restrictions on sales and deliveries. No person shall sell or, directly or indirectly, deliver, or cause to be delivered, any high lauric acid oils for any use prohibited by paragraphs (b) (1) and (2), and (c) (1) (i), (ii) and (2) hereof; or in violation of paragraph (f) hereof; and no person shall accept deliveries of any high lauric acid oils for any prohibited use or for any greater quantities or proportions than permitted for consumption.

(h) Intra-company transactions. The prohibitions or restrictions contained in this order with respect to deliveries shall, in the absence of a contrary direction, apply not only to deliveries to other persons, including affiliates and subsidiaries, but also to deliveries from one branch, division, or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division, or section of the same or any other enterprise owned or controlled by the same person.

(i) Existing contracts. The restrictions of this order concerning the use, processing, sale, and delivery of high lauric acid oils shall be observed without regard to existing contracts or any rights accrued or payments made thereunder.

(j) Records and reports. Every person subject to this order shall maintain such records for at least two years (or for such other periods of time as the Director may designate) and shall execute and file such reports upon such forms and submit such information as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and within such times as he may prescribe.

(k) Bureau of the Budget approval. The reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942. Subsequent specific record keeping or reporting requirements by the Director will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(l) Audits and inspections. Every person subject to this order shall, upon request, permit inspections of his stocks of cocoanut, babassu, palm kernel, and other high lauric acid oils, and premises used in his business, and all of his books, records, and accounts shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by the Director.

(m) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him, may petition in writing (in triplicate) for relief to the Director, setting forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate and such action shall be final.

(n) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order or wilfully conceals a material fact concerning a matter within the jurisdiction of any Department or agency of the United States may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of any material subject to allocation; and such further action may be taken against him as the Director deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 80), under paragraph 5 of section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all other applicable laws.

(o) Communications to the Department of Agriculture. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washinton, D. C., Ref: FD 43.

(p) General Preference Order M-60 of the War Production Board superseded. This order supersedes in all respects General Preference Order M-60 (7 F.R. 2185) of the War Production Board, except that as to violations of said order or rights accrued, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken under said order prior to the effective date hereof, said General Preference Order M-60 shall be deemed in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, or liability. Any appeal pending under said order shall be considered under paragraph (m) hereof.

(q) Territorial extent. This order applies to all persons in the United States, its territories and possessions, and the District of Columbia.

(r) Effective date. This order shall be effective on April 1, 1943, as of 12:01 a. m., e. w. t.

(E.O. 9280, 7 F.R. 10179)

Issued this 31st day of March 1943.

MEAT RESTRICTION ORDER [1]

TRANSFER OF ADMINISTRATION TO DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Pursuant to the provisions of Executive Order No. 9024, dated January 16, 1942 (7 F.R. 329), Executive Order No. 9040, dated January 24, 1942 (7 F.R. 527), Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942 (7 F.R. 10179), Executive Order No. 9322, dated March 26, 1943 (8 F.R. 3807), Directive No. 1 (7 F.R. 562) and Supplemental Directive No. 1-M (7 F.R. 7234) of the War Production Board, and Directives 3 (8 F.R. 2005) and 7 (8 F.R. 3471) issued by the Secretary of Agriculture, and in order to facilitate the effective regulation and control over meat, It is hereby ordered, As follows:

(a) The functions of administering and enforcing the provisions of Restriction Order 1, as amended, issued by the Office of Price Administration, are transferred as of April 1, 1943, from the Office of Price Administration to the United States Department of Agriculture. Notwithstanding the transfer of the administration and enforcement thereof, Restriction Order 1, as amended, is continued in full force and effect.

(b) No provision of this order shall affect any suit, action, prosecution, penalty, or administrative or other proceeding, regardless of when commenced, or any judgment, order, decree, or verdict, regardless of when made, entered, or returned, with respect to any violation committed or liability incurred under or pursuant to the terms of Restriction Order 1, as originally issued or subsequently amended, prior to April 1, 1943.

(c) Restriction Order 1, as amended, issued by the Office of Price Administration, and all actions heretofore taken by the Office of Price Administration pursuant to such order (including, without limitation, all adjustments and exceptions granted) are hereby ratified, affirmed, and adopted, the same as if they were specifically set forth herein, and are hereby continued in full force and effect until they expire by their terms or are revoked or amended by appropriate authority within the United States Department of Agriculture, and any condition imposed or any requirement that any act be done pursuant to such order shall also remain in full force and effect.

This order shall become effective April 1, 1943.

Issued this 31st day of March 1943.

[SEAL] CLAUDE R. WICKARD,
Secretary of Agriculture.

PRENTISS M. BROWN,
Administrator, Office of Price Administration.

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of March, A. D. 1943.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of respondent, testimony and other evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint taken before trial examiners of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it (no evidence having been offered by respondent), report of the trial examiners upon the evidence, and brief in support of the complaint (no brief having been filed by respondent and oral argument not having been requested); and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that the respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That the respondent, Westville Refinery, Inc., a corporation, and its officers, agents, representatives, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, and distribution of respondent's oil in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Using the word "Refinery", or any other word of similar import, as a part of respondent's corporate or trade name; or otherwise representing, directly or by implication, that respondent owns, operates, or controls a refinery.

2. Using the word "Pennsylvania," "Penn," or "Para-Penn", or any other word of similar import, to designate or describe respondent's products; or otherwise representing, directly or by implication, that respondent's products are Pennsylvania oil.

3. Representing, directly or by implication, that respondent's products are made entirely from oils having a paraffin base.

4. Representing, directly or by implication, that respondent's products are new and unused oil made from virgin crude oil.

5. Advertising, offering for sale, or selling respondent's products without disclosing clearly and conspicuously in respondent's advertising and invoices, and on the containers in which such products are displayed and sold, that such products are used oil which has been reclaimed.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

KARASTAN RUG MILLS

§ 3.66 (c 20) Misbranding or mislabeling—Manufacture or preparation: § 3.66 (d) Misbranding or mislabeling—Nature: § 3.66 (k) Misbranding or mislabeling—Source or origin—Place—Foreign, in general: § 3.96 (a) Using misleading name—Goods—Nature: § 3.96 (a) Using misleading name—Goods—Source or origin—Place—Foreign, in general. In connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of rugs, (1) using the words "Karashah", "Kara Kirman", "Karavere", or "Kharol", or any other word or combination of words or syllables, coined or otherwise, which are indicative of the Orient, to designate or describe rugs which are not in fact made in the Orient and which do not possess all the essential characteristics and structure of Oriental rugs; (2) using the word "Kirman" or any other name of any genuine Oriental rug in combination with other words or syllables, coined or otherwise, to designate or describe rugs which are not in fact made in the Orient and which do not possess all the essential characteristics and structure of the particular Oriental rugs indicated by the use of such name; (3) using the word "Karshah" or any other word or combination of words or syllables the spelling, sound, or written appearance of which closely simulates or suggests the name of a genuine Oriental rug, to designate or describe rugs which are not in fact made in the Orient and which do not possess all the essential characteristics and structure of the particular Oriental rugs indicated by the use of such name; or (4) using the word "reproduction" or any other word of similar import or meaning to designate or describe rugs which are not in fact reproductions of genuine Oriental rugs in all respects, including structure, method of manufacture, and material; prohibited, subject to the provision, however, that order herein shall not be construed as prohibiting the respondent from using the term "Karastan" to designate or describe its rugs, provided there is used in immediate connection or conjunction therewith a statement which clearly and conspicuously states in appropriate terms that the rugs so designated and described are woven on power looms in the United States. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Karastan Rug Mills, Docket 4493, March 27, 1943].

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of March, A. D., 1943.

In the matter of Marshall Field & Company, a corporation, trading and doing business under the name Karastan Rug Mills.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission on the complaint of the Commission, answer of the respondent, testimony and other evidence in support of and in opposition to the allegations of the complaint taken before a trial examiner of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, report of the trial examiner upon the evidence and exceptions filed thereto, briefs filed in support of the complaint and in opposition thereto, and oral argument of counsel; and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act;

It is ordered, That the respondent, Marshall Field & Company, a corporation trading and doing business under the name Karastan Rug Mills, and its officers, representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device in connection with the offering for sale, sale, and distribution of rugs in commerce as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Using the words "Karashah," "Kara Kirman," "Karavere," or "Kharol," or any other word or combination of words or syllables, coined or otherwise, which are indicative of the Orient, to designate or describe rugs which are not in fact made in the Orient and which do not possess all the essential characteristics and structure of Oriental rugs.

2. Using the word "Kirman" or any other name of any genuine Oriental rug in combination with other words or syllables, coined or otherwise, to designate or describe rugs which are not in fact made in the Orient and which do not possess all the essential characteristics and structure of the particular Oriental rugs indicated by the use of such name.

3. Using the word "Karshah" or any other word or combination of words or syllables the spelling, sound, or written appearance of which closely simulates or suggests the name of a genuine Oriental rug, to designate or describe rugs which are not in fact made in the Orient and which do not possess all the essential characteristics and structure of the particular Oriental rugs indicated by the use of such name.

4. Using the word "reproduction" or any other word of similar import or meaning to designate or describe rugs which are not in fact reproductions of genuine Oriental rugs in all respects, including structure, method of manufacture, and material.

It is further ordered, That no provision of this order to cease and desist shall be construed as prohibiting the respondent from using the term "Karastan" to designate or describe its rugs, provided there is used in immediate connection or conjunction therewith a statement which clearly and conspicuously states in appropriate terms that the rugs so designated and described are woven on power looms in the United States.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

Chapter I—Office of Indian Affairs

Subchapter L—Irrigation Projects, Operation and Maintenance

PART 130—ORDER FIXING OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE CHARGES

MISSION MISCELLANEOUS IRRIGATION UNITS, CALIFORNIA

FEB. 23, 1943.

§ 130.140 Charges. Pursuant to the Acts of August 1, 1914 and March 7, 1928 (38 Stat. 583, 45 Stat. 210; 25 U.S.C. 385, 387), the reimbursable costs of operating and maintaining the Miscellaneous Irrigation Units under the jurisdiction of the Mission Indian Agency in California are apportioned on a per acre basis against the irrigable lands of the respective units and for the calendar year 1943, and each succeeding calendar year until further order, there shall be collected, as a partial reimbursement of such costs, from each acre of irrigable land to which water can be delivered through constructed works of the project, a charge of $1.00 per acre per annum against lands in Indian ownership, not under lease to a non-Indian, and $3.00 per acre per annum against lands in non-Indian ownership and lands in Indian ownership under lease to a non-Indian lessee.

§ 130.141 Payment. The annual charges fixed in the preceding section shall become due on April 1 of each year and are payable on or before that date. The delivery of water shall be refused to tracts of land on which the charges are not paid when due unless arrangements shall have been made as hereafter provided. Where an Indian owner of land under a trust patent or a fee patent, not under lease to a non-Indian, is financially unable to pay the charges from the proceeds of the crops, or from the proceeds of labor performed on the project works, or from any other source, the delivery of water may be continued if a written certificate be issued by the Superintendent that such Indian is financially unable to pay his charges. Copies of such certificates shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and shall be subject to rejection or modification upon review. In such cases the charges shall be entered on the accounts and will stand as a first lien against the lands until paid but without penalty for delinquency.

§ 130.142 Water users responsible for water after delivery. It is the duty of the Indian Irrigation Service to furnish available water for beneficial irrigation use only. It is the duty of all water users of the project to aid in the prevention of the waste of water and of damage to adjacent lands. The water users are responsible for the water after it has been delivered to their lands, and are required to have their field ditches of proper capacity and in suitable condition for the use of economical heads water.

PART 130—ORDER FIXING OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE CHARGES

GANADO INDIAN IRRIGATION PROJECT, ARIZONA

MARCH 1, 1943.

This order as approved by the First Assistant Secretary of the Interior on December 24, 1931 (CFR, Title 25, Part 130, §§ 130.41 to 130.43 inclusive) is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 130.41 Charges. Pursuant to the provisions of the Acts of August 1, 1914 and March 7, 1928 (38 Stat. 583, 45 Stat. 210, 25 U.S.C., 385, 387) the reimbursable cost of operating and maintaining the Ganado Indian Irrigation Project in Arizona, is apportioned on a per acre basis against the irrigable lands of the project and for the calendar year 1943, and each succeeding year until further order, there shall be collected, as a partial reimbursement of such cost, from each acre of irrigable land to which water can be delivered through the constructed works of the project, a charge of $1.00 per acre per annum, against lands in Indian ownership not under lease to a non-Indian, and $3.00 per acre per annum against lands in non-Indian ownership and Indian lands under lease to a non-Indian lessee.

These charges shall not apply to any lands furnished irrigation water under contract between the Department of the Interior and any company or corporation or individual person, which contract contains provisions for payment for furnishing or carrying water, differing from the conditions herein provided. In all such cases collections shall be made in accordance with the terms of the respective contracts.

§ 130.42 Payment. The annual charges fixed in the § 130.41 of this part shall become due on April 1 of each year and are payable on or before that date. The delivery of water shall be refused to tracts of land on which the charges are not paid when due unless arrangements shall have been made as hereafter provided. Where an Indian owner of land under a trust patent or a fee patent, not under lease to a non-Indian, is financially unable to pay his charges from the proceeds of the crops, or from the proceeds of labor performed on the project works, or from any other source, the delivery of water may be continued if a written certificate be issued by the superintendent that such Indian is financially unable to pay his charges. Copies of such certificates shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and shall be subject to rejection or modification upon review. In such cases the charges shall be entered on the accounts and will stand as a first lien against the lands until paid but without penalty for delinquency. To all charges assessed against lands in non-Indian ownership and lands in Indian ownership under base to a non-Indian lessee there shall be added a penalty of one-half of one per cent per month or fraction thereof if not paid on or before July 1, following the due date.

§ 130.43 Water users responsible for water after delivery. It is the duty of the Indian Irrigation Service to furnish available water for beneficial irrigation use only. It is the duty of all water users of the project to aid in the prevention of the waste of water and of damage to adjacent lands. The water users are responsible for the water after it has been delivered to their lands, and are required to have their field ditches of proper capacity and in suitable condition for the use of economical heads of water.

This order as approved by the First Assistant Secretary of the Interior on February 7, 1935 (CFR, Title 25, Part 130, §§ 130.44 to 130.46, inclusive) is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 130.44 Charges. Pursuant to the provisions of the Acts of August 1, 1914 and March 7, 1928 (38 Stat. 583, 45 Stat. 210, 25 U.S.C., 385, 387), the reimbursable cost of operating and maintaining the Hogback Indian Irrigation Project in New Mexico, is apportioned on a per acre basis against the irrigable lands of that project and for the calendar year 1943, and each succeeding year until further order, there shall be collected, as a partial reimbursement of such cost, from each acre of irrigable land to which water can be delivered through the constructed works of the project, a charge of $1.00 per acre per annum, against lands in Indian ownership not under lease to a non-Indian, and $3.00 per acre per annum against lands in non-Indian ownership and lands in Indian ownership under lease to a non-Indian lessee.

For tribal lands operated by the Northern Navajo School and Agency or for tribal lands under assignment to Indians the charge shall be $3.00 per acre per annum.

For domestic water delivered through the project canal and lateral system to permittees on the reservation lands, $5.00 for each cistern.

§ 130.45 Payment. The annual charges fixed in § 130.44 of this part shall become due on April 1 of each year and are payable on or before that date. The delivery of water shall be refused to tracts of land on which the charges are not paid when due unless arrangements shall have been made as hereafter provided. Where an Indian owner of land under a trust patent or fee patent, not under lease to a non-Indian, is financially unable to pay the charges from the proceeds of the crops, or from the proceeds of labor performed on the project works, or from any other source, the delivery of water may be continued if a written certificate be issued by the superintendent that such Indian is financially unable to pay his charges. Copies of such certificates shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and shall be subject to rejection or modification upon review. In such cases the charges shall be entered on the accounts and will stand as a first lien against the lands until paid but without penalty for delinquency.

§ 130.46 Water users responsible for water after delivery. It is the duty of the Indian Irrigation Service to furnish available water for beneficial irrigation use only. It is the duty of all water users of the project to aid in the prevention of the waste of water and of damage to adjacent lands. The water users are responsible for the water after it has been delivered to their lands, and are required to have their field ditches of proper capacity and in suitable condition for the use of economical heads of water.

This order as approved by the Assistant Secretary of the Interior on February 28, 1938 (CFR, Title 25, Part 130, §§ 130.51 to 130.53 inclusive), is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 130.51 Charges. Pursuant to the provisions of the Acts of August 1, 1914 and March 7, 1928 (38 Stat. 583, 45 Stat. 210, 25 U.S.C. 385, 387), the reimbursable cost of operating and maintaining the Pala Indian Irrigation Project in California is apportioned on a per acre basis against the irrigable lands of that project and for the calendar year 1943, and each succeeding year until further order, there shall be collected, as a partial reimbursement of such cost, from each acre of irrigable land to which water can be delivered through the constructed works of the project, a charge of $1.00 per acre per annum against lands in Indian ownership, not under lease to a non-Indian, and $6.50 per acre per annum against lands in non-Indian ownership and lands in Indian ownership under lease to a non-Indian lessee.

§ 130.52 Payment. The annual charges fixed in § 130.51 of this part shall become due on April 1 of each year and are payable on or before that date. The delivery of water shall be refused to tracts of land on which the charges are not paid when due unless arrangements shall have been made as hereafter provided. Where an Indian owner of land under a trust patent or a fee patent, not under lease to a non-Indian, is financially unable to pay the charges from the proceeds of the crops, or from the proceeds of labor performed on the project works, or from any other source, the delivery of water may be continued if a written certificate be issued by the superintendent that such Indian is financially unable to pay his charges. Copies of such certificates shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and shall be subject to rejection or modification upon review. In such cases the charges shall be entered on the accounts and will stand as a first lien against the lands until paid but without penalty for delinquency.

§ 130.53 Water users responsible for water after delivery. It is the duty of the Indian Irrigation Service to furnish available water for beneficial irrigation use only. It is the duty of all water users of the project to aid in the prevention of the waste of water and of damage to adjacent lands. The water users are responsible for the water after it has been delivered to their lands, and are required to have their field ditches of proper capacity and in suitable condition for the use of economical heads of water.

PART 130—ORDER FIXING OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE CHARGES

RINCON INDIAN IRRIGATION PROJECT, CALIFORNIA

MARCH 1, 1943.

This order as approved by the Assistant Secretary of the Interior on February 28, 1938 (CFR, Title 25, Part 130, §§ 130.58 to 130.60 inclusive), is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 130.58 Charges. Pursuant to the provisions of the Acts of August 1, 1914 and March 7, 1928 (38 Stat. 583, 45 Stat. 210, 25 U.S.C. 385, 387), the reimbursable cost of operating and maintaining the Rincon Indian Irrigation Project in California, is apportioned on a per acre basis against the irrigable lands of the project and for the calendar year 1943, and each succeeding year until further order, there shall be collected, as a partial reimbursement of such cost, from each acre of irrigable land to which water can be delivered through the constructed works of the project, a charge of $1.00 per acre per annum against lands in Indian ownership, not under lease to a non-Indian, and $6.50 per acre per annum against lands in non-Indian ownership and lands in Indian ownership under lease to a non-Indian lessee.

§ 130.59 Payment. The annual charges fixed in the preceding section shall become due on April 1 of each year and are payable on or before that date. The delivery of water shall be refused to tracts of land on which the charges are not paid when due unless arrangements shall have been made as hereafter provided. Where an Indian owner of land under a trust patent or a fee patent, not under lease to a non-Indian, is financially unable to pay the charges from the proceeds of the crops, or from the proceeds of labor performed on the project works, or from any other source, the delivery of water may be continued if a written certificate be issued by the superintendent that such Indian is financially unable to pay his charges. Copies of such certificates shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and shall be subject to rejection or modifications upon review. In such cases the charges shall be entered on the accounts and will stand as a first lien against the lands until paid but without penalty for delinquency.

§ 130.60 Water users responsible for water after delivery. It is duty of the Indian Irrigation Service to furnish available water for beneficial irrigation use only. It is the duty of all water users of the project to aid in the prevention of the waste of water and of damage to adjacent lands. The water users are responsible for the water after it has been delivered to their lands, and are required to have their field ditches of proper capacity and in suitable condition for the use of economical heads of water.

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter III—Bituminous Coal Division

[Docket No. A–1719]

PARTS 321, 322, 328—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NOS. 1, 2, AND 8

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 2 for the deletion of mine index numbers of certain mines in District No. 2.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting that uniform price classifications, minimum prices and mine index numbers be established for the coals produced by deep and strip mining methods, respectively, at each of certain mines located in District No. 2, by deleting certain price classifications, minimum prices and mine index numbers hitherto established and assigned to said mines in the Schedules of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 2 for All Shipments Except Truck and for Truck Shipments; and

Petitions of intervention having been filed herein by District Boards Nos. 1 and 8, respectively, requesting, among other things, that relief similar to that prayed for in the original petition herein be granted with respect to certain mines located in Districts Nos. 1 and 8, respectively; and

It appearing that said petitions of intervention should be granted as set forth below, and, in all other respects should be denied, and that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

The following action being deemed necessary to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That the petitions for intervention filed herein by Bituminous Coal Producers Boards for Districts Nos. 1 and 8, respectively, be and the same hereby are granted, only, however, to the extent and in the manner as set forth herein, and in all other respects, said petitions be, and the same hereby are, denied;

It is further ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows:

1. Commencing forthwith, § 322.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–I, and § 322.23 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T–I, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof; and

2. Commencing forthwith, § 321.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–II, and § 321.24 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T–II, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof; and

3. Commencing forthwith, § 328.11 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–III, § 328.21 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–IV, § 328.34 (General prices for high volatile coals in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T–III, and § 328.42 (General prices for low volatile coals) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T–IV, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate, or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the rules and regulations governing practice and procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937; and

It is further ordered, That the relief granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: March 16, 1943.

PART 328—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 8

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF

Order granting permanent relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 8 for a change to higher price classifications and higher minimum prices for rail shipments for the coals of Mine Index Nos. 339, 278, 892, 5215, 5214, 669, and 480 in the No. 5 seam, in Virginia Subdistrict, District No. 8.

Upon the findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth in the opinion of the Director, filed simultaneously herewith, wherein it appears that the classifications and minimum prices of the coals of Blue Diamond Coal Company, operating the Monarch Mine (Mine Index No. 339), Kemmerer Gem Coal Company, operating Mine No. 1 & 2 (Mine Index No. 278,[1] and the Virginia-Lee Company, operating the Virginia-Lee Mine (Mine Index No. 480), in the No. 5 Seam of the Virginia subdistrict of District 8, in Size Goups 1 to 22, inclusive, for rail shipment, should be revised, and pursuant to sections 4 II (d) and other provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937,

It is hereby ordered, That effective fifteen (15) days from the date hereof, § 328.11 (Alphabetical list of code members) shall be amended by revising the classifications and minimum prices of the coals of Blue Diamond Coal Company, operating the Monarch Mine (Mine Index No. 339), Kemmerer Gem Coal Company, operating Mine No. 1 & 2 (Mine Index No. 278) and The Virginia-Lee Company, operating the Virginia-Lee Mine (Mine Index No. 480), in the No. 5 Seam of the Virginia subdistrict of District 8, in Size Groups 1 to 22, inclusive, for rail shipment, in accordance with the classifications and minimum prices contained in Supplement R, which supplement is hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

Dated: March 22, 1943.

[SEAL] DAN H. WHEELER, Director.

[1] By order of the Director, dated March 16, 1943, Mine Nos. 2, 3, 5 and 6 and Millers Cove Mine (Mine Index Nos. 278, 892, 5215, 5214, and 669) were consolidated and designated in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 8 for All Shipments Except Truck, as Mine No. 1 & 2 (Mine Index No. 278).

PERMANENT EFFECTIVE MINIMUM PRICES FOR DISTRICT NO. 8

NOTE: The material contained in this supplement is to be read in the light of the classifications, prices, instructions, exceptions and other provisions contained in Part 328, Minimum Price Schedule for District No. 8 and the supplement thereto.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Executive Vice Chairman

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.

PART 977—MANILA FIBER AND MANILA CORDAGE

[General Preference Order M-36, as Amended March 31, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of Manila fiber and Manila cordage for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 977.1 General Preference Order M-36—(a) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Manila fiber" means fiber which is commonly known in the trade by this term and also known as abaca or Manila hemp (either stripped or decorticated), Sumatra abaca and Panama abaca. Except as provided in paragraph (d) (1), Manila fiber does not mean the fiber grades of T, O, W, or Y, as established by the Insular Government of the Philippine Islands.

(2) "Manila cordage" means cables and ropes ¼ inch in diameter and larger, and twines used for fishing nets, in which Manila fiber either alone or in combination with other materials is used, but does not include Manila cordage sold or delivered for its scrap value.

(3) "Class A cordage" means Manila cordage which contains such a combination of grades of Manila fiber as will at least equal the fiber quality requirements of Federal Specification T-R-601a.

(4) "Class B cordage" means Manila cordage which contains such a combination of grades of Manila fiber as will give a Becker value not in excess of thirty-nine, such Becker value to be determined according to the methods set forth in said Federal Specification T-R-601a.

(5) "Cordage processor" means any person other than the Navy of the United States who spins, twists, weaves or otherwise uses Manila fiber in the production of Manila cordage.

(6) "Processing" means any use of Manila fiber for the manufacture of any other article or commodity into which the Manila fiber goes or of which it becomes a part.

(7) "Dealer" means any person who procures Manila cordage for storage or for sale, and includes selling agents, and other commercially recognized agents acting for their own account or for others, whether or not acquiring title to such Manila cordage, but shall not include an importer.

(8) "Basic monthly poundage" with respect to any cordage processor shall be the average number of pounds per month of Manila cordage sold by such processor during the period January 1 through December 31, 1939. Where this order specifies a percentage of the basic monthly poundage to be processed, sold or delivered during any period, any cordage processor keeping his books on a weekly basis shall apply the said percentage to the weekly periods most nearly approximating the period specified.

(9) "Import" means to transport in any manner into the continental United States from any foreign country or from any territory or possession of the United States, including the Philippine Islands. It includes shipments into a free port, free zone or bonded custody of the United States Bureau of Customs (bonded warehouse) in the continental United States, and shipments in bond into the continental United States for transshipment to Canada, Mexico or any foreign country.

(c) Restrictions on deliveries of Manila fiber. No person shall hereafter make or accept delivery of any Manila fiber unless specifically authorized by the War Production Board: Provided, however, That deliveries of Manila fiber may be made:

(1) By and to the Navy of the United States.

(2) By and to the Defense Supplies Corporation.

(3) By and to persons importing or otherwise handling Manila fiber in accordance with written instructions from the Navy of the United States or from Defense Supplies Corporation, provided that such Manila fiber is to be delivered, either processed or unprocessed, directly, or through one or more other persons, to the Navy of the United States or to Defense Supplies Corporation.

(4) By importers to cordage processors of Manila fiber rejected by the Navy of the United States or Defense Supplies Corporation as unfit for their use.

(5) By cordage processors to cordage processors of Manila fiber which at the time of any such delivery had been previously imported into the United States.

(d) Restrictions on processing of Manila fiber. (1) No person shall begin the processing of any Manila fiber, including the fiber of grades T, O, W, or Y, as established by the Insular Government of the Philippine Islands, except for the purpose of manufacturing Class A or Class B cordage for sale or delivery to fulfill the orders hereafter specified in paragraph (e) (2), or such cordage as may be required to meet the specifications of orders of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, or the War Shipping Administration or its operating or general agents.

(2) No cordage processor shall put into process in any month, commencing January 1, 1943, more Manila fiber than 37% of his basic monthly poundage, of which percentage not more than 20% shall be put into process to fill purchase orders for Manila cordage uses specified in paragraph (e) (2) (ii).

(3) Any cordage processor shall, notwithstanding the limitations of paragraphs (d) (2) and (e) (1), and in addition to any action permitted thereunder:

(i) Process into Manila cordage any Manila fiber furnished to the said cordage processor by the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, or the War Shipping Administration or its operating or general agents, and sell and deliver such cordage to, or for the account of, the agencies furnishing the fiber.

(ii) Process into Manila cordage such additional amounts of Manila fiber and sell and deliver such additional amounts of Manila cordage as may from time to time be determined by the War Production Board to be necessary in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

(e) Restrictions on sales and deliveries of manila cordage. (1) During the period January 1 through March 31, 1943, and each following three-month period, no cordage processor shall sell or deliver more manila cordage than 124½% of his basic monthly poundage, of which quantity not more than 20% shall be sold or delivered to fill purchase orders for manila cordage uses specified in paragraph (e) (2) (ii).

(2) In addition to the limitations in paragraphs (e) (1) and (e) (3) no cordage processor or dealer shall sell or deliver any Manila cordage and no person shall purchase or accept delivery of any Manila cordage except to fill the following:

(i) Orders for Manila cordage for delivery to or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, or the War Shipping Administration or its operating or general agents, or for physical incorporation in other products to be delivered to or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, or the War Shipping Administration or its general or operating agents. Every such purchase order for physical incorporation into products to be delivered to or for the account of the foregoing named agencies shall be accompanied by a certificate in substantially the following form:

The undersigned hereby represents to his vendor and to the War Production Board that the Manila cordage covered by the annexed purchase order is for physical incorporation into the products to be delivered to pursuant to contract No. _____.

(Here insert name of one of the foregoing named agencies)

Authorized person

(ii) Purchase orders for the following categories and uses:

(a) Purse lines for use in commercial fishing;

(b) Lines not less than 4½ inches in circumference used exclusively in towage or by ocean-going vessels engaged in the carriage of cargo and passengers as common carriers;

(c) Manila drilling cables for use in drilling oil wells, gas wells, and mines;

(d) Manila torpedo lines for use in handling explosives;

(e) Manila shot lines;

(f) Life boat falls for use on ocean, coastal or Great Lakes vessels of one thousand tons or over.

(iii) Purchase orders for Manila cordage:

(a) Carrying a preference rating of A-1-j or higher, evidenced by a preference rating certificate, or

(b) For use on vessels engaged in the carriage of cargo, as common carriers of passengers, in towage, in lighterage or in fishing for commercial fish markets or canneries, for use in hoisting for the loading or discharge of cargo of such vessels, and for uses of shipbuilding: Provided, however, That the Manila fiber for the manufacture of cordage covered by the purchase order of the type specified in this paragraph (e) (2) (iii) (a) shall have been put into process by a cordage processor on or before September 14, 1942: And provided further, That Manila fiber for the manufacture of cordage covered by purchase orders of the categories specified in paragraph (e) (2) (iii) (b) shall have been put into process by a cordage processor on or before July 4, 1942.

(iv) Orders placed by Defense Supplies Corporation or Metals Reserve Company: Provided, however, That no cordage processor or dealer shall deliver any Manila cordage upon any order placed with him pursuant to paragraph (e) (2) (ii) or (e) (2) (iii) (b), unless and until such processor or dealer shall have first received from the person placing such order a certificate signed on behalf of such person by a duly authorized individual in substantially the following form:

The undersigned hereby represents that the Manila cordage covered by this order will be used by the undersigned only for the uses specified in paragraph (e) (2) of General Preference Order M-36, as amended, with the terms of which the undersigned is familiar.

(3) No person, other than the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration or its operating or general agents, the Defense Supplies Corporation, the Metals Reserve Company or an importer, shall hereafter order or accept delivery of any Manila cordage if the amount of the Manila cordage held or under control of such person exceeds one and one half months' supply for such person; and no person, other than those hereinabove excepted, shall have outstanding at any one time orders for future deliveries of Manila cordage in an amount greater than one month's supply for such person. "Supply" as used in this paragraph means the average monthly amount of Manila cordage withdrawn from the inventory of such person, which has been resold or put into actual use by such person, in the three calendar months immediately preceding the calendar month in which said order is placed or delivery is accepted, or in the three calendar months of the previous year which immediately follow the calendar month of that year corresponding with the month in which said order is placed or delivery is accepted, whichever shall be the higher: Provided, however, No person shall be entitled to count as withdrawn from inventory and resold or put into actual use, for the purpose of calculating his permitted supply, any lots of Manila cordage purchased expressly for and resold or delivered to the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the Defense Supplies Corporation, or the Metals Reserve Company, but every such person shall be entitled to include in the said calculation as withdrawn from inventory and resold or put into actual use any lots of Manila cordage sold to any of the foregoing from his general supply of Manila cordage where such lots, or their equivalent, were not purchased by him expressly for such resale: And provided further, That nothing herein contained shall prohibit the importation of, or restrict the inventory of, imported Manila cordage which may be held by any dealer for whose account such Manila cordage was imported.

(f) Control of stocks of Manila fiber. Control is hereby taken of the distribution and use of Manila fiber. Any Manila fiber at any time hereafter in the inventory of any person shall be sold and delivered by such person if and as specifically directed in any order of the War Production Board which may be issued whenever the War Production Board shall determine that a shortage of any particular grade of Manila fiber for defense, or for private account and for export, renders it necessary or appropriate so to allocate such Manila fiber in the public interest or to promote the national defense by so directing its sale and delivery by such person. Any such sale shall be made at the established prices and terms of sale and payment therefor. No person shall dispose of or use Manila fiber in any manner inconsistent with any such order.

(g) Exclusions from this order. The terms and provisions of this order shall not apply to:

(1) Sales and/or deliveries by any cordage processor or dealer of Manila cordage of any class from stocks on hand or in process as of February 20, 1942, of the following types:

(i) Manila lariat rope,

(ii) Manila yacht lariat rope,

(iii) Manila transmission rope,

(iv) Manila left laid spinning lines, not including cordage of cable construction suitable for use as drilling cables even though such products may have been purchased or sold for spinning lines.

(2) Any sales and/or deliveries by any cordage processor or dealer of Manila cordage which on December 19, 1941, was in the form of cut lengths of less than 200 feet.

(3) Any stock of Manila cordage which contains no Manila fiber of the following grades—AB Davao or non-Davao, 1 Davao, JI Davao, G. Davao,—S2 Davao, and which is so processed that the Manila fiber therein contained is combined or mixed with at least an equal amount of fiber other than Manila fiber, in the hands of a dealer or cordage processor, or in transit on February 20, 1942, or made from Manila fiber actually placed on machines by a cordage processor on or prior to December 19, 1941.

(4) Any Manila cordage imported into the United States on or after July 4, 1942, and which has been offered for sale to, and rejected in writing by, any two of the following:

(i) The Army of the United States,

(ii) The Navy of the United States,

(iii) The United States Maritime Commission, or

(iv) The War Shipping Administration or its operating or general agents.

(5) Delivery by or to any person having temporary custody of Manila cordage or Manila fiber solely for the purposes of transportation or the public warehousing thereof.

(h) Appeal. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of Manila fiber conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion for nondefense work to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board by letter or telegram Ref: M–36, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief, or upon such form or forms as may hereafter be prescribed. The War Production Board may thereupon take such action as it deems appropriate. Applications for specific exceptions from the limitations of paragraph (e) (3) should be made in writing by the person desiring to use the cordage.

(i) Reports. Every importer of Manila fiber or Manila cordage and every processor of Manila fiber shall file with the U. S. Tariff Commission, acting for the War Production Board, not later than the tenth day of the following month, a report on form PD–128 and/or PD–129, and all persons affected by this order shall file with the War Production Board such reports as may from time to time be required by said Board.

(j) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two (2) years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production, sales and other transactions pursuant to this order, and shall from time to time, upon request, submit all records required to be kept by this order to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(k) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(l) Communications to the War Production Board. All reports to be filed, appeals and other communications concerning this order, unless otherwise stated, shall be addressed to the War Production Board, Textile, Clothing and Leather Division, Washington, D. C., Reference M–36.

Issued this 31st day of March 1943.

PART 3102—NATIONAL EMERGENCY SPECIFICATIONS FOR STEEL PRODUCTS

[Limitation Order L–211, Schedule 3 as Amended March 31, 1943]

BARBED WIRE, WIRE FENCE, WIRE NETTING AND WIRE FLOORING

§ 3102.4 Schedule 3 to Limitation Order L–211—(a) Restrictions on barbed wire. (1) No person shall produce, fabricate or deliver barbed wire except two point barbed wire of 14 gauge strands and 16 gauge barbs, or two or four point barbed wire of 12½ gauge strands and 14 gauge barbs, the spacing of the barbs in each style to be not less than four inches.

(2) No person shall produce or fabricate in any calendar quarter commencing April 1, 1943 a greater tonnage of barbed wire of 12½ gauge strands and 14 gauge barbs than barbed wire of 14 gauge strands and 16 gauge barbs.

(3) No person shall supply barbed wire except on 80 rod spools.

(b) Restrictions on wire fence, wire netting and wire flooring. No person shall produce, fabricate or deliver woven or welded wire fence, wire netting or wire flooring, except in the styles, specifications and in the length of rolls set forth in List 1 attached hereto.

(c) Restrictions on use of copper. No person shall add any copper to steel to be used in the production of wire for fabrication of barbed wire, woven or welded wire fence, wire netting or wire flooring.

(d) Restrictions on galvanizing. No person shall apply any zinc coating to barbed wire, or woven or welded wire fence in excess of the weights specified in Weight A, Table IV, Federal Specification QQ–W–461, issued June 16, 1941, except that half gauges shall take the weight classification of the next heavier gauge specified.

(e) Acceptance of delivery. No person shall accept delivery of material which he knows or has reason to believe was produced, fabricated or delivered in violation of the provisions of paragraphs (a), (b), (c), or (d).

(f) General exceptions. The provisions of paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) shall not apply to material:

(1) The production, fabrication, delivery or acceptance of which is specifically permitted by the War Production Board, or

(2) Which has been produced or fabricated before November 12, 1942, or which before such date has been processed in such manner and to such extent that processing to conform to such provisions would be impracticable, or

(3) To be purchased by or for the account of any of the following, to the extent that such material is called for by the specifications applicable to the contract, subcontract, or purchase order:

(i) The Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, and the War Shipping Administration;

(ii) The government of any of the following countries: Belgium, China, Czechoslovakia, Free France, Greece, Iceland, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Russia, Turkey, United Kingdom, including its Dominions, Crown Colonies and Protectorates, and Yugoslavia;

(iii) The government of any country listed above, or any other country, including those in the Western Hemisphere, where the contract or purchase order is placed by any agency of the United States Government, pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(g) Exception to restriction on length of rolls. The restrictions as to length of rolls contained in paragraphs (a) and (b) shall not be applicable to deliveries on preference ratings assigned by the Board of Economic Warfare, deliveries on Lend-Lease orders, or to deliveries by any person to the ultimate consumer.

(h) Records. Each producer or fabricator owning or possessing material excepted by the provisions of paragraph (f) shall retain records of such material available for inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

PART 3169—KNIT UNDERWEAR

[Limitation Order L–247 as Amended March 31, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created shortages in the supplies of materials for knit underwear for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3169.1 Limitation Order L–247—(a) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Knit underwear" means all underwear made of knitted fabrics. The term shall not include slips, pajamas or gowns, other than infants' gowns.

(2) Unless otherwise indicated all trade terms shall have their customary trade meanings.

(c) General restrictions on manufacture. No person shall cut any fabric for or manufacture knit underwear, except in conformity with the following requirements:

(1) The types and number of permitted fabrics and models for each type shall be as shown in Schedule A. Any variation in either construction, fiber content of yarn, type of stitch, or weight, shall constitute a different fabric. Any variation in either cut, trim, or sleeve or leg length shall constitute a different model. A variation in color, method of finishing or size shall not constitute a different model.

(2) No knit underwear shall have any rayon striping, or any decorative trimming which does not add to the serviceability of the garment, unless permitted by Schedule A.

(3) The weight of any circular knit rayon fabric used shall not be lighter than 6.00 yards per pound or heavier than 3.50 yards per pound both based on 36 inch width.

(4) The rayon content in men's shirts, shorts or union suits or any types of infants' knit underwear shall be less than 50%.

(d) Exception. The prohibitions and restrictions of paragraph (c) shall not apply to knit underwear delivered to or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration.

(e) Fair distribution of products. No person shall discriminate, in the acceptance or filling of orders, sales or deliveries, of knit underwear as between any of his customers who meet his established prices and terms.

(f) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, purchases, production and sales.

(g) Reports. Each person affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as may be required by said Board from time to time.

(h) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(i) Communications to the War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Textile, Clothing and Leather Division, Washington, D. C., Reference L–247.

(j) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(k) Effective date. This order shall take effect on May 1, 1943.

Issued this 31st day of March 1943.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[CMP Reg. 1, Direction 1 as Amended March 26, 1943 [1]]

The following direction is issued, pursuant to paragraph (t) (6) of CMP Regulation No. 1 (8 F.R. 482, 1730, 2565, 2857) to all steel producers:

NOTE.—Paragraphs (a) and (b) amended by changing the words "on or before March 22, 1943" to read "as of March 22, 1943."

(a) Orders which as of March 22, 1943, were promised for shipment during the second quarter of 1943 shall not be displaced, in the absence of a specific direction to the contrary, by any order (including authorized controlled material orders) received at any time prior to April 15, 1943, notwithstanding any provision contained in any CMP regulation.

(b) Orders which as of March 22, 1943, were promised for shipment during the second quarter of 1943 may be converted into authorized controlled material orders at any time pursuant to CMP Regulation No. 1.

(c) Authorized controlled material orders, or allotments converting other orders into authorized controlled material orders, which orders were not as of March 22, 1943, promised for shipment in the month indicated by the allotment number, shall be held in abeyance and not accepted until April 15, 1943.

(d) On and after April 15, 1943, authorized controlled material orders for shipment during the second quarter of 1943 shall be accepted and filled to the extent required by paragraph (t) of CMP Regulation No. 1. Such orders shall, however, be subordinated to orders mentioned in paragraph (a) above which have been converted into authorized controlled material orders prior to April 15, 1943.

(e) A consumer who receives, after March 10, 1943, an authorized production schedule in connection with a new program and is unable, by reason of this direction, to get his authorized controlled material orders accepted for shipment in time to fulfill such schedule, may apply for relief either directly, or through the Claimant Agency involved, to the appropriate Products Section of the Steel Division of the War Production Board. The Steel Division will, if the circumstances warrant, direct a producer to fill such order.

(f) This direction shall not apply to the acceptance or scheduling of authorized controlled material orders for shipment after June 30, 1943.

Issued this 26th day of March 1943.

PART 3103—INCANDESCENT LIGHTING FIXTURES

[General Limitation Order L-212]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of copper, iron and steel and other materials for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 3103.1 General Limitation Order No. L-212—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Incandescent lighting fixture" means any equipment designed or constructed for the purpose of illumination and employing or used in connection with an incandescent electric light source. Incandescent lighting fixture shall include, but is not limited to a portable fixture designed for use in conjunction with any industrial machine, tool, assembly bench or other similar factory equipment. Incandescent lighting fixture shall not include

(i) A portable lamp as defined by Limitation Order L-33; or

(ii) A floodlight, searchlight, blackout and dimout lighting fixture; or

(iii) A traffic signal, street and highway luminaire; or

(iv) Automotive and airport lighting equipment; or

(v) A flashlight, any portable battery operated lighting device; or

(vi) Any lighting fixture specifically designed for use on ships, or as a dental or surgical operating room fixture.

(2) "Industrial incandescent lighting fixture" means an incandescent lighting fixture designed and constructed to provide general or localized illumination for an area of manufacturing, processing, storage or transportation including, but not limited to, a machine shop, laboratory, warehouse, power plant, yard, platform, dock, pier, passageway, or arsenal, or for a camp or cantonment. For the purpose of this order an office or a drafting room is not an area in which manufacturing or processing is performed.

(3) "Heavy duty fixture" means an industrial incandescent lighting fixture consisting of a drawn or spun steel threaded hood supporting a reflector which reflector is made with a three to three and one-half inch threaded neck.

(4) "Residential incandescent lighting fixture" means an incandescent lighting fixture designed and constructed to provide illumination in a human habitation.

(5) "Utility incandescent lighting fixture" means an incandescent lighting fixture other than an industrial or residential incandescent lighting fixture.

(6) "Reflector" means that part or parts of an incandescent lighting fixture which part or parts are designed and constructed to redirect the light from an incandescent light source in a desired direction or directions or to shield or intercept the light from an incandescent light source.

(7) "Globe holder" means that part of an incandescent lighting fixture which part is designed and constructed to hold the socket and the enclosing globe.

(8) "Canopy" means that part of an incandescent lighting fixture which part is designed and constructed to protect any connection of such fixture to an electrical system or a building.

(9) "Hood" means that part of an incandescent lighting fixture which part is designed and constructed to contain a lamp holding device or socket and to support a reflector.

(10) "Put into process" means the act by which a person first changes the form of material from that form in which it was received by him.

(11) "Maintenance" means the minimum upkeep necessary to the continued and safe operation of any incandescent lighting fixtures.

(12) "Repair" means the restoration of any incandescent lighting fixture to a sound working condition after wear and tear, damage or destruction has made it unfit or unsafe for service.

(b) Restrictions—(1) Manufacture of industrial, residential and utility incandescent lighting fixtures. On and after the 10th day of April 1943, notwithstanding any contract or agreement to the contrary, no person shall put into process any material in manufacture of any industrial, residential or utility incandescent lighting fixture or any component part of any industrial, residential or utility incandescent lighting fixture except:

(i) Glass, materials used in making glass, or any other material specifically authorized by the War Production Board.

(ii) Materials which were acquired by him prior to March 31, 1943, Provided, That copper, copper base alloys or copper products shall be used only in accordance with limitations established by General Conservation Order M-9-c; or

(iii) Materials which were acquired by him subsequent to March 31, 1943, pursuant to orders or contracts which bear rating of A-1-j or better, Provided, That copper, copper base alloys or copper products shall be used only in accordance with limitations established by General Conservation Order M-9-c.

(2) Manufacture of industrial incandescent lighting fixtures. On and after the 30th day of May 1943, no person shall put into process in the manufacture of an industrial incandescent lighting fixture

(i) Any ferrous metal sheet of a gauge heavier than 22 U. S. Standard, for such a fixture designed and constructed to use a bulb of 750 or more watts; or

(ii) Any ferrous metal sheet of a gauge heavier than 24 U. S. Standard, for such a fixture designed and constructed to use a bulb of less than 750 watts; or

(iii) Any ferrous metal for protective covering enveloping glass reflectors; or

(iv) Any ferrous metal for such a fixture designed and constructed to be detached in whole or in part, except

(a) For a heavy duty fixture so designed and constructed; or

(b) For a mechanical lowering hanger.

(3) Manufacture of residential incandescent lighting fixtures. On and after the 30th day of May 1943, no person shall manufacture or assemble a residential incandescent lighting fixture containing more than six (6) ounces of ferrous metal.

(4) Manufacture of utility incandescent lighting fixtures. On and after the 30th day of May 1943, no person shall without specific authorization of the War Production Board put into process in the manufacture of a utility incandescent lighting fixture any

(i) Ferrous metal globe holder exceeding six (6) inches in diameter; or

(ii) Ferrous metal canopy exceeding six (6) inches in diameter; or

(iii) Ferrous metal louver, shield, baffle, or reflector; or

(iv) Ferrous metal protective covering enveloping a glass reflector.

(c) Exceptions. The restrictions and limitations of this order shall not apply to the manufacture, assembly or sale of sockets or switches.

(d) Sale and delivery of industrial or utility incandescent lighting fixtures. On and after the 10th day of April 1943, notwithstanding any contract or agreement to the contrary, no person shall sell or deliver any new industrial or utility incandescent lighting fixture or new component part of such an incandescent lighting fixture (that is, which has never been used by an ultimate consumer) except that a person may:

(1) Sell or deliver an industrial or utility incandescent lighting fixture which fixture was wholly manufactured or assembled from component parts manufactured prior to March 31, 1943; or

(2) Sell or deliver a component part of an industrial or utility incandescent lighting fixture which component part was manufactured before March 31, 1943; or

(3) Sell or deliver an industrial or utility incandescent lighting fixture or component part pursuant to an order or contract bearing a preference rating of A-1-j or better; or

(4) Sell or deliver any component part of any industrial or utility incandescent lighting fixture for the purpose of maintenance or repair; or

(5) Deliver an industrial or utility incandescent lighting fixture or any component part of any industrial or utility incandescent lighting fixture to be used solely for the purposes of demonstration, test or storage of such industrial or utility incandescent lighting fixture or component part thereof; or

(6) Deliver an industrial or utility incandescent lighting fixture or component part thereof from one branch, division, or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division, or section of such enterprise.

(e) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(f) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(g) Reports. Each person to whom this order applies shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order,

[1] This document is a restatement of Amendment 1 to Direction 1 of CMP Reg. 1, which appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER of March 30, 1943, page 3814, and reflects the regulation in its completed form as of March 26, 1943.

or who in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is

In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(i) Appeals. Any appeal under the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provisions appealed from and stating fully the grounds of appeal.

(j) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time.

(k) Applicability of other orders. Insofar as any other order issued by the War Production Board, or to be issued by it hereafter, limits the use of any material to a greater extent than the limits imposed by this order, the restrictions of such other order shall govern, unless otherwise specified therein.

(l) Routing of correspondence. Applications for authorization by the War Production Board under the provisions of this order shall be made by letter in triplicate, and such applications, reports to be filed and other communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the War Production Board, Building Materials Division, Washington, D. PART 1014—BURLAP AND BURLAP PRODUCTS

[Conservation Order M–47, as Amended March 29, 1943 [1]]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of burlap for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1014.1 Conservation Order M–47.—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Burlap" means burlap of the Hessian cloth type, other than brattice cloth and linoleum cloth, which weighs more than six and not more than sixteen ounces per yard of cloth forty inches wide.

(3) "Importer" means any person who imported burlap during the year 1940, other than an importing bag manufacturer.

(4) "Importing bag manufacturer" means any person who imported burlap during the year 1940 and manufactured bags from such burlap.

(5) "Non-importing bag manufacturer" means a bag manufacturer who purchases burlap from an importer or an importing bag manufacturer and manufactures bags for sale or for his own use.

(6) "Pacific port" means any port on the Pacific coast of the United States or any inland port of entry for goods from other ports on the Pacific coast of North America.

(7) "North Atlantic port" means any port on the Atlantic coast of the United States, north of Wilmington, N. C., or any inland port of entry for goods from other ports on the North Atlantic coast of North America.

(8) "Gulf port" means any port on the Gulf coast of the United States, the port of Wilmington, N. C., and the ports on the Atlantic coast of the United States to the south thereof, or any inland port of entry for goods from other ports on the Gulf or South Atlantic coast of North America.

(9) "Agricultural bag" means a new textile bag, as defined in Textile Shipping Bags Conservation Order M–221, as amended from time to time, made of burlap.

(10) "Full bales unbroken" means bales not fully opened so that the content could not readily be restored to the same bale, and includes bales which have been sampled.

(11) "Import" means to transport in any manner into the continental United States from any foreign country or from any territory or possession of the United States, including the Philippine Islands. It includes shipments into a free port, free zone or bonded custody of the United States Bureau of Customs (bonded warehouse) in the continental United States and shipments in bond into the continental United States for transshipment to Canada, Mexico or any other foreign country.

(b) Stockpiling of imports. (1) Any importer, importing bag manufacturer, or person importing burlap shall set aside two-thirds of each cargo of burlap imported by him into the continental United States, and shall not dispose thereof except as expressly directed by the War Production Board. The bales so set aside shall be lightweights, 7½ ounce to 9 ounce inclusive, to the extent available, and shall not include any bales known to be damaged, unless instructions to the contrary are given by the War Production Board.

(2) Any importer, importing bag manufacturer, or person who has set aside burlap in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) shall not deliver, sell, manufacture, process, use or otherwise release burlap from the quantity so set aside, without further authorization of the War Production Board, except in the following instances:

(i) To fill any order for burlap bearing a preference rating of A–1–c or higher assigned by a preference rating certificate on form PD–1A, PD–3A, PD–300 or PD–408 (but not a preference rating assigned in any other manner) expressly specifying burlap and issued directly to the person placing the order; and such person in applying the rating to his supplier, in addition to making the endorsement upon his purchase order as required, shall furnish to the supplier a photostatic copy (or another copy accompanied by his sworn statement that it is a true copy) of such preference rating certificate, together with a certificate manually signed by a duly authorized official that purchase orders for an amount in excess of the quantity of burlap delivery of which has been rated by such certificate have not been placed by him with any source of supply and rated under the said certificate. Reproduction of any preference rating certificate for the foregoing purposes is hereby permitted;

(ii) To fill any order placed by the Board of Economic Warfare, the Defense Supplies Corporation, or any corporation organized under the authority of section 5d of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended, or any representative designated for the purpose by any of the foregoing: Provided, however, That the burlap so obtained shall not be disposed of except as specifically authorized by the War Production Board.

(c) Restrictions on delivery or processing. Except as provided in paragraphs (b) (2) and (h) (3), or upon express authorization of the War Production Board, no person shall knowingly sell, deliver or in any manner distribute, and no person shall purchase, accept delivery of or in any manner receive burlap for any use other than for the manufacture of agricultural bags, and no person shall process or use any burlap other than for the manufacture of agricultural bags. This prohibition against processing or use shall not apply to bales that were not full bales unbroken on December 22, 1941.

(d) Quotas for importers and importing bag manufacturers. (1) The quota of each importer or importing bag manufacturer out of each cargo of burlap imported to the continental United States (but excluding any amount in such cargo imported by the United States Government, the Board of Economic Warfare, the Defense Supplies Corporation, or any corporation organized under the authority of section 5d of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended, or any representative designated for the purpose by any of the foregoing, or any non-importing bag manufacturer) shall be an amount bearing the same ratio to the amount of such cargo as the average annual imports of such importer or importing bag manufacturer in the period 1935–1939, inclusive, through ports on the same coast—Pacific, North Atlantic or Gulf, as the case may be—bear to the average total imports of all importers and importing bag manufacturers through ports on the same coast in the same period; Provided, however, That whenever the War Production Board shall determine that there has been a substantial change in the relative amounts of cargoes discharged at Pacific, North Atlantic or Gulf ports as compared with the period 1935–1939, inclusive, he may make such adjustment as he deems appropriate by directing the distribution, in whole or in part, of any cargo or cargoes discharged at any port to importers or importing bag manufacturers not otherwise entitled to the same under the terms of this paragraph.

(2) Any importer or importing bag manufacturer not desiring to take up his quota out of any cargo may assign such quota, in whole or in part, to one or more importers or importing bag manufacturers in exchange for an equal yardage, without regard to constructions, out of the quotas with respect to expected future cargoes of such importers or importing bag manufacturers. Unused quotas, not so assigned, may be reallocated by the War Production Board.

(e) Restrictions on importation. (1) No person (other than the United States Government, the Board of Economic Warfare, the Defense Supplies Corporation, or any corporation organized under the authority of section 5d of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended, or any representative designated for the purpose by any of the foregoing, or a non-importing bag manufacturer) shall import burlap who did not import burlap in 1940.

(2) Any person securing shipping space for burlap in Calcutta or other point of shipment for import to the continental United States shall fill such shipping space with ten ounce constructions or heavier to the extent available.

(f) Quotas for non-importing bag manufacturers. (1) Each importer or importing bag manufacturer shall, out of his receipts of burlap (other than burlap stockpiled under paragraph (b)) make available to each non-importing bag manufacturer who purchased burlap from him during the years 1939 and 1940 the same percentage of burlap delivered by him to that non-importing bag manufacturer out of his total deliveries of burlap to all non-importing bag manufacturers during the years 1939 and 1940. This burlap shall be made available in each month, so far as practicable, and at regularly established prices and terms of sale or payment.

(2) No non-importing bag manufacturer may receive delivery from any importer or importing bag manufacturer of any burlap which will not be put into process by him for the manufacture of agricultural bags within sixty days after the receipt thereof. Each non-importing bag manufacturer shall certify to each importer or importing bag manufacturer from whom he receives delivery of burlap, as a condition to receiving such delivery, the following, on the purchase order for such burlap:

The undersigned hereby certifies that the burlap to be delivered to the undersigned pursuant to the above purchase order is needed by the undersigned to put into process for the manufacture of agricultural bags within sixty days after physical receipt thereof by the undersigned.

Name

Date ---------- By ----------

(3) If, for any reason, a non-importing bag manufacturer does not take up all or part of his quota in any given month, the importer or importing bag manufacturer shall reallocate all or part of the unused quota among the non-importing bag manufacturers to whom such importer or importing bag manufacturer is obligated to furnish quotas. This reallocation shall be made as far as practicable in proportion to existing quotas and to the extent that such non-importing bag manufacturers are willing to participate. Unused quotas not reallocated in any month shall be reallocated in successive months until consumed.

(4) The term "non-importing bag manufacturer" for the purposes of this paragraph (f) shall include any importing bag manufacturer to the extent of his receipts of burlap from each importer or each importing bag manufacturer, or from himself to the extent of his burlap cut up into bags during 1939 and 1940.

(g) Calculation of quotas. Quotas of importers, importing bag manufacturers and non-importing bag manufacturers shall be calculated to the nearest twenty-five bales, except that any quota amounting to less than twenty-five bales shall be calculated to the nearest bale.

(h) Damaged burlap. (1) Burlap set aside for Government use shall be deemed damaged when rejected by a writing identifying the said burlap after inspection by a Government inspector. Burlap not set aside for the Government stockpile shall be deemed damaged when inspected and rejected as damaged by a writing identifying the said burlap by representatives of the insurance company or companies required to meet the claim because of the damage involved.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) (2) burlap set aside for Government use deemed to be damaged, in the manner described in the foregoing paragraph, may be sold, delivered or distributed to, and purchased, received, processed or used by any importing or non-importing bag manufacturer for the manufacture of agricultural bags: Provided, however, That such burlap shall be computed in the quota of such importing or non-importing bag manufacturer.

(3) In the event that the extent of damage is such that at least two bag manufacturers have rejected all or any portion of the burlap found to be damaged in the manner described in subparagraph (1) hereof as unsuitable for use in the manufacture of agricultural bags after an inspection thereof by their representatives, who shall not be persons connected with the persons offering such burlap, any person entitled to sell such burlap may sell the same free and clear of the restrictions of this order: Provided, however, That every such person shall make and file the following certificate with the War Production Board on or before the third business day following such sale:

The undersigned hereby certifies to the War Production Board that ---------- bales of ---------- burlap ex(ship) ---------- bale nos. ---------- which arrived at (port) ---------- on (date) ---------- have been rejected as damaged by (insurance company representative or Government inspecting officer), as evidenced by his attached certificate

This burlap has been offered to (names of not less than two bag manufacturers) and has been rejected by them as unsuitable for use in the manufacture of agricultural bags as evidenced by their attached certificates.

The certificates of rejecting bag manufacturers shall be in substantially the the following form:

The undersigned hereby certifies to the War Production Board that the undersigned is a bag manufacturer, that the undersigned has been offered by (name of seller) a lot of ---------- bales of ---------- burlap ex ---------- bale nos. ---------- deemed to be damaged and that after inspection thereof by our representatives, who are not persons connected with the persons offering such burlap, we have rejected the said burlap as unsuitable for use in the manufacture of agricultural bags as to bales nos. ----------

(i) Adjustments and appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may apply for relief to the War Production Board by telegram or letter setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason such person considers that he is entitled to relief.

(j) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(k) Reports and communications. (1) Each importer, importing bag manufacturer and non-importing bag manufacturer shall file with the War Production Board on form PD–188 a monthly report of his inventories, receipts and deliveries of burlap.

(2) Each person participating in any transaction involving burlap shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as may be requested by the Board from time to time.

(3) All reports required to be filed under, and all communications concerning, this order shall be addressed to the War Production Board, Textile, Clothing and Leather Division, Washington, D. C., Reference M–47.

(l) Records and inspection. (1) Each person participating in any transaction involving burlap shall keep and preserve for a period of not less than two years

[1] This document is a restatement of Amendment 1 of M–47 which appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER of March 30, 1943, page 8836, and reflects the document in its completed form as of March 29, 1943.

(2) Aluminum, magnesium, alloy steel (including stainless steel), and copper, allotments under the Controlled Materials Plan will not be received in time der a statement in the following form, signed by an official duly authorized for accurate and complete records of his transactions therein, and his production, sales and inventories thereof.

(2) All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(m) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 29th day of March 1943.

PART 976—MOTOR TRUCKS, TRUCK TRAILERS AND PASSENGER CARRIERS

[Amendment 1 to Limitation Order L-1-h as Amended January 7, 1943]

Section 976.18 Limitation Order L-1-h as amended January 7, 1943 [8 F.R. 311] is amended as follows:

Paragraph (c) Production of heavy trucks authorized is hereby amended to read as follows:

(c) Production of heavy trucks authorized. Irrespective of the terms of General Limitation Order L-1-e, as amended, and in order to replace 3017 heavy trucks withdrawn prior to December 31, 1942 by the Army, Navy and Lend-Lease Administration from stocks intended for rationing to civilian uses under General Conservation Order M-100, producers are hereby authorized to produce heavy trucks in such quantities, of such types and within such periods of time as may be specifically authorized by the War Production Board.

Issued this 31st day of March 1943.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Regulation 11A as Amended April 1, 1943]

PRP FOR SECOND QUARTER OF 1943

§ 944.32A Priorities Regulation 11A—(a) Purpose. The Second Quarter of 1943 is the transition period from the Production Requirements Plan to the Controlled Materials Plan. In order to insure the receipt of materials by manufacturers during the transitional period, authorizations will be made under the Production Requirements Plan and under the Controlled Materials Plan. Preference ratings will be authorized under PRP as provided herein and in addition, most manufacturers will receive allotments under the Controlled Materials Plan. It is therefore essential that the utmost care be observed by manufacturers not to duplicate their orders for materials under both authorizations, and it is the purpose of this regulation to provide priorities assistance to PRP Units during this transition period and to require reductions in PRP authorizations or CMP allotments to the extent necessary to eliminate duplication.

(b) Definitions. (1) The definitions contained in Priorities Regulation No. 11 and CMP Regulation No. 1 shall apply to this regulation.

(2) "PRP rating" means any preference rating which a PRP Unit is entitled to apply pursuant to authorizations on a PRP certificate or pursuant to paragraph (c) of this regulation.

(3) "First quarter production material rating" means a preference rating assigned to a PRP Unit for production materials (as distinguished from supplies as defined in Priorities Regulation No. 11) on its PRP certificates for the first quarter of 1943.

(4) "CMP rating" means a preference rating which a person is authorized to apply or extend under the Controlled Materials Plan.

(5) "Listed production material" means any listed material, as defined in Priorities Regulation No. 11, which constitutes production material as defined therein.

(6) For the purposes of this regulation, any person who is a PRP Unit as of March 31, 1943, shall continue to be deemed a PRP Unit through June 30, 1943, or until such time as he ceases entirely to operate under the Production Requirements Plan.

(c) Assignment of ratings to production materials. Subject to the restrictions contained in paragraph (d) of this Regulation:

(1) Each PRP Unit may apply its first quarter production material ratings to the delivery to it of not more than 40% during April, 1943, nor 70% during the entire second quarter of 1943 of the total amount of each listed material which was authorized on its first quarter PD-25A certificate and on any first quarter PD-25F certificates issued prior to March 1, 1943, such percentages to be applied after deducting from such total the amount of each such material received or scheduled to be received during said first quarter for supplies.

(2) In addition, unless otherwise specifically directed by the War Production Board by March 31, 1943, each PRP Unit may, during the second quarter of 1943, apply its first quarter production material ratings to deliveries in the quarter of the remaining 30% of said authorized quantities of listed production materials, computed as provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (c).

(3) Each PRP Unit may apply its first quarter production material ratings to the delivery during the second quarter of 1943 of production materials (including listed fabricated items) other than listed materials, but only (i) in the quantities and at the rate necessary to maintain the production schedules permitted by the quantities of listed materials it is authorized to receive as a PRP Unit, or (ii) in the quantities authorized by its first quarter PD-25A and PD-25F certificates, after deducting from such quantities the amount of each material received or scheduled to be received during said first quarter for supplies, whichever of said (i) or (ii) is greater, subject, however, to the inventory restrictions of Priorities Regulation No. 1.

(4) CMP Ratings may be applied or extended as provided in CMP Regulation No. 3.

(d) Elimination of duplications under PRP and CMP—(1) Controlled materials. If a PRP Unit receives an allotment of controlled material under CMP, to the delivery of which it is authorized to apply PRP ratings under paragraph (c) of this regulation, it must reduce the amount to which it applies such PRP ratings by the amount of such material which it obtains for its own use by means of the allotment, but need not, unless it included the requirements of secondary consumers in its first quarter PRP application, deduct the portion thereof which it allots to its secondary consumers producing Class A products for it. If, at the time of receiving its allotment, it has already received by use of the PRP rating or otherwise any or all its requirements of controlled material for the production schedule for which the allotment is made, or elects to obtain the same by PRP rating, it must reduce or cancel the allotment as provided in paragraph (v) of CMP Regulation No. 1.

(2) Other materials and fabricated items. If a PRP Unit is authorized to apply a CMP rating to the same material (other than a controlled material) or fabricated item to which it is authorized to apply a PRP rating for delivery during the second quarter, it may apply either rating to the quantity authorized therefor, but may not apply ratings under both authorizations to more than is covered by the greater of the two authorizations.

(e) Quantitative restrictions as to receipt of listed production materials. No PRP Unit shall accept delivery during the second quarter of 1943 of any listed production material in excess of the amount thereof to which it is entitled to apply preference ratings pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (c) of this regulation, except that a PRP Unit may accept deliveries of:

(1) Any materials to the extent that it is permitted by paragraph (e) of Priorities Regulation No. 11 to accept deliveries in excess of the amounts authorized on its PRP certificates.

(2) Aluminum, magnesium, alloy steel (including stainless steel), and copper, in the forms specified in Materials List No. 1 Revised accompanying the first quarter Form PD-25A, in quantities approved for delivery to the PRP Unit by the Aluminum and Magnesium Division, the Steel Division or the Copper Division, respectively.

(3) Listed production materials to the extent required to meet a production schedule authorized under the Controlled Materials Plan.

(f) Quantitative restrictions as to receipt of other materials and products. A PRP Unit may receive during the second quarter of 1943 production materials in the form of fabricated items (whether listed or not) and in the form of materials other than listed materials, in the amounts to which it is entitled to apply preference ratings under paragraph (c) (3) of this regulation or in the amounts required to meet a production schedule authorized under the Controlled Materials Plan.

(g) Advance quarter authorizations. A PRP Unit which has received, on a PRP certificate for the first quarter of 1943, an advance quarter authorization for the second quarter of 1943 may, as to any particular material, elect to use the ratings thereby authorized for the amounts therein specified in lieu of the ratings and amounts permitted by paragraphs (c) and (d) of this regulation. A PRP Unit which has placed rated purchase orders for delivery in the third quarter of 1943, or any subsequent quarter, pursuant to an advance quarter authorization on a PRP certificate, need not cancel or rerate the same, except as otherwise expressly provided in any regulation or order of the War Production Board, and may receive delivery of the materials or fabricated items covered by such purchase orders, subject to any applicable regulations or orders of the War Production Board.

(h) Maintenance, repair and operating supplies. A PRP Unit may, prior to the third business day after the date of issuance of CMP Regulation No. 5, apply to the delivery to it of supplies (as defined in Priorities Regulation No. 11) during the second quarter of 1943 the same ratings authorized on its PRP certificates for the first quarter of 1943, in amounts not exceeding the amounts of such supplies actually received or scheduled for receipt during the first quarter. After said third business day, a PRP Unit may apply to maintenance, repair and operating supplies as defined in CMP Regulation No. 5 only the ratings and only to the amounts authorized by said regulation and may rerate deliveries previously rated pursuant to this paragraph (h).

(i) PD-25F applications. A PRP Unit which finds that the authorizations provided by this regulation and by the Controlled Materials Plan are insufficient to cover the quantities of materials required during the second quarter for essential production may file an application on Form PD-25F for an increased authorization. Such authorizations will not be granted to consumers of controlled materials unless it appears that allotments under the Controlled Materials Plan will not be received in time to obtain the materials required for the production contemplated under the Plan.

(j) Applicability of Priorities Regulation 12. Wherever a rating is applied pursuant to the provisions of this regulation to a delivery to which another rating has previously been applied, such rerating shall be effected in the manner provided in paragraphs (g) and (h) of Priorities Regulation 12 and subject to the limitations contained in paragraph (i) of said regulation.

Issued this 1st day of April 1943.

Recording Secretary.

PART 962—IRON AND STEEL

[General Preference Order M-21 as Amended April 1, 1943]

Whereas the national defense requirements have created a shortage of steel, as hereinafter defined, for defense, for private account, and for export and it is necessary, in the public interest and to promote the defense of the United States, to conserve the supply and direct the distribution thereof;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 962.1 General Preference Order M-21—(a) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision thereof may be inconsistent herewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Steel" means carbon steel, alloy steel, and wrought iron, in the forms and shapes indicated in the CMP Materials List, and also carbon and alloy steel forgings.

(2) "Iron products" means cast iron pipe and all other iron castings, gray and malleable (rough as cast), including all items of ferrous foundry manufacture not classified as steel.

(3) "Producer" means any person who produces steel or iron products.

(c) Purchasers' statements. (1) The filing of form PD-73 is not required with orders for steel for delivery on or after June 1, 1942, or with orders for iron products. On orders for steel for delivery on or before May 31, 1942, form PD-73 shall be filed as heretofore.

(2) Except as permitted by this paragraph (c), on and after June 1, 1942, no producer shall accept an order for steel or iron products from or deliver steel or iron products to any person unless such person has endorsed on his purchase order a statement in the following form, signed by an official duly authorized for such purpose, specifying the name of the appropriate group classification as described in Schedule A hereto, and no purchase order shall include material for more than a single group classification:

The undersigned certifies to the producer and to the War Production Board that the material ordered herein is to fill orders in group classification ----------

(3) Except for orders in group classifications, lend-lease, other export, and warehouse, on orders placed on or before May 31, 1942, with deliveries to be made after that date, a purchaser's statement in the above form must be filed with the producer on or before May 31, 1942, together with a description of the purchase orders to which each such statement applies.

(4) On export sales (except lend-lease sales and sales to purchasers in the Dominion of Canada) the purchaser's statement may be furnished by the accredited agent of the purchaser or by the export division of the producer.

(5) On shipments by a producer direct to the customer of a warehouse the purchaser's statement shall be furnished to the producer by the customer and not by the warehouse.

(6) In all cases where the purchase order can be identified by a Controlled Materials Plan allotment number or symbol, such allotment number or symbol shall accompany the purchase order, in lieu of the purchaser's statement above described.

(d) Producers' reports. Each producer shall file with the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Reference: M-21, reports at such times and on such forms as may from time to time be prescribed.

(e) Restriction on deliveries. No person shall deliver steel or iron products except:

(1) Any person may make delivery on an authorized controlled material order.

(2) Prior to July 1, 1943, any person may make delivery on orders bearing a preference rating of A-10 or higher.

(3) Distributors may make delivery to the extent permitted by the provisions of CMP Regulation No. 4, as from time to time amended.

(4) Any person may make delivery as permitted by the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 13, as from time to time amended.

(5) Any person may make a delivery specifically authorized or directed by the War Production Board.

(f) Specific directions. The War Production Board may from time to time issue specific directions to any person or persons as to the type, description,

SCHEDULE A—GROUP CLASSIFICATIONS

Army. Orders for steel and iron products to be delivered, or physically incorporated into material to be delivered, to the War Department (including the Panama Canal), including construction and maintenance of plants owned by the War Department.

Navy. Orders for steel and iron products to be delivered, or physically incorporated into material to be delivered, to the Navy Department (including the Marine Corps and Coast Guard), including construction and maintenance of plants owned by the Navy Department.

Maritime. Orders for steel and iron products to be delivered, or physically incorporated into material to be delivered, to the Maritime Commission, or to commercial shipyards (CSY) for ship repair under the supervision of the Coordinator for Ship Repair and Conversion, including construction and maintenance of plants owned by the Maritime Commission.

Defense Projects. Orders for steel and iron products for construction and maintenance of defense plants or projects under preference ratings, including, but not limited to, ratings assigned by preference rating orders in the P–19 series, and not included in other classifications.

Lend-Lease. Orders for steel and iron products for export on lend-lease contracts placed by any U. S. government agency, identified by the symbol "DA" on the order form.

Other Export. Orders for steel and iron products for export (except to U. S. possessions and off-shore bases), not included in the Lend-Lease classification.

Railroad. Orders for steel and iron products to be delivered, or physically incorporated into material to be delivered, to U. S. railroads.

Warehouse. Orders for steel and iron products for warehouses for resale (except CSY orders).

All Other. Other orders for steel and iron products which cannot be identified under any of the preceding classifications.

INTERPRETATION 1

The terms "steel" and "iron products" as defined in General Preference Order M–21, as amended (§ 962.1), do not include salvaged or used materials. (Issued September 2, 1942.)

PART 962—IRON AND STEEL

[General Preference Order M–21–b–2]

MERCHANT TRADE PRODUCTS WAREHOUSES AND DEALERS

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of steel for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 962.11 General Preference Order M–21–b–2—(a) Purpose and scope. This order tells how, under the Controlled Materials Plan, a distributor obtains deliveries of merchant trade products from producers and from other persons for stock or for delivery direct to a distributor's customers. The method by which a distributor obtains deliveries of general steel products is set forth in General Preference Order M–21–b–1. Deliveries of steel from stock by distributors to persons not purchasing for resale are governed by CMP Regulation No. 4. Deliveries by distributors to other distributors are governed by this order and not by CMP Regulation No. 4.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Steel" means carbon steel, alloy steel and wrought iron, in each case only in the forms and shapes indicated in the CMP Materials List.

(2) "Alloy steel" means any steel containing any one or more of the following elements in the following amounts:

Manganese, maximum of range in excess of 1.65%. Silicon, maximum of range in excess of 0.60%. Copper, maximum of range in excess of 0.60%. Aluminum, chromium, cobalt, molybdenum, nickel, titanium, tungsten, vanadium, zirconium, or any other alloying element in any amount specified or known to have been added to obtain a desired alloying effect.

(3) "Carbon steel" means any steel (including wrought iron) other than alloy steel.

(4) "Merchant trade products" means any of the steel products listed in Schedule I hereto.

(5) "Product group" means any of the twelve numbered groups of merchant trade products listed in Schedule I hereto.

(6) "Type" means (i) carbon steel, or (ii) stainless steel, or (iii) other alloy steel.

(7) "Base period" means

(i) With respect to merchant trade products in product groups 17–22, inclusive, of Schedule I, the calendar year 1940.

(ii) With respect to merchant trade products in product groups 23–28, inclusive, of Schedule I, the 12 months ending June 30, 1941.

(8) "Base tonnage" of a warehouse for any product group means the tonnage of such product group delivered by producers to the stock of such warehouse during the base period, or as specifically otherwise established by the War Production Board.

(9) "Distributor" means any person (including a warehouse, jobber, dealer, or retailer, who is engaged in the business of receiving steel for sale or resale and who does not process the material so sold otherwise than by performing such operations as cutting to length, shearing to size, torch cutting or burning to shape, sorting and grading, or pipe threading; but a person who, in connection with any sale, forms, bends, punches or performs any fabricating operation designed to prepare steel for final use or assembly shall not be deemed a distributor with respect to such sale.

(10) "Warehouse" means a distributor who receives physical delivery of merchant trade products from a producer for sale or resale in the form received, and who was engaged in the business of distributing steel from stock on August 9, 1941. The term does not include any pipe, sheet, or wire fabricator unless his sales from stock during 1940 of merchant trade products in the form received represented at least 25 percent of the total tonnage of merchant trade products received by him in that year. If a warehouse maintains a stock at more than one location, each location shall be deemed a separate warehouse.

(11) "Dealer" means a distributor (other than a warehouse) who receives physical delivery of merchant trade products from persons other than producers for sale or resale in the form received.

(12) "Delivery" includes deliveries received on consignment.

(c) General restrictions on placing orders by warehouses—(1) Product groups and types to be ordered. No warehouse shall order or accept delivery to warehouse stock of merchant trade products in any product group and type except those for which it has a base tonnage with a producer pursuant to this order.

(2) Quantity restrictions on prime quality material. No warehouse which, during 1940, purchased more than 25 percent of its tonnage of any product group in a grade now invoiced as less than prime quality may order for delivery to warehouse stock during any calendar quarter, prime quality steel products (requiring scheduled rollings) of the same product group from all producers in an amount greater than one-fourth of the total tonnage of such prime quality material purchased from all producers during 1940.

(d) Warehouse orders for certain wire and sheet products. The following rules apply to deliveries to warehouse stock of products in products groups 22, 26, 27 and 28:

(1) A warehouse shall not accept delivery of any product in these product groups from any producer (and a producer shall not deliver such products to a warehouse) unless the warehouse has a base tonnage for that product group with that producer. By the use of form PD–83–e, a warehouse may shift its total base tonnage for any of these product groups from one producer to another.

(2) Deliveries from a producer of any of these product groups to a warehouse stock shall be made only up to the following percentages of the base tonnage of the warehouse with the producer:

Product group	(Beginning January 1, 1943) During any calendar half year	During any calendar year
	Percent	Percent
22. Galvanized or painted formed roofing and siding	50	60
26. Wirecloth, ties	100	160
27. Wire (barbed and twisted, wire fence (woven or welded), and netting	100	120
28. Farm posts and gates	100	120

Warehouse orders for these products shall not be considered authorized controlled material orders, unless accompanied by Form CMP–11 in the manner provided for in paragraph (d) (3). Nevertheless (and in spite of the provisions of any other WPB regulation or order), a producer may, in any month, within the limits of his production directive for the particular product group, make delivery of these products to warehouses on orders which are not authorized controlled material orders, after he has filled all authorized controlled material orders for the same product group calling for delivery in the same month. Deliveries on warehouse purchase orders of this sort shall be distributed by the producer among the warehouses which have a base tonnage with it as nearly as possible in proportion to the base tonnage of each warehouse with that producer.

(3) If a warehouse wishes to obtain earlier delivery on an order placed in accordance with paragraph (d) (2) it may give any such order the status of an authorized controlled material order by filing with the producer a copy of Form CMP–11 to support such purchase order. On this form the warehouse may report only the tonnage of any merchant trade products which it delivered during the preceding 90 days on authorized controlled material orders bearing definite allotment numbers issued by claimant agencies or on orders rated AA–5 or higher.

(e) Warehouse orders for all other merchant trade products. The following rules apply to deliveries to warehouse stock of products in product groups, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 23, 24 and 25:

(1) For most of these products, each producer operates under a warehouse load directive which instructs it to reserve each month a certain percentage of its production of each product group to fill warehouse orders. The orders of any warehouse on a producer up to this percentage of its base tonnage with that producer shall be considered authorized controlled material orders. A warehouse can place orders of this sort only with producers with which it has a base tonnage. No form is required for placing such orders. By the use of Form PD–83–e a warehouse can shift its total base tonnage for any of these product groups from one producer to another.

(2) In addition, a warehouse may replace in stock, without limit as to quantity, merchant trade products of the same type (carbon, stainless, or other alloy) which it has sold during the preceding 90 days on authorized controlled material orders bearing definite allotment numbers issued by claimant agencies or orders rated AA–5 or higher. Form CMP–11 will be used for this purpose. Orders of this sort can be placed with any producer and will be considered authorized controlled material orders.

(f) Time for placing orders. Orders for all merchant trade products requiring scheduled rollings shall specify delivery, in the case of carbon steel, not earlier than the month following the date of order entry, and, in the case of alloy steel, not earlier than the month 105 days following the date of order entry. Orders for such material not requiring scheduled rollings (such as rejects, wasters, waste wasters, and shorts) may specify delivery at any time.

(g) Alternative use of Form PD–83–g. Up to July 1, 1943, Form PD–83–g may be used instead of Form CMP–11 to extend allotment numbers of specific claimant agencies or orders rated AA–5 or higher. Each order placed by a warehouse with a producer for delivery to warehouse stock and supported by Form CMP–11 or Form PD–83–g shall be deemed an authorized controlled material order.

(h) Restrictions on inventories. On and after July 1, 1943, no warehouse whose base tonnage of pipe (product groups 17 to 19), tin and terne plate (product group 20), galvanized or painted sheets (product groups 21 to 22), or wire products (product groups 23 to 28) exceeds 240 net tons shall accept a delivery of steel in any product group and type which will result in an inventory at the end of a calendar quarter greater than one-half its base tonnage for such product group and type.

(i) Purchases from idle or excess inventories. A warehouse or dealer may order for delivery to its stock, without limitation as to quantity, from idle or excess inventories pursuant to Priorities Regulation No. 13, merchant trade products in any product group and type for which such warehouse has a base tonnage. Each purchase order for such material shall be endorsed in substantially the following form, and when so endorsed shall be deemed to be an authorized controlled material order:

The undersigned certifies to the seller and to the War Production Board that this order is placed pursuant to paragraph (i) of Order M–21–b–2, and is an authorized controlled material order.

Name of Warehouse or Dealer

By ---
Authorized Official

Address

Date.

(j) Warehouse purchases for direct shipment to customer. A warehouse receiving an authorized controlled material order for a customer and wishing to arrange for shipment direct to such customer by the producer or other supplier, shall specify delivery to a point other than the warehouse, and shall copy on its own purchase order the endorsement made to it by its customer (including the customer's name) in accordance with CMP Regulation No. 1 or other applicable regulation or order. A purchase order specifying direct shipment and so endorsed shall be deemed an authorized controlled material order.

(k) Earmarked warehouse stocks. To the extent agreed upon by the Steel Division and any claimant agency, an earmarked stock of one or more merchant trade products may be established in any warehouse. Deliveries to such stock and withdrawals therefrom shall be made only in accordance with the specific directions which shall be issued at the time such stock is established.

(l) Deliveries to dealers. Dealers obtain deliveries of merchant trade products to stock in the following ways:

(1) Steel delivered on allotment numbers (or on orders rated AA–5 or higher). Merchant trade products which a dealer has delivered on definite allotment numbers of particular claimant agencies (or on orders rated AA–5 or higher) within the previous 90 days may be replaced with an equivalent tonnage of the same or any other merchant trade product by sending to a supplier with the purchase order a list of such deliveries showing for each the weight delivered, the allotment number (or preference rating), and the date of delivery. Such a purchase order is an authorized controlled material order. The warehouse, for the purposes of paragraphs (d) (3) and (e) (2), is entitled to use deliveries on these orders to support replacement orders filed with Form CMP–11.

(2) Other deliveries. In addition, a dealer may place orders for merchant trade products with warehouses without limit as to quantity. Such orders shall not be considered authorized controlled material orders. Nevertheless (and in spite of the provisions of any other War Production Board regulation or order) a warehouse may make delivery on such orders.

(m) Reports. (1) Each warehouse whose base tonnage of pipe (product groups 17 to 19), tin and terne plate (product group 20), galvanized or painted sheets (product groups 21 to 22), or wire products (product group, 23 to 28) exceeds 240 net tons shall file with the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D. C., a quarterly report in duplicate on Form PD–83–i.

(2) Each producer of a product for which a warehouse load has been established shall file quarterly reports with the War Production Board on Form PD–83–f.

(n) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by letter referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds for the appeal. In emergency cases, appeal may be made by telegraph.

(o) Communications to War Production Board. All appeals or other communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the Warehouse Branch, Steel Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Reference: M–21–b–2.

(p) Violations. Any warehouse, dealer, or other person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 1st day of April 1943.

PART 3225—CALCIUM METAL

[General Preference Order M-303]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of calcium metal for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3225.1 General Preference Order M-303—(a) Definitions. (1) "Calcium metal" means any product containing the element calcium not in chemical combination, and in which any metallic constituents other than calcium do not constitute more than 15 per cent, by weight.

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of calcium metal, and includes any person who imports calcium metal or has calcium metal produced for him pursuant to toll agreement.

(3) "Distributor" means any person (other than an importer) who purchases calcium metal for the purpose of resale.

(b) Restrictions on deliveries and use. (1) On and after April 1, 1943, no person shall deliver, accept delivery of, or use calcium metal, except as specifically authorized or directed by the War Production Board.

(2) Authorizations or directions with respect to deliveries or use in each calendar month will so far as practicable be issued by the War Production Board prior to the commencement of such month, but the War Production Board may at any time at its discretion issue directions with respect to deliveries to be made or accepted, or with respect to use or uses which may or may not be made of calcium metal to be delivered or then on hand. Such authorizations or directions may be made by the War Production Board without regard to preference ratings applicable to particular orders.

(3) Each person specifically authorized to use or accept delivery of calcium metal shall use such material for the purpose authorized, and only for such purpose, except as otherwise specifically directed by the War Production Board. Calcium metal allocated for inventory shall not be used except as specifically directed by the War Production Board.

(4) Calcium metal allocated to fill a specified order or class of orders shall, where and to the extent that such order or class of orders is not for any reason filled, revert to inventory as though allocated therefor.

(c) Application and reports. (1) Each person seeking authorization to accept delivery of, or to use calcium metal during any calendar month beginning with May, 1943, whether for his own consumption or resale, shall file application therefor on or before the 15th day of the proceding month. Applications respecting acceptance of delivery or use in April, 1943, shall be filed as many days as possible in advance of the desired date of acceptance or use. In any case, such application shall be made on Form PD-600, in the manner prescribed therein, subject to the following special instructions:

(i) Copies of Form PD-600 may be obtained at local field offices of the War Production Board.

(ii) Five copies shall be prepared, of which three shall be forwarded to War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M-303, one forwarded to the producer or distributor with whom applicant's order is placed, and the fifth retained for applicant's file. At least one of the copies filed with War Production Board shall be signed by applicant by a duly authorized official. Where the application is solely for authorization to use, no copy will be sent to the producer or distributor.

(iii) In the heading, under "Name of chemical", specify "Calcium metal"; under "WPB Order No.", specify "M-303"; under "Indicate unit of measure", specify "pounds".

(iv) In heading at top of Table I, specify the month and year for which authorization for acceptance of delivery or use is sought.

(v) In Columns 1, 11 and 19, specify grades; for example, carrots, castings, turnings, sublimed.

(vi) In Columns 3, 20 and 22 (Primary product), applicant will specify the product or products in the manufacture or preparation of which he will use calcium metal in terms of the following:

Magnesium castings.
Stainless steel alloys.
Special alloys.
Zirconium.
Other metals (specify).
Chemicals (specify).
Other products (specify).
Resale (as calcium metal).
Inventory (as calcium metal).

(vii) In Column 4 (Product end use), applicant will specify with respect to each primary product the ultimate use to which such primary product will be put. For example, if the "primary product" called for in Column 3 is "magnesium castings", the ultimate use might be "airplane engines". Applicant will also specify in each case whether his customer is Army, Navy, other government agency, Lend-Lease, or commercial customer. If application is for calcium metal for resale or for inventory, leave Column 4 blank.

(2) Each producer or distributor seeking authorization to make delivery of calcium metal during any month, beginning with May, 1943, shall file application therefor on or before the 20th day of the preceding month. Applications respecting delivery in April, 1943, shall be filed as many days as possible in advance of the desired delivery date. Such applications shall be made on Form PD-601 in the manner prescribed therein, subject to the following special instructions:

(i) Copies of Form PD-601 may be obtained at local field offices of the War Production Board.

(ii) Four copies shall be prepared, of which three shall be forwarded to War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M-303, the fourth to be retained by the producer or distributor.

(iii) Each producer who has filed application on Form PD-600 specifying himself as his supplier, shall list his own name as customer on Form PD-601 and shall list his request for allocation in the manner prescribed for other customers.

(iv) In the heading, under "Name of chemical", specify "Calcium metal"; under "WPB Order No.", specify "M-303"; under "This schedule is for deliveries to be made during the month of ————", specify month and year during which deliveries covered by application are to be made; under "Indicate unit of measure", specify "pounds".

(v) In Column 1, list customers and if it is necessary to use more than one sheet, number each sheet in order and show grand totals for all sheets on the last sheet, which is the only one that need be certified.

(vi) In Columns 3 and 8, producer or distributor will specify grades as indicated in the Forms PD-600 filed with him by his customers.

(vii) The producer or distributor may, if he wishes, leave Column 5 blank.

(3) The War Production Board may require each person affected by this order to file such other reports as may be prescribed, and may issue special directions to any such person with respect to preparing and filing Forms PD-600 and PD-601.

(d) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected hereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) Notification of customers. Each supplier shall notify his regular customers as soon as possible of the requirements of this order, but failure to receive such notice shall not excuse any person from complying with the terms hereof.

(3) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(4) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M-303.

Issued this 1st day of April 1943.

Subchapter C—Director, Office of War Utilities

PART 4500—ELECTRIC, GAS, WATER, AND STEAM UTILITIES—MATERIALS

[Supplementary Utilities Order U-1-c]

VICTORY GARDENS

§ 4500.6 Supplementary Utilities Order U-1-c. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (h) of Utilities Order U-1, water service extensions of not more than 250 feet (including any portion built by or for the consumer) may be made or connected by producers to provide water for gardens: Provided, That all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) There is no alternative source of water which would require less critical material.

(b) Water from each such extension will be used to provide water for not less than 5,000 square feet of land devoted to the production of edible crops.

(c) Extensions are made with not more than 5 feet of pipe for each 500 square feet of cultivated land.

(d) Pipe of the smallest practicable size, and in no event having a nominal inside diameter greater than 1¼", is used.

(e) No copper or copper base alloy pipe or tubing is used.

(f) No extension or enlargement of mains is required.

(g) The consumer agrees in writing with the producer that his use of water for the purposes of this supplementary order will be subject to rules promulgated by the producer in the interest of water conservation, including requirements for off-peak usage and interruption of service during periods of water shortage.

PART 4502—COMMUNICATIONS

[Utilities Order U-3 [1]]

§ 4502.1 Utilities Order U-3—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Operator" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, receiver, or any form of enterprise whatsoever, whether incorporated or not, the United States, the District of Columbia, any state or territory of the United States and any political, corporate, administrative or other division or agency thereof, to the extent engaged in rendering telephone communication service (and such telegraph and teletypewriter service as may also be conducted by him), within, to, or from the United States, its territories or possessions.

[1] Preference Rating Order P-130 has been revoked and is superseded by this order.

(2) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly, or product of any kind.

(3) Without regard to whether or not the expenditures therefor are for any reason required to be recorded in the operator's accounting records in accounts other than maintenance and repair:

(i) "Maintenance" means the minimum upkeep necessary to continue a facility in sound working condition.

(ii) "Repair" means the restoration of a facility to sound working condition when the same has been rendered unsafe or unfit for service by wear and tear, damage, failure of parts or the like.

(iii) Neither maintenance nor repair shall include the improvement of any plant, facility or equipment, by replacing material which is still usable, with material of a better kind, quality or design.

(4) "Operating supplies" means any material (other than that used for maintenance and repair and items listed on Schedule A) which is essential to and used in the operation of communication services by an operator: Provided, That such use is permitted under the provisions of Utilities Order U-2, as amended from time to time, and conforms to the limitations set forth in paragraphs (c) (1) (ii), (c) (1) (iii) and (c) (1) (iv) hereof. The term shall also include such items as hand tools, customarily purchased by the employer-operator for sale to his employees for use only in his business, in those cases where they would constitute operating supplies under established accounting practice if issued to employees without charge.

(5) "Operator's inventory of material" shall include all items of new and/or salvaged material and supplies on hand, whether held for current use or for sale as junk, until physically incorporated into plant by way of maintenance, repair, construction or otherwise, and without regard to whether or not such items of material are carried in the operator's accounting records under "Material and Supplies Account". "Operator's inventory of material" shall not include:

(i) Any surplus material listed by the operator for sale on Form UF-6, and filed with the Communications Division, Office of War Utilities as required by said form. Each item of such surplus material shall be identified by the operator for sale to operators for use for maintenance, repair, construction or operating supplies. Records of withdrawals from and additions to such surplus equipment shall be maintained and preserved as provided in paragraph (g) hereof, and shall be reported to the Communications Division upon the request of the War Production Board.

(ii) Any material identified for use on projects which have been specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations of the War Production Board or the War Production Board upon application by an operator.

(iii) Any operating supplies which are in the process of being consumed by an operator.

(iv) Any material (other than material ordinarily carried in stock for the day-to-day operations and for emergency repairs) which is, or has been, set aside in a reserve to restore plant damaged by enemy action or sabotage provided that authorization is or has been granted by the Director General for Operations of the War Production Board or the War Production Board, upon application of an operator made on Form PD-200. Any material withdrawn from such reserve shall be used only for the restoration of plant damaged by enemy action or sabotage and such use shall be reported by letter to the Office of War Utilities within thirty days after such withdrawal.

(v) Any stock of lead covered cable or bare line wire maintained by an operator for the repair of major breakdowns of his existing facilities due to storms, floods, etc., reported as prescribed on Form UF-5 unless disapproved by the Office of War Utilities.

(vi) Poles; crossarms; insulators; non-metallic conduit; furniture and office equipment; printing, stationery and office supplies; house service supplies; and, coal and petroleum products.

(b) Preference ratings, CMP allotment symbol MRO-U—(1) Assignment of ratings. Subject to the terms of this order operators are assigned the following preference ratings:

(i) AA-1 for deliveries to an operator, of materials, other than controlled materials, required for maintenance, repair, and operating supplies;

(ii) For deliveries to an operator, of materials, other than controlled materials, for the construction of facilities necessary to serve such defense projects as may be authorized pursuant to Preference Rating Order P-19-h, bearing a rating of AA-5 or better, the same rating as is assigned to such defense project; except that where such project is assigned two or more ratings and both or all of these are AA-5 or better such deliveries to an operator are assigned the lowest rating which is assigned to such defense projects.

Before applying the preference rating assigned by this paragraph (b) (1) (ii), however, an operator shall first file Form PD-685 with the Communications Division, Office of War Utilities, setting forth in detail the appropriate information requested on said form, and in addition thereto, such other information as may be from time to time required. The War Production Board will thereupon notify the operator if, and to what extent, the application is approved.

(2) Application or extension of ratings. By placing on his delivery order substantially the certification set forth below in (b) (4), an operator may apply and a supplier may extend the ratings assigned by (b) (1) (i) and (b) (1) (ii) in the manner provided in Priorities Regulation No. 3 and CMP Regulation No. 3.

An order for materials, other than controlled materials, bearing the rating assigned in (b) (1) (i) or (b) (1) (ii) when bearing the CMP allotment symbol MRO-U, and accompanied by the certification, substantially as set forth below in (b) (4), shall have the same status as a rated order bearing a CMP allotment symbol under all applicable CMP regulations. Such symbol shall constitute an allotment number or symbol for the purposes of CMP Regulation No. 3.

(3) The delivery of controlled materials. For the delivery of controlled materials, except aluminum, required for maintenance, repair, or operating supplies, an operator is authorized to use CMP allotment symbol MRO-U, and shall place on his delivery order substantially the certification set forth below in (b) (4).

An order bearing such certification shall be deemed an authorized controlled material order and shall have the same status as an order bearing an allotment number under all applicable CMP regulations. Such symbol shall constitute an allotment symbol for the purposes of CMP Regulation No. 3.

(4) Certification for use of ratings and allotment symbols. CMP allotment symbol MRO-U. Preference Rating ------. The undersigned operator certifies, subject to the penalties of section 35 (A) of the United States Criminal Code, to the seller and to the War Production Board, that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the undersigned is authorized under applicable War Production Board regulations or orders, and under all provisions of Utilities Order U-2 and U-3, to place this delivery order, to receive the item(s) ordered for the purpose for which ordered and to use any preference rating or allotment number or symbol which the undersigned has placed on this order.

Such certification shall in every case be signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7.

(c) Restrictions on use of ratings and allotment symbol. (1) In addition to the limitations in paragraphs (c) (2) and (c) (5) below, the preference ratings assigned and/or the allotment symbol authorized by this order shall not be applied by an operator:

(i) To obtain deliveries of materials containing copper, iron, steel, or nickel where such metals could be eliminated therefrom by the substitution of less scarce metals without serious loss of efficiency.

(ii) To obtain materials for exchange plant of any kind (exclusive of telegraph and/or teletypewriter plant) or for toll telephone central office equipment or for combined exchange and toll telephone central office equipment where the cost of such material to which the rating and/or allotment symbol is applied, in any single case, exceeds $2,500 or the total cost of material (both new and reused) in a single case exceeds $5,000, or to obtain PBX switchboards required to serve subscribers other than those set forth in paragraphs (e) (1) (i) and (e) (1) (ii) of Utilities Order U-2.

(iii) To obtain material for toll line plant where the cost of material (both new and reused) in any single case exceeds $500.

(iv) To obtain material for teletypewriters where the cost of material (both new and reused) in any single case exceeds $500 or to obtain teletypewriters to meet other than the minimum needs for service of the kind included in paragraph (e) (1) (i) of Utilities Order U-2.

(v) To obtain material for telegraph and/or teletypewriter plant, other than teletypewriters, where the cost of material (both new and reused) in any single case exceeds $2,500.

(2) No operator shall apply the ratings assigned by this order to obtain material for repairs to buildings except in accordance with, and to the extent authorized by, Order L-41.

(3) The foregoing dollar limitations in paragraphs (c) (1) (ii), (c) (1) (iii) and (c) (1) (iv) shall not apply to the portions of the material or equipment obtain from the operator's inventory or plant to meet temporary traffic or emergency requirements other than those occasioned by regularly recurring seasonal or holiday requirements. Any material or equipment so employed to meet such requirements shall, upon the termination of such temporary traffic or emergency requirements, be restored to the location in plant from which it was taken, if the service requirements at that time justify, or placed in inventory. In case the requirements for use of such material or equipment extends in any single instance beyond a period of thirty (30) days, the operator shall on or before the thirtieth day of such use make application to the Office of War Utilities on Form PD-716 for authorization to continue the use of such material or equipment, setting forth in detail the appropriate information requested on said form, and in addition thereto, such other information as may, from time to time, be required.

(4) Excepted from the foregoing provisions of paragraphs (c) (1) (ii), (c) (1) (iii) and (c) (1) (iv) are maintenance and repair materials and materials authorized on Form PD-685 under the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) (ii).

(5) No operator shall subdivide a single order, job, or project to qualify the same under the terms of this order.

(d) Sales of material from operator's excess stock. An operator may sell to any other operator material from his stocks only where a preference rating assigned by this order, or a preference rating certificate, order or other direction issued by the Director General for Operations of the War Production Board or the War Production Board is extended by the operator purchasing such material to the operator selling such material. Any such sale made in conformity with the terms of this paragraph shall be deemed to be expressly permitted within the terms of paragraph (c) (3) of Priorities Regulation No. 13.

(e) Restrictions on deliveries, inventory and use. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (f) below, no operator who has applied any rating assigned or the allotment symbol authorized by this order shall at any time accept deliveries of material (whether or not rated pursuant to this order) to be used for any purpose:

(i) Until the dollar value of the operator's inventory of material shall have been reduced to a practical working minimum. Such practical working minimum shall in no event exceed 27½% of the dollar value of material used for all purposes during the calendar year 1940 exclusive of poles; crossarms; insulators; non-metallic conduit; furniture and office equipment; printing, stationery and office supplies; house service supplies; and coal and petroleum products.

(ii) If the receipt thereof would increase the dollar value of the operator's inventory of material to an amount in excess of normal requirements which in no event shall exceed 27½% of the dollar value of material used for all purposes during the calendar year 1940 exclusive of poles; crossarms; insulators; non-metallic conduit; furniture and office equipment; printing, stationery and office supplies; house service supplies; and coal and petroleum products.

(iii) If the receipt thereof would increase the operator's inventory of a specific size, type and gauge of cable, wire or strand in excess of the estimated use of that specific size, type and gauge for the next 60 days: Provided, however, That this restriction shall not apply to that portion of a minimum standard reel of cable or strand which is in excess of the estimated use for the next 60 days nor where the lengths of cable in inventory are not such as will meet the requirements of a project for which cable is needed.

(2) No operator shall use the allotment symbol or preference ratings assigned to obtain maintenance, repair or operating supplies during any calendar quarter in an aggregate dollar amount exceeding one-fourth of his aggregate dollar usage for maintenance, repair and operating supplies during the calendar year 1942 except that an operator to meet seasonal conditions may use such allotment symbol or preference ratings to obtain during any calendar quarter, up to, but not in excess of, his aggregate dollar usage for maintenance, repair and operating supplies during the corresponding quarter of 1942. In no event, however, shall any operator use such allotment symbol or preference ratings to obtain maintenance, repair and operating supplies during the 12 months ending March 31, 1944, in an amount exceeding his aggregate dollar usage for maintenance, repair and operating supplies during the calendar year 1942.

(f) Exemptions. (1) Any operator whose average value of inventory of material for the five calendar years prior to January 1, 1942, did not exceed $10,000, shall be exempt from the provisions of paragraphs (e) (1) (i) and (e) (1) (ii).

(2) Any operator whose use of materials during the year 1942 did not exceed $10,000, shall be exempt from the provisions of paragraph (e) (2) above.

(3) Material delivered pursuant to paragraph (b) (1) (ii) shall be exempt from the provisions of paragraph (e) above.

(4) From time to time, the War Production Board may determine that certain operators are exempt in whole or in part from the restrictions contained in paragraph (e) above.

(g) Records and reports. Each operator acquiring maintenance, repair or operating supplies pursuant to this regulation shall keep and preserve for a period of not less than two years, accurate and complete records of all such supplies so acquired and used, which shall, upon request be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board. In addition, each operator affected by this order shall file such reports with the Office of War Utilities as may from time to time be required by the War Production Board.

(h) Applicability of regulations. (1) This order and all transactions affected hereby, except as herein otherwise provided, are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) None of the provisions of CMP Regulation No. 5 shall apply to operators as defined in paragraph (a) (1) of this order, and no such operator shall obtain any material under the provisions of that Regulation.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(j) Communications. All reports to be filed, appeals and other communications concerning this order should be addressed to: Office of War Utilities, War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Ref: U-3.

(k) All official actions taken pursuant to Preference Rating Order P-130, prior to April 1, 1943 in the name of the Director General for Operations or the Director, Office of War Utilities, are hereby ratified.

[Utilities Order U-5 [1]]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain types of wire communication equipment for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 4504.1 Utilities Order U-5—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person manufacturing wire communication equipment, parts or attachments thereto, of the kinds listed in Schedule A, to the extent that he is engaged in such manufacture, and shall include sales and distribution outlets controlled by said manufacturer.

(3) "Distributor" means any person other than a manufacturer regularly engaged in the business of leasing or selling wire communication equipment, parts or attachments thereto, to dealers.

(4) "Dealer" means any person (other than one engaged in rendering wire or radio communication service), regularly engaged in the business of offering wire communication equipment, parts or attachments thereto for sale or lease at retail to the consumer.

(5) "Wire communication equipment" shall include, but not by way of limitation, new and used wire telephone and telegraph communication equipment, parts and attachments thereto (including wire intercommunicating systems) of the kinds listed in Schedule A.

(b) General restrictions. (1) Regardless of the terms of any contract of sale, purchase, rental or other commitment, no manufacturer, distributor or dealer shall accept any purchase, rental or other order for wire communication equipment, parts or attachments thereto including, but not limited to, those included in Schedule A which is attached and made a part of this order, except a purchase, rental or other order bearing a preference rating of AA-4 or higher; and no manufacturer, distributor or dealer shall sell, lend, lease, rent, deliver or otherwise transfer any such wire communication equipment, parts or attachments thereto, nor shall any person receive or accept deliveries of any such equipment, parts or attachments thereto, from a manufacturer, distributor or dealer except to fill a purchase, rental or other order bearing a preference rating of AA-4 or higher. Provided, however, That this paragraph shall not prohibit the transfer or delivery of wire communication equipment to a manufacturer for repair or storage or the return of said equipment to the owner thereof after repair has been effected or storage terminated.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) (1), wire communication equipment, the order for which bears a preference rating of A-7 or higher and has been accepted by a manufacturer, distributor or dealer prior to January 2, 1943 or which bears a preference rating of A-1-a or higher and has been accepted by a manufacturer, distributor or dealer prior to April 1, 1943, may be manufactured and/or transferred and/or delivered.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) (1), no telephone "operator" as defined in Utilities Order U-3 and no telegraph "operator" as defined in Utilities Order U-4, shall sell, lend, lease, rent, deliver or otherwise transfer any wire communication equipment to any other such "operator" except in accordance with the provisions as to sale of materials by an operator from stock contained in Utilities Order U-3 or Utilities Order U-4, as the case may be.

(c) Existing contracts. Fulfillment of contracts in violation of this order is prohibited regardless of whether such contracts are entered into before or after September 25, 1942. No person shall be held liable for damages or penalties for any default under any contract or order which shall result directly or indirectly from compliance with the terms of this order.

(d) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(e) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Office of War Utilities, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: U-5.

(f) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from, stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(h) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file such reports as the War Production Board shall from time to time require.

Issued this 1st day of April 1943.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 4503—COMMUNICATIONS

[Utilities Order U-4 [1]]

Section 4503.1 Utilities Order U-4—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Operator" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, receiver, or any form of enterprise whatsoever, whether incorporated or not, the United States, the District of Columbia, any state or territory of the United States and any political, corporate, administrative or other division or agency thereof to the extent engaged in rendering within, to or from the United States, its territories or possessions, wire telegraph, cable or related communications service (exclusive of telegraph and teletypewriter service rendered by operators of telephone communications systems), either private or public in character, which involves the transmission and reception of coded impulse signals in numerical variety not less than the number of characters in the English alphabet.

(2) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly, or product of any kind.

(3) Without regard to whether or not the expenditures therefor are for any reason required to be recorded in the operator's accounting records in accounts other than maintenance and repair:

(i) "Maintenance" means the minimum upkeep necessary to continue a facility in sound working condition.

(ii) "Repair" means the restoration of a facility to sound working condition when the same has been rendered unsafe or unfit for service by wear and tear, damage, failure of parts or the like.

(iii) Neither maintenance nor repair shall include the improvement of any plant, facility or equipment, by replacing material which is still usable, with material of a better kind, quality or design.

(4) "Operating supplies" means any material (other than that used for maintenance and repair and items on Schedule B) which is essential to and used in the operation of wire telegraph, cable, or related communication service by an operator provided that such use conforms to the limitations set forth in paragraphs (c) (1) (ii), (c) (1) (iii) and (c) (1) (iv) hereof. The term shall also include such items as hand tools, customarily purchased by the employer-operator for sale to his employees for use only in his business, in those cases where they could constitute operating supplies under established accounting practice if issued to employees without charge.

(5) "Operator's inventory of material" shall include all items of new and/or salvaged material and supplies on hand, whether held for current use or for sale as junk, until physically incorporated into plant by way of maintenance, repair, construction, or otherwise, and without regard to whether or not such items of material are carried in the operator's accounting records under "Material and supplies account". "Operator's inventory of material" shall not include:

(i) Any surplus material listed by the operator for sale with the Communications Division of the War Production Board. Such surplus material shall be available to the industry for use for maintenance, repair, construction or operating supplies. Records of withdrawals from and additions to such surplus equipment shall be maintained and preserved as provided in paragraph (g) hereof, and reported to the Communications Division upon the request of the War Production Board.

(ii) Any material identified for use in projects which have been specifically authorized either by the Director General for Operations or the Director, Office of War Utilities upon application by an operator.

(iii) Any operating supplies which are in the process of being consumed by an operator.

(iv) Any material (other than material ordinarily carried in stock for the day-to-day operations and for emergency repairs) which is set aside in a reserve to restore plant damaged by enemy action or sabotage provided that authorization is granted either by the Director General for Operations or by the Director, Office of War Utilities, upon application of an operator made on Form PD-200. Any material withdrawn from such reserve shall be used only for the restoration of plant damaged by enemy action or sabotage and such use shall be reported by letter to the Office of War Utilities, within thirty days after such withdrawal.

(v) Any stock of ocean cable, lead-covered cable, or bare line wire maintained for the purpose of repairing major breakdowns of existing facilities due to storms, floods, earthquakes, tidal disturbances, etc., reported as prescribed on Form UF-12, unless disapproved by the Office of War Utilities.

(vi) Poles; crossarms; insulators; non-metallic conduit; furniture and fixtures; printing, stationery and office supplies; house service supplies; clothing (uniforms, etc.); and coal and petroleum products.

(b) Preference ratings, CMP allotment symbol MRO-U—(1) Assignment of rating. Subject to the terms of this order, operators are assigned the preference rating of AA-1 for deliveries to an operator of materials, other than controlled materials, required for maintenance, repair, and operating supplies;

(2) Application or extension of rating. By placing on his delivery order substantially the certification set forth below in paragraph (b) (4), an operator may apply or a supplier may extend the rating assigned by paragraph (b) (1) in the manner provided in Priorities Regulation No. 3 and CMP Regulation No. 3. An order for materials, other than controlled materials, bearing the rating assigned in paragraph (b) (1) when bearing the CMP allotment symbol MRO-U, and accompanied by the certification, substantially as set forth below in paragraph (b) (4), shall have the same status as a rated order bearing a CMP allotment number under all applicable CMP regulations. Such a symbol shall constitute an allotment number or symbol for the purposes of CMP Regulation No. 3.

(3) The delivery of controlled materials. For the delivery of controlled materials, except aluminum, required for maintenance, repair, or operating supplies, an operator is authorized to use CMP allotment symbol MRO-U, and shall place on his delivery order substantially the certification set forth below in paragraph (b) (4). An order bearing such certification shall be deemed an authorized controlled material order and shall have the same status as an order bearing an allotment number under all applicable CMP regulations. Such symbol shall constitute an allotment number or symbol for the purposes of CMP Regulation No. 3.

(4) Certification for use of rating and allotment symbol. CMP Allotment Symbol MRO-U. Preference Rating ——. The undersigned operator certifies, subject to the penalties of section 35 (A) of the United States Criminal Code, to the seller and to the War Production Board, that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the undersigned is authorized under applicable War Production Board regulations or orders, to place this delivery order, to receive the item(s) ordered for the purpose for which ordered and to use any preference rating or allotment number or symbol which the undersigned has placed on this order. Such certification shall in every case be signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7.

(c) Restrictions on use of rating and allotment symbol. (1) In addition to the limitation in paragraphs (c) (2) and (c) (3) below, the preference ratings and/or allotment symbol assigned shall not be applied by an operator:

(i) To obtain deliveries of materials containing copper, iron, steel, or nickel where such metals could be eliminated therefrom by the substitution of less scarce metals without serious loss of efficiency.

(ii) To obtain materials for telegraph and/or teletypewriter plant including printing telegraph machines unless the same are reasonably required to meet the known or fairly anticipated demands for wire telegraph, cable and related service required by persons engaged in direct defense or charged with responsibility for public health, welfare or security including, but not limited to, those in the service categories shown in Schedule A, where their employment in direct defense or their responsibilities for public health, welfare, or security requires such service for the proper discharge of such duties; or unless required to provide for the installation of, or additions to, public telegraph facilities to meet essential public requirements.

(iii) To obtain material for printing telegraph machines to be installed in other than central or branch offices of an operator where the cost of material (both new and reused) in any single case exceeds $500.

(iv) To obtain material for telegraph plant or equipment where the cost of material (both new and reused) in any single case exceeds $2500.

(2) No operator shall apply the ratings assigned by this order to obtain material for repairs to buildings except in accordance with, and to the extent authorized, by Order L-41.

(3) No operator shall subdivide a single order, job, or project to qualify the same under the terms of this order.

(d) Sales of material from operator's excess stock. An operator may sell to any other operator material from his stocks but only where a preference rating

[1] General Conservation Order L-148 has been revoked and is superseded by this order.

[1] Preference Rating Order P-132 has been revoked and is superseded by this order.

assigned by this order, or a preference rating certificate, order or other direction issued by the Director General for Operations of the War Production Board, or the War Production Board is extended by the operator purchasing such material to the operator selling such material. Any such sale made in conformity with the terms of this paragraph shall be deemed to be expressly permitted within the terms of paragraph (c) (3) of Priorities Regulation No. 13.

(e) Restrictions on deliveries, inventory and use. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (f) below, no operator who has applied the rating or the allotment symbol authorized hereby shall at any time accept deliveries of material (whether or not rated pursuant to this order) to be used for any purpose:

(i) Until the dollar value of the operator's inventory of material shall have been reduced to a practical working minimum. Such practical working minimum shall in no event exceed 27½% of the dollar value of material used for all purposes during the calendar year 1940 exclusive of poles; crossarms; insulators; non-metallic conduit; furniture and fixtures; printing; stationery and office supplies; house service supplies; clothing (uniforms, etc.); and coal and petroleum products.

(ii) If the receipt thereof would increase the dollar value of the operator's inventory of material to an amount in excess of normal requirements which in no event shall exceed 27½% of the dollar value of material used for all purposes during the calendar year 1940 exclusive of poles; crossarms; insulators; non-metallic conduit; furniture and fixtures; printing, stationery and office supplies; house service supplies; clothing (uniforms, etc.); and coal and petroleum products.

(iii) If the receipt thereof would increase the operator's inventory of a specific size, type, and gauge of cable, wire or strand in excess of the estimated use of that specific size, type and gauge for the next 60 days: Provided, however, That this restriction shall not apply to that portion of a minimum standard reel of cable or strand which is in excess of the estimated use for the next 60 days nor where the lengths of cable in inventory are not such as will meet the requirements of a project for which cable is needed.

(2) No operator shall use the allotment symbol or preference ratings assigned to obtain maintenance, repair or operating supplies during any calendar quarter in an aggregate dollar amount exceeding one-fourth of his aggregate dollar usage for maintenance, repair and operating supplies during the calendar year 1942 except that an operator to meet seasonal conditions may use such allotment symbol or preference rating to obtain during any calendar quarter, up to, but not in excess of, his aggregate dollar usage for maintenance, repair and operating supplies during the corresponding quarter of 1942. In no event, however, shall any operator use such allotment symbol or preference ratings to obtain maintenance, repair and operating supplies during the 12 months ending March 31, 1944, in an amount exceeding his aggregate dollar usage for maintenance, repair and operating supplies during the calendar year 1942.

(f) Exemptions. (1) Any operator whose average value of inventory of material for the five calendar years prior to January 1, 1942 did not exceed $10,000 shall be exempt from the provisions of paragraphs (e) (1) (i) and (e) (1) (ii).

(2) Any operator whose use of materials during the year 1942 did not exceed $10,000 shall be exempt from the provisions of paragraph (e) (2) above.

(3) From time to time, the Director of the Office of War Utilities may determine that certain operators are exempt in whole or in part from the restrictions contained in paragraph (e) above.

(g) Records and Reports. Each operator acquiring maintenance, repair or operating supplies pursuant to this regulation shall keep and preserve, for a period of not less than two years, accurate and complete records of all such supplies so acquired and also of the use to which supplies are put, which shall, upon request be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board. In addition, each operator affected by this order shall file such reports with the Office of War Utilities as may from time to time be required by the War Production Board.

(h) Applicability of Regulations. (1) This order and all transactions affected hereby, except as herein otherwise provided, are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) None of the provisions of CMP Regulation No. 5 shall apply to operators as defined in paragraph (a) (1) of this order, and no such operator shall obtain any material under the provisions of that regulation.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from asking or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(j) Communications. All reports to be filed, appeals and other communications concerning this order should be addressed to: Office of War Utilities, War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Ref: U-4.

(k) All official actions pursuant to Preference Rating Order P-132 prior to April 1, 1943, in the name of the Director General for Operations or the Director, Office of War Utilities, are hereby ratified.

Issued this 1st day of April 1943.

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

[RO 1A,[1] Amendment 20]

TIRES, TUBES, RECAPPING AND CAMELBACK

A rationale for this amendm nt has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order No. 1A is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1315.806 (o) is added to read as follows:

(o) A dealer or manufacturer may, without certificate, acquire tires, tubes or camelback which he has transferred pursuant to a conditional sales contract or chattel mortgage. The dealer or manufacturer shall notify his State or district office within ten days of the amount, type and grade of tires, tubes or camelback acquired.

2. Section 1315.1005 (f) is added to read as follows:

(f) Any dealer or manufacturer who acquires tires, tubes or camelback pursuant to § 1315.806 (o) shall notify his State or district office within ten days of the amount, type and grade of tires, tubes or camelback acquired.

3. The text of § 1315.1007 is amended to read as follows:

Every person (except a manufacturer of vehicles) engaged in the business of selling or holding for sale tires, tubes or vehicles, and every person extending credit to another upon the security of a vehicle under an agreement permitting the lender to take possession of the vehicle shall:

4. Section 1315.1007 (c) is amended by inserting the word, "State or district office" in place of the words "regional office".

This amendment shall become effective April 6, 1943.

(Pub. Law No. 671, 76th Cong. as amended by Pub. Laws 89, 421 and 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719, issued April 7, 1942, W.P.B. Dir. No. 1, 7 F.R. 562, Supp. Dir. No. 1Q, 7 F.R. 9121)

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1347—PAPER, PAPER PRODUCTS, RAW MATERIALS FOR PAPER AND PAPER PRODUCTS, PRINTING AND PUBLISHING

[MPR 187,[1] Amendment 3]

CERTAIN PAPERBOARD PRODUCTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In § 1347.401 (c) (1), the first sentence is amended to read as follows:

(1) Raw material costs. The delivered purchase price at which the raw materials are acquired by a converting plant, or the transfer price of an integrated mill to its converting plant, neither of which shall in any event exceed the maximum prices for such raw materials in effect on March 31, 1943, as established by the Office of Price Administration.

* * * * *

This amendment shall become effective April 1, 1943 and remain in effect until June 1, 1943. The Price Administrator may at any time amend, replace, extend or make permanent such amendment.

PART 1347—PAPER, PAPER PRODUCTS, RAW MATERIALS FOR PAPER AND PAPER PRODUCTS, PRINTING AND PUBLISHING

[MPR 225,[1] as Amended March 31, 1943]

PRINTING AND PRINTED PAPER COMMODITIES

Section 1347.469 is amended by Amendment 4 issued March 31, and effective April 6, 1943, so that Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall read as follows:

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for sales of printing and printed paper products by a separate maximum price regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation, which apply to the sale of certain printed paper commodities and to printing and related services in connection therewith, are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to check inflation and to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act.

So far as practicable the Price Administrator has given due consideration to prices prevailing between October 1 and 15, 1941, and to relevant factors of general applicability, and has consulted with representatives of trade and industry.

A statement of considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation is issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 (Printing and Printed Paper Commodities) is hereby issued.

NOTE: The meaning of certain provisions and terms of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 is further explained and defined in § 1347.472. The explanations and definitions are set forth in alphabetical order. The terms explained and defined are quoted the first time they appear in the text.

1347.476 Appendix B: Services.
1347.477 Appendix C: Exceptions to pricing provisions of §§ 1347.452 through 1347.456.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1347.451 to 1347.476, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E. O. 9250, 7 F. R. 7871.

§ 1347.451 Prohibition against dealing in commodities or services above maximum prices. (a) On and after September 29th, 1942, regardless of any contract or other obligation:

(1) No "person" shall "sell" or deliver any of the "commodities" listed in Appendix A (§ 1347.475) and no person shall sell or supply any of the "services" listed in Appendix B (§ 1347.476) at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225, and

(2) No person, in the course of trade or business, shall buy or receive any of said commodities or services at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225: Provided, That in the case of the sale or supply of services or the original sale of commodities for which a maximum price has been established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225, the purchaser shall be deemed to have complied with this subparagraph (2) if: (i) the purchaser shall receive from the "seller" a written affidavit that the seller has calculated the maximum price for said commodity or service in accordance with the provisions of this regulation and has filed with the Office of Price Administration the reports required by § 1347.463, and (ii) the purchaser shall have no knowledge of the maximum price applicable beyond the statements made to him by the seller, and no cause to doubt the accuracy of the affidavit, and (iii) the price paid by the purchaser is not in excess of the maximum price as sworn to by the seller.

(b) The provisions of this § 1347.451 shall not be applicable to sales of any service or to sales or deliveries of any commodity to a purchaser if, prior to September 29, 1942, the commodity sold or in connection with which the service had been rendered had been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to the purchaser.

(c) The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall not be applicable to any persons engaged primarily in the business of publishing, printing, typesetting, platemaking, binding, or rendering related services, or any combination thereof, whose total gross sales in 1941 of printed "papers" and printed paper products and services in connection therewith did not exceed $20,000. This exemption, however, shall not apply to any person who was not engaged primarily in any of said businesses, or any combination thereof, throughout the calendar year 1941. Such person shall be subject to the provisions of this regulation unless and until he shall have been primarily engaged in one or more of said businesses, or any combination thereof, for an entire calendar year, during which year his total gross sales of printed papers and printed paper products and services in connection therewith did not exceed $20,000

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 7 (7 F.R. 5176) provides that the prohibition contained in any price regulation against buying or receiving any commodity or service at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by such regulation shall not apply to any war procurement agency, or government whose defense is vital to the defense of the United States.]

§ 1347.452 Maximum prices for commodities and services; general provisions. Each seller of any commodity or service subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 must determine his maximum price by applying the first one of the methods set forth in sequence in §§ 1347.452 through 1347.456, which fits the commodity or service being priced. A few exceptions to this pricing procedure are set forth in Appendix C (§ 1347.477) and take precedence over all other pricing provisions of this regulation.

As the first pricing method under this regulation, each seller must, if possible, take as his maximum price the "highest price which he charged during March, 1942" as defined in § 1347.472, paragraph (a) (6) of this regulation.

(a) For the same commodity or service; or

(b) If no charge was made for the same commodity or service, for the "similar commodity or service" most nearly like it.

[§ 1347.452 as amended by Amendment 3, 8 F.R. 1060, effective 1-21-43]

[NOTE: Under Supplementary Order No. 38 (8 F.R. 2996) any person who in March 1942 had a fixed practice of making accommodation sales of services is authorized to charge, and any person purchasing accommodation services is authorized to pay, for such services, rates, charges, fees and compensation therefor in an amount not exceeding the aggregate of the cost of direct labor at legally permitted wage rates and materials at actual cost thereof to the seller or at the ceiling price thereof, whichever is lower, for the service sold or supplied.]

§ 1347.453 Maximum prices for services and for "original sales" of commodities, which cannot be priced under § 1347.452. The seller's maximum price for a service or for an "original sale" of a commodity which cannot be priced under § 1347.452 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall be established in accordance with the seller's customary methods of computing prices on the basis of cost of materials, production charges and margins. Such maximum price shall be a combination of the items set forth below in this § 1347.453.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration. Statements of considerations are also issued simultaneously with issuance of amendments.

[1] 7 F.R. 7593, 8929, 8939, 8948; 8 F.R. 1060.

(a) Cost of materials. An item for the actual "delivered" net cost to the seller of the materials used in producing the commodity or supplying the service: Provided, That in no event shall such cost exceed the maximum price, for purchase of the materials by the seller, established by the Office of Price Administration. If during March, 1942, the seller used, or, if in making such sale, would have used a method of averaging or otherwise computing his material costs, he shall continue such method in employing this pricing provision.

(b) Production charges. An item for charges for hand and machine operations which shall employ the same hourly and piece rates used by such seller in determining the selling price of the most nearly "comparable commodity or service" sold or "supplied" or offered for sale or supply by him during March, 1942. The same standards of production and the same methods or principles of applying production charges shall be employed as were employed during March, 1942, so that direct and indirect production charges shall be computed in the manner customarily employed during March, 1942. Charges for a different type of operation employed in producing any product or service (for example, hand rather than machine operation) shall not be substituted for customary production charges as a means of increasing the price of the product or the service. No hourly or piece rate, other than a lower rate for an identical operation, shall be employed which was not used by the seller in March, 1942, until it has been filed with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C. in the manner provided in § 1347.463 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225. Such new hourly or piece rate shall be a rate which the seller would have used in March, 1942, and shall be in line with the seller's schedule of production charges actually employed during March, 1942.

(c) Margin. An item for a margin over the cost of materials and production charges (i. e., paragraph (a) plus paragraph (b)) computed on the same percentage basis, or on the same rate per unit of material, or on a combination thereof and by the same method as the seller employed in pricing the most nearly comparable commodity or service sold, supplied or offered for sale or supply during March, 1942, to a "purchaser of the same class" as defined in § 1347.472, paragraph (13) of this regulation. If during March, 1942, the seller employed the practice of including his charges for margin in his hourly and piece rates for hand and machine operations, he shall continue such practice in pricing any commodity or service under this section, and in such a case the seller shall make no duplicate calculation for margin under this paragraph (c). No new rate for margin, other than a lower rate for the sale of a comparable commodity or service to a purchaser of the same class, shall be employed which was not used by the seller in March, 1942, until it has been filed with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., in the manner provided in § 1347.463 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225. Such new rate for margin shall be a rate which the seller would have used in March 1942, and shall be in line with the seller's schedule of rates for margin actually employed during March 1942.

(d) No seller shall change his customary allowances, discounts, or other price differentials unless such change results in a lower price.

(e) No seller shall require any purchaser, and no purchaser shall be permitted, to pay a larger proportion of transportation costs incurred in the delivery or in the supply of any commodity or service, than the seller required purchasers of the same class to pay during March, 1942, on deliveries or supplies of comparable types of commodities or services.

§ 1347.454 Maximum prices for "resales" of commodities which cannot be priced under § 1347.452. The seller's maximum price for the "resale" of a commodity which cannot be priced under § 1347.452 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall be:

(a) The highest price charged during March, 1942, by the "most closely competitive seller of the same class" as defined in § 1347.472, paragraph (7) of this regulation:

(1) For the same commodity; or

(2) If no charge was made for the same commodity, for the similar commodity most nearly like it; or

(b) If a maximum price cannot be ascertained under paragraph (a) of this § 1347.454, a price determined by the seller in accordance with the following procedure:

(1) The seller shall select from the same general classification and price range as the commodity being priced under this paragraph (b) the comparable commodity for which a maximum price is established under § 1347.452 and of which the seller delivered the largest number of units during March, 1942:

(2) The seller shall divide his maximum price for that commodity by his "replacement cost" of that commodity; and

(3) The seller shall multiply the percentage so obtained by the cost to him of the commodity being priced under this paragraph (b).

The resulting figure shall be the maximum price of the commodity being priced. Within ten days after determining such maximum price under this paragraph (b), the seller shall report such price to the appropriate field office of the Office of Price Administration upon a form to be obtained from such office, duly filled out and signed under oath or affirmation.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 23 (7 F.R. 8478) provides that on and after October 24, 1942, no report filed with the Office of Price Administration pursuant to any price regulation issued prior to that date need be notarized.]

§ 1347.455 Similar commodities or services subsequently sold. Any maximum price determined under § 1347.453, or paragraph (b) of § 1347.454 shall be subject to adjustment in writing at any time by the Office of Price Administration. In the absence of such adjustment, the maximum price so determined shall be the maximum price for all commodities or services subsequently sold or supplied which are the same or similar to the commodity or service for which a maximum price has been so determined, without regard to subsequent changes in cost.

§ 1347.456 Maximum prices for commodities and services which cannot be priced under the foregoing provisions of this regulation. Where a maximum price is sought for a commodity or a service which cannot be priced under the foregoing provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225, the maximum price for the commodity or service shall be a price approved by the Office of Price Administration. Application for such approval shall be filed in duplicate with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C. The application shall contain:

(a) An "appropriate description and identification" of the commodity or service for which a price is being requested;

(b) A statement of the reasons why it cannot be priced except under this § 1347.456;

(c) A statement of the proposed maximum price. In the case of the sale of a service or the original sale of a commodity, the seller shall set forth separately the amount included in the proposed price for cost of materials, production charges and margin. In the case of the resale of a commodity, he shall set forth separately his purchase price, transportation charges, if any, and mark-up.

Unless the Office of Price Administration or an authorized representative thereof shall, by letter mailed to the applicant within 21 days from the date of filing the application, disapprove the maximum price as reported, such price shall be deemed to have been approved, subject to non-retroactive written disapproval or adjustment at any later time by the Office of Price Administration.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No 34 (7 F.R. 10779) permits special packing expenses to be added to maximum prices on sales to procurement agencies of the United States.]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 13 (7 F.R. 6523) provides that retail sellers of commodities or services, who own more than one establishment and who have maintained a fixed practice of selling commodities or services at retail at uniform or at substantially uniform prices, may apply for authorization to determine and use uniform maximum prices.]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 29 (7 F.R. 9816) lists certain services customarily offered by retailers which may be curtailed or eliminated without a compensating reduction in ceiling prices.]

§ 1347.457 Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade of any business are sold or otherwise transferred after April 28, 1942, and the transferee carries on the business, or continues to deal in the same type of commodities or services, in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by him, the maximum prices of the transferee and his status with regard to the exemptions provided for in §§ 1347.451 (c) and 1347.463 (c) shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over, to the transferee all the records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225.

§ 1347.458 Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export any commodity shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1347.459 Federal and state taxes. Any tax upon, or incident to, the sale, delivery, processing, or use of a commodity, or the sale or supplying of a service, imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum prices for such commodity or service and in preparing the records of such seller with respect thereto:

(a) As to a tax in effect during March, 1942. (1) If the seller paid such tax, or if the tax was paid by any prior vendor, irrespective of whether the amount thereof was separately stated and collected from the seller, but the seller did not customarily state and collect separately from the purchase price during March, 1942, the amount of the tax paid by him or tax reimbursement collected from him by his vendor, the seller may not collect such amount in addition to the maximum price, and in such case shall include such amount in determining the maximum price under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225.

(2) In all other cases, if, at the time the seller determines his maximum price, the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does state it separately, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased, and in such case the seller shall not include such amount in determining the maximum price under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225.

(b) As to a tax or increase in a tax which becomes effective after March 31, 1942. If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax or increase does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax or increase separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax or increase actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 31 (7 F.R. 9894, 8 F.R. 1312) provides that: "Notwithstanding the provisions of any price regulation, the tax on transportation of all property (excepting coal) imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 shall, for purposes of determining the applicable maximum price of any commodity or service, be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by every person engaged in the business of transporting property for hire. It shall not be treated, under any provision of any price regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price."]

§ 1347.460 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1347.461 Conditional agreements. No seller of any commodity or service for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall enter into an agreement permitting the adjustment of the prices to prices which may be higher than the maximum prices provided by this regulation, in the event that this regulation is amended or is determined by a court to be invalid or upon any other contingency: Provided, That if a petition for amendment or for adjustment or for exception under § 1347.469 has been duly filed, and such petition requires extensive consideration, and the Administrator determines that an exception would be in the public interest pending such consideration, the Administrator may grant an exception from the provisions of this section permitting the making of contracts adjustable upon the granting of the petition for amendment (or for adjustment or exception, as the case may be). Request for such an exception may be included in the aforesaid petition for amendment (or for adjustment or for exception under § 1347.469).

§ 1347.462 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of, or relating to the commodities and services for which maximum prices are established by this regulation alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or service or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1347.463 Base-period "records" and reports—(a) Preservation of existing records. Every person selling commodities or services for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration for a period of two years all his existing records relating to the prices which he charged for such of those commodities or services for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 as he delivered or supplied during March 1942, and his "offering prices" for delivery or supply of such commodities or services during such month.

(b) Statements by all sellers. Every person making sales of commodities or services for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall prepare, on or before October 29th, 1942, to the full extent of all available information and records, a statement showing:

(1) The highest prices which he charged for such of those commodities or services for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 as he delivered or supplied during March 1942, and his offering prices for delivery or supply of such commodities or services during such month, together with an appropriate description or identification of each such commodity or service; and

(2) All his customary allowances, discounts and other price differentials.

Persons supplying a service or making an original sale of a commodity shall keep such statement for examination by a duly authorized representative of the Office of Price Administration. Persons making a resale of a commodity shall keep such statement for examination by any person during ordinary business hours.

(c) Reports required from persons supplying services or making original sales. Every person selling or supplying services or making original sales of commodities for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall file, signed under oath or affirmation upon Form No. 325:1 to be obtained from the "appropriate field office of the Office of Price Administration:"

(1) A report showing all hourly and piece rates for hand and machine operations and all percentage and per piece rates for margins, and any combinations thereof, together with a statement of "pricing methods" and customary allowances, discounts and other price differentials employed by such person during March 1942, in determining the selling prices of any such commodities delivered and services supplied or offered for delivery or supply by such person during that period. Such report shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., on or before November 28th, 1942.

(2) A report of any hourly and piece rates and rates for margin, not used by such person in March 1942, but subsequently proposed to be employed. Such report shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., prior to the employment of such rates. Unless the Office of Price Administration or a duly authorized representative thereof shall, by letter mailed to such person within 21 days from the filing of such report, disapprove such hourly and piece rates and rates for margin as reported, they shall be deemed to have been approved.

No report, however, under this paragraph (c) shall be required from persons engaged primarily in the business of publishing, printing, typesetting, platemaking, binding or rendering related services, or any combination thereof, whose total gross sales in 1941 of printed papers and printed paper products and services in connection therewith did not exceed $50,000. This exemption, however, shall not apply to any person who was not engaged primarily in any of said businesses, or any combination thereof, throughout the calendar year 1941. Such person shall be subject to the provisions of this paragraph (c) unless and until he shall have been primarily engaged in one or more of said businesses, or any combination thereof, for an entire calendar year, during which year his total gross sales of printed papers and printed paper products and services in connection therewith did not exceed $50,000.

§ 1347.464 Current records. Every person selling commodities or services for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall keep, and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration, records of the same kind as he has customarily kept, relating to the prices which he charged for such of those commodities or services as he sold after the effective date of this regulation; and, in addition, records showing, as precisely as possible, the basis upon which he determined the maximum prices for those commodities and services.

§ 1347.465 Sales slips and receipts. Any seller of commodities or services for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 who has customarily given a purchaser a sales slip, receipt, or similar evidence of purchase shall continue to do so. Upon request from a purchaser, any such seller, regardless of previous custom, shall give the purchaser a receipt showing the date, the name and address of the seller, the name of each commodity or service sold, and the price received for it.

§ 1347.466 Licensing—(a) License required. A license as a condition of selling is hereby required of every person subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 now or hereafter making a resale of a commodity for which a maximum price is established by this regulation.

(b) License granted. Every person now or hereafter making a resale of any commodity for which a maximum price is established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 is hereby granted a license as a condition of making such resale of such commodity. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall be deemed to be incorporated in the license hereby granted, and any violation of any provision so incorporated shall be a violation of the provisions of said license. Such license shall be effective on the effective date of this regulation, or when any such person becomes subject to the maximum price provisions of this regulation, and shall, unless suspended in accordance with the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, continue in force as long as such regulation, or any amendment or supplement thereto, remains in effect.

§ 1347.467 Registration of licensees. Every person hereby licensed may be required to register with the Office of Price Administration at such time and in such manner as the Administrator may hereafter by regulation prescribe.

§ 1347.468 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, proceedings for the suspension of licenses and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest district office, state office, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1347.469 Applications for adjustment—(a) When adjustments may be granted. The Office of Price Administration may adjust the maximum price established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 for any seller of a commodity or service whenever it finds that such seller is unable to deliver or supply this commodity or service at this price and that either:

(1) His supply of this commodity or service is required to meet military or essential civilian needs; or

(2) The loss of this seller's supply of this commodity or service will force his customers to resort to higher priced sources of supply, and that no adequate substitute for this commodity or service is available to his customers at a price equal to or lower than the adjusted maximum price which he requests.

(b) Amount of relief. The relief granted under this section shall be limited to the amount necessary to permit the seller to supply this commodity or service, provided, however, that where an application is filed under paragraph (a) (2) above, the seller's maximum price will not be raised above the general level of prices prevailing for alternative sources of supply of this commodity or service or for an adequate substitute therefor.

(c) Method of filing. Applications for adjustment shall be filed in accordance with Subpart B of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[1] in any office of the Office of Price Administration. In addition to the material required in that procedural regulation, the applicant shall set forth in his application the following data:

(1) Statement of the seller's maximum price, the section of Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 under which such price is determined, and the proposed adjusted price.

(2) Evidence that the seller comes within either of the classes listed in paragraph (a) above. If the application is based on part (2) of that paragraph, the applicant shall submit statements from his largest customers upon this point.

(3) Analyses as of March 1942, and as of the date of the application, of the following factors:

(i) Costs.—per unit of commodity or service—of paper, other materials used, and any other outside purchases.

(ii) Charges.—per unit of commodity or service—for each productive operation.

(iii) Charges.—per unit of commodity or service—for each type of margin including profit.

(iv) Hourly and or piece rates upon which the unit production charges in (ii) above are based.

(v) Percentage rates upon which the unit charges for margin in (iii) above are based.

(4) If the applicant considers that he did not receive a reasonable operating margin on the sale of this commodity or service in March 1942, he may also submit an analysis of the points listed in paragraph (3) above, for the period next preceding March 1942, in which he received a reasonable operating margin, together with a statement of the reasons why the operating margin in March was not reasonable. This material shall be in addition to the analysis for March, 1942, required by paragraph (3).

(5) Description of the grade and delivered net cost per cwt. of the paper used in said commodity or service in each of the periods reported in paragraphs (3) and (4) above.

(6) Detailed statement of the changes in costs of each productive operation which occurred between each of the periods reported in paragraphs (3) and (4) above.

(7) Dollar volume of sales by the applicant of this commodity or service, and total dollar volume of all other sales by the applicant during each of the two fiscal years immediately preceding the filing of the application.

(8) Number of units of this commodity or service sold during each of the two fiscal years immediately preceding the filing of the application.

(9) Annual profit and loss statements for the applicant's business from 1936 through the latest complete fiscal year. Quarterly profit and loss statements should be included, if possible, for each quarterly period subsequent to the year covered by the most recent annual statement.

If the application concerns the adjustment of prices of a large number of different commodities or services or of the seller's general rate structure, the cost and sales data required in this paragraph (c) may be presented in summary form.

If any of the foregoing data is already on file with the Office of Price Administration, the seller shall so state in his application, and it will not be necessary for him to file such data again. If any of this data is not available, applicant may so state, giving the reasons therefor.

[NOTE: This reporting requirement has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.]

§ 1347.470 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

[§ 1347.470 as amended by Supplementary Order No. 26, 7 F.R. 8948, 9460, 10448, effective 11-4-42]

[NOTE: Procedural Regulation No. 6 (7 F.R. 5687, 5665) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment of maximum prices for commodities or services under Government contracts or subcontracts. Supplementary Order No. 9 (7 F.R. 5444) makes the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 6 applicable to all price regulations, with the exception of those on scrap, waste, and salvage materials.]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 28 (7 F.R. 9619) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment or petitions for amendment based on a pending wage or salary increase requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board.]

§ 1347.471 Applicability of General Maximum Price Regulation.[4] The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to sales and deliveries of commodities and services for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225.

§ 1347.472 Definitions and explanations. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225:

(1) "Appropriate description and identification" means a complete listing of the specifications, processes and other characteristics of the commodity or service, or of the various grades of commodities or services.

(2) "Appropriate field office of the Office of Price Administration" means the district office for the district (or in the absence of such district office, the state office for the State) in which is located the seller's place of business from which his sales of commodities and services are made.

(3) "Commodity" includes articles, products, and materials.

(4) "Comparable commodities and services". For the purposes of § 1347.453 only, one commodity or service shall be deemed comparable to another commodity or service if (i) the first has the same use as the second, (ii) affords the purchaser fairly equivalent serviceability, (iii) is produced by the same or substantially the same productive operations, and (iv) is customarily priced by the same pricing method as the first, although its price as determined by such pricing method is not the same or substantially the same as the first.

(5) "Delivered". A commodity shall be deemed to have been "delivered" during March 1942, if during such month it was received by the purchaser or by any carrier, including a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to the purchaser.

(6) "Highest price charged during March, 1942" means:

(i) The highest price which the seller charged for a commodity delivered or service supplied by him during March, 1942, to a purchaser of the same class; or

(ii) If the seller delivered no such commodity or supplied no such service during March 1942, his highest offering price for such delivery or supply during that month to a purchaser of the same class; or

(iii) If the seller did not deliver the commodity or supply the service to be priced and had no offering price for such commodity or service to a purchaser of the same class, it shall be the highest price charged by the seller during March 1942, to a purchaser of a different class, adjusted to reflect the seller's customary differential between the two classes of purchasers;

(iv) If, however, prior to April 1, 1942, the seller raised his prices for the sale of a commodity or supply of a service to his classes of purchasers generally, and if, during March 1942, he delivered such commodity or supplied such service at the higher price to at least one class of purchasers, the highest price charged during March 1942, for each class of purchaser:

(a) To which the commodity was not delivered or the service not supplied during March, 1942 at the higher price, and shall be the seller's highest offering price for delivery or supply to such class of purchaser during March 1942, or, if he had no such offering price for supply to a particular class of purchaser during March 1942, the highest price charged by the seller during March 1942 to a purchaser of a different class, adjusted to reflect the seller's customary differential between the two classes of purchasers.

(v) No seller shall change such of his customary allowances, discounts or other price differentials as were in effect in March 1942, unless such change results in a lower price.

(vi) No seller shall require any purchaser, and no purchaser shall be permitted, to pay a larger proportion of transportation costs incurred in the delivery or supply of any commodity or service, than the seller required purchasers of the same class to pay during March, 1942 on deliveries or supplies of the same or similar types of commodities or services.

(7) "Most closely competitive seller of the same class" means a seller of the same class who (i) is selling the same or a similar commodity or service, and (ii) is closely competitive in the sale of such commodities or services, and (iii) is located nearest to the seller.

(8) "Offering price" means the price quoted in the seller's price list, or, if he had no such price list, the price which he regularly quoted in any other manner or the price determined by the pricing method which the seller regularly adopted, except that in the case of sales of commodities by an establishment selling at retail, the offering price shall be the price at which the commodity was offered for sale at the immediate point of sale (for example, the shelves or counters). But offering price shall not include a price intended to withhold a commodity or service from the market, or a price offered as a bargaining price by a seller who usually sells at a price lower than his asking price.

(9) "Original sale" means the sale of a commodity by a person who has created or substantially changed the form of the commodity being sold.

(10) "Paper" and "paper products" shall, for the purpose of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225, include all kinds, types, and grades of paper, paperboard and cellophane-type materials (regenerated cellulose, cellulose acetate and ethyl cellulose), but exclude, however, wallpaper.

(11) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association, any other organized group of persons, legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States, any agency thereof, any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, and any agency of any of the foregoing.

(12) "Pricing methods" means the formulas by which the seller figures his price for any commodity or service, whether such formulas are disclosed to the purchaser or are merely the seller's devices for figuring costs of materials, production charges, and margin.

(13) "Purchaser of the same class" refers to the practice adopted by the seller in setting different prices for commodities or services for sales to different purchasers or kinds of purchasers (for example, manufacturer, wholesaler, jobber, retailer, government agency, public institution, individual consumer) or for purchasers located in different areas or for different quantities or under different conditions of sale.

(14) "Records" means books of account, sales lists, sales slips, orders, vouchers, contracts, receipts, invoices, bills of lading, and other papers and documents.

[1] 7 F.R. 8961; 8 F.R. 3313, 3533.

[4] 7 F.R. 3096.

(15) "Replacement cost" means the net price paid by the seller after September 29th, 1942, or the net price which the seller would have to pay to replace such commodity after such date.

(16) "Resale" means a sale by a person other than the creator of a commodity who receives delivery thereof and resells it, without substantially changing its form.

(17) "Sale at retail" or "selling at retail" means a sale or selling to an ultimate consumer other than an industrial or commercial user.

(18) "Sell" means sell, supply, dispose, barter, exchange, lease, transfer, and deliver, and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing. The terms "sale", "selling", "sold", "seller", "buy", "purchase", and "purchaser" shall be construed accordingly. Nothing in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall be construed to prohibit the making of a contract to sell a commodity or service at a price not to exceed the maximum price permitted by the Office of Price Administration at the time of delivery or supply.

(19) "Seller" includes a seller of any commodity or service for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225. Where a seller makes sales or supplies services through more than one selling unit, other than salesmen making sales at uniform prices, each separate place of business of the seller shall be deemed to be a separate seller, except that for the purposes of § 1347.466 of this regulation, the owner of the business shall be considered the seller regardless of the number of separate places of business he owns.

(20) "Seller of the same class" means a seller (i) performing the same function (for example, manufacturing, distributing, retailing, processing, storing, repairing, typesetting, platemaking or publishing); (ii) of similar type (for example, department store, mail order house, chain store, specialty shop, cut-rate store, printer, electrotyper or photo-engraver); (iii) dealing in the same type of commodity or service, and (iv) selling to the same class of purchaser.

(21) "Service" means any service rendered or supplied, otherwise than as an employee, in connection with the processing, distribution, storage, repair, or negotiation of purchase or sale of a commodity, and generally, without limiting the foregoing, all services which preserve or add to the value or utility of a commodity.

(22) "Similar commodities or services". One commodity shall be deemed similar to another commodity, if the first has the same use as the second, affords the purchaser fairly equivalent serviceability, and belongs to a type which would ordinarily be sold for the same or substantially the same price. In determining the similarity of such commodities, differences merely in style or design which do not substantially affect use, or serviceability, or the price for which such commodities would ordinarily have been sold, shall not be taken into account. One service shall be deemed similar to another service if the first has the same use and purpose as the second and belongs to a type which would ordinarily be sold for the same or substantially the same price. For the purpose of determining maximum prices for services and for original sales of commodities under § 1347.452, a similar commodity or service is further defined as a commodity or service which is produced to the same or substantially the same specifications and is produced by the same or substantially the same productive operations.

(23) "Supplied". A service shall be deemed to have been supplied during March, 1942, if during such month the service was completed and the commodity in connection with which the service was rendered was delivered to the purchaser.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1347.473 Applicability. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall be applicable to the continental United States and the District of Columbia, but not to the territories and possessions of the United States.

§ 1347.474 Effective date. All provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 (§§ 1347.451 to 1347.476 inclusive) shall become effective September 29, 1942. [Issued September 24, 1942.]

[§ 1347.475 as amended by Amendment 1, 7 F.R. 8929, effective 11-7-42]

§ 1347.476 Appendix B: Services. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall apply to the services of publishing, printing, typesetting, platemaking, binding, and related services rendered in connection with:

(a) The commodities listed in Appendix A (§ 1347.475) of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225.

(b) All papers and paper products, other than those listed in Supplementary Regulation No. 1 and Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 11 to the General Maximum Price Regulation and any and all amendments and supplements to said supplementary regulations now or hereafter issued, when such services are performed by persons engaged primarily in the business of publishing, printing, typesetting, platemaking, binding, or rendering related services or any combination thereof.

§ 1347.477 Appendix C: Exceptions to pricing provisions of §§ 1347.452 through 1347.456—(a) Sales by school stores. (1) Maximum prices for sales of any of the items listed in Appendix A (§ 1347.475) by school stores which during March 1942 dealt in the same or similar articles shall be the cost of acquisition plus the highest percentage mark-up charged by the school store during March 1942, on the same or a similar article. Prices may be rounded to the nearest whole cent; 5c may be taken as 1c.

(2) Definitions. For the purpose of this parargaph (a) of § 1347.477 only, the following definitions shall be used:

(i) "Same article" means an article identical in all respects with another article, except that it may contain a different number of sheets.

(ii) "Similar article" means a similar commodity as defined in § 1347.472 (a) (22) except that it may contain a different number of sheets.

(iii) "School store" means any store operated by an elementary or secondary school or by a board of education for the benefit of elementary or secondary school students and not for profit directly or indirectly.

PART 1372—SEASONAL COMMODITIES

[Rev. MPR 315]

ARSENICAL INSECTICIDES

Maximum Price Regulation 315 is amended to read as set forth herein.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper, in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended, and Executive Order 9250, issued by the President on October 3, 1942, that maximum prices for the sale of arsenical insecticides by manufacturers and distributors be established by a specific maximum price regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are generally fair and equitable, and will effectuate the purposes of the said act, as amended, and of the said executive order. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of arsenical insecticides prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

§ 1372.201 Maximum prices for arsenical insecticides. Under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended, and Executive Order 9250, Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 315 (Arsenical Insecticides), which is annexed hereto and made a part hereof, is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: § 1372.201 issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

premium, or other privilege, or by tying agreement or other trade understanding,

PART 1377—WOODEN CONTAINERS

[MPR 117,[1] Amendment 5]

(b) What commodities are covered. The arsenical insecticides covered by this regulation are lead arsenate, calcium arsenate, Paris green, zinc arsenite, London purple, magnesium arsenate, and zinc arsenate. Other arsenical insecticides remain under the General Maximum Price Regulation.[1]

(c) Exempt transactions. This regulation does not apply to sales or deliveries of arsenical insecticides which prior to April 6, 1943, were received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to the purchaser. In the case of sales by distributors, the provisions of this regulation apply only to goods shipped to them by manufacturers on or after April 6, 1943, except that lead arsenate shipped by manufacturers to distributors on or after February 8, 1943, and resold by them on or after April 6, 1943, shall be subject to the provisions of this regulation.

(d) Geographic applicability. The provisions of this regulation apply to the forty-eight states of the United States and to the District of Columbia.

(e) Export sales. The maximum prices at which a person may export arsenical insecticides shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(f) Relation to the General Maximum Price Regulation. The provisions of this regulation supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this regulation. The following sections of the General Maximum Price Regulations, as well as amendments to them, shall apply to manufacturers and distributors of arsenical insecticides.

(1) Transfers of business or stock in trade (§ 1499.5).
(2) Federal and state taxes (§ 1499.7).
(3) Current records (§ 1499.12).
(4) Registration (§ 1499.15).
(5) Licensing (§ 1499.16).

SEC. 2. Prohibition against dealing in arsenical insecticides at prices above the maximum. (a) On and after April 6, 1943, regardless of any contract or obligation, no person shall sell or deliver arsenical insecticides at prices higher than the maximum prices established by this regulation. No person shall buy or receive arsenical insecticides in the course of trade or business at prices higher than the maximum prices established by this regulation, nor shall any person agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of these things. However, prices lower than the maximum prices may be charged and paid.

SEC. 3. Maximum prices which manufacturers may charge for arsenical insecticides. (a) The maximum prices that manufacturers may charge for each arsenical insecticide, delivered to the purchaser, when sold in quantities of 96 pounds or more, shall be:

(1) Lead arsenate.

(b) Sales of any arsenical insecticide in quantities of less than 96 pounds may be made at the above maximum prices f. o. b. the manufacturer's factory or warehouse.

(c) Nothing in this regulation shall be construed to prevent the sale of any arsenical insecticide in quantities of 96 pounds or more, f. o. b. the manufacturer's factory or warehouse: Provided, That the sum of the purchase price paid by the purchaser and the transportation charges incurred in shipment to the purchaser's destination shall not exceed the maximum prices set forth in this regulation.

(d) The maximum prices set forth in this regulation for sales of arsenical insecticides to distributors are net prices to the manufacturer, after the allowance to the distributor of a functional or service fee.

SEC. 4. Maximum prices which distributors may charge for arsenical insecticides—(a) If the distributor was engaged in such business in the calendar year 1942. The maximum prices that a distributor may charge for any arsenical insecticide, on sales other than sales to consumers, shall be the maximum prices that a manufacturer may charge the distributor under the provisions of this regulation, plus the dollar-and-cent margin most frequently obtained by the distributor from a purchaser of the same class in the calendar year 1942.

(b) If the distributor was not engaged in such business in the calendar year 1942. If a distributor was not engaged in such business in the calendar year 1942, his maximum prices shall be the maximum prices for arsenical insecticides of his most closely competitive seller of the same class established under this regulation.

SEC. 5. Customary discounts. No manufacturer or distributor is permitted to change his customary discounts, unless such change results in a lower net price.

SEC. 6. Notification by manufacturers and distributors of price changes. If reductions or increases of the manufacturer's or distributor's maximum prices for any arsenical insecticide result from the provisions of this regulation, the manufacturer shall give notification of the price change to each of the distributors and dealers to whom he sells, and the distributor shall give notification of the price change to each of the dealers to whom he sells, on or before the date of the manufacturer's or distributor's first delivery of the product to such purchaser at the changed maximum prices.

(a) The notification by a manufacturer to a distributor shall read as follows, and the notification by a distributor to a dealer shall read as indicated therein:

Attached (or listed below) is a list of our ceiling prices for [names of products for which there are price changes] according to Revised Maximum Price Regulation 315. Distributor's ceilings on sales of these insecticides to dealers are to be established by adding to our ceiling prices to distributors the dollar-and-cent margin most frequently obtained by the distributor on sales to dealers in 1942. Distributors' new ceilings apply only to lead arsenate delivered to them on or after February 8, 1943 and to other arsenical insecticides delivered to them on or after April 6, 1943. If the distributor's ceiling is changed by this provision, he must send a notification to each of the dealers to whom he sells on or before the date of his first delivery to the dealer at the new ceiling price. OPA requires that the notification read as follows:

The OPA has permitted us to increase (or required us to reduce) our ceiling prices on [names of commodities affected] as follows:

[The statement shall here list the amount of price increase or reduction for each package size of each commodity for which a change in ceiling price has resulted from the provisions of the regulation.]

Dealers are permitted to increase (or required to reduce) their ceilings by the same amounts on merchandise delivered to them under our new ceiling prices. OPA requires dealers to keep a copy of this notice for examination.

(b) The notification by a manufacturer to a dealer shall read as set forth above for a distributor's notification to a dealer.

SEC. 7. Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking a modification of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[4] issued by the Office of Price Administration. In any case in which a petition for amendment may require extended consideration, the Price Administrator may, on the request of the petitioner, grant permission to the petitioner to agree to adjust prices of arsenical insecticides, delivered while the petition is pending, in accordance with the final disposition of the petition.

SEC. 8. Evasive practices. The price limitations set forth in this regulation shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt, of or relating to arsenical insecticides, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity, or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying agreement or other trade understanding, or by any other means.

SEC. 9. Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages, and proceedings for suspension of licenses, provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended. Persons having evidence of any violation of this regulation are urged to communicate with the nearest field, state, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration, or with the principal office in Washington, D. C.

SEC. 10. Definitions. When used in this regulation, the term:

"Basic lead arsenate powder" means a chemical combination of arsenic pentoxide and lead monoxide containing not less than 22 per cent of arsenic pentoxide and not more than one part of arsenic pentoxide to 3.10 parts of lead monoxide.

"Calcium arsenate" means a material in which arsenic is present essentially as tricalcium arsenate, and which contains a minimum of 40 per cent arsenic pentoxide.

"Carlot" means 30,000 pounds or more of arsenical insecticides, except that arsenical insecticides shipped in a mixed carlot of 30,000 pounds or more of dry insecticides or fungicides shall be considered a carlot quantity.

"Dealer" in any arsenical insecticide means a person other than a manufacturer or a distributor who sells the arsenical insecticide to consumers.

"Distributor" means a person why buys any arsenical insecticide and resells it to a purchaser other than an ultimate consumer, except that a manufacturer of any arsenical insecticide may not be considered a distributor of that arsenical insecticide.

"Lead arsenate" means standard lead arsenate powder, standard lead arsenate paste, and basic lead arsenate powder.

"London purple" means a mixture of calcium arsenate and calcium arsenite in approximately the proportion of 7 parts of calcium arsenate to one part of calcium arsenite.

"Magnesium arsenate" means trimagnesium orthoarsenate ($Mg_3(AsO_4)_2$) and dimagnesium orthoarsenate ($MgHAsO_4$) as commercially prepared and sold as an agricultural insecticide.

"Paris green" is essentially copper acetoarsenite ($Cu(CH_3COO)_2 \cdot 3Cu(AsO_2)_2$).

"Standard lead arsenate paste" means a mixture of standard lead arsenate powder and water, containing not more than 50 per cent water.

"Standard lead arsenate powder" means a dry chemical combination of arsenic pentoxide and lead monoxide containing not less than 30 per cent arsenic pentoxide.

"Zinc arsenate" means the compound $Zn_3(AsO_4)_2$ as commercially prepared and sold as an agricultural insecticide.

"Zinc arsenite" means the compound $Zn_3(AsO_2)_2$ as commercially prepared and sold as an agricultural insecticide.

This regulation shall become effective April 6, 1943.

PART 1377—WOODEN CONTAINERS

[MPR 117,[1] Amendment 5]

USED EGG CASES AND USED COMPONENT PARTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1377.16a as added by Amendment 3 is revoked, and former § 1377.16a is reinserted, to read as set forth below:

§ 1377.16a Licensing—(a) License required. A license as a condition of selling, is hereby required of every person subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 117 now or hereafter selling used egg cases or used component parts for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

(b) License granted. Every person subject to this regulation now or hereafter selling used egg cases or used component parts for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 117 is hereby granted a license as a condition of selling any such used egg cases or used component parts. Such license shall be effective on June 22, 1942, or when any person becomes subject to the maximum price provisions of this regulation, and shall, unless suspended as provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 continue in force so long as and to the extent that Maximum Price Regulation No. 117 or any amendment or supplement thereto remains in force.

(c) Licensing section of General Maximum Price Regulation superseded. This section supersedes the provisions of § 1499.16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation in so far as said § 1499.16 may be applicable to persons selling any used egg cases or used component parts.

(d) Registration of licensees. Every person hereby licensed may be required to register with the Office of Price Administration at such time and in such manner as the Administrator may hereafter by regulation prescribe.

Amendment No. 5 (§ 1377.16a) shall become effective March 31, 1943.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Order 16 Under § 1499.18 (c), as amended, of GMPR[1]]

HICKORY PICKER STICK BLANKS

For reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1516 Adjustment of maximum prices for hickory picker stick blanks, color no defect, produced or concentrated in North Carolina and South Carolina—(a) Products covered. This amendment covers, under the term "hickory picker stick blanks, color no defect", all sizes of all-white, mixed-color, and all-red picker stick blanks manufactured or concentrated in North Carolina and South Carolina, which satisfy the following specifications:

Manufactured from live, tough, heavy weight hickory logs; and to be bright, free from all timber defects, straight and straight grained, and color no defect.

(b) Maximum prices—(1) Direct mill shipments. The maximum prices for direct mill shipments of hickory picker stick blanks, color no defect, produced in North Carolina and South Carolina are the following prices, which are f. o. b. the mill:

Dry size:	Maximum price
1" x 2" x 36"	10¢ per blank.
1⅛" x 2⅛" x 40"	12½¢ per blank
All other sizes	$200.00 per 1,000 bd (figured on dry scale basis).

(2) Concentration plant sales. The maximum prices, f. o. b. concentration plant, for hickory picker stick blanks, color no defect, sold out of concentration plants located in North Carolina and South Carolina are the maximum prices established in subparagraph (1) plus 1¢ per blank. A concentration plant is any establishment which buys for resale picker stick blanks from primary producers.

(c) Addition for delivery. The seller may add to the appropriate f. o. b. maximum price the actual charge or cost paid or incurred by the seller in making delivery to the purchaser.

(d) This Order No. 16 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(e) This Order No. 16 is hereby incorporated as a section of Supplementary Regulation No. 14, which contains modifications of maximum prices established by § 1499.2.

This Order No. 16 shall become effective April 1, 1943.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[SR 14 to GMPR, Amendment 154]

TRANSPORTATION OF FRESH MEAT, MEAT PRODUCTS OR PACKING HOUSE PRODUCTS AND SUPPLIES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1499.73 (a) (91) is added to read as follows:

(91) Transportation of fresh meat, meat products or packing house products and supplies by carriers other than common carries—maximum prices. (i) Carriers other than common carriers who transport shipments of fresh meat, meat products or packing house products and supplies from points of origin in Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, South Dakota, West Virginia or Wisconsin, may increase by not more than 8% their maximum prices established for such service at March 1942 levels pursuant to the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation except that where the Office of Price Administration has heretofore granted to any such carrier an adjustment of maximum prices for such service, such adjusted maximum prices may, to the extent authorized, be charged by such carrier in lieu of the maximum prices authorized herein.

(ii) Carriers who establish maximum prices pursuant to subparagraph (91) (i) above shall furnish to the Office of Price Administration, Transportation and Public Utilities Division, Transportation Branch, Washington, D. C.:

(a) A statement of the maximum prices established pursuant to this amendment and the maximum March 1942 prices prescribed by the General Maximum Price Regulation for such service; such statement shall be furnished within 30 days of the establishment of maximum prices under this subparagraph.

(b) Detailed profit and loss statements by quarters, beginning with the first quarter of 1943, supported by balance sheets for the same period, together with a reconciliation statement of surplus, if the carrier is a corporation, or of net worth, if the carrier is other than a corporation; such statements shall be furnished within 30 days after the end of each quarter.

This amendment shall become effective March 31, 1943.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

telegraph messages relating to the war effort and public safety be given preferred handling:

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in the Board by Executive Order No. 8964[1] of December 10, 1941, prescribing regulations governing the preference and priority of communications, and by Executive Order No. 9089[2] of March 6, 1942, prescribing regulations governing the use, control, supervision and closing of stations and facilities for wire communications:

It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1722.1 Precedence. Effective February 15, 1943, all wire-line telegraph, cable and radiotelegraph carriers shall upon specific designation by the sender give precedence in the handling of telegraph, cable, and radiotelegraph messages in accordance with the provisions of and in the order set forth below:

(a) US Urgent. To apply to domestic and international messages filed by the War and Navy Departments and to international messages filed by the State Department and the Federal Bureau of Investigation of the Department of Justice.

(b) OP Priority. To apply to domestic and international messages filed only by the War and Navy Departments.

(c) Priority. To apply to domestic and international messages filed by the State, War, or Navy Departments and the Federal Bureau of Investigation of the Department of Justice and to any other domestic message requiring immediate transmission for war purposes or to safeguard life or property and which relates to one or more of the following matters:

Immediate dangers due to the presence of the enemy.
Emergency communications in connection with actual military or naval requirements.
Hurricane, flood, earthquake, or other disaster.

Messages designated US Urgent, OP Priority, and Priority shall interrupt the transmission of all telegraph messages of lower precedence.

(d) Rapid. To apply to any domestic message which requires prompt transmission and delivery for the national defense and security, the successful conduct of the war, or to safeguard life or property and which involves matters of the following type:

Important governmental functions.
Machinery, tools, or raw materials for war plants.
Production, movement, and diversion of essential supplies.
Maintennace of essential public services.
Supply, movement, and diversion of food.
Civilian defense or public health and safety.

§ 1722.2 Procedure for indicating priorities. The priority indicators "US Urgent", "OP Priority", "Priority", and "Rapid" should be written by the sender in the "To" space immediately before the address on messages being transmitted over commercial circuits. They are to be transmitted in plain language.

§ 1722.3 Other messages. Messages not designated with one of the foregoing priorities shall be handled in accordance with legally established classifications and tariffs on file with the Federal Communications Commission.

§ 1722.4 Definition of domestic message. As used in this Order, domestic message means any telegraph message originating in the Continental United States and destined to a point in the Continental United States, Canada, or Mexico.

§ 1722.5 Priorities procedures. The Federal Communications Commission is hereby requested and authorized in cooperation with the carriers concerned to evolve procedures and routines to effectuate the precedence and requirements set forth in this Order.

§ 1722.6 Violations. Any sender of a telegraph message who wilfully obtains or attempts to obtain priority for a telegraph message by fraudulently designating such message as a priority message or by furnishing false information to any telegraph carrier for the purpose of obtaining a priority, shall be subject to appropriate governmental action.

Subject to such further order as the Board may deem appropriate.

BOARD OF WAR COMMUNICATIONS,
JAMES LAWRENCE FLY,
Chairman.

TITLE 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

Chapter I—Coast Guard Department of the Navy

PART 5—REGULATIONS, UNITED STATES COAST GUARD AUXILIARY[1]

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The regulations, United States Coast Guard Auxiliary (6 F.R. 1356), as amended, are hereby further amended as follows:

1. Section 5.1 Definitions is amended by revising paragraphs (h) and (i) to read as follows:

(h) "District Coast Guard Officer" means an officer in command of a Coast Guard District. When the Coast Guard is operating as part of the Navy, the words "District Coast Guard Officer" as used in these regulations shall refer to the District Coast Guard Officer in a Naval District or Naval District Sector.

(i) "Director" means the Coast Guard Officer or Coast Guard Reserve Officer assigned to the Staff of the District Coast Guard Officer to assist that officer in administering the Auxiliary.

2. Section 5.2 Organization and administration is amended by revising subparagraphs (2), (4), (5), (6), (8) and (16) of paragraph (b) The Coast Guard districts to read as follows:

(2) The New York District, with District Headquarters at New York, N. Y., comprises: The State of Connecticut; the State of New York (not included in the Cleveland District); and the northern part of New Jersey, including counties of Mercer, Monmouth, and all counties north thereof.

(4) The Norfolk District, with District Headquarters at Norfolk, Virginia, comprises: The States of Maryland and Virginia, and the counties of Currituck, Camden, Pasquotank, Gates, Perquimans, Chowan, Dare, Tyrrell, Washington, Hyde, Beaufort, Pamlico, Craven, Jones, Carteret and Onslow, in North Carolina; and all United States Naval Reservations in the Islands of Bermuda.

(5) The Miami District, with district headquarters at Miami, Florida, comprises: The State of Florida, less Nassau and Duval counties and the counties west of the Apalachicola River.

(6) The New Orleans District, with district headquarters at New Orleans, Louisiana, comprises: The States of Texas and Louisiana; that part of the States of Alabama, Mississippi, and Arkansas south of latitude 34° N.; and that part of the State of Florida not included in the Miami District.

(8) The Cleveland District, with district headquarters at Cleveland, Ohio, comprises: The States of New York (west of longitude 74°39' W. and north of latitude 42° N.), Pennsylvania (west of longitude 79° W. and north of latitude 41° N.), Ohio (north of latitude 41° N.), Michigan (not included in the Chicago District), and that part of Wisconsin and Minnesota (north of latitude 46° 20' N).

(16) The Charleston District, with district headquarters at Charleston, South Carolina, comprises: The States of South Carolina, Georgia, and North Carolina, except the counties of Currituck, Camden, Pasquotank, Gates, Perquimans, Chowan, Dare, Tyrrell, Washington, Hyde, Beaufort, and Onslow; the counties of Nassau and Duval in the State of Florida.

By revising the second sentence of paragraph (d) Use of members in administration to read as follows:

Any member performing such service shall, upon authorization by the Commandant, be entitled to actual necessary traveling expense, including subsistence or a per diem in lieu thereof, as prescribed for civilian employees of the Government.

By revising subparagraphs (1), (2) and (5) of paragraph (e) to read as follows:

(e) District board—(1) Composition. The district board, shall be composed of the district Coast Guard Officer, the Director, the Commodore, the Vice-Commodore, and a representative from each division within the district, except that the Commodore and the Vice-Commodore shall, when available for this duty serve as representatives of their respective divisions.

The Captain of each division, or a member of his division designated by him shall, except for the two divisions of which the Commodore and the Vice-Commodore are members, serve as division representatives on the district board. When the Commodore, or the Vice-Commodore is not able to attend a meeting of the district board, the Captain of the division of which such Commodore or Vice-Commodore is a member, shall himself serve, or shall appoint a member of his division to serve, as division representative for that board meeting. Each member of the district board shall have one vote.

(2) Election of officers. The division representatives shall, at some time prior to December 1st of each year, elect two district officers to serve for the ensuing calendar year. These two officers shall not be members of the same division. The titles of these officers shall be in the following order of precedence: Commodore; Vice-Commodore.

(5) Officers, term of office. A member of the Auxiliary elected to the office of Commodore or Vice-Commodore, shall hold office for the calendar year following date of election. Vacancies in these two offices, caused by death or resignation, shall be filled by election by the district beard.

By revising subparagraphs (1), (2) and (5) of paragraph (f) to read as follows:

(f) Division board—(1) Composition. The division board shall be composed of the division Captain, Vice-Captain, Junior Captain, and a representative from each flotilla in the division except that the division Captain, Vice-Captain and Junior Captain shall, when available for this duty, serve as representatives of their respective flotillas. The district Coast Guard officer, Director, and Commodore shall be ex-officio members of each division board within the district.

The Commander of each flotilla, or a member of his flotilla designated by him, shall except for the three flotillas of which the Captain, Vice-Captain and Junior Captain are members, serve as flotilla representatives on the division board. When the Captain, or the Vice-Captain or the Junior Captain, is not able to attend a meeting of the division board, the Commander of the flotilla of which such Captain, Vice-Captain or Junior Captain is a member, shall himself serve, or shall appoint a member of his flotilla to serve as flotilla representative for that board meeting. Each member of the division board shall have one vote for each group of ten members of his flotilla and one additional vote for a group of less than ten but more than five members.

(2) Election of officers. The flotilla representatives shall, at some time prior to November 1st of each year, elect three division officers to serve for the ensuing calendar year. No two of these officers shall be members of the same flotilla. The titles of these officers shall be in the following order of precedence: Captain; Vice-Captain; Junior Captain.

(5) Officers, term of office. A member of the auxiliary elected to the office of Captain, Vice-Captain or Junior Captain shall hold office for the calendar year following date of election. Vacancies in these three offices caused by death or resignation shall be filled by election by the division board.

By adding the following at the end of subparagraph (1) of paragraph (g) Flotilla:

Associate memberships may be granted to citizens of the United States who are potential crew members of vessels in a flotilla and who show the proper interest in Auxiliary instruction activities. Associate members shall have all the rights and privileges of regular members, with the following exceptions: (i) They shall not have the right to vote; (ii) they may not hold office; and (iii) Auxiliary flags and pennants may not be flown on a vessel when only associate members are aboard. The applications for enrollment and all other records in connection with associate memberships shall be handled in the same manner as for regular memberships. The membership certificate and identification card issued associate members shall have the words "Associate Member" stamped prominently across the face thereof. The number of associate members in a flotilla shall not exceed the number of regular members of the flotilla, except in such cases where it may be necessary to increase this number to adequately take care of required or anticipated operations.

And by revising subparagraphs (2) and (5) of paragraph (g) to read as follows:

(2) Personnel, election of officers. The regular members of each flotilla shall, at some time prior to October 15th of each year, elect three flotilla officers to serve for the ensuing calendar year. The titles of these officers shall be in the following order of precedence: Commander; Vice-Commander; Junior Commander.

A secretary shall be appointed by the Flotilla Commander and he may be one of the officers of the flotilla.

(5) Officers, term of office. A member of the Auxiliary elected to the office of Commander, Vice-Commander or Junior Commander shall hold office for the calendar year following date of election.

3. Section 5.3 Personnel is amended by revising paragraph (a) to read as follows:

(a) Eligibility. Any citizen, over 18 years of age, who owns not less than a twenty-five per cent interest in any yacht or motorboat shall be eligible for membership in the Auxiliary, subject to the regulations as hereinafter set forth.

By revising the language preceding subparagraph (1) of paragraph (e) to read as follows:

(e) Advancement. Two lines of advancement, those of Deck and Engineering, are established. The designations in these specialties will be as follows:

Deck:
Senior Navigator
Master Navigator—Master Pilot
Engineer:
Engineer
Senior Engineer
Master Engineer

By adding the following subparagraph (4) at the end of paragraph (e):

(4) A member to be eligible for advancement to the designation of master pilot must have the same qualifications required for the rating of master navigator, except that the member will not be required to have knowledge of Celestial Navigation. He must, however, produce satisfactory evidence that he has successfully completed all the courses for the rating of master navigator and that he has had not less than five years of experience in the active operation of small vessels.

By revising paragraph (g) to read as follows:

(g) Method of advancement. The district Coast Guard officer shall designate at least one date each year for the examination of members for advancement. Each member shall be advised of the dates of the examinations to be held and shall, if he desires advancement, make application to the district Coast Guard officer in writing for examination.

The district Coast Guard officer shall convene an Examining Board of not less than three members, at least one of whom shall be the Director and the remainder commissioned Coast Guard officers or members of the Auxiliary who have been awarded the designation for which the examination is to be held.

The Examining Board shall prepare the examination questions, grade the papers, investigate the eligibility of each applicant for advancement and notify the district Coast Guard officer of the results obtained. The written examination may be supervised by a sub-board, which sub-board shall transmit the examination papers to the Examining Board.

Members who qualify in all respects for advancement will be recommended by the district Coast Guard officer to the Commandant for advancement.

Upon receipt of the recommendation, the Commandant will appoint the member to the proper designation.

Members who fail to attain a passing mark in any examination shall be so notified, and will be entitled to be reexamined on the next designated examination date.

By adding the following subparagraphs (6) and (7) of paragraph (i) Disenrollment immediately following subparagraph (5):

(6) An associate member shall be disenrolled (i) on request, for cause, (ii) upon direction of the district Coast Guard officer.

(7) Upon the death of a member.

By adding the following sentence at the end of paragraph (i):

The District Board shall have the power to delegate its authority to hold hearings to a board appointed by the district Coast Guard officer.

4. Section 5.4 Vessels is amended by adding the following sentence at the end of paragraph (c) Merit designation:

The number of vessels awarded the merit rating of "Excellent" in any one flotilla shall not exceed the number nearest to 40% of the total number of vessels in the flotilla.

5. Sections 5.6 Flags, pennants, and insignia is amended by revising paragraph (d) to read as follows:

(d) Insignia. The insignia for members shall consist of the emblem of the Auxiliary in gold metal or gold colored

RECORDS OF INJURY FREQUENCY RATES

Addition of § 201.502 to regulations for administration of the Act of June 30, 1936, Public No. 846, 74th Congress.

By virtue of the authority vested in me by section 4 of the Act approved June 30, 1936, 49 Stat. 2036, 41 U.S.C., secs. 35–45, I hereby amend Regulations No. 504, prescribed by me under Public Act No. 846, Seventy-fourth Congress (Series A), by the addition of the following section which shall become effective May 1, 1943:

§ 201.502 Records of injury frequency rates. Every person who is or shall become a party to a Government contract which is subject to the provisions of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act and the Regulations thereunder, or who is performing or shall perform any part of such contract subject to the provisions of such Act or Regulations, shall maintain the records specified below which shall be available for inspection by authorized representatives of the Secretary of Labor:

(a) Records of injury frequency rates as defined in paragraphs (b) and (c) below, calculated quarterly on a calendar basis commencing the first of January of each year;

(b) The injury frequency rate shall be the number of disabling injuries to all employees per 1,000,000 manhours of exposure, obtained by multiplying the total number of disabling injuries by 1,000,000 and dividing that sum by the total manhours of exposure;

(c) For the purpose of this section (1) "disabling injury" is one which causes disability to any employee extending beyond the day or shift during which the injury occurred, (2) "total manhours of exposure" shall be the total manhours actually worked by all employees during the quarter, (3) "employee" shall mean any employee in any department of the factory or establishment, including protection, maintenance, transportation, clerical, office and sales, regardless of whether such employee is engaged in the performance of a contract subject to this Act.

Such records shall be kept on file for at least four years after the date of entry thereof.

Dated: March 20, 1943.

FRANCES PERKINS,
Secretary of Labor.

2¾ PERCENT MUTUAL MORTGAGE INSURANCE FUND DEBENTURES, SERIES B

PARTIAL REDEMPTION BEFORE MATURITY, NINTH CALL

MARCH 27, 1943.

I. Notice of ninth call for partial redemption, before maturity, of 2¾ percent Mutual Mortgage Insurance Fund Debentures, Series B. The Federal Housing Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, has issued the following notice of call for partial redemption and offer to purchase with respect to 2¾ percent Mutual Mortgage Insurance Fund debentures, Series B:

Pursuant to the authority conferred by the National Housing Act (48 Stat. 1246; U.S.C., title 12, sec. 1701 et seq.) as amended, public notice is hereby given that 2¾ percent Mutual Mortgage Insurance Fund debentures, Series B, of the denominations and serial numbers designated below, are hereby called for redemption, at par and accrued interest, on July 1, 1943, on which date interest on such debentures shall cease:

Denomination:	Serial numbers (all numbers inclusive)
$50	1,457 to 1,511
$100	5,260 to 5,554
$500	1,706 to 1,769
$1,000	6,470 to 6,757
$5,000	453 to 485
$10,000	47 to 49

The debentures first issued, as determined by the serial numbers, were selected for redemption by the Commissioner, Federal Housing Administration, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

No transfers or denominational exchanges in debentures covered by the foregoing call will be made on the books maintained by the Treasury Department on or after April 1, 1943. This does not affect the right of the holder of a debenture to sell and assign the debenture on or after April 1, 1943, and provision will be made for the payment of final interest due July 1, 1943, with the principal thereof to the actual owner, as shown by the assignments thereon.

The Commissioner of the Federal Housing Administration hereby offers to purchase any debentures included in this call at any time from April 1 to June 30, 1943, inclusive, at par and accrued interest, to date of purchase.

Instructions for the presentation and surrender of debentures for redemption on or after July 1, 1943, or for purchase prior to that date will be given by the Secretary of the Treasury.

II. Transactions in ninth-called debentures. 1. The debentures included in the foregoing notice of call for partial redemption on July 1, 1943, are hereby designated ninth-called 2¾ percent Mutual Mortgage Insurance Fund debentures, Series B, and are hereinafter referred to as ninth-called debentures.

2. Transfers and denominational exchanges in ninth-called debentures will terminate at the close of business on March 31, 1943.

III. Redemption or purchase. 1. Holders of ninth-called debentures will be entitled to have such debentures redeemed and paid at par on July 1, 1943, with interest in full to that date, at the rate of $13.75 per $1,000. Interest on ninth-called debentures will cease on July 1, 1943.

2. Holders of ninth-called debentures have the privilege of presenting such debentures at any time from April 1 to June 30, 1943, inclusive, for purchase at par and accrued interest, at the rate of $0.075967 per $1,000 per day from January 1, 1943, to date of purchase.

IV. Rules and regulations governing redemption and purchase. 1. The United States Treasury Department is the agent of the Federal Housing Commissioner for the redemption and purchase of ninth-called debentures. In accordance with regulations adopted by the Federal Housing Commissioner and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, the assignment, redemption, and purchase of ninth-called debentures will be governed by the general regulations of the Treasury Department with respect to United States bonds and notes, so far as applicable, except as otherwise provided herein.

2. Ninth-called debentures presented for redemption on July 1, 1943, or for purchase from April 1 to June 30, 1943, inclusive, must be assigned by the registered payee or assignee thereof or by their duly constituted representatives in the form indicated in paragraph 3 hereof, and should thereafter be presented and surrendered to any Federal Reserve Bank or to the Division of Loans and Currency, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., accompanied by appropriate written advice. (Use Form PD 1834 attached hereto.[1]) The debentures must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holders. (See paragraph 8 of this section.) In all cases checks in payment of principal and final interest will be mailed to the address given in the form of advice accompanying the debentures when surrendered.

3. If the registered payee or an assignee holding under proper assignment from the registered payee desires that payment be made to him, the debentures should be assigned by such payee or assignee or by a duly constituted representative to "The Federal Housing Commissioner for redemption" or to "The Federal Housing Commissioner for purchase," according to whether the debentures are to be presented for redemption on July 1, 1943, or for purchase prior to that date. If it is desired for any reason that payment be made to some other person without intermediate assignment, the debentures should be assigned to "The Federal Housing Commissioner for redemption (or purchase) for the account of ----------," inserting the name and address of the person to whom payment is to be made.

4. An assignment in blank or other assignment having similar effect will be recognized, but in that event payment will be made to the person surrendering the debenture for redemption or purchase since, under such an assignment, the debenture becomes in effect payable to bearer. Assignments in blank or assignments having similar effect should be avoided, if possible, in order not to lose the protection afforded by registration.

5. Final interest on any ninth-called debentures, whether purchased prior to or redeemed on or after July 1, 1943, will be paid with the principal in accordance with the assignments on the debentures surrendered.

6. All assignments must be made on the debentures themselves unless otherwise directed by the Treasury Department. Detached assignments will be recognized and accepted in any particular case in which the use of detached assignments is specifically authorized by the Treasury Department. Any assignment not made upon the debenture is considered a detached assignment.

[1] Filed as part of the original document.

7. A ninth-called debenture registered in the name of, or assigned to, a corporation, will be paid to such corporation on or after July 1, 1943, upon an appropriate assignment for that purpose executed on behalf of the corporation by a duly authorized officer thereof. An assignment so executed and duly attested in accordance with Treasury Department regulations will ordinarily be accepted without proof of the officer's authority. In all cases coming under this provision payment will be made only by check drawn to the order of the corporation. Proof of the authority of the officer assigning on behalf of a corporation will be required, in accordance with the general regulations of the Treasury Department, in the case of assignments for purchase prior to July 1, 1943, and in case of assignments for redemption on or after July 1, 1943, for the account of any person other than the corporation.

8. Debentures presented for redemption or purchase under this circular must be delivered to a Federal Reserve Bank or to the Division of Loans and Currency, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., at the expense and risk of the holder. Debentures bearing restricted assignments may be forwarded by registered mail, but debentures bearing unrestricted assignments should be forwarded by registered mail insured or by express prepaid.

9. In order to facilitate the redemption of ninth-called debentures on July 1, 1943, any such debenture may be presented and surrendered in the manner herein prescribed in advance of that date but not before June 1, 1943. Such early presentation by holders will insure prompt payment of principal and interest when due.

V. General provisions. 1. Any further information which may be desired regarding the redemption of ninth-called debentures under this circular may be obtained from any Federal Reserve Bank or from the Division of Loans and Currency, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., where copies of the Treasury Department's regulations governing assignments may be obtained.

2. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve Banks are authorized and requested to perform any necessary acts under this circular. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time or from time to time prescribe supplemental and amendatory rules and regulations governing the matters covered by this circular, which will be communicated promptly to the registered owners of ninth-called debentures.

Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

IV. Rules and regulations governing redemption and purchase. 1. The United States Treasury Department is the agent of the Federal Housing Commissioner for the redemption and purchase of called debentures. In accordance with regulations adopted by the Federal Housing Commissioner and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, the assignment, redemption, and purchase of called debentures will be governed by the general regulations of the Treasury Department with respect to United States bonds and notes, so far as applicable, except as otherwise provided herein.

2. Called debentures presented for redemption on July 1, 1943, or for purchase from April 1 to June 30, 1943, inclusive, must be assigned by the registered payee or assignee thereof or by their duly constituted representatives in the form indicated in paragraph 3 hereof, and should thereafter be presented and surrendered to any Federal Reserve Bank or to the Division of Loans and Currency, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., accompanied by appropriate written advice. (Use Form PD 1835 attached hereto.[1]) The debentures must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holders. (See paragraph 8 of this section.) In all cases checks in payment of principal and final interest will be mailed to the address given in the form of advice accompanying the debentures when surrendered.

3. If the registered payee or an assignee holding under proper assignment from the registered payee desires that payment be made to him, the debentures should be assigned by such payee or assignee or by a duly constituted representative to "The Federal Housing Commissioner for redemption" or to "The Federal Housing Commissioner for purchase," according to whether the debentures are to be presented for redemption on July 1, 1943, or for purchase prior to that date. If it is desired for any reason that payment be made to some other person without intermediate assignment, the debentures should be assigned to "The Federal Housing Commissioner for redemption (or purchase) for the account of ----------," inserting the name and address of the person to whom payment is to be made.

Bureau of Mines.

JOHNS BROTHERS, LICENSEE

ORDER REVOKING LICENSE AND DIRECTING ITS SURRENDER

Based upon the records in this matter, I, R. R. Sayers, Director of the Bureau of Mines, make the following findings of fact:

1. On February 22, 1943, a specification of charges against you, setting forth violations of the Federal Explosives Act (55 Stat. 863) and the regulations pursuant thereto of which you were accused, was mailed to you giving you notice to mail an answer within 15 days demanding a hearing if you wished to be heard on the charges against you.

2. More than 30 days have elapsed since the giving of said notice. The length of time required for mail to be delivered to the Bureau of Mines, Washington, D. C., from Arnegard, North Dakota, does not exceed 5 days. The only answer from you was dated March 3 and received March 8. You have not denied that on November 10, 1942, and again on January 4, 1943, you were storing explosives in a manner not adequately protecting them against the risk of theft, or that you thereby violated section 17 (a) of the regulations. You have not denied that on November 10, 1942, and again on January 4, 1943, you failed to post on premises where you stored explosives a sign containing the words "Explosives—Keep Off," or that you thereby violated section 12 of the act and section 17 (b) of the regulations. You have not denied that you failed and refused to reply to a letter dated January 15, 1943, from the Explosives Control Division requiring a reply within 15 days from its date, or that you thereby violated section 10 of the act. You have not offered any excuse or justification for any of the above violations, although you allege that you now store explosives properly. You have denied the charge that you have not kept full and detailed records of your transactions in explosives as required by section 5 of the act and section 14 (d) of the regulations, but you have not submitted a copy of your records as evidence of your allegation that they have been sufficient. You have not requested a hearing.

3. The charges against you are true.

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in my by sections 8 and 18 of the Federal Explosives Act (55 Stat. 863) and § 301.22 of the regulations thereunder (7 F. R. 5901), I hereby order, That Vendor's License No. 130.230, and all other licenses, if any, issued under the Federal Explosives Act to you individually or as a partnership be and they are hereby revoked as of midnight April 10, 1943.

That prior to midnight April 10, 1943, you shall dispose of all of your explosives or ingredients thereof by selling or otherwise disposing of them to persons licensed under the Federal Explosives Act, or by destroying them.

That prior to midnight April 10, 1943, you shall surrender all licenses and certified or photographic copies thereof, if any, issued to you under the Federal Explosives Act, by delivering or mailing them to me at the Interior Building, Washington, D. C.

Failure to comply with any of the provisions of this order will constitute a violation of the Federal Explosives Act punishable by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

This order shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: March 27th, 1943.

ORDER REVOKING LICENSE AND DIRECTING ITS SURRENDER

Based upon the records in this matter, I, R. R. Sayers, Director of the Bureau of Mines, make the following

Findings of Fact

1. On March 1, 1943, a Specification of Charges against you, setting forth violations of the Federal Explosives Act (55 Stat. 863) and regulations pursuant thereto of which you were accused, was mailed to you at the above, your last known address, giving you notice to mail an answer within 15 days demanding a hearing if you wished to be heard on the charges against you.

2. More than 25 days have elapsed since the giving of said notice. The length of time required for mail to be delivered to the Bureau of Mines, Washington, D. C., from Vandervoort, Arkansas does not exceed five days. The only answer from you was dated March 7 and received March 10. You have not denied that on July 2, 1942, and again on September 18, 1942, you were storing explosives in a manner not adequately protecting them against the risk of theft, or that by such storage you violated section 17 (a) of the regulations. You have not denied that you have failed to keep a full, detailed and tabulated record of your transactions in explosives, or that by such failure you violated section 5 of the act and section 14 (d) of the regulations. You have not denied that you failed and refused to reply to a letter from the Explosives Control Division, dated August 31, 1942, or that by such failure you violated section 10 of the act. You have not offered any excuse or justification for any of the above violations. You have not denied that you failed and refused to reply to a letter from the Explosives Control Division, dated January 23, 1943, requiring a reply within 15 days from its date, or that you thereby violated section 10 of the act, although you have sought to excuse that violation by an allegation that you failed to see the letter. Your answer alleges that you have destroyed the caps formerly in your possession, that you have buried the dynamite formerly in your possession, which you allege was damaged and deteriorated, and that you have no other explosives in your possession. You have not requested a hearing.

3. The charges against you are true. The excuse offered by you for your failure to reply to the letter of January 23 is insufficient. The dynamite which you buried has not been destroyed. It is still in your possession and is kept in violation of section 17 (a) of the regulations.

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me by sections 8 and 18 of the Federal Explosives Act (55 Stat. 863) and section 22 of the regulations thereunder (7 F.R. 5901), I hereby

Order

1. That Vendor's License No. 131197 and all other licenses, if any, issued to you under the Federal Explosives Act be and they are hereby revoked as of the date of this order, except that you will be allowed not to exceed ten days thereafter within which to comply with the second and third provisions of this order;

2. That within ten days from the date of this order, you shall dispose of all the dynamite which you have buried in the ground by destroying it or having it destroyed;

3. That within ten days from the date of this order, you shall surrender all licenses and certified or photographic copies thereof, if any, issued to you under the Federal Explosives Act, by delivering or mailing the same to me at the Interior Building, Washington, D. C., attaching to the licenses a sworn statement showing the manner of destruction of the buried dynamite, and that you have no more explosives or ingredients in your possession.

Failure to comply with any of the provisions of this order will constitute a violation of the Federal Explosives Act, punishable by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Dated: March 30, 1943.

COTTONSEED AND PEANUT CRUSHING INDUSTRY

APPOINTMENT OF INDUSTRY COMMITTEE NO. 57

1. By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, I, L. Metcalfe Walling, Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, do hereby appoint and convene for the cottonseed and penut crushing industry (as such industry is defined in paragraph 2) an industry committee composed of the following representatives:

For the Public: Robert Preston Brooks, Chairman, Athens, Georgia; James E. Chace, Gainesville, Florida; Richard Lester, Durham, North Carolina; Alva W. Taylor, Nashville, Tennessee.

For the Employees: O. L. Farr, Selma, California; Harry Koger, Suffolk, Virginia; Abraham Marcus, Memphis, Tennessee; Boris Shishkin, Washington, D. C.

For the Employers: John H. Bryson, Dothan, Alabama; R. M. Hughes, Greer, South Carolina; P. A. Laws, Memphis, Tennessee; Henry G. Womble, Caldwell, Texas.

Such representatives having been chosen with due regard to the geographical regions in which such industry is carried on.

2. For the purpose of this order the term "Cottonseed and Peanut Crushing Industry" means:

The manufacture from cottonseed and peanuts of crude oil and by-products, including, but without limitation, cake, hulls, and linters: Provided, however, That this definition shall not include the manufacture of feeds.

3. The definition of the cottonseed and peanut crushing industry covers all occupations in the industry which are necessary to the production of the articles specified in the definition including clerical, maintenance, shipping, and selling occupations: Provided, however, That this definition does not cover clerical, maintenance, shipping, and selling occupations when carried on in a wholesaling or selling department, physically segregated from the other departments of a manufacturing establishment, the greater part of the sales of which wholesaling or selling department are sales of articles which have been purchased for resale: And provided further, That where an employee covered by this definition is employed during the same workweek at two or more different minimum rates of pay, he shall be paid the highest of such rates for such workweek unless records concerning his employment are kept by his employer in accordance with applicable regulations of the Wage and Hour Division.

4. Any person, who, in the opinion of the committee, having a substantial interest in the proceeding and who is prepared to present material pertinent to the question under consideration, may, with the approval of the committee, appear on his own behalf or on behalf of any other person.

5. The industry committee herein created shall meet at 10:00 a. m. on April 26, 1943 at the Peabody Hotel, Memphis, Tennessee, and, in accordance with the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 and rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, shall proceed to investigate conditions in the industry and recommend to the Administrator minimum wage rates for all employees thereof who within the meaning of said Act are "engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce," excepting employees exempted by virtue of the provisions of section 13 (a) and employees coming under the provisions of section 14.

Signed at New York, New York, this 27th day of March 1943.

[Vesting Order 964]

THE JAPANESE ASSOCIATION, INC.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that The Japanese Association, Inc. (also known as The Japanese Association of New York, Inc.) is a membership corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York and is a business enterprise doing business in the State of New York;

2. Finding that many members of The Japanese Association, Inc. are Japanese subjects interned in the United States, and that said The Japanese Association, Inc. has performed various functions for the Japanese Government, including the taking of the census of the Japanese in the United States and the collection of funds for the Japanese Government;

3. Determining that said The Japanese Association, Inc. acted for or on behalf of a designated enemy country (Japan), and is, therefore, a national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

4. Finding that the property described as follows

All property of any nature whatsoever situated in the United States and owned or controlled by, payable to, or held on behalf of or on account of or owing to The Japanese Association, Inc., New York, N. Y.

is property of a business enterprise within the United States which is a national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

5. Determining that to the extent that such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Japan);

6. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described in subparagraph 4 hereof, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

7. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute as admission of the existence, validity, or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on March 1, 1943.

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by Fidelity-Philadelphia Trust Company, Executor, acting under the judicial supervision of the Orphans' Court of Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Austria (Germany), namely,

Nationals:	Last known address
Emerick (Imre) Teuber.	Austria (Germany).
Emerika Teuber	Austria (Germany).
Oskar Teuber	Austria (Germany).

And determining that—

(3) If such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Austria (Germany); and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest, and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Emerick (Imre) Teuber, Emerika Teuber and Oskar Teuber and each of them in and to the Estate of Charlotte Coxe Teuber, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and interests and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property and interests or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute as admission of the existence, validity, or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on March 1, 1943.

ESTATE OF ROSE SCHWARTZ

In re: Estate of Rose Schwartz, also known as Rosa Wallenberg, and Rose Wohlenberg, deceased; File D-28-6485; E. T. sec. 3794.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by the Public Administrator of the County of New York, Administrator, acting under the judicial supervision of the Surrogate's Court of the County of New York, New York;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals:	Last known address:
Cecilia Q. Stolzke	Danzig.
Hulda W. Franche	Germany.

And determining that—

(3) Cecilia Q. Stolzke, a citizen or subject of a designated enemy country, Germany, and within an enemy occupied area, Danzig, is a national of a designated enemy country, Germany;

(4) If such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest, and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Cecilia Q. Stolzke and Hulda W. Franche, and each of them, in and to the estate of Rose Schwartz, also known as Rosa Wallenberg, and Rose Wohlenberg, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and interests and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute as admission of the existence, validity, or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Dated: March 23, 1943.

[Vesting Order 1025]

TWO PATENTS OF MAX OW-ESCHINGEN

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that Max Ow-Eschingen is a citizen of Germany whose last known address is Vienna, Germany, and is a national of a foreign country (Germany);

2. Finding that although said Max Ow-Eschingen agreed by contract dated May 3, 1939, to assign to "Colos" International Company for Commerce and Industry, a corporation of the United States doing business at New York, New York, the patents hereinafter described and did in fact execute such assignments which were recorded in the United States Patent Office, said Max Ow-Eschingen has never furnished said company with certain instructions dealing with the application of inventions in accordance with such agreement and said company has never paid any money or other consideration to him for the assignment of said patents, and therefore finding that said Max Ow-Eschingen is the owner of said patents;

3. Finding, therefore, that the property described as follows:

All right, title and interest, including all accrued royalties and all profits and damages recoverable at law or in equity from any person, firm, corporation or government for past infringement thereof, in and to the following patents:

Patent No.	Patent date	Inventor	Title
1,800,645	12/13/32	M. Ow-Eschingen	Process of metalizing.
2,100,805	8/3/35	M. Ow-Eschingen	Process for the production of metal coatings on colloidal substrates.

is property of a national of a foreign country (Germany);

4. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultations and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 3, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold, or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

5. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on March 4, 1943.

PATENT APPLICATIONS OF CITIZENS AND RESIDENTS OF ENEMY-OCCUPIED COUNTRIES

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that the record owners of the patent applications identified in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof, are citizens of Luxembourg, Poland or Netherlands, as represented by the code numbers set forth under the heading "NAT. CODE" in said Exhibit A in accordance with the following:

27 represents France.
44 represents Luxembourg.
49 represents Netherlands.
55 represents Poland.

2. Finding, therefore, that said persons are nationals of the foreign countries represented by the code numbers set forth in said Exhibit A in accordance with the aforesaid code;

3. Finding, therefore, that such patent applications are property of nationals of foreign countries;

4. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and

5. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 1, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form

APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

PATENT APPLICATIONS OF CITIZENS OF ENEMY COUNTRIES RESIDING IN ENEMY-OCCUPIED COUNTRIES

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that the record owners of the patent applications identified in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof, are citizens of the enemy countries, and residents of the enemy-occupied countries, represented by the code numbers set forth under the heading "NAT. CODE" in said Exhibit A in accordance with the following:

27 represents France.
28 represents Germany.
34 represents Hungary.
38 represents Italy.
46 represents Monaco.
57 represents Roumania.

2. Finding, therefore, that said persons are nationals of the foreign countries represented by the code numbers set forth in said Exhibit A in accordance with the aforesaid code;

3. Finding therefore that such patent applications are property of nationals of foreign countries;

4. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultations and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 1, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold, or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

5. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

PATENT APPLICATIONS OF CITIZENS AND RESIDENTS OF FRANCE

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that the record owners of the patent applications identified in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof, are citizens and residents of France and therefore are nationals of a foreign country (France);

2. Finding therefore that such patent applications are property of nationals of a foreign country (France);

3. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and

4. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 1, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C. on March 4, 1943.

PATENT APPLICATIONS OF CITIZENS OF SWITZERLAND RESIDING IN FRANCE

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that the record owners of the patent applications identified in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof are citizens of Switzerland residing in France and therefore are nationals of foreign countries (France and Switzerland);

2. Finding therefore that such patent applications are property of nationals of foreign countries (France and Switzerland);

3. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultations and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 1, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold, or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

4. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on March 4, 1943.

42 PATENTS OF CARL ZEISS

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that Carl Zeiss is a German firm doing business at Jena, Germany, and is a national of a foreign country (Germany);

2. Finding that N. V. Nederlandsche Instrumenten Compagnie (Nedinsco), a corporation organized under the laws of Holland, doing business at Venlo, Holland, is a subsidiary of, and is owned or controlled by said Carl Zeiss and, therefore, is a national of a foreign country (Germany);

3. Finding that Carl Zeiss and N. V. Nederlandsche Instrumenten Compagnie (Nedinsco), by virtue of a contract dated November 26, 1926, assigned to Bausch & Lomb Optical Company, the patents which stand of record in the United States Patent Office in the name of Bausch & Lomb Optical Company, which patents are listed in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof;

4. Finding that by a decree of the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of New York, dated July 9, 1940 in a case entitled United States of America vs. Bausch & Lomb Optical Company, et al, Civil Action No. 9-404, it was found that the aforesaid agreement of November 26, 1926 was unlawful;

5. Finding, therefore, that the aforesaid Carl Zeiss and N. V. Nederlandsche Instrumenten Compagnie (Nedinsco) are the owners of the patents referred to in subparagraph 6, hereof;

6. Finding, therefore, that the property described as follows:

All right, title and interest, including all accrued royalties and all damages and profits recoverable at law or in equity for past infringement thereof, in and to the patents identified in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof.

is property of nationals of a foreign country (Germany);

7. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and

8. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 6, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian, to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

PATENTS AND CONTRACTUAL INTERESTS OF CERTAIN FOREIGN NATIONALS

Re: Patents and contractual interests of foreign nationals who have patent licensing agreements with Bendix Aviation Corporation.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that the record owners of the patents listed in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof, and referred to under the heading "Record Owners" in said Exhibit A are organized under the laws of or have their principal places of business in, or are citizens or residents of, the foreign countries set forth after their names in said Exhibit A scribed in subparagraph 4, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on March 8, 1943.

[Vesting Order 1041]

CONTRACT RIGHTS OF OSKAR RENNER, JR.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that Oskar Renner, Jr., a resident of Budapest, Hungary, is a national of a foreign country (Hungary);

2. Finding that Oskar Renner, Jr. has interests in and under the agreements referred to in subparagraph 4 hereof;

3. Finding that the heirs, legal representatives and assigns, if any, of said Oskar Renner Jr. are nationals of a foreign country (Hungary);

4. Finding that the property described as follows:

a. The interest of Oskar Renner, Jr., his heirs, legal representatives and assigns, and each of them, in and under a certain agreement dated July 1, 1937, between said Oskar Renner, Jr., and Union Carbide and Carbon Research Laboratories, Inc., a New York corporation, relating among other things to a patent application now issued as United States Letters Patent No. 2,231,027, including all royalties or other monies payable or held with respect to said interest and all damages for breach of said agreement, together with the right to sue therefor; and

b. The interest of Oskar Renner, Jr., his heirs, legal representatives and assigns, and each of them, in and under a certain agreement dated November 1, 1939, between Union Carbide and Carbon Research Laboratories, Inc., a New York corporation, and The Linde Air Products Company, an Ohio corporation, relating among other things to United States Letters Patent No. 2,231,027, including all royalties or other monies payable or held with respect to said interest and all damages for breach of said agreement, together with the right to sue therefor, is property payable or held with respect to a patent or rights related thereto in which interests are held by, and such property itself constitutes interests held therein by, a national or nationals of a foreign country (Hungary);

5. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described in subparagraph 4 hereof, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

6. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on March 8, 1943.

[Vesting Order 1047]

COPYRIGHT INTERESTS IN GERMAN-OWNED MOTION PICTURE FILMS IN THE UNITED STATES

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that each of the individuals whose names and last known addresses are set forth in Exhibit A attached hereto and by reference made a part hereof, is a resident of, and that each of the companies referred to in such Exhibit is organized under the laws of, Germany and that therefore each of such individuals and companies is a national of a foreign country (Germany);

2. Finding that the German Government and the persons listed in said Exhibit A, jointly or severally own or control the property hereinafter described in subparagraph 3.

3. Determining that the property described as follows:

All right, title, interest and claim of whatsoever kind or nature, under the statutory and common law of the United States and of the several States thereof, of each and all of the identified persons to whom reference is made in said Exhibit A, in, to and under the following:

a. Every copyright, claim of copyright and right to copyright in each and all of the motion picture films in the United States owned or controlled by the German Government and/or the individuals and companies, and each of them, whose names and last known addresses are listed in said Exhibit A;

b. Every license, agreement, privilege, power and right of whatsoever nature arising under or with respect to any or all of the foregoing;

c. All monies and amounts, and all right to receive monies and amounts, by way of royalty, share of profits or other emolument, accrued or to accrue, whether arising pursuant to law, contract or otherwise, with respect to any or all of the foregoing;

d. All rights of renewal, reversion or revesting, if any, in any or all of the foregoing;

e. All causes of action accrued or to accrue at law or in equity with respect to any or all of the foregoing, including but not limited to the right to sue for and recover all damages and profits and to ask and receive any and all remedies provided by common law or statute for the infringement of any copyright or the violation of any right or the breach of any obligation described in or affecting any or all of the foregoing; is property payable or held with respect to copyrights, or rights related thereto, in which interests are held by, and such property constitutes interests held therein by, a foreign country (Germany) and or nationals thereof;

4. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and

5. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 3, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The term "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meaning prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on March 11, 1943.

CONTRACT RIGHTS OF ETTORE BUGATTI

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that Ettore Bugatti of Molsheim, Bas-Rhin, France is a national of a foreign country (France);

2. Finding that said Ettore Buzatti has an interest in a certain license described in subparagraph 4 hereof;

3. Finding that the heirs, legal representatives and assigns, if any, of said Ettore Bugatti are national of a foreign country (France);

4. Finding that the property described as follows:

The interest of Ettore Bugatti, his heirs, legal representatives and assigns, and each of them, in and under a certain license granted to him by Goodyear-Zeppelin Corporation, Akron, Ohio, which license relates to an United States Patent Application Serial No. 88,687, filed June 5, 1936 (now United States Letters Patent No. 2,269,685), and is evidenced by a document executed on July 21, 1939 by said Goodyear-Zeppelin Corporation.

is property payable on held with respect to a patent or right related thereto in which interests are held by, and such property itself constitutes interests held therein by, a nation or nationals of a foreign country (France);

5. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 4, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

6. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on March 11, 1943.

2. Finding that Siemens & Halske A. G., is a corporation organized under the laws of Germany doing business at Berlin-Siemensstadt, Germany, and is a national of a foreign country (Germany);

3. Finding that the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, if any, of said Franz Meiwald are nationals of a foreign country (Germany);

4. Finding that the successors and assigns, if any, of said Siemens & Halske A. G. are nationals of a foreign country (Germany);

5. Finding that said Franz Meiwald and Siemens & Halske A. G. have interests in the agreement described in subparagraph 6 hereof;

6. Finding, therefore, that the property described as follows:

The interest of Franz Meiwald, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, and each of them, and the interest of Siemens & Halske A. G., its successors and assigns, and each of them, in and under a certain agreement between the said Franz Meiwald and Associated Electric Laboratories, Inc., a Delaware corporation, dated November 2, 1935, and recorded in the assignment records of the United States Patent Office on November 21, 1935, in Liber Z 164, page 124, which agreement relates among other things, to United States Letters Patent No. 1,978,501, including all royalties and other monies payable or held with respect to said interests and all damages for the breach of the said agreement together with the right to sue therefor, is property payable or held with respect to a patent or right related thereto in which interests are held by, and such property itself constitutes interests held therein by, nationals of a foreign country (Germany);

7. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and

8. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 6, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

TRADE-MARK "L'OFFRANDE" AND REGISTRATION THEREOF OWNED BY PETER MUELHENS

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that Peter Muelhens, whose last known address is Cologne, Germany, is a national of a foreign country (Germany);

2. Finding that Peter Muelhens is the owner of the property described in subparagraph 3 hereof;

3. Finding therefore that the property described as follows:

The trade-mark registered in the United States Patent Office on March 13, 1923 under the number 165,585 (the title to which stands of record in the name of Peter Muelhens, of Cologne, Germany) and the registration thereof, together with the good will of the business in the United States and all its possessions to which the trade-mark is appurtenant and any and all indicia of such good will (including but not limited to formulae, whether secret or not, secret processes, methods of manufacture and procedure, customers lists, labels, machinery and other equipment) and any interest of any nature whatsoever in, and any rights and claims of every character and description to, said business, good will and trade-mark and registration thereof, including without limitation all accrued royalties payable or held with respect to said trade-mark and all damages and profits recoverable at law or in equity from any person, firm, corporation or government for past infringement thereof, is property in which a national of a foreign country (Germany) has an interest;

4. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described in subparagraph 3 hereof, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

5. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

PATENT INTEREST OF ERNST WEISSE

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that Ernst Weisse is a resident of Berlin-Steglitz, Germany, and a national of a foreign country (Germany);

2. Finding that said Ernst Weisse is the owner of an interest in the patent described in subparagraph 3 hereof;

3. Finding, therefore, that the property described as follows:

All right, title and interest in and to an undivided 3/5ths (60%) interest, which stands of record in the United States Patent Office in the name of Ernst Weisse, in and to United States Letters Patent No. 2,080,352, dated May 11, 1937, Inventor Ernst Weisse, for Optical Instrument, including all accrued royalties and all damages and profits recoverable at law or in equity from any person, firm, corporation or government for past infringement thereof to which the owner of such interest is entitled, is property payable or held with respect to a patent in which an interest is held by, and such property itself constitutes an interest held therein by, a national of a foreign country (Germany);

4. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described in subparagraph 3 hereof, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

5. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

THE RAILWAY AND BUS ASSOCIATES

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 30th day of March, A. D. 1943.

Sale of securities by registered holding company or subsidiary; sale to associate companies or affiliates; Declaration concerning sale of securities to issuing affiliate at substantially the current market price permitted to become effective, the Commission observing no basis for adverse findings. Appearances: David I. Bursten, for the Public Utilities Division of the Commission; Carlos L. Israels, for The Railway and Bus Associates.

The Railway and Bus Associates, an indirect subsidiary of Denis J. Driscoll and Willard L. Thorp, trustees of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation, a registered holding company, has filed a declaration concerning a proposed sale by the declarant to Syracuse Transit Corporation (hereafter referred to as "Syracuse"), an affiliate, of $211,300 principal amount of Syracuse Transit Corporation Thirty-Year Non-cumulative Income Notes, due September 1, 1969. The securities are to be sold at 80, the total consideration amounting to $169,040.

After appropriate notice, a public hearing was held. No member of the public has objected to the proposal.

The acquiring company is also an indirect subsidiary of the Trustees of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation, by reason of the declarant's ownership of 7,845 shares of common stock, which comprises 12.76% of the voting securities of Syracuse.[1] However, an application under section 2 (a) (8) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for an order declaring that the company is not a subsidiary is presently pending before this Commission. Under the provisions of section 2 (a) (8), the filing of such an application in good faith exempts the applicant from any obligation, duty or liability imposed by the Act upon the applicant as a subsidiary until the Commission has acted upon such application.

The net income of Syracuse for the year ended December 31, 1942, amounted to $249,703, which represents a substantial increase over the net incomes for the preceding years. Net income amounted to $153,829 for 1941 and $19,580 for 1940. This large increase may, however, be ascribed to the abnormal conditions created by the war.

The securities being sold are not listed on any securities exchange but are actively traded over-the-counter. The proposed sale is at approximately the present market price, as judged from the over-the-counter sales at the time of the agreement, as well as since that date.

Section 12 (f) of the Act and Rule U-43 promulgated thereunder are applicable to the transaction. In the light of the standards and requirements of section 12 (f) and Rule U-43, we have examined the conditions of the proposed sale, including the consideration to be received, accounts, costs, disclosures of interest, maintenance of competitive conditions, and similar matters; and we observe no basis for adverse findings.

It is therefore ordered, That, pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, the said declaration, as amended, be, and hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith, subject, however, to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 of the General Rules and Regulations.

By the Commission.

WEST TEXAS UTILITIES CO. AND THE MIDDLE WEST CORP.

ORDER EXTENDING TIME FOR PURCHASE OF SECURITIES

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 30th day of March, A.D. 1943.

On January 25, 1943, this Commission, after a public hearing, issued its order with respect to a combined application and declaration, as amended, filed by West Texas Utilities Company and The Middle West Corporation regarding a proposed offer by West Texas Utilities Company to purchase all the outstanding securities of Pecos Valley Power & Light Company. Said application was granted and said declaration was permitted to become effective subject to certain conditions.

The purchase offer became effective January 30, 1943 for a thirty-day period and, at the option of the company, was subsequently extended to and including March 30, 1943. It is represented that at the close of business on March 27, 1943, 92.40% of the outstanding First Mortgage Bonds, 91.03% of the outstanding Income Debentures and 89.94% of the outstanding Common Stock of Pecos Valley Power & Light Company had been deposited pursuant to the terms of said offer.

The offer as made by the applicant provided that West Texas Utilities Company had the right at its option to purchase all securities offered if at least 90% of the principal amount of the bonds, 90% of the principal amount of the debentures and 80% of the shares of common stock of Pecos Valley Power & Light Company were deposited pursuant to such offer. Such percentages having been deposited, West Texas Utilities Company has elected to purchase all the securities deposited.

West Texas Utilities Company has filed its supplemental application requesting an extension of the period within which it may purchase the securities in question to June 30, 1943. The company represents that due to illness, absence in the military service and for other reasons, several holders of the securities of Pecos Valley Power & Light Company are unable to accept the offer and to deposit their securities prior to the expiration date of the offer, and that holders of substantial amounts of the bonds and debentures will deposit their securities pursuant to said offer if the same be extended for a reasonable period.

It appearing appropriate to the Commission that such request be granted for the period from March 30, 1943 to June 30, 1943;

It is ordered, That the period within which West Texas Utilities Company may purchase the outstanding securities of Pecos Valley Power & Light Company be and the same is hereby extended to and including June 30, 1943, subject to the same conditions imposed by our order of January 25, 1943.

By the Commission.

ROCHESTER TRANSIT CORPORATION

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 31st day of March 1943.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration or application (or both) has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Rochester Transit Corporation, an indirect subsidiary of Denis J. Driscoll and Willard L. Thorp, Trustees of the Estate of Associated Gas and Electric Corporation, a registered holding company. All interested persons are referred to said document, which is on file in the office of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Rochester Transit Corporation proposes to expend up to the sum of $200 000 for the purpose of acquiring its Twenty-year Secured 4½% Income Notes, Series A, due September 1, 1958, which acquisition will be accomplished by notice to the holders of said securities to tender them for sale to Rochester Transit Corporation at the office of The Marine Midland Trust Company, as its agent, at 120 Broadway, New York, New York.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said matter, and that said declaration shall not become effective nor said application be granted except pursuant to further order of this Commission;

It is ordered, That a hearing on said matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and rules of the Commission thereunder be held on April 13, 1943, at 10 o'clock a. m., e. w. t., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such day the hearing room clerk in room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held. At such hearing cause shall be shown why such application or declaration (or both) shall become effective or be granted. Notice is hereby given of said hearing to the above named declarant and applicant by registered mail and to all other persons by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard in this proceeding shall file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before April 8, 1943, an appropriate request or application to be heard as provided by Rule XVII of the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of issues presented by said application or declaration (or both) otherwise to be considered in this proceeding, particular attention will be directed in this hearing to the following matters and questions:

1. Whether all actions proposed to be taken comply with the requirements of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and rules, regulations or orders promulgated thereunder.

2. Whether terms and conditions are necessary to be imposed to insure compliance with the provisions of said Act or rules, regulations or orders promulgated thereunder.

By the Commission.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9324

AMENDING THE MANUAL FOR COURTS-MARTIAL, UNITED STATES ARMY (1928)

By virtue of the authority vested in me by Chapter II of the act entitled "An Act to amend an Act entitled 'An Act for making further and more effectual provision for the national defense, and for other purposes,' approved June 3, 1916, and to establish military justice," approved June 4, 1920 (41 Stat. 759, 787), and as President of the United States, the Manual for Courts-Martial, United States Army (1928), hereinafter referred to as the Manual, is hereby amended as follows:

1. The second subparagraph of paragraph 14 of the Manual is amended to read:

"Under the authority of A. W. 13 commissioned officers and persons of equivalent relative or assimilated rank are hereby excepted from the jurisdiction of special courts-martial."

2. The last sentence in the second subparagraph of paragraph 85*a* of the Manual is amended to read:

"These notes may be destroyed after final disposition of the case under A. W. 48, 50½, or 51."

3. Paragraph 87*b* of the Manual is amended by inserting the words "and privates first class" after the words "noncommissioned officers" in the seventh line of the second subparagraph.

4. Paragraph 87*c* of the Manual is amended by striking out the last sentence of the third subparagraph, and by changing the first subparagraph to read:

"c Disposition of record and related matters.—General Court-Martial. The record, with the decisions and orders of the reviewing authority thereon, will be transmitted, ordinarily without letter of transmittal, direct to The Judge Advocate General of the Army. With the record will be forwarded the accompanying papers (see 85), six authenticated copies of the order, if there be any, promulgating the result of the trial, and two signed copies of the review of the staff judge advocate. In cases involving more than one accused an additional copy of the order of promulgation, if any, will be forwarded for each additional accused. This applies equally to cases in which the sentence is suspended under A. W. 51, but where action by a confirming authority other than the President is necessary, the record, etc., will be transmitted to such authority. Where the order of execution is withheld under A. W. 50½, the reviewing authority will, before forwarding the record, take therefrom the data necessary for drafting a general court-martial order, and when

Chapter XI—Food Distribution Administration

[FDO 27, Amendment 1]

PART 1410—LIVESTOCK AND MEATS

PERMIT REQUIRED FOR SLAUGHTER

Pursuant to the provisions of Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and Executive Order No. 9322, dated March 26, 1943, Food Distribution Order 27, § 1410.4 (8 F.R. 2785), issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on March 5, 1943, is amended as follows:

1. By amending the caption of (b) thereof to read as follows:

(b) Permits required for slaughter.

2. By amending (b) (1) thereof to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding the terms of any contract, agreement, or commitment, no person except persons registered pursuant to the provisions of Meat Restriction Order No. 1, as amended,[1] shall slaughter any livestock for delivery of meat unless he has a valid and effective permit issued under this order at the time of such slaughter, except that a farm slaughterer may deliver meat from livestock slaughtered for home consumption, upon obtaining a permit subsequent to such slaughter authorizing such delivery.

3. By amending (e) (9) thereof to read as follows:

(9) The Director may issue regulations authorizing regional, State, or county agencies of the United States Department of Agriculture, including State or county United States Department of Agriculture War Boards, to adjust the quotas for any butcher or farm slaughterer in the following cases:

(i) In any area in which the Director determines that adjustments for butchers or farm slaughterers are needed because the total quantity of meat available is insufficient to fill ration requirements and that the quantity of livestock available for slaughter exceeds the quantity that may be slaughtered within the quotas of all classes of slaughterers, or

(ii) In any instance in which the slaughter of any butcher or farm slaughterer in the corresponding period of 1941 was not normal for him.

4. By adding at the end of (e) thereof the following new provision:

(10) Any person receiving a permit pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this order, as amended, who was not engaged in the business of slaughtering livestock for the entire year of 1941, or who began slaughtering livestock for the purpose of delivering meat after December 31, 1941, and prior to April 1, 1943, and who is not registered as a slaughterer pursuant to the provisions of Meat Restriction Order No. 1, as amended, may be assigned a temporary quota or quota base by the agency issuing the permit pending the establishment of such permanent quota or quota base as the Director may deem just and equitable, upon consideration of (i) the volume of livestock slaughtered by the applicant during the period which he has engaged in business, (ii) the availability of facilities for slaughtering, (iii) the amount of meat necessary for civilian consumption in the area, and (iv) the extent to which his operations may promote the public health and the efficiency of the war effort. No such person shall slaughter any livestock until he has been assigned a temporary or permanent quota or quota base. The temporary or permanent quota or quota base assigned to such person, together with a consideration of any facts disclosing whether such person is chiefly engaged in producing agricultural products as a resident operator of a farm, shall determine whether he shall be classed as a local slaughterer, butcher, or farm slaughterer for the purposes of Food Distribution Order 27, as amended.

This order shall become effective at 12:00 o'clock midnight on March 31, 1943.

PART 1465—FISH AND SHELLFISH

RESTRICTIONS ON THE SALE OF SPECIFIED CANNED FISH AND CANNED SHELLFISH

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and in order to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of canned fish and canned shellfish to meet war and essential civilian needs, It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1465.20 Allocation and restriction on sales of 1943 pack of canned fish and canned shellfish—(a) Definitions. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) The term "canner" means any person engaged in the business of canning fish or canning shellfish in hermetically sealed metal or glass containers and sterilizing the same by the use of heat.

(2) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity.

(3) The term "pack" means the total amount, by net weight, of all grades of fish and shellfish enumerated in groups 1 to 9, inclusive, in (b) (1) hereof, packed by any canner during the period from April 1, 1943, to February 29, 1944, inclusive.

(4) The term "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by the Director.

(5) The term "governmental agency" means the Food Distribution Administration or any other agency or instrumentality of the United States designated by the Director.

(6) The term "delivery to governmental agencies" means the transfer of title of the canned fish or canned shellfish to any governmental agency; and such delivery may be evidenced by execution of bill of lading, receipt, or other document acceptable to the Director or the designated governmental agency.

(b) Restrictions on canners. (1) No canner after April 1, 1943, may sell or deliver any part of his pack of the fish and shellfish, enumerated in this paragraph, packed by the respective canner at any time from April 1, 1943, to February 29, 1944, inclusive, except as permitted by the provisions of this order. The fish and shellfish, included in this order, are, by groups, as follows:

Group 1—Salmon: Red, sockeye or blueback (Oncorhynchus nerka); Pink (Oncorhynchus gorbuscha); Silver, silverside, medium red, or coho (Oncorhynchus kisutch); Chum or keta (Oncorhynchus keta); King, chinook or spring (Oncorhynchus tschawytscha); Steelhead, or steelhead trout (Salmo irideus and S. Clarki, sometimes called S. Gairdneri).

Group 2—Pilchard: Sardinia caerulea, by whatever name known, including sardines.

Group 3—Sea herring: Atlantic (Clupea harengus), by whatever name known, including sardines.

Group 4—Mackerel: Atlantic (Scomber scombrus); Pacific (Pneumatorphorus japonicus diego).

Group 5—Horse mackerel: Pacific (Trachurus symmetricus).

Group 6—Shrimp: (Peneus setiferus and Peneus brasiliensis).

Group 7—Tuna: Albacore, or white-meat (Germo alalunga); Yellowfin, or light-meat (Neothunnus macropterus); Skip jack, or striped (Katsuwonus pelamis, sometimes called Euthynnus pelamis); Bluefin, or leaping (Thunnus thynnus, sometimes called Thunnus saliens).

Group 8—Yellowtail: (Seriola dorsalis).

Group 9—Bonito: (Sarda chiliensis).

(2) Each canner may deliver to governmental agencies the quotas, but not in excess of such quotas specified in (b) (3) hereof, of the canned fish and canned shellfish, listed in (b) (1) hereof, packed at any time by such canner during the period from April 1, 1943, to February 29, 1944, inclusive.

(3) The following percentages by net weight are hereby established as each canner's quota percentages for sale to governmental agencies, of his pack of each species of fish and shellfish enumerated, by groups, in (b) (1) hereof, packed by such canner:

55 percent of each of the groups 1 to 6, inclusive; and 60 percent of each of the groups 7 to 9, inclusive.

(4) The Food Distribution Administration is hereby allocated the quantities prescribed in (b) (3) of this order, and authorized to purchase, for governmental requirements, those quantities, designated as each canner's quota, and such other and further quantities as may be allocated to it from time to time.

(5) Any canner who, during any period from April 1, 1943, to February 29, 1944, inclusive, has delivered to governmental agencies the quota of his pack, stated in (b) (3) hereof, of any species of any group of canned fish and canned shellfish listed in (b) (1) hereof, may deliver to persons other than governmental agencies the remainder of his pack of such species, packed in that period; and such remainder of the pack may be delivered by such canner in advance of delivery of his quota to governmental agencies if so authorized by the Director.

(6) The Director may issue specifications at any time as to the packing of the canned fish or canned shellfish, the containers, container treatment, can marking, labeling, boxing, and strapping in connection therewith, or he may authorize any governmental agency to issue such specifications. Any person subject to the provisions of this order shall comply with any such specification, issued by the Director or authorized governmental agency, applicable to the canned fish or canned shellfish processed by such person.

(c) Inspection and grading. Any canned fish and canned shellfish required to be set aside under this order shall be subject to inspection and grading at any time by the Director or any governmental agency.

(d) Records and reports. Every person subject to this order shall maintain such records for at least two years (or for such other periods of time as the Director may designate), and shall execute and file such reports upon such forms and submit such information as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and within such times as he may prescribe, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget, pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(e) Audits and inspections. Every person subject to this order shall, upon request, permit inspections by the Director, at all reasonable times, of his stocks of canned fish and canned shellfish and premises used in his business, and all of his books, records, and accounts shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by the Director.

(f) Applicability of order. Any person doing business in one or more of the 48 States, the District of Columbia, or the Territory of Alaska, is subject to the provisions hereof, but the provisions hereof shall not apply to any person doing business in any other Territory or Possession of the United States with respect to such business.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order or wilfully conceals a material fact concerning a matter within the jurisdiction of any Department or agency of the United States may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of any material subject to allocation; and such further action may be taken against him as the Director deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 80), under paragraph 5 of section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all other applicable laws.

(h) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may petition in writing (in triplicate) for relief to the Director, setting forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate, and such action shall be final.

(i) Communications to the Department of Agriculture. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. Ref. FD–44.

(j) Effective date. This order shall take effect on April 1, 1943.

(E.O. 9280, 7 F.R. 10179)

Issued this 1st day of April 1943.

PART 1491—BEANS AND PEAS

RESTRICTIONS ON THE SALE OR DISTRIBUTION OF BEANS, PEAS, AND SPLIT-PEAS

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and in order to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of beans, peas, and split-peas to meet war and essential civilian needs, It is hereby ordered, as follows:

§ 1491.1 Restrictions on sales and distribution of beans, peas, and split-peas—(a) Definitions. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) The term "beans" means dry threshed beans of the following classes, as defined in the United States Standards for Beans, as revised, effective September 1, 1941: Pea beans; Great Northern beans; Small White beans; Flat Small White beans; Light Red Kidney beans; Dark Red Kidney beans; Western Red Kidney beans; Cranberry beans; Small Red beans; Pink beans; Pinto beans; Baby Lima beans; and Lima beans.

(2) The term "peas" means dry threshed peas of the following classes, as defined in the United States Standards for Dry Peas, as revised, effective July 20, 1937: Alaska; Scotch Green; White Canada; First and Best; and Marrowfat.

(3) The term "split-peas" means split-peas of the following classes, as defined in the United States Standards for Split-peas, effective August 10, 1937: Green split-peas and Yellow split-peas.

(4) The term "producer" means any person who grows or produces beans or peas for his own account or for the joint account of himself and another.

(5) The term "first owner" means (i) any person who owns, on the effective date hereof, beans, peas, and split-peas, in an amount exceeding 10,000 pounds, which he has purchased from a producer or producers; and (ii) with respect to beans, peas, or split-peas acquired during any calendar month after the effective date hereof, a person shall, during any calendar month, be a "first owner" if his purchases or sales of beans, peas, and split-peas, during the respective calendar month, exceeds 5,000 pounds.

(6) The term "processor" means any person who cleans, polishes, splits, or otherwise processes or prepares beans, peas, or split-peas for sale or delivery in the dry uncooked state, whether for his own account or the joint account of himself and another; and such includes, but is not necessarily limited to, producer cooperatives and associations, but does not include commission merchants or brokers who do not acquire title in or to the beans, peas, or split-peas thus handled. A person shall not, however, be considered as a "processor" during the calendar month of April 1943, unless his purchases or sales during March 1943 exceeded 5,000 pounds of beans, peas, and split-peas; and with respect to beans, peas, or split-peas acquired during any calendar month after April, 1943, a person shall, during any such calendar month, be considered as a "processor" only if his purchases or sales of beans, peas, and split-peas, during the respective calendar month, exceeds 5,000 pounds.

(7) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity.

(8) The term "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by the Director.

(9) The term "governmental agency" means the Food Distribution Administration, the Army, the Navy, the Marine Corps, the Coast Guard, the Veterans Administration, the War Shipping Administration, or any other agency or instrumentality of the United States designated by the Director.

(b) Restrictions on processors and first owners. (1) Each processor and first owner, respectively shall set aside and hold for delivery to a governmental agency at least 55 percent of all beans of each of the classes listed in (a) (1) hereof as to which he is or becomes the processor or first owner during each respective calendar month.

(2) Each processor and first owner, respectively, shall set aside and hold for delivery to a governmental agency at least 60 percent of all peas of each of the classes listed in (a) (2) hereof as to which he is or becomes the processor or first owner during each resspective calendar month.

(3) Each processor and first owner, respectively, shall set aside and hold for delivery to a governmental agency at least 60 percent of all split-peas of each of the classes listed in (a) (3) hereof as to which he is or becomes the processor or first owner during the first calendar month after the effective date of this order.

(4) The beans, peas, or split-peas, respectively, set aside pursuant to the provisions hereof shall be of U. S. No. 2 grade or better, as specified in the United States Standards for the respective commodity.

(5) The beans, peas, or split-peas set aside pursuant to the provisions hereof may be offered for sale by the processor or first owner at no more than the ceiling price or ceiling prices established by the Office of Price Administration, to a governmental agency in response to announcements or notices issued by such agency to the effect that offers for the beans, peas, or split-peas will be received on specified dates.

(6) The restrictions hereof shall be observed without regard to the rights of creditors, prior contracts, existing contracts, payments made, or deliveries of beans, peas, or split-peas made prior to the effective date hereof. This order shall not, however, be construed as reducing the amount of beans, peas, or split-peas which any person is required to offer or to deliver under any existing contract made with a governmental agency, but any quantity of a particular class of beans, peas, or split-peas required to be delivered, after the effective date of this order, to any governmental agency pursuant to a contract, entered into prior to the effective date hereof, shall be allowed as a credit to such person in determining the quantity of the respective class of beans, peas, or split-peas required to be offered to a governmental agency pursuant to the provisions hereof.

(7) Seed beans and peas excepted. Nothing herein shall be construed as applying to beans and peas sold and delivered on or before June 30, 1943, exclusively for seed purposes, in compliance with State and Federal seed laws.

(c) Records and reports. Every person subject to this order shall maintain such records for at least two years (or for such other periods of time as the Director may designate), and shall execute and file such reports upon such forms and submit such information as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and within such times as he may prescribe, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget, pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(d) Audits and inspections. Every person subject to this order shall, upon request, permit inspections by the Director, at all reasonable times, of his stocks of beans, peas, and split-peas, respectively, and the premises used in his business, and all of his books, records, and accounts shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by the Director.

(e) Applicability of order. Any person doing business in one or more of the 48 States or the District of Columbia is subject to the provisions hereof, but the provisions hereof shall not apply to any person doing business in any Territory or Possession of the United States with respect to such business.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order or wilfully conceals a material fact concerning a matter within the jurisdiction of any Department or agency of the United States may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of any material subject to allocation; and such further action may be taken against him as the Director deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under Section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 USC 1940 ed. 80), under Paragraph 5 of section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all applicable laws.

(g) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may petition in writing (in triplicate) for relief to the Director, setting forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate, and such action shall be final.

(h) Communications to the Department of Agriculture. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. Ref. FD 45.

(i) Delegation of authority. The Director is hereby designated to administer the provisions hereof.

(j) Effective date. This order shall take effect on April 1, 1943.

PART 1460—FATS AND OILS

COCOANUT, BABASSU, AND PALM KERNEL OILS SET ASIDE

Pursuant to the provisions of Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and Executive Order No. 9322, dated March 26, 1943, and to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of cocoanut, babassu, and palm kernel oils to meet war and essential civilian needs, It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1460.11 Cocoanut, Babassu and Palm Kernel Oils; required to be set aside—(a) Definitions. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) The term "cocoanut, babassu, and palm kernel oils" means crude, refined, bleached, or deodorized cocoanut, babassu, and palm kernel oils and the content of such oils in mixtures, blends, fatty acids, and soap stocks of which such oils are a part, as well as the fatty acids of such oils in mixtures or blends of fatty acids, and soap stocks.

(2) The term "oil bearing materials" means copra and other seeds and nuts from which cocoanut, babassu, and palm kernel oils are obtained.

(3) The term "import" means to bring into the continental United States. An importation with respect to any cocoanut, babassu, and palm kernel oils or by the provisions of AR 410–5.' (R.S. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b)

4. That chicks from each of respond-importation with respect to any cocoanut, babassu, and palm kernel oils, or oil bearing materials, shall be deemed to have been completed upon the physical discharge of such oils or oil bearing materials from a vessel at a continental United States port, or the arrival of such oils or oil bearing materials in the continental United States by rail or otherwise.

(4) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity.

(5) The term "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by such Director.

(b) Withholding of cocoanut, babassu, and palm kernel oils. (1) Every person who, after the effective date of this order, shall import cocoanut, babassu, or palm kernel oils, in the form of oil or contained in oil bearing materials, shall set aside and hold intact 25% of such imports.

(2) No person shall use, put in process, sell, or deliver all or any part of the inventory or imports required to be set aside and held intact pursuant to paragraphs (b) (1) or (3) hereof, or Supplementary Order M-60-a, of the War Production Board (7 F.R. 7311), except on express instruction of the Director or as provided in paragraphs (b) (3), (b) (4), or (b) (5) hereof.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (b) (1) and (b) (2) hereof, any consignee of cocoanut, babassu, and palm kernel oils and oil bearing materials imported into the United States may deliver all of such oils or oil bearing materials to any person who contracted to purchase such oils or oil bearing materials prior to their importation. The person receiving such oils or oil bearing materials shall reserve 25% thereof as provided in paragraph (b) (1) hereof.

(4) Nothing contained in paragraphs (b) (1) and (b) (2) hereof shall prevent any person from selling all or any part of his reserved oils to the Commodity Credit Corporation.

(5) Oil required to be set aside shall be reserved, insofar as possible, in the form of crude whole oil; if the oil reserved cannot be set aside in the form of crude whole oil, it shall be set aside in the form of refined, bleached, or deodorized whole oil which has not been further processed by pressing or hydrogenation. Holders of oil bearing materials who do not have sufficient crude whole oil or refined oil as heretofore described shall crush (or have crushed) sufficient oil bearing materials to furnish the necessary reserve in the form of crude oil.

(6) The restrictions of this order concerning the use, processing, sale, and delivery of cocoanut, babassu, and palm kernel oils and oil bearing materials shall be observed without regard to existing contracts or any rights accrued or payments made thereunder.

(c) Intra-company transactions. The prohibitions or restrictions contained in this order with respect to deliveries shall, in the absence of a contrary direction, apply not only to deliveries to other persons, including affiliates and subsidiaries, but also to deliveries from one branch, division, or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division, or section of the same or any other enterprise owned or controlled by the same person.

(d) Records and resports. (1) Each person who, by reason of paragraphs (b) (1) or (b) (3) hereof or Supplementary Order M-60-a of the War Production Board (7 F.R. 7311), is, or was, required to set aside a portion of his inventory or imports of cocoanut, babassu, and palm kernel oils and oil bearing materials shall file a report with the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, setting forth the amount, grades, and location of such inventory or imports and the amount, grades, and location of the oils and oil bearing materials set aside by him. Such a report with respect to inventories or imports set aside pursuant to Supplementary Order M-60-a, shall be filed within 10 days after the effective date of this order. The report required hereunder with respect to oils or oil bearing materials set aside pursuant to paragraph (b) (1) hereof, shall be filed within 10 days after such oils or oil bearing materials are imported, and the report required with respect to oils or oil bearing materials set aside pursuant to paragraph (b) (3) hereof, shall be filed within 10 days after such oils or oil bearing materials are delivered by the consignee to the person contracting for the purchase of such oils or oil bearing materials prior to their importation.

(2) Every person subject to this order shall maintain such records for at least two years (or for such other periods of time as the Director may designate) and shall execute and file such reports upon such forms and submit such information as the Director may from time to time request or direct, and within such times as he may prescribe.

(e) Bureau of the Budget approval. The reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942. Subsequent specific record-keeping or reporting requirements by the Director will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(f) Audits and inspections. Every person subject to this order shall, upon request, permit inspections, at all reasonable times, of his stocks of cocoanut, babassu, and palm kernel oils, and oil bearing materials and premises used in his business, and all of his books, records, and accounts shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by the Director.

(g) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may petition in writing (in triplicate) for relief to the Director, setting forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate, and such action shall be final.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order or wilfully conceals a material fact concerning a matter within the jurisdiction of any Department or agency of the United States may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of any material subject to allocation; and such further action may be taken against him as the Director deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 80), under paragraph 5 of section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all other applicable laws.

(i) Communications to Department of Agriculture. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. Ref: FD 46.

(j) War Production Board Supplementary Order M-60-a superseded. This order supersedes in all respects Supplementary Order M-60-a, issued by the War Production Board, except that as to violations of said order or rights accrued, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken under said order prior to the effective date hereof, said Supplementary Order M-60-a, shall be deemed in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, or liability. Any appeal pending under said Supplementary Order M-60-a shall be considered under paragraph (g) hereof.

(k) Territorial extent. This order applies to all persons in the United States, its territories and possessions, and the District of Columbia.

(l) Effective date. This order shall be effective on April 1, 1943, 12:01 a. m., e. w. t.

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of March, A. D., 1943.

In the Matter of John F. Erdley, an Individual Trading as Erdley Hatcheries, and Montgomery Ward & Company, a Corporation

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of respondent John F. Erdley (no answer having been filed by respondent Montgomery Ward & Company), testimony and other evidence in support of and in opposition to the allegations of the complaint taken before a trial examiner of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, report of the trial examiner upon the evidence, and brief in support of the complaint (no brief having been filed by respondents and oral argument not having been requested); and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that the respondents have violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That respondent John F. Erdley, individually and trading as Erdley Hatcheries, or trading under any other name, and his agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of respondent's baby chicks in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from representing, directly or by implication:

1. That respondent is a member of the Colorado Poultry Improvement Board, or is participating in the National Poultry Improvement Plan, when such is not the fact.

2. That respondent's hatchery is approved by the United States Government, or that respondent's baby chicks are hatched from eggs produced by a flock approved by the United States Government, when such is not the fact.

3. That respondent's baby chicks are "check tested," unless adequate check tests are in fact made.

4. That chicks from each of respondent's parent flocks are brooder tested for health and livability, when such is not the fact.

It is further ordered, That respondent Montgomery Ward & Company, a corporation, and its officers, agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of respondent's baby chicks in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from representing, directly or by implication:

That respondent's baby chicks are from flocks approved by the United States Government, or that they are hatched in hatcheries approved by the United States Government, when such is not the fact.

It is further ordered, That the respondents shall within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

By the Commission.

TITLE 20—EMPLOYEES' BENEFITS

Chapter I—United States Employees' Compensation Commission

Subchapter E—Extension of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act to Persons Engaged in Employment at Military, Air and Naval Bases, Upon Lands Occupied and Used for Military or Naval Purposes, or Under Public Works Contracts, Outside Continental United States

REVISION OF SUBCHAPTER

PART 51—GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

Sec.
51.1 General administrative provisions.
51.2 Establishment of compensation districts.
51.3 Establishment of sub-offices; filing of reports, notices, claims, and other papers.
51.4 Prehearing conferences.
51.5 Commutation of payments in cases of aliens and non-nationals of the United States.

AUTHORITY: §§ 51.1 to 51.5, inclusive, issued under sec. 39 of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, 44 Stat. 1442; 33 U.S.C. 939, as made applicable to military, air and naval bases outside the United States by the Act of August 16, 1941, Pub. Law 208, 77th Cong., as amended by the Act of December 2, 1942, Pub. Law 784, 77th Cong.

§ 51.1 General administrative provisions. (a) Except as herein modified, the regulations in Subchapter C of this chapter, governing the administration of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (44 Stat. 1424; 33 U.S.C. Chapter 18), shall so far as not inapplicable govern the administration of Public Law No. 208, 77th Congress, approved August 16, 1941, as amended (42 U.S.C. 1651; 55 Stat. 622), extending the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act to persons engaged in employment at military, air, and naval bases, upon lands occupied and used for military or naval purposes, or under public works contracts, outside continental United States, and every person subject to, claiming benefits under, or acting under, the said Public Law, as amended, shall conform to the procedure prescribed in the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act and in the regulations under Subchapter C and this subchapter. The term "Commission" as used in this subchapter means the United States Employees' Compensation Commission.

(b) The said Public Law No. 208, as amended, applies in respect to the injury or death of any employee engaged in any employment (1) at any military, air, or naval base acquired after January 1, 1940, by the United States from any foreign government; or (2) upon any lands occupied or used by the United States for military or naval purposes in any Territory or possession outside the continental United States (including Alaska; the Philippine Islands; the United States Naval Operating Base, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba; and the Canal Zone); or (3) upon any public work in any Territory or possession outside the continental United States (including Alaska; the Philippine Islands; the United States Naval Operating Base, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba; and the Canal Zone), if the employee is engaged in employment at such place under the contract of a contractor (or any subcontractor or subordinate contractor with respect to the contract of such contractor) with the United States (but excluding any employee of such contractor or subcontractor who is engaged exclusively in furnishing materials or supplies under his contract); or (4) under a contract entered into with the United States or any executive department, independent establishment, or agency thereof (including any corporate instrumentality of the United States), or any subcontract or subordinate contract with respect to such contract, where such contract is to be performed outside the continental United States and at places not within the areas above described under (1), (2) and (3), for the purpose of engaging in public work (but excluding any employee of such contractor or subcontractor who is engaged exclusively in furnishing materials or supplies under his contract). Such Public Law, as amended, applies with respect to injuries occurring during employment at such places, irrespective of the place where the injury or death occurs, and includes any injury or death occurring to any such employee during transportation to or from his place of employment, where the employer or the United States provides the transportation or the cost thereof.

(c) The term "public work" as used in (3) and (4), paragraph (b) of this section means any fixed improvement or any project involving construction, alteration, removal, or repair for public use of the United States or its Allies, including but not limited to projects in connection with the war effort, dredging, harbor improvements, dams, roadways, and housing, as well as preparatory and ancillary work in connection therewith at the site or on the project. A "contractor," as used in the same reference, means any individual, partnership, corporation, or association, and includes any trustee, receiver, assignee, successor, or personal representative thereof.

(d) The said Public Law, as amended, does not apply in respect to the injury or death of (1) an employee subject to the provisions of the Act entitled "An Act to provide compensation for employees of the United States suffering injuries while in the performance of their duties, and for other purposes", approved September 7, 1916 (39 Stat. 742; 5 U.S.C. 751–793), as amended; (2) an employee engaged in agriculture, domestic service, or any employment that is casual and not in the usual course of the trade, business, or profession of the employer; or (3) a master or member of a crew of any vessel. (Certain other exclusions with respect to any employee of a contractor, engaged exclusively in furnishing materials or supplies, are referred to under (3) and (4), paragraph (b) of this section.)

§ 51.2 Establishment of compensation districts. (a) Pursuant to the provisions of section 39 (b) of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (44 Stat. 1442; 33 U.S.C. 939 (b)) and section 3 (a) of said Act of August 16, 1941 (Public Law 208, 77th Congress), as amended, the Commission hereby establishes the following compensation districts and extends the following existing compensation districts established under the regulations in § 31.2, Subchapter C, of this chapter:

(1) Caribbean District. This district comprises the West Indies, Central and South America, and the Canal Zone, with headquarters at San Juan, Puerto Rico.

(2) Pacific District. This district comprises all land areas in the Pacific Ocean south of the 45th degree north latitude, with headquarters at Honolulu, T. H.

(3) Foreign District. This district comprises the areas outside continental United States not included in any compensation district herein established, with headquarters at New York, N. Y.

(4) District No. 1. This district as established under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act is extended to include Canada east of the 75th degree west longitude, Newfoundland and Greenland, with headquarters at Boston, Massachusetts.

(5) District No. 2. This district as established under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act is extended to include Bermuda, with headquarters at New York, N. Y.

(6) District No. 10. This district as established under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act is extended to include Canada west of the 75th degree and east of the 110th degree west longitude, with headquarters at Chicago, Illinois.

(7) District No. 14. This district as established under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act is extended to include all land areas in the Pacific Ocean north of the 45th degree north latitude, Canada west of the 110th degree west longitude, and Alaska, with headquarters at Seattle, Washington.

(b) In the administration of such Act of August 16, 1941 (Public Law No. 208, 77th Congress), as amended, and as administrative exigencies from time to time require, the Commission by administrative order may establish areas outside the United States (or change or modify any areas so established), whether or not they are included within an established compensation district, designating them as "jurisdictional areas", and include such areas within the jurisdiction of any compensation district, and the deputy commissioner thereof, as established by paragraph (a) hereof, or as established by § 31.2 of the regulations in Subchapter C of this chapter, for the administration of such Public Law by the deputy commissioner.

§ 51.3 Establishment of sub-offices: filing of reports, notices, claims, and other papers. (a) As administrative exigencies from time to time require, the Commission may by administrative order establish within compensation districts (or jurisdictional areas of such districts) under said Act of August 16, 1941, as amended, a sub-office or sub-offices in each such district (or area thereof), to be in charge of an assistant deputy commissioner, claims examiner or other designated person, who shall be under the administrative supervision of the deputy commissioner for the particular compensation district.

(b) Where a sub-office or sub-offices have been established by the Commission pursuant to this section, report by the employer of injury or death, notice of injury or death, claim for compensation, and application for review of a compensation case as required, respectively, under §§ 31.3, 31.4, 31.5 and 31.15 of the regulations in Subchapter C of this chapter, together with all correspondence and supplementary or other reports relative thereto, in a case arising within the area served by such sub-office, may be filed at the sub-office of the deputy commissioner for such place. Reports in cases arising at other places within a compensation district or jurisdictional area of such district may be filed with the deputy commissioner in charge thereof, at his headquarters.

(c) The files in individual cases arising within the area served by any such sub-office of the deputy commissioner shall remain at the sub-office until the case is closed, final action is taken, or the employee is transferred, after which they shall be sent to the headquarters of the deputy commissioner. All applications pertaining to benefits and other moving papers may be filed in such sub-office, if the case is pending in such sub-office, unless otherwise directed by the deputy commissioners. (Sec. 19 (a), 44 Stat. 1435; 33 U.S.C. 919 (a))

§ 51.4 Prehearing conferences. (a) In order to expedite and simplify formal administrative proceedings, in all cases in which there are issues of fact or law, and, whenever practicable, no formal hearings will be set until after prehearing conferences. Such conferences may be held by the deputy commissioner, assistant deputy commissioner, a claims examiner or other person designated for such purpose by the deputy commissioner or the assistant deputy commissioner.

(b) The purposes of such prehearing conferences are (1) amicably to dispose of controversies wherever possible; (2) to narrow issues; and (3) to simplify the subsequent methods of proof.

(c) Prehearing conferences may be set upon ten days' notice to the parties in interest (or a longer period if the circumstances require, or shorter period if agreed upon by the parties). They shall be kept characteristically informal, and shall not be stenographically reported. It shall be the duty of the deputy commissioner, assistant deputy commissioner, claim examiner or other person in charge of the conference to guide the discussion toward the achievement of the purposes of such conference, giving the parties the benefit of his specialized knowledge and experience.

(d) At the termination of such conferences the person in charge thereof shall prepare stipulations, for the signatures of the parties, covering agreements as to all or part of the facts, admissions, narrowing of issues, or simplification of methods of proof. Such stipulations when signed by the parties in interest shall be made and become part of the formal record of the case. Where stipulations relate to evidence to be used at a later formal hearing, such evidence may then be received as such evidence and appropriately identified by marking such evidence, respectively, as claimant's or respondents' exhibits, consecutively numbered in each respect. At the termination of such a conference, the person in charge thereof shall prepare for the file in the case a memorandum setting forth the purpose for which the conference was held, the matters discussed and the results achieved. Should a conference terminate without complete achievement of the purpose thereof, and the remaining issue or issues be of such character as not to present a difficult basis for adjustment by amicable agreement of the interested parties, the person in charge, after review of the record of the case, may by letter addressed to the parties in interest make his recommendation to dispose of the matter in controversy, setting a date for reply thereto. Every such letter should advise the interested parties that the purpose thereof is to recommend a basis for agreement, upon such issue or issues, as appears from review of the information contained in the current record of the case, and that such recommendation is not a "decision" in the case and will not affect or prejudice the rights of any party, or the further adjustment of the case, should the recommendation not be accepted by such parties and a later hearing be found necessary. (Sec. 23 (b), 44 Stat. 1437; 33 U.S.C. 923 (b))

§ 51.5 Commutation of payments in cases of aliens and non-nationals of the United States. Applications under section 2 (b) of the said Act of August 16, 1941, as amended, for commutation of future installments of compensation payable to aliens and non-nationals of the United States, not residents of the United States or Canada, shall be made to the deputy commissioner, who shall in turn transmit such applications promptly to the Commission. Such commutation shall be made as of the date such application is received by the office of the deputy commissioner, whether addressed to him at his headquarters or at a sub-office within his district, or such later date as the application may show to be proper. No such commutation shall be made except upon the basis of a compensation order fixing the right of the beneficiary to compensation.

PART 52—AUTHORIZATION OF INSURANCE CARRIERS

Sec.
52.1 Applicants currently authorized to write insurance under other Federal workmen's compensation laws.
52.2 Workmen's compensation endorsement.
52.3 Report by carrier of issuance of policy or endorsement; form.
52.4 Report; by whom sent.
52.5 Agreement to be bound by card report.
52.6 Report by employer operating temporarily in another compensation district.
52.7 Name of one employer only shall be reported on one card.

AUTHORITY: §§ 52.1 to 52.7, inclusive, issued under sec. 39 of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, 44 Stat. 1442; 33 U.S.C. 939, as made applicable to military, air, and naval bases outside the United States by the Act of August 16, 1941, Pub. Law 208, 77th Cong., as amended by the Act of December 2, 1942, Pub. Law 784, 77th Cong.

§ 52.1 Applicants currently authorized to write insurance under other Federal workmen's compensation laws. Any applicant currently authorized by the Commission to write insurance under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (44 Stat. 1424; 33 U.S.C. Chapter 18) or under the District of Columbia workmen's compensation law (45 Stat. 600; 19 D.C. Code, 11, 12) need not support its application with the evidence required by the regulations in Part 32, Subchapter C of this chapter, except the form of policy and endorsement which it proposes to use, unless specifically requested by the Commission, but instead its application may refer to the fact that it has been so authorized.

§ 52.2 Workmen's compensation endorsement. (a) The following form of endorsement applicable to the standard workmen's compensation and employers' liability policy shall be used with the form of policy approved by the Commission for use by an authorized carrier:

For attachment to Policy No. ———.

The obligations of paragraph one (a) of the Policy include the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, being Public Law No. 803 of the 69th Congress, approved March 4, 1927, as extended by the provisions of the Act of Congress providing compensation for disability or death resulting from injury to persons employed at military, air, and naval bases and at certain other places, being Public Law No. 208 of the 77th Congress, approved August 16, 1941, and all laws amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto which may be or become effective while this policy is in force.

The Company will carry out the provisions of section 35 of said Act. Insolvency or bankruptcy of the employer and/or discharge therein shall not relieve the Company from payment of compensation and other benefits lawfully due for disability or death sustained by an employee during the life of the policy.

The Company agrees to abide by all the provisions of this Act and all lawful rules, regulations, orders, and decisions of the United States Employees' Compensation Commission and of the deputy commissioner, having jurisdiction, unless and until set aside, modified, or reversed by a court having jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter.

This endorsement shall not be canceled prior to the date specified in this policy for its expiration until at least thirty days have elapsed after a notice of cancelation has been sent to the Commission, to the Deputy Commissioner, and to this employer.

All terms, conditions, requirements, and obligations expressed in this policy or in any other endorsement attached thereto which are not inconsistent with or inapplicable to the provisions of this endorsement are hereby made a part of this endorsement as fully and completely as if wholly written herein.

References to the law of any State in Conditions B and D of this policy are hereby declared to include for the purpose of this endorsement only, the provisions of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act and the said Act of Congress approved August 16, 1941 (Public Law No. 208, 77th Congress), as amended.

(b) The following paragraphs may at the option of the insurer be included in the form of endorsement which is provided above. No other provision, alteration of any prescribed provision, or alteration of any optional provision shall be made or used in any such endorsement except after submission to the Commission and its specific approval thereof.

If this employer is a contractor the subject of whose contract includes operations covered by this policy and he shall sub-contract all or any part of such contract to one or more sub-contractors, the remuneration of all the direct employees of all such sub-contractors shall be included in the return of remuneration under the provisions of this policy upon which premium is computed. Such remuneration so reported shall be considered the remuneration of employees of this employer and shall in all instances be governed by the same terms, conditions, requirements, and obligations of the policy as the remuneration of the direct employees of this employer. The requirements of this paragraph shall not apply as respects any such sub-contractor who has secured compensation for his direct employees as required by the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, but this employer shall not claim the benefit of this exemption unless and until he shall satisfy the company by certificate or otherwise that any such sub-contractor has legally secured the payment of compensation to his own direct employees and then only respecting any sub-contractor who has furnished such proof.

If the premium as determined in accordance with the provisions of the policy is less than $300, there shall be added thereto an expense constant of $10, unless such addition shall increase the premium to an amount in excess of $300, in which event only such part of the expense constant shall be added as will bring the amount of the

be added as will bring the amount of the premium up to $300. Inclusion of the expense constant or any part thereof in the estimated advance premium is subject to final adjustment upon audit, all in accordance with the provisions hereof. The minimum premium of the policy includes the expense constant.

(c) In applying the regulations in Part 32 Subchapter C of this chapter as the regulations issued under this subchapter, all references to the Longshoremen's endorsement shall be construed as having reference to the workmen's compensation endorsement prescribed herein.

§ 52.3 Report by carrier of issuance of policy or endorsement; form. (a) A carrier which has executed the agreement provided for in § 52.5 shall report to the deputy commissioner assigned to a compensation district each policy and endorsement issued by it to an employer who carries on operations in such compensation district. The report shall be made upon a printed card to be provided by such carrier. Such card shall be 50 percent rag, light yellow, light weight, and 3 by 5 inches. The printing thereon shall be as follows:

Employer _____
Address _____
Policy No. Dates of beginning and expiration

Report is made of the issue of approved form of policy and endorsement under Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, as extended to military, air and naval bases and other places by the Act of August 16, 1941, as amended.

_____ Insurance Company
By _____
Cancellation _____ _____
Effective date Date notice received by deputy

This card shall be sent to the Deputy Commissioner of the United States Employees' Compensation Commission for the compensation district indicated by the Employer's address.

(b) Each such carrier will print its name at the place indicated. The note at the bottom designating the place to which the card shall be sent should be in small type, about 6 point, and if desired this designation may be printed on the back of the card. The space below the word "employer" should be sufficient to allow two additional lines of typewriting and space should be left to allow two additional lines for typing below the word "address". The word "employer" should be about ¾ of an inch from the top margin. The line for cancellation date will be filled in only by the office of the deputy commissioner.

§ 52.4 Report; by whom sent. The report of issuance of a policy and endorsement provided for in § 52.3 shall be sent by the home office of the carrier to the deputy commissioner at his headquarters, except that any carrier may authorize its agency or agencies in any compensation district to make such reports to the deputy commissioner, provided the carrier shall notify the deputy commissioner in such district of the agent or agencies so duly authorized. The deputy commissioner in turn shall supply to his sub-offices current lists showing the policies so reported, giving the names and addresses of the employers, with the names of their respective carriers, the policy numbers and the dates of beginning and expiration of the policies. Similar current lists of cancelations shall also be furnished to sub-offices.

§ 52.5 Agreement to be bound by card reports. (a) Except as provided in this section, each employer shall present to the deputy commissioner in the compensation district in which he has operations, the policy which he has procured in compliance with section 32 of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (44 Stat. 1439; 33 U.S.C. 932), as extended by the Act of August 16, 1941, as amended, covering his operations in such district. Any carrier desiring to do so may make such presentation of such policy unnecessary in any particular case by transmitting to the Commission an agreement signed by its President and Secretary (or other authorized officers in cases of foreign or mutual companies or State funds), in the following form, and making reports, accordingly, of the issuance of a policy in such particular case:

The _____ Insurance Company hereby agrees, in consideration of the acceptance by the United States Employees' Compensation Commission and its deputy commissioners of reports of issue of approved form of policy and endorsement under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act as extended to military, air and naval bases and other places by the Act of August 16, 1941 (Public Law 208, 77th Congress), as amended, in the form prescribed by the Commission in § 52.3 of its regulations, that it will be liable, and hereby accepts the full liability expressed in the approved form of endorsement, under said law in all cases in which it has heretofore and may hereafter use the prescribed form of report to deputy commissioners and transmit the same to the proper deputy commissioner; the sending of such report of issue of policy to the deputy commissioner shall be accepted by the Commission and its deputy commissioners as conclusive evidence (1) of the issuance of a policy to the employer named in such report under the Act of August 16, 1941, as amended, in approved form and having attached an approved form of endorsement under applicable regulations of the Commission, and (2) of the effectiveness of such policy during the period as stated in such report; and it further agrees that such liability shall not be terminated prior to the expiration of the policy, except in case of cancelation, and then at the time and in the manner which is prescribed in said law, in the regulations of said Commission, and in the endorsement referred to.

(b) An insurance carrier desiring to withdraw from such agreement may do so upon giving 30 days notice to the Commission by registered mail.

§ 52.6 Report by employer operating temporarily in another compensation district. Where an employer having operations in one compensation district (or jurisdictional area of such district) contemplates engaging in work subject to the said Act of August 16, 1941, as amended, in another compensation district, a carrier which has executed the agreement provided for by § 52.5, and desires to report coverage as to work performed in such other district, may submit to the deputy commissioner of such latter district a report on the card form prescribed by § 52.3, containing the address of the employer in the first mentioned district with the additional notation "No present address in_____ compensation district. Certificate requested when address given."

§ 52.7 Name of one employer only shall be reported on one card. A separate report of the issuance of a policy and endorsement, provided for by § 52.3, shall be made for each employer covered by a policy. If a policy is issued insuring more than one employer, a separate card report for each employer so covered shall be sent to the deputy commissioner concerned, with the name of only one employer on each such report. Unless a card report is received by the deputy commissioner for a compensation district, the deputy commissioner shall regard an employer as an uninsured employer in the particular compensation district (except in cases where such employer is a duly authorized self-insurer, or the employer himself has presented a policy for inspection by the deputy commissioner).

PART 53—AUTHORIZATION OF SELF-INSURERS

Sec.
53.1 Authorization of self-insurers.
53.2 Reports required of self-insurers; examination of accounts of self-insurer.

AUTHORITY: §§ 53.1 and 53.2 issued under sec. 39 of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, 44 Stat. 1442; 33 U.S.C. 939 as made applicable to military, air, and naval bases outside the United States by the Act of August 16, 1941, Pub. Law 208 77th Cong. as amended by the Act of December 2, 1942, Pub. Law 784, 77th Cong.

§ 53.1 Authorization of self-insurers. The provisions of the regulations in Part 33, Subchapter C of this chapter, shall govern the authorization of the self-insurance privilege under the said Act of August 16, 1941, as amended. An application shall contain (a) a statement of the amount of the employer's pay roll of employees, within the purview of such Act, for the preceding 12 months; (b) a statement by classifications of the average number of employees engaged in employments within the purview of said law for the preceding 12 months; (c) a statement of the number of injuries to such employees resulting in disability of more than 7 days duration, or in death, during each of 3 years next preceding the date of the application; (d) an itemized statement of the assets and liabilities of the employer, and current profit and loss statement; (e) a description of the safety organization maintained by the employer for the prevention of injuries at his places of work; (f) a description of the facilities maintained or the arrangements made for the medical and hospital care of injured employees; (g) a statement describing any excess loss insurance or stop-loss insurance arrangement made by the employer, giving the name of the carrier, with full details of any such excess loss coverage; and (h) a statement describing the plan adopted by the employer to set aside a reserve fund for the payment of workmen's compensation benefits (and loss adjustment expenses) under said law. The Commission in its discretion may require the applicant to submit such further information or such evidence as the Commission may deem necessary to have in order to enable it to give adequate consideration to such application. Such application shall be signed by the applicant over his typewritten name and if the applicant is not an individual, by the principal officer of the applicant duly authorized to make such application, over his typewritten name and official designation, and shall be sworn to by him. If the applicant is a corporation, the corporate seal shall be affixed. The application shall be filed with the Commission. The regulations in this part shall be binding upon each applicant hereunder and the applicant's consent to be bound by all requirements of the said regulations shall be deemed to be included in and a part of the application, as fully as though written therein.

§ 53.2 Reports required of self-insurers; examination of accounts of self-insurer. (a) At such times as the Commission may require or prescribe, each self-insurer shall submit such of the following reports as may be requested:

(1) A sworn itemized statement of the self-insurer's assets and liabilities (or a balance sheet), and current profit and loss statement.

(2) A sworn statement showing by classifications the pay roll of employees of the self-insurer who are engaged in employments within the purview of the said Act of August 16, 1941, as amended.

(3) A sworn statement of payments of compensation in current cases during any specified quarter, showing the nature of injury in each case.

(4) A sworn statement covering the 6 months' period preceding the date of such report, listing by compensation districts all death and injury cases which have occurred during such period, together with a report of the status of all outstanding claims, showing the particulars of each case.

(b) Whenever it deems it to be necessary, the Commission may inspect or examine the books of account, records, and other papers of a self-insurer for the purpose of verifying any financial statement submitted to the Commission by such self-insurer or verifying any information furnished to the Commission in any report required by this section, or any other section of the regulations in this subchapter, and such self-insurer shall permit the Commission or its duly authorized representative to make such an inspection or examination as the Commission shall require. In lieu of this requirement the Commission may in its discretion accept an adequate report of a certified public accountant.

PART 54—ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATES OF COMPLIANCE

Sec.
54.1 Issue of certificates of compliance.
54.2 Same; employer operating temporarily in another compensation district.
54.3 Return of certificates of compliance.

AUTHORITY: §§ 54.1 to 54.3, inclusive, issued under sec. 39 of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, 44 Stat. 1442; 33 U.S.C. 939, as made applicable to military, air, and naval bases outside the United States by the Act of August 16, 1941, Pub. Law 208, 77th Cong., as amended by the Act of December 2, 1942, Pub. Law 784, 77th Cong.

§ 54.1 Issue of certificates of compliance. (a) Every employer who has secured the payment of compensation by obtaining a policy of insurance as provided by section 32 of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (44 Stat. 1439; 33 U.S.C. 939) and by Part 52 of the Regulations in this subchapter will receive from the deputy commissioner in the compensation district in which he has operations (or for the jurisdictional area of such compensation district), and to whom such insurance has been reported, a certificate that such employer has secured the payment of such compensation. Only one such certificate will be issued to an employer in a compensation district, and it will be valid only during the period for which such employer has secured such payment. An employer so desiring may have photostatic copies (or other facsimile copies) of such a certificate made for use in different places within the compensation district or jurisdictional area thereof. A certificate of compliance will be issued by the deputy commissioner to any employer having operations in his district (a) upon receipt by the deputy commissioner and acceptance by him of a card report of the issuance of a policy to the employer concerned, as provided by §52.3, by an authorized insurance carrier which has filed an agreement to be bound by such card report in conformity with § 52.5, or (b) upon presentation to the deputy commissioner by the employer concerned (and not by an insurance carrier, insurance agent, or broker) of the applicable policy of insurance, and endorsement thereon, issued to the employer in conformity with Part 52 by an authorized insurance carrier which has not filed the agreement provided for by § 52.5.

(b) Every employer who has been granted the privilege of self-insurance as provided by section 32 of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act and by Part 53 of the regulations in this subchapter will receive from the deputy commissioner a certificate that he has complied with the said law with respect to the securing of the payment of compensation. Only one such certificate will be issued to an employer by a deputy commissioner in a compensation district and it will be valid only during the period stated in such certificate.

(c) Two forms of such certificates have been provided by the Commission, one form for use where the employer has obtained insurance generally under the regulations in this subchapter and one for use where the employer has been authorized as a self-insurer.

§ 54.2 Same; employer operating temporarily in another compensation district. A deputy commissioner receiving a card report of the issue of a policy of insurance, with the notation authorized by § 52.6 will file such card report until he receives from the insured employer named therein a request for a certificate of compliance, giving the address of the employer within the compensation district of such deputy commissioner. Upon receipt of such a request the deputy commissioner will send the proper certificate of compliance to such employer at such address.

§ 54.3 Return of certificates of compliance. Upon the termination by expiration, cancelation or otherwise, of a policy of insurance issued under the provisions of said Act of August 16, 1941, as amended, and the regulations in this subchapter, or the revocation or termination of the privilege of self-insurance granted by the Commission, all certificates of compliance issued on the basis of such insurance or self-insurance shall be void and shall be returned by the employer to the deputy commissioner issuing them with a statement of the reason for such return. An employer, holding a certificate of compliance under an insurance policy which has currently expired, pending the renewal of such insurance need not return such certificate of compliance if such expired insurance is promptly replaced. An employer who has secured renewal of insurance upon the expiration of a policy under said Act, or whose self-insurance thereunder is reauthorized without a break in the continuity thereof need not return an expired certificate of compliance.

Amendment to regulations issued September 12, 1941.

JEWELL W. SWOFFORD,
Chairman.
JNO. J. KEEGAN,
Commissioner.
ALBERT H. LADNER, JR.,
Commissioner.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter VI—Selective Service System

[Order No. 94]

TRENTON PROJECT, NORTH DAKOTA

ESTABLISHMENT FOR CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS

I, Lewis B. Hershey, Director of Selective Service, in accordance with the provisions of Section 5 (g) of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940 (54 Stat. 885) and pursuant to authorization and direction contained in Executive Order No. 8675 dated February 6, 1941, hereby designate the Trenton Project to be work of national importance, to be known as Civilian Public Service Camp No. 94. Said camp, located at Trenton, Williams County, North Dakota, will be the base of operations for land development and irrigation work in the State of North Dakota, and registrants under the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, who have been classified by their local boards as conscientious objectors to both combatant and noncombatant military service and have been placed in Class IV-E, may be assigned to said camp in lieu of their induction for military service.

The work to be undertaken by the men assigned to Civilian Public Service Camp No. 94 will consist of land development and the construction of irrigation and drainage facilities, and shall be under the technical direction of the Farm Security Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture insofar as concerns the planning and direction of the work program. The camp, insofar as camp management is concerned, will be under the direction of approved representatives of the National Service Board for Religious Objectors. Men shall be assigned to and retained in camp in accordance with the provisions of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940 and regulations and orders promulgated thereunder. Administrative and directive control shall be under the Selective Service System through the Camp Operations Division of National Selective Service Headquarters.

LEWIS B. HERSHEY,
Director.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-261]

TANK CAR OIL CO., INC.

The Tank Car Oil Company, Inc., 1015 Bankhead Avenue NW., Atlanta, Georgia, is engaged in the marketing of motor fuel. It owns and operates eight service stations located in the Atlanta, Georgia region. During the months of April, May, June and from July 1 to July 22, 1942, the Tank Car Oil Company, Inc. accepted delivery at its eight service stations of a total of approximately 196,000 gallons of motor fuel in excess of the amounts permitted to be delivered in accordance with the provisions of Limitation Order L-70. As the quotas for these stations decreased during that period, the deliveries of motor fuel which were accepted by the Tank Car Oil Company, Inc. at these eight stations increased from 22 per cent to 194 per cent in excess of their permitted quotas.

Although Tank Car Oil Company, Inc. was fully aware of the provisions of Limitation Order L-70, these over-deliveries were accepted by it in careless disregard of the provisions thereof, and constituted wilful violations of that Order which have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce material to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing facts, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.261 Suspension Order S-261. (a) During each of the months of April, May, June and July 1943, Tank Car Oil Company, Inc., its successors and assigns, shall not accept the delivery of any motor fuel, as defined in Limitation Order L-70, at each of the following service stations in excess of 25 per cent of the average monthly sales by each service station during the period of September 1942 through February 1943:

Station No. 1, Macon, Georgia.
Station No. 2, 953 Marietta Street NW., Atlanta, Ga.
Station No. 3, 195 Decatur Street SE., Atlanta, Ga.
Station No. 4, 1015 Bankhead Avenue NW., Atlanta, Ga.
Station No. 5, Cartersville, Georgia.
Station No. 6, Vienna, Georgia.
Station No. 7, Ft. Valley, Georgia.
Station No. 8, Hightower & Gordon Roads, Atlanta, Ga.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Tank Car Oil Company, Inc., from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

Issued this 1st day of April 1943.

Recording Secretary.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-266]

BLACK & KOENIG

Black & Koenig, 52 Dey Street, New York, New York, a partnership, was, during the period May through September 1942, a roaster of coffee which it distributed at retail in the New York metropolitan area. During the months May through September 1942, the company delivered approximately 11,776 lbs. of coffee roasted by it in excess of its quota under Conservation Order M-135. During this period, the company's deliveries of coffee were several times the deliveries during the corresponding period of 1941; in fact, its deliveries during the restricted period greatly exceeded its total deliveries during the entire year 1941. During the period October 1942 through February 1943, inclusive, its sales of coffee have averaged 439 lbs. per month.

These violations of Conservation Order M-135 have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.266 Suspension Order S-266. (a) In each calendar month, during which this order shall be in effect, Black & Koenig, its successors and assigns, shall not deliver any coffee, except as specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be deemed to prevent Black & Koenig from delivering such coffee as they may have in their store at 52 Dey Street, New York, New York, on the effective date of this order.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Black & Koenig, its successors and assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on the 3d day of April 1943 and shall expire on the 3d day of July 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

Issued this 1st day of April 1943.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-267]

AMERICAN GROCERY CO.

American Grocery Company, a corporation having its principal office at 158 14th Street, Hoboken, New Jersey, roasts coffee which it distributes to its own retail stores. These stores are engaged in the business of selling groceries at retail on a large scale, and are located in Long Island, Brooklyn, N. Y., and New Jersey. In addition to selling coffee, which it roasts, the company sells other brands. During the months of May, June and September 1942, the company delivered approximately 19,000 lbs. of coffee roasted by it in excess of its quota under Conservation Order M-135. Its monthly sales of coffee have averaged 7,338 lbs. for each month from October 1942 through February 1943, inclusive.

These violations of Conservation Order M-135 have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.267 Suspension Order S-267. (a) During the period that this order remains in effect, the aggregate deliveries of coffee by the American Grocery Company, its successors and assigns, shall not exceed 24,000 lbs, except as specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve the American Grocery Company from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on April 3, 1943 and shall expire on October 3, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

Issued this 1st day of April 1943.

PART 1041—PRODUCTION, TRANSPORTATION, REFINING AND MARKETING OF PETROLEUM

[Preference Rating Order P-98-b as Amended April 1, 1943]

§ 1041.2 Preference Rating Order P-98-b—(a) Definitions. (1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Operator" means:

(i) Any person located in the United States, its territories or possessions, to the extent that he is engaged in the than such as may be contained in other

The operator shall place the allotment shall confirm such information within the extent that he is engaged in the petroleum industry; or

(ii) Any person located in the Dominion of Canada to the extent that he is engaged in the petroleum industry and to whom and in whose name a copy of this order or of Preference Rating Order P–98, Extended and Amended, is or has been specifically issued and to whom a serial number has been assigned.

(3) "Supplier" means any person with whom a delivery order is placed for delivery of material to an operator or to another supplier.

(4) "Petroleum" means petroleum, petroleum products and associated hydrocarbons, including but not limited to natural gas.

(5) "Petroleum Industry" means any operation directly incident to:

(i) The discovery, development or depletion of petroleum pools (production);

(ii) The extraction or recovery of natural gasoline and associated hydrocarbons (natural gasoline production);

(iii) The transportation, movement, loading or unloading of petroleum other than natural gas (transportation);

(iv) The processing, refining or compounding of finished or unfinished petroleum products (refining);

(v) The distribution or dispensing of petroleum products (other than natural gas) and the storing of petroleum products incident thereto (marketing);

(vi) The investigation into more efficient or more effective methods of conducting petroleum industry operations by means of research or technical laboratories (research).

(6) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly, or product of any kind.

(7) "Maintenance, repair and operating supplies" means that material specified in Schedule A hereof.

(8) "Controlled material" means steel—both carbon (including wrought iron) and alloy—copper (including copper base alloys) and aluminum, in each case only in the forms and shapes indicated in Schedule 1 attached to CMP Regulation No. 1 of the War Production Board.

(9) "Allotment" means a determination by the Petroleum Administration for War as to the portion of its allotment of controlled materials which may be received by an operator.

(10) "Class A product" means any product which is not a Class B product (as defined in subparagraph (11) below), and which contains any steel, copper, or aluminum, fabricated or assembled beyond the forms and shapes specified in Schedule 1 attached to CMP Regulation No. 1, other than such steel, copper, or aluminum as may be contained in Class B products incorporated in it as parts or sub-assemblies.

(11) "Class B product" means any product listed in the "Official CMP Class B Product List" issued by the War Production Board, as the same may be modified from time to time, which contains any steel, copper, or aluminum, fabricated or assembled beyond the forms and shapes specified in Schedule 1 attached to CMP Regulation No. 1, other than such as may be contained in other Class B products incorporated in it as parts or sub-assemblies.

(12) "Delivery order" means any purchase order, contract, release or shipping instruction which constitutes a definite and complete instruction from a purchaser to a seller calling for delivery of any material or product. The term does not include any contract, purchase order, or other arrangement which, although specifying the total amount to be delivered, contemplates that further instructions are to be given.

(13) "Authorized controlled material order" means any delivery order for any controlled material as such (as distinct from a product containing controlled material) which is placed pursuant to an allotment as provided in paragraph (e) of this order or which is specifically designated to be such by any regulation or order of the Petroleum Administration for War or the War Production Board.

(b) Scope of order. (1) Except as provided in Schedule "B" hereof, this order shall apply to the delivery of any maintenance, repair and operating supplies to any operator for use in the petroleum industry upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

(2) No operator may use an allotment symbol or apply a preference rating to secure delivery of any maintenance, repair and operating supplies other than in accordance with the applicable provisions of this order.

(3) Any allotment symbol issued or any preference rating assigned to any operator prior to April 1, 1943 shall not be considered revoked by the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph (b).

(4) Supplementary orders or directions with respect to the use of allotment numbers or preference ratings or the delivery or use of material under the provisions of this order may be issued from time to time.

(c) Method of securing maintenance, repair and operating supplies. (1) To secure deliveries of maintenance, repair and operating supplies—including without limitation controlled materials (other than aluminum), Class A, or Class B products—an operator is hereby authorized to use allotment symbol MRO–P–98–b and is hereby assigned a preference rating of AA–1.

(2) In using such allotment symbol or preference rating, the operator shall be subject to all the applicable provisions of this order and shall endorse upon each delivery order for maintenance, repair and operating supplies a certification in substantially the following form, signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7:

> The undersigned purchaser certifies, subject to the penalties of Section 35A of the United States Criminal Code, to the seller and to the War Production Board, that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the undersigned is authorized under applicable War Production Board regulations or orders to place this delivery order, to receive the item(s) ordered for the purpose for which ordered, and to use any preference rating or allotment number or symbol which the undersigned has placed on this order.

The operator shall place the allotment symbol and preference rating indicated in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (c) on the delivery order in every case where the above certification is used.

(3) Any operator requiring aluminum (in any of the forms or shapes constituting a controlled material) for essential maintenance, repair and operating supplies, where the use of other material for this purpose is impracticable, may obtain such aluminum from a controlled material producer or from an approved aluminum warehouse in amounts of not to exceed 100 pounds from all sources during any one calendar quarter, by endorsing upon any delivery order a certification in substantially the following form, signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7:

> The undersigned purchaser certifies, subject to the penalties of Section 35A of the United States Criminal Code, to the seller and to the War Production Board, that, the materials covered by this order are required as essential maintenance, repair and operating supplies; that the use of other materials for such purpose is impracticable; and that the amount of aluminum covered by this order, together with all other amounts received by, or on order for delivery to the undersigned, from all sources, for such purposes during the same quarter, will not exceed 100 pounds.

Any supplier (producer or warehouse) receiving a delivery order bearing such certification shall be entitled to rely thereon and may fill the order, unless he knows or has reason to believe the certification to be false.

(4) Prior to placing with a supplier a delivery order bearing the allotment symbol and preference rating indicated in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (c) for maintenance, repair and operating supplies, each operator shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph (e) of this order, comply with the following conditions:

(i) Each operator shall submit, for information purposes only, (to the appropriate District Office of the Petroleum Administration for War or the Office of Oil Controller) a copy of any delivery order where the total cost to the operator of all items on the delivery order is $100.00 or more, but less than $1000.00, and the cost of every item on the delivery order is less than $500.00.

(ii) Each operator shall submit for approval by the appropriate District Office of the Petroleum Administration for War or the Office of Oil Controller two copies of every delivery order where the cost to the operator of any item on the delivery order is less than $500.00 and the total cost to the operator of all items on the delivery order is $1000.00 or more.

(iii) Each operator shall submit for approval by the Washington Office of the Petroleum Administration for War or the Office of Oil Controller two copies of any delivery order where the cost to the operator of any item on the delivery order is $500.00 or more.

In submitting a delivery order to the Petroleum Administration for War or the Office of Oil Controller in accordance with paragraph (c) (4) (ii) or (c) (4) (iii), an operator shall furnish an accompanying statement indicating the use to which the material is to be put and such additional explanations as may be necessary to enable the proper officials to make an accurate determination of the operator's needs. No delivery order need be submitted by an operator prior to placing such order with a supplier where the total cost to the operator of all items on the delivery order is less than $100.00.

(5) No operator may place with a supplier any delivery order submitted in accordance with paragraph (c) (4) (ii) or (c) (4) (iii) until approval has been received from the authorized official of the Petroleum Administration for War or the Office of Oil Controller.

(6) In placing a delivery order bearing an allotment symbol or preference rating, no operator shall alter the customary designation of any item or subdivide an ordinary purchase of any item or items for the purpose of making it appear that an item costs less than $500.00; that the total cost of all items on the delivery order is less than $1000.00 or that the total cost of all items on the delivery order is less than $100.00.

(7) Whenever submission of a delivery order to the District Office of the Petroleum Administration for War or the Office of Oil Controller is required by the provisions of paragraph (c) (3) of this order, the operator as defined in paragraph (a) (2) (i) shall submit such delivery order to the District Office of the Petroleum Administration for War in the District where the material is to be used and the operator as defined in paragraph (a) (2) (ii) shall submit such delivery order to the Oil Controller of the Dominion of Canada.

(d) Emergency provisions. (1) If there has been an actual breakdown or suspension of operations and if the method specified in paragraph (c) (4) (ii) or (c) (4) (iii) for using the allotment symbol and preference rating will not permit an operator to obtain material on the date when such material is required, the operator to obtain delivery of material for this emergency may communicate by letter, telegram or telephone with the Petroleum Administration for War, Washington, D. C., Ref: P–98–b, supplying the following information:

(i) Date of actual breakdown or suspension of operations and exact explanation as to what extent operations are affected;

(ii) Description of equipment to be repaired and its function in maintaining continuous operation; and

(iii) Price, quantity, and detailed description of necessary material (including weight if a controlled material).

A delivery order for maintenance, repair and operating supplies for emergencies need not be sent to the Petroleum Administration for War but in every instance the number and date of the delivery order must be transmitted to the Petroleum Administration for War, Washington, D. C. Whenever any information required to be furnished to the Petroleum Administration for War under this paragraph (d) is furnished by telephone, the operator furnishing such information shall confirm such information within seven days by a letter or telegram containing information requested in paragraph (d) (1) (i), (ii) and (iii).

(2) No operator may place a delivery order with a supplier, where approval has been requested pursuant to paragraph (d) (1), until approval has been received from the authorized official of the Petroleum Administration for War. In placing any such delivery order the operator shall use the certification provided in paragraph (e) (2) in the same manner and to the same extent as provided therein.

(e) Placement of delivery orders; application and extension of preference ratings. (1) An operator who has complied with the provisions of paragraph (c) or (d) of this order may place a delivery order with any supplier for delivery of material authorized pursuant to such paragraphs and may place upon such delivery order the allotment symbol and preference rating which have been duly authorized in accordance with the provisions of this order. Any delivery order rated under this order shall be identified by placing thereon the allotment symbol provided for in paragraph (c) (1) of this order.

(2) Any delivery order for controlled materials (other than aluminum) placed pursuant to this order and bearing the certification provided for in paragraph (c) (2) hereof shall constitute an authorized controlled material order: Provided, That such delivery order must be in sufficient detail to permit entry on mill schedules and must be received by the controlled materials producer at such time in advance as is specified in Schedule III of CMP Regulation No. 1, or at such later time as the controlled materials producer may find it practicable to accept the same, except that no controlled materials producer shall discriminate between customers in rejecting or accepting late orders.

(3) Any delivery order rated pursuant to this order and bearing the certification provided for in paragraph (c) (2) hereof shall have the same status as an order bearing an allotment symbol and preference rating under CMP Regulation No. 3. The allotment symbol MRO–P–98–b shall constitute an allotment symbol for the purposes of CMP Regulation No. 3.

(f) Restrictions. No operator shall use the allotment symbol or the preference rating provided for in this order:

(1) To obtain deliveries of material in greater amounts or on earlier dates than required to fulfill the purpose authorized pursuant to the provisions of this order.

(2) To obtain deliveries of material for any purpose other than a purpose authorized pursuant to the provisions of this order.

(3) To obtain deliveries of material which can be secured without the use of an allotment symbol or preference rating.

(4) To obtain deliveries of material the use of which could be eliminated without serious loss of efficiency by substitution of less scarce material or by change of design.

(5) To obtain deliveries of material in such amounts or at such dates that receipt of such amounts on the requested dates would result in surplus material, as defined in or modified by Preference Rating Order P–98–c.

(6) To obtain deliveries of material unless such operator is on or after May 1, 1943, a participant in the PAW Materials Redistribution Program No. 2 in the event that participation by the operator in such program is required by the terms of the program.

(7) To obtain deliveries of material in violation of any applicable order or regulation of the Petroleum Administration for War or of the War Production Board.

(g) Applicability of other orders and regulations. (1) This order and all transactions affected hereby, except as herein otherwise provided, are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) None of the provisions of CMP Regulation Nos. 2 or 5 shall apply to operators as defined in paragraph (a) (2) of this order, and no such operator shall obtain any material under or be limited by the provisions of such regulations.

(h) Communications. All reports which may be required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed:

(1) By any person located in the United States, its territories or possessions to: Petroleum Administration for War, Interior Building, Washington, D. C., Ref: P–98–b.

(2) By any person located in the Dominion of Canada to: Office of Oil Controller, Dominion of Canada, Toronto, Canada, Ref: P–98–b.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who wilfully furnishes false information to the Director General for Operations in connection with this order is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the Director General for Operations.

Issued this first day of April 1943.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,

Recording Secretary.

SCHEDULE A

PART 1—MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR

"Maintenance and repair" means, without regard to accounting practice, any material which:

(1) Is used in production or natural gasoline production for any of the following purposes:

(i) The upkeep of material or equipment in a sound working condition.

(ii) The restoration of material or equipment which has been rendered unsafe or unfit for service by wear and tear, damage, destruction, failure of parts or similar causes.

(iii) A capital addition (excluding the installation or replacement of pumping or other artificial lifting equipment and the deepening or plugging back of any well) not exceeding in material cost $500 for any one complete operation which has not been subdivided for the purpose of coming within this definition.

Provided, That upkeep or restoration shall not include any use of material for the improvement of material or equipment by the replacement of material which is still serviceable in the existing material or equipment.

(2) Is used in transportation, refining, or research for any of the following purposes:

(i) The upkeep of material or equipment in a sound working condition.

(ii) The restoration of material or equipment which has been rendered unsafe or unfit for service by wear and tear, damage, destruction, failure of parts or similar causes.

(iii) A capital addition not exceeding in material cost $500 for any one complete addition which has not been subdivided for the purpose of coming within this definition.

Provided, That upkeep or restoration shall not include any use of material for the improvement of material or equipment by the replacement of material which is still serviceable in the existing material or equipment.

(3) Is used in marketing for any of the following purposes:

(i) The upkeep of any structure or equipment in a sound working condition.

(ii) The restoration of any structure or equipment or part thereof to a sound working condition when such structure or equipment or part thereof has been rendered unsafe or unfit for further service by wear or tear, damage, destruction, or failure of parts or similar causes.

(iii) A capital addition to any terminal or bulk plant (but not to any service station or retail outlet) not exceeding in material cost $500 for any one complete addition which has not been subdivided for the purpose of coming within this definition.

Provided, That upkeep or restoration shall not include any use of material for the improvement of any structure or equipment by the replacement of material which is still serviceable in the existing structure or equipment or any use of material for a capital addition to any service station or retail outlet.

PART 2—OPERATING SUPPLIES

"Operating supplies" means any material (other than maintenance and repair material) which is essential to and consumed in production, natural gasoline production, transportation, refining, marketing, or research and which is normally carried by an operator as operating supplies or which is normally chargeable to operating expense:

Provided, That the term "Operating Supplies" shall not include any material specified in Schedule "B" of this order which is declared by such schedule not to be operating supplies.

SCHEDULE B

PART 1

(1) No operator other than as specifically provided for in this Schedule, may apply a preference rating assigned by or pursuant to this order to obtain delivery of any of the following items:

(a) Automotive replacement parts or maintenance equipment other than specialized petroleum industry equipment.

(b) Clothing, shoes, or other wearing apparel, if made of leather or textiles: Provided, That such a preference rating may be applied to obtain delivery of the following items which shall be considered as operating supplies obtainable under the provisions of this order when specifically designed and used to furnish protection against specific occupational hazards (other than weather):

(i) Asbestos clothing.

(ii) Safety clothing impregnated or coated for the purpose of making the same resistants against fire, acids, other chemicals, or abrasives.

(iii) Safety industrial rubber gloves and hoods and linesman's rubber gloves and sleeves.

(iv) Gauntlet type welders' leather gloves and mittens, and electricians' leather protector or cover gloves.

(v) Other safety leather gloves or mittens but only if steel stitched or steel reinforced.

(vi) Safety industrial leather clothing other than gloves or mittens.

(vii) Metal mesh gloves, aprons, and sleeves.

(viii) Plastic and fiber safety helmets.

(c) Fabricated containers (in knock-down or set-up forms, whether assembled or unassembled), required for packaging products to be shipped or delivered: Provided, That such a preference rating may be applied to obtain delivery of the following items which shall be considered as operating supplies obtainable under the provisions of this order:

(i) Sample cans used by an operator for the purpose of moving samples to laboratories.

(ii) Lead seals, box strapping, dunnage, and other materials used for any of these packaging purposes.

(iii) Material necessary for the further continued use of existing fabricated containers.

(d) Fuel, electric power or lubricants.

(e) Office machinery or office equipment.

(f) Paper, paperboard, and products manufactured therefrom—moulded pulp products: Provided, That such a preference rating may be applied to obtain deliveries of the following items which shall be considered as operating supplies obtainable under the provisions of this order:

(i) Photographic and sensitized paper.

(ii) Tracing paper.

(g) Printed matter and stationery.

(h) Softwood lumber as defined in Conservation Order M-208.

PART 2—MATERIAL EXCLUDED FROM PROVISIONS OF THIS ORDER

(1) No operator may apply a preference rating assigned by or pursuant to this order to obtain delivery of any of the following material:

(a) Material or equipment which is to be used by consumer accounts for or in the storage or dispensing of petroleum, including liquefied petroleum gas.

(b) The material listed below where it is to be used in service station operations:

(i) Drills, reamers, and taps manufactured of high speed steel as defined in Supplementary Order M-21-h of the War Production Board.

(ii) Hack-saw blades manufactured of high speed steel as defined in Supplementary Order M-21-h of the War Production Board.

(iii) Hand service operating tools.

(iv) Precision measuring hand tools.

(v) Portable electric tools.

(c) Material or equipment which is to be used in transportation by mobile facilities: Provided, That such a preference rating may be applied to obtain delivery of Material:

(i) Where such material is to be used on a tank truck or trailer and is specialized petroleum material or equipment which is actually to be attached to the truck or trailer and is necessary to the containing, dispensing, measuring the movement of, or distributing of petroleum.

(ii) Where such material is to be used on railroad rolling stock and the rolling stock is owned or leased by the operator, used on his premises and in the petroleum industry, and is not under the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

(iii) Where such material is to be used on marine equipment and the marine equipment is used or chartered by the operator, is used on or in the vicinity of his premises and in the petroleum industry, and is not under the jurisdiction of the United States Maritime Commission, the Navy Department, or any other federal agency for the purpose of establishing methods by which material incident to the operation of the marine equipment may be made available.

PART 977—MANILA FIBRE AND MANILA CORDAGE

[General Conservation Order M-294 as Amended April 2, 1943]

WASTE MANILA ROPE

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of waste manila rope for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 977.6 General Conservation Order M-294—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Waste manila rope" means used manila rope, which is acquired for any purpose whatsoever excepting only that which is acquired for reuse as rope. The material resulting from any shredding, parting or other type of separation of the strands or fibres of used manila rope shall be deemed to be "waste manila rope".

(2) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation, or agency or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(3) "Permitted use" means with respect to each grade or type of paper designated on List A, the uses described for such paper on List A.

[NOTE: Paragraph (3) was former paragraph (4); former paragraph (3) revoked April 2, 1943]

(b) Limitations on use of waste manila rope. (1) From and after March 19, 1943, no person shall use waste manila rope as a raw material in the manufacture of any product or products other than in the manufacture of rope or in the manufacture of paper.

(2) From and after March 19, 1943, no person shall use waste manila rope in the manufacture of any grade or type of paper other than the grades and types of paper shown on List A.

(c) Limitation on use of grades and types of paper shown on List A. From and after March 19, 1943, no person who accepts delivery of any quantity of any grade or type of paper shown on List A in which waste manila rope is used as a raw material shall use the same for any purpose or use other than the permitted uses for such grade or type of paper shown on List A, except that this restriction shall not apply to any grade or type of paper containing waste manila rope, manufactured prior to March 19, 1943.

(d) Limitations on use of waste manila rope in the manufacture of flour and cereal sack papers. (1) No person shall use waste manila rope in the manufacture of paper for flour or cereal products sacks to an extent in excess of 35% of the total fibre content of such paper; provided, however, that the amount of waste manila rope used by him in the manufacture of such paper during any one month shall not exceed 35% of the amount used by him in the manufacture of such paper during the month of December 1942.

(2) No person shall use waste manila rope in the manufacture of paper for flour or cereal products sacks on and after June 1, 1943.

(e) Obligation to examine and refuse certain orders. From and after March 19, 1943:

(1) No person using waste manila rope in the manufacture of the grades and types of paper shown on List A shall sell or deliver any such paper which he knows or has reason to know will be used for any purpose or use other than a permitted use.

[NOTE: Headnote of paragraph (e) amended April 2, 1943]

(f) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(g) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provisions appealed from and stating fully the grounds for appeal.

(h) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep for at least two years records concerning inventory, production, purchases and sales.

(i) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, all communications concerning this order or any schedule issued supplementary hereto shall, unless otherwise directed be addressed to War Production Board, Pulp and Paper Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M-294.

(j) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 2d day of April 1943.

PART 1042—IMPORTS OF STRATEGIC MATERIALS

[General Imports Order M-63 as Amended April 2, 1943]

§ 1042.1 General Imports Order M-63—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or any organized group of persons, whether or not incorporated.

(2) "Owner" of any material means any person who has any property interest in such material except a person whose interest is held solely as security for the payment of money.

(3) "Consignee" means the person to whom a material is consigned at the time of importation.

(4) "Import" means to transport in any manner into the continental United States from any foreign country or from any territory or possession of the United States (including the Philippine Islands). It includes shipments into a free port, free zone, or bonded custody of the United States Bureau of Customs (bonded warehouse) in the continental United States and shipments in bond into the continental United States for transshipment to Canada, Mexico, or any other foreign country.

(5) "Place of initial storage" means any warehouse, yard ground storage, or other place, to which the person making the entry or withdrawal from custody of the United States Bureau of Customs of material imported subject to this order directs or has directed that such material be transported from the port of entry to be held until disposed of pursuant to this order.

(6) Material shall be deemed "in transit" if it is afloat, if an on board ocean bill of lading has actually been issued with respect to it, or if it has actually been delivered to and accepted by a rail, truck, or air carrier, for transportation to a point within the continental United States.

(7) "Governing date" with respect to any material means the date when such material first became subject to General Imports Order M-63.

(b) Restrictions on imports of materials—(1) General restriction. No person, except as authorized in writing by the War Production Board, shall purchase for import, import, offer to purchase for import, receive, or offer to receive on consignment for import, or make any contract or other arrangement for the importing of, any material subject to this order after the governing date. The foregoing restrictions shall apply to the importation of any material subject to the order, regardless of the existence on the governing date or thereafter of any contract or other arrangement for the importation of such material. The materials subject to this order are those listed from time to time upon List I, List II, and List III attached hereto.

(2) Authorization by War Production Board. Any person desiring such authorization, whether owner, purchaser, seller, or consignee of the material to be imported, or agent of any of them, shall make application therefor in duplicate on Form PD-222C, addressed to the War Production Board, Ref.: M-63, Washington, D. C. Unless otherwise expressly permitted, such authorization shall apply only to the particular material and shipment mentioned therein and to the persons and their agents concerned with such shipment; it shall not be assignable or transferable either in whole or in part.

(3) Restrictions on financing of imports. No bank or other person shall participate, by financing or otherwise, in any arrangement which such bank or person knows or has reason to know involves the importation of any material subject to this order after the governing date unless such bank or person has received either a copy of the authorization issued by the War Production Board, or, if the transaction comes within the exceptions set forth in paragraph (b) (4), an affidavit stating the facts which show the exception.

(4) Exceptions. Unless otherwise directed by the War Production Board, the restrictions set forth in this paragraph (b) shall not apply:

(i) To the Board of Economic Warfare, Commodity Credit Corporation, Metals Reserve Company, Defense Supplies Corporation, or any other United States governmental department, agency, or corporation, or any agent acting for any such department, agency, or corporation; or

(ii) To any material of which any United States governmental department, agency, or corporation is the owner at the time of importation, or to any material which the owner at the time of importation had purchased or otherwise acquired from any United States governmental department, agency, or corporation; or

(iii) To any material which on the governing date was in transit to a point within the continental United States.

(iv) To materials imported by mail where the value of the shipment is less than $100.00; or

(v) To materials consigned as gifts or as samples, or for use as samples, or imported for personal use, where the value of each consignment or shipment is less than $200.00; or

(vi) To materials consigned as gifts for personal use by or to members of the Armed Services of the United States.

(vii) To any material on List I or List II imported by any person under any contract or other arrangement made before, or in existence on, the governing date and which, on December 28, 1942, was in transit to a point within the continental United States.

(c) Restrictions on disposition of List I material. Except as hereinafter specifically provided in paragraph (d) hereof:

(1) Restrictions upon owners and consignees. No owner or consignee of any material on List I which is imported after the governing date shall in any way, directly or indirectly:

(i) Dispose of any interest in such material;

(ii) Process or in any way change the physical condition of such material;

(iii) Transfer possession, or cause or permit a transfer of possession, of such material except to the port of entry and from the port of entry to the place of initial storage of such material; or

(iv) Change, or cause or permit a change of, the location of such material except to the port of entry and from the port of entry to the place of initial storage of such material.

Provided: That a consignee of such material may dispose of his interest in such material to the extent necessary to complete any commitment or contract made prior to the governing date. The person to whom he disposes of such interest shall be subject to all restrictions imposed upon owners by this order.

(2) Restrictions upon banks and persons similarly situated. No bank or other person which, as agent, pledgee, beneficiary under a trust receipt, or otherwise, has possession of or any interest in any written instrument evidencing any interest in any material on List I shall in any way, directly or indirectly, dispose of any such interest, or transfer possession, or cause or permit a transfer of possession, of such instrument, unless:

(i) Such material was imported before the governing date; or

(ii) Such person neither knows nor has reason to know that such material was imported after the governing date; or

(iii) Such disposition or transfer is necessary to permit a consignee to make a permissible disposition of material in accordance with subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (c); or

(iv) Such disposition or transfer is made to the owner of the material and such owner has complied with all the provisions of this order.

(d) Permissible disposition of List I materials — (1) Transfer to governmental agency. Nothing contained in this order shall prohibit an owner or consignee of any material on List I imported after the governing date, or a bank or other person having possession of, or an interest in, a written instrument evidencing an interest in such material, from disposing of, or making any arrangement to dispose of, any interest in such material to the Board of Economic Warfare, Commodity Credit Corporation, Metals Reserve Company, Defense Supplies Corporation, or any other United States governmental department, agency, or corporation.

(2) Authorization by War Production Board. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (c), an owner or consignee of material on List I imported after the governing date or a bank or other person having possession of or an interest in a written instrument evidencing an interest in such material, may process such material or may dispose of any interest in such material or any such written instrument, or transfer possession or change the location thereof, or cause or permit such a transfer of possession or change of location, upon written authorization by the War Production Board. Any such person may make application in duplicate for such an authorization on Form PD–222A, which form shall be addressed to the War Production Board. Ref.: M–63, Washington, D. C.

(3) Exceptions. The restrictions set forth in paragraph (c) shall not apply to any material after any United States governmental department, agency, or corporation becomes the owner thereof, and shall not apply to any material of which any United States governmental department, agency, or corporation is the owner at the time of importation, and shall not apply to any material purchased or otherwise acquired from any United States governmental department, agency, or corporation.

(e) Restrictions on disposition of List II or List III material. Any material on List II or List III, which is imported after the governing date, may be sold, delivered, processed, consumed, purchased, or received without restriction under this order, but all such transactions shall be subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board and to all orders and directions of the War Production Board which now or hereafter may be in effect with respect to such material.

(f) Reports—(1) Reports on customs entry. No material which is imported after the governing date, including materials imported by or for the account of the Board of Economic Warfare, Commodity Credit Corporation, Metals Reserve Company, Defense Supplies Corporation, or any other United States governmental department, agency, or corporation, shall be entered through the United States Bureau of Customs for any purpose, whether for consumption, for warehouse, in transit, in bond, for re-export, for appraisal, or otherwise, unless the person making the entry shall file with the entry Form PD–222B in duplicate. The filing of such form a second time shall not be required upon any subsequent entry of such material through the United States Bureau of Customs for any purpose; nor shall the filing of such form be required upon the withdrawal of any material from bonded custody of the United States Bureau of Customs, regardless of the date when such material was first transported into the continental United States. Both copies of such form shall be transmitted by the Collector of Customs to the War Production Board, Division of Stockpiling and Transportation, Ref.: M–63, Washington, D. C.

(2) Other reports. All persons having any interest in, or taking any action with respect to, any material imported after the governing date, whether as owner, agent, consignee, or otherwise, shall file such other reports as may be required from time to time by the War Production Board.

(g) Routing of communications. All communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise herein directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M–63.

(h) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, willfully conceals a material fact or who furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority assistance.

(i) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

Issued this 2d day of April 1943.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD

N. S. C.—No separate class. Commodity number has not yet been assigned by the Department of Commerce, Statistical Classification of Imports.

Interpretation 1

No authorization under paragraph (b) of the order is necessary for the release or withdrawal of materials on List II or List III from a free port, a free zone, or the bonded custody of the United States Bureau of Customs (bonded warehouse) in the continental United States regardless of the date when such materials first entered such place. The actual importation, which is the subject of restriction under paragraph (b), is deemed to have occurred before the question of release or withdrawal arises. Also, no authorization under paragraph (d) of the order is necessary for the subsequent disposition, processing, or shipment of such released or withdrawn List II and List III materials.

As to List I materials which are similarly situated, no authorization under paragraph (b) of the order is necessary for their release or withdrawal from free port, free zone, or bonded custody, but authorization under paragraph (d) of the order is necessary for their subsequent disposition, processing, or shipment unless they are shipped in bond to Canada, Mexico, or some other foreign country, in which event the foreign destination is deemed to be the place of initial storage as such term is used in the order. (Issued June 30, 1942.)

INTERPRETATION 2

The following official interpretation is hereby issued by the War Production Board with respect to the meaning of the term "in transit" as defined in paragraph (a) (6) of General Imports Order M–63 (§ 1042.1) as amended:

By amendment dated December 17, 1942, the definition of material "in transit" was changed by adding the following clause, "or if it has actually been delivered to and accepted by a rail, truck, or air carrier, for transportation to a point within the continental United States." The question has been raised as to the meaning of the term as applied to a case where the material on the governing date had been delivered to and accepted by a rail, truck, or air carrier on a through bill of lading for transportation to a specified port and from thence by boat to a point within the continental United States.

The material in the stated case is not deemed to be in transit within the meaning of the term as used in the order. If the material is to be carried to the port of arrival in the continental United States by ship, the material must have been afloat, or an on board ocean bill of lading must have been issued with respect to it, on the governing date in order for it to be considered as having been in transit on such date.

Material which has been delivered to and accepted by a rail, truck, or air carrier on the governing date for transportation to a point within the continental United States is deemed to be in transit within the meaning of the term as used in the order only when the transportation specified in the bill of lading issued by such carrier calls for delivery of the material at the port of arrival in the continental United States by rail, truck, or air carrier, not by ship. (Issued March 5, 1943.)

PART 1119—METAL PLASTERING BASES AND METAL PLASTERING ACCESSORIES

[Supplementary Limitation Order L–59–b as Amended April 2, 1943]

Section 1119.3 Supplementary Limitation Order No. L–59–b is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1119.3 Supplementary Limitation Order L–59–b—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Metal plastering base" means any expanded or sheet metal lath, woven or welded wire lath, wire cloth or wire fabric, or stucco mesh (with or without paper or other backing), and any combination of the foregoing, of the types thereof commonly used as base for the application of interior or exterior plaster or stucco, or as a combination form and reinforcement for concrete or gypsum floor and roof slabs.

(2) "Metal plastering accessory" means any article (other than a metal plastering base, a nail, clip, or any device for holding plaster base other than metal plastering base), which is of a type commonly used as a guide, support, reinforcement or means of attachment for metal plastering bases, and which is made in whole or in part of metal including, but not limited to, the following: corner lath (cornerite), corner beads, base screed, corner bead clips, metal partition studs, floor and ceiling track for partitions, steel plastering shapes such as channels and rods, and concealed picture mold and trim to be applied before plastering.

(b) General restrictions. Notwithstanding any contract, agreement or preference rating:

(1) No person shall manufacture or fabricate any metal plastering base, except:

(i) To fill an order from or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, or the War Shipping Administration when such metal plastering base is authorized by the Army, Navy Munitions Board List of Prohibited Items for Construction Work, as amended, or as authorized as an exception to said list: or

(ii) Rib type metal lath suitable as a combination form and reinforcement for cast-in-place concrete or gypsum floor and roof slabs; or

(iii) For use by such person in the manufacture or assembly of, or for delivery to a manufacturer of

(a) Metal reinforced mineral wool insulation blankets, or

(b) Metal reinforced mineral wool insulating pipe coverings, or

(c) Metal reinforced filters, or

(d) Crude oil reduction equipment, or

(iv) Upon specific approval by the War Production Board upon application made by letter in triplicate addressed to War Production Board, Building Materials Division, Washington, D. C.

(2) No person shall manufacture or fabricate any metal plastering accessory.

(3) No person shall sell or deliver any metal plastering base or metal plastering accessory, except

(i) To fill an order from or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, or the War Shipping Administration when such metal plastering base is authorized by the Army, Navy Munitions Board List of Prohibited Items for Construction Work, as amended, or as authorized as an exception to said List; or

(ii) Rib type metal lath suitable as a combination form and reinforcement for cast-in-place concrete or gypsum floor and roof slabs, pursuant to preference ratings of AA–5 or better, and no person shall use rib type metal lath for any purpose other than as such combination form and reinforcement; or

(iii) To a person engaged in the manufacture or assembly of

(a) Metal reinforced mineral wool insulation blankets, or

(b) Metal reinforced mineral wool insulating pipe coverings, or

(c) Metal reinforced filters, or

(d) Crude oil reduction equipment, but no such person engaged in such manufacture shall use such metal plastering base except in the manufacture or assembly of the materials set forth in this paragraph (b) (3) (iii) of Order L–59–b; or

(iv) Metal plastering base or metal plastering accessory in his possession prior to the 2nd day of April 1943; or

(v) Upon specific approval by the War Production Board, upon application made by letter in triplicate addressed to War Production Board, Building Materials Division, Washington, D. C.

(c) Reports. Each person to whom this order applies shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(d) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(e) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be filed on Form PD–500 with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates.

(f) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(g) Routing of correspondence. Reports to be filed and communications concerning this order, other than appeals, shall be addressed to the War Production Board, Building Materials Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L–59–b.

Issued this 2d day of April 1943.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[Interpretation 1 of CMP Reg. 3]

In § 3175.3 the provisions of paragraph (c) of CMP Regulation No. 3 with respect to the superiority of a rating with an allotment number over the same rating without an allotment number are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 12 regarding reratings. The receipt of an allotment number against a delivery order previously rated without an allotment number is equivalent to a rerating of the delivery order.

Attention is called specifically to paragraph (1) of Priorities Regulation No. 12 which provides that a rerating takes effect as if the new rating had been applied or extended when the original rating was applied or extended, except that (1) there are restrictions on the diversion of items already completed or scheduled for completion in 15 days and (2) no person is required by reason of a rerating to terminate or interrupt a production schedule within 40 days after receipt of the rerating where such termination or interruption would result in a substantial loss in production.

Issued this 2d day of April 1943.

PART 3214—MEN'S, WOMEN'S, CHILDREN'S, AND INFANTS' HOSIERY

[General Limitation Order L–274]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of silk, nylon, rayon, cotton, wool and other materials for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3214.1 General Limitation Order L–274—(a) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order, unless otherwise expressly defined all trade terms shall have their usual and customary meanings.

(c) Restrictions on the manufacture of certain types of hosiery. (1) On and after May 15, 1943, no person shall put into production women's full-fashioned plain-knit hosiery, women's seamless, circular-knit hosiery, men's hosiery, or misses', children's or infants' hosiery, except in accordance with Schedules A, B, C, and D, which are a part of this order, or in paragraphs (c) (2), (c) (3) and (c) (4).

(2) Any person having a substantial number of machines which on May 15, 1943, or within one year prior thereto were in use to manufacture products referred to in paragraph (c) (1), but which cannot be used or converted to produce the products permitted by this order without a substantial allotment of critical materials for conversion, may, if he desires, so report in writing to the War Production Board, attention of Textile, Clothing and Leather Division, setting forth all pertinent facts. The War Production Board, if it determines that the output of such machines is necessary to maintain production at adequate levels, may establish specifications for products to be manufactured with such machines, such specifications to apply to such products alone, and to supersede the applicable limitations of this order.

(3) The restrictions of paragraph (c) (1), and the schedules therein referred to, and any specifications established pursuant to paragraph (c) (2), do not apply to the manufacture of any hosiery for or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, or the War Shipping Administration.

(4) Any hosiery manufacturer may use to produce hosiery not permitted by this order any material which was in his inventory on April 2, 1943, and which with his existing machines he cannot use to manufacture products permitted by this order.

(d) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(e) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Textile, Clothing & Leather Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L–274.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Records. All manufacturers affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years, accurate and complete records of production, type and poundage of raw materials consumed, and shipments made by date, quantity, and name of consignee.

Issued this 2d day of April 1943.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

SCHEDULE A

WOMEN'S FULL-FASHIONED HOSIERY

(a) This schedule does not apply to full-fashioned over-all cotton hosiery of any gauge, or to any so-called "Run-Proof" hosiery, or any mesh hosiery made on modified or full lace attachments, and the manufacture of such products is not restricted by this order. The schedule does not prohibit constructions of cotton, wool, continuous filament, or spun rayon yarn in any combination yarns.

(b) No person shall produce any women's full-fashioned rayon plain-knit hosiery unless it meets the minimum specifications shown on the following table:

Gauge	Welt		Leg		Minimum total courses	Heel and sole splicing	Toe equivalent to—
	Yarn	Minimum turns per inch	Rayon yarn	Minimum turns per inch
39	150 den. rayon	8	150	8	1,190	100 den. or 120/2	200 den.
39	70/2 cotton		120	8	1,150	100 den. or 120/2	250 den.
42	150 den. rayon	8	150	8	1,240	100 den. or cotton	250 den.
42	80/2 cotton		150	8	1,200	100 den. or cotton	250 den.
42	150 den. rayon	8	100	20	1,340	100 den. or cotton	200 den.
42	80/2 cotton		100	20	1,300	100 den. or cotton	200 den.
45 or 48	150 den. rayon	8	100	20	1,400	100 den. or cotton	200 den.
45 or 48	100/2 cotton		100	20	1,360	100 den. or cotton	200 den.
45 or 48	100 den. rayon	10	75	25	1,450	100 den. or cotton	200 den.
45 or 48	100/2 cotton		75	25	1,410	100 den. or cotton	200 den.
51 and up	75 den. rayon	15	120	30	1,600	75 den. or cotton	150 den.
51 and up	140/2 cotton		120	30	1,560	75 den. or cotton	150 den.

[1] Can use only viscose rayon yarn qualifying as yarn of 50 denier or finer and having an average tenacity of 2.3 grams per denier or higher irrespective of elongation.

(c) The leg length shall be 29 inches with a 1½ inch tolerance plus or minus. Any person who manufactured proportioned length hosiery outside the tolerances permitted by this paragraph (c) in 1942 may apply to the War Production Board for permission to continue such manufacture. Such application shall be in writing, and shall set forth all pertinent facts. The War Production Board may take such action on such application as it may deem proper.

(d) The minimum length of the welt shall be 3½ inches and of the afterwelt 1½ inches.

(e) The minimum number of needles used in knitting hosiery shall be the full 14 inch bar less two needles at each end of the bar on all gauges.

(f) The minimum number of courses are to be counted in conventional or legger-footer construction, from the first course in the welt to the loose course in the heel; in single unit or rack-back constructions, from the first course in the welt to the course in the heel on which the widest course in the rack-back falls.

(g) The heel splicing shall measure 4½ inches from the bottom of the heel with a ½ inch tolerance, plus or minus.

(h) All seams shall be made with a minimum of 16 stitches to the inch and be made of a good quality two or three ply seaming yarn.

(i) Based on a 14 inch head, the maximum number of total flare and calf narrowings shall be:

39 gauge	40 narrowings.
42 gauge	42 narrowings.
45 gauge	44 narrowings.
48 gauge	46 narrowings.
51 gauge	50 narrowings.
54 gauge and up	Optional.

(j) The reinforcing yarn in the toe must start within 10 courses from the first toe narrowing.

(k) Where two-ply cotton yarns are specified the equivalent count in single yarns may be used.

Needles	If cotton	Welt construction if rayon		Body or boot construction if rayon		Splicing yarns when used	Heel and toe yarns	Minimum total courses of all-over rayon construction		Total minimum courses if made with cotton welts	Minimum total courses if all-over cotton construction

Above 340	140/2	100	10 turns	75	20 turns	None	140/2	75	1,320	1,296	140/2	1,356

(b) Where definite counts of cotton (but not rayon) yarn are specified in the table, no finer counts of cotton yarn may be used, but combination yarns of cotton and rayon, or cotton, rayon and wool mixed yarns, and coarser counts of cotton yarns, or spun rayon yarn of total equivalent denier or heavier may be used.

(c) Where two-ply cotton yarns are specified in the table the equivalent counts in single yarns may be used.

(d) The leg length of women's seamless hosiery shall be 30 inches with 1 inch tolerance plus or minus. All welts to finish 4 inches with ½ inch tolerance.

(e) The specified minimum total courses are to be counted from the first course in the welt to the end of the high splicing where the reciprocating motion is started for the heel.

(f) Mesh or tuck stitch constructions in women's circular knit hosiery are restricted to the following constructions:

(1) On single-end tuck stitch knitting, no finer than one end of 100 denier rayon yarn may be used in the leg on any machine regardless of number of needles.

(2) On double-end mesh knitting no finer than 75 denier rayon yarn may be used in the leg on any machine regardless of number of needles.

(3) Minimum number of turns per inch in the rayon yarn in mesh or tuck stitch constructions are to be the same as shown in above table for plain knit constructions for similar deniers.

(g) All sole splicing yarns are prohibited in women's circular knit all-over cotton hosiery and in women's circular knit rayon hosiery when the main end is 100 denier rayon yarn or heavier.

(h) No manufacturer of women's circular knit hosiery shall put in dye or knit ingrain more than seven basic body colors for any one six months spring or fall season, and no more than five of these seven colors in any one style number in any corresponding six months period. In addition to the foregoing colors, white is also permitted.

(i) Plied ends of single rayon yarn may be used if they make the equivalent denier of yarns shown in the table.

(m) In single unit or rack-back construction the total minimum number of courses may be no more than 40 courses less than the minimums for conventional constructions shown in the above table.

(n) No lace bands, fancy designs or numerals are to be knit in welt or after-welt. No picot stitches are to be placed more closely than ¾ inch apart except for the top ½ inch of the welt.

(o) No manufacturer shall put in dye or knit ingrain more than 7 basic body colors for any six months spring (Jan. 1st-June 30th) or six months fall (July 1st-Dec. 31st) season and no more than five of these seven colors in any one style number in any corresponding six months period. In addition to the foregoing colors, white is also permitted.

SCHEDULE B

WOMEN'S SEAMLESS, CIRCULAR KNIT HOSIERY

(a) No manufacturer shall produce any women's seamless or circular plain-knit hosiery unless it meets the minimum specifications shown on the following table:

SCHEDULE C

MEN'S HOSIERY

(a) The following limitations apply to men's hosiery but do not apply to the manufacture of men's work socks or bundle socks made of wool, part wool, or cotton.

(b) No manufacturer may produce in any mill fancy half-hose patterns which were not in actual production in such mill during the sixty-day (60) period immediately prior to April 2, 1943. Any machines that have been idle for this entire period may be set-up on patterns of the mill's choosing, but when so set-up, they are subject to the limitations of this clause.

(c) (1) In any six months period, no one mill shall put in dye or knit ingrain more than seven (7) basic colors and no more than five (5) of such seven basic colors in any one style, to which may be added white and three War Service colors.

(2) No limitations are placed upon the use of various colors in yarns used purely for decorative purposes in men's fancy half-hose.

(d) No men's half-hose are to be manufactured with any splicing or reinforcing yarn in the sole.

(e) The doubling, turning or welting or hemming of true ribbed tops in men's half-hose or those made on N-H or Komet machines is prohibited.

(f) No men's half-hose are to be manufactured with any mock-seams.

SCHEDULE D

MISSES', CHILDREN'S AND INFANTS' HOSIERY

(a) No manufacturer shall put in production any fancy or novelty patterns or designs, not actually in production in the period between October 1st, 1942, and April 2, 1943.

(b) No manufacturer shall produce any children's half-socks in a foot-size larger than seven and one-half (7½). Infants' ribbed long hose may not be produced in a foot-size exceeding 5½ or in a color other than white.

(c) (1) The total finished leg-length of all misses', children's, and infants' anklets either straight-up or cuff-top is not to exceed the measurements shown in Table #10 of U. S. Commercial Standards, C. S. 46-40, as follows:

TABLE 10.—STANDARD LENGTHS OF ANKLETS (FOLDED AND SINGLE CUFFS)

Size	Number of needles	Size of cylinder (diameter)	Standard length	Tolerance
		Inches	Inches	Inch
5–5½	120–160	2¼–2½	4	±¼
6–6½	120–180	2¼–3	4½	±¼
7–7½	130–200	2½–3¼	5	±¼
8–8½	140–220	2½–3½	5½	±¼
9–9½	150–240	2¾–3½	6	±¼
10–10½	160–240	3–3½	6	±¼
11–11½	120–180	3¼–3¾	6	±¼

(2) No cuff may be turned down or folded more than once, and shall not be made of more than one thickness of fabric before folding.

(3) No top or cuff either straight-up or folded is to measure when finished more than two (2) inches in length.

(d) (1) No true-ribbed, topped-on anklets or anklets made on H-H or Komet machines in sizes 8 and up are to be manufactured with other than straight-up tops. No cuff or turned tops.

(2) All folded down or cuff top anklets in sizes 8 and up are to be manufactured with sewed-on tops.

(e) No misses', children's or infants' hosiery shall be manufactured with any splicing or reinforcing yarn in the sole of the foot.

(f) In any six months period, no manufacturer of misses', children's or infants' hosiery shall knit or put in dye more than seven (7) basic body colors and, in staples, no more than six (6) of such basic colors in any one style and in novelties no more than four (4) of such basic colors in any one style. In addition to the foregoing colors, white is also permitted. No restriction is placed upon the use of any colored yarns in the manufacture of decorative stripes, designs and figures in any part of any misses', children's or infants' hosiery.

PART 3236—QUINACRINE

[General Preference Order M-306]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of quinacrine for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3236.1 General Preference Order M-306—(a) Definitions. (1) "Quinacrine" means the chemical compound of that name or the name "Quinacrine Hydrochloride U. S. P.", whether sold under either of such names or under a trade name (including the name "atabrine"). The term includes the chemical compound quinacrine in any medicinal tablet or other dosage form, except ampoules.

(2) "Producer" means any person who produces or imports quinacrine or has quinacrine prepared for him pursuant to toll agreement, or who makes quinacrine tablets or other dosage forms of quinacrine, except ampoules.

(b) Restrictions on deliveries and use. (1) No producer shall deliver or use any quinacrine except as specifically authorized or directed by War Production Board. No person shall accept delivery of any quinacrine which he knows or has reason to believe is delivered in violation of this order.

(2) Authorizations or directions with respect to deliveries or use of quinacrine by producers in each calendar month will so far as practicable be issued by War Production Board prior to the commencement of such month (in the normal case on Form PD-602 filed pursuant to paragraph (c)(1)), but War Production Board may at any time issue directions to any person with respect to deliveries to be made or with respect to the use or uses which may or may not be made of quinacrine to be delivered or then on hand.

(3) In the event that any producer, after receiving notice from War Production Board with respect to a delivery of quinacrine which he is authorized or directed to make to any specific customer, shall be unable to make such delivery either because of receipt of notice of cancellation from such customer or otherwise, such producer shall forthwith give notice of such fact to the War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M-306, and shall not, in the absence of specific authorization or direction from War Production Board sell or otherwise dispose of the quinacrine which he is unable to deliver as aforesaid.

(c) Applications and reports. (1) Each producer seeking authorization to deliver or use quinacrine during any calendar month, beginning with May 1943, shall file application on or before the 20th day of the preceding month. Application for authorization to deliver or use quinacrine, in April, 1943, shall be filed as many days as possible in advance of the proposed date of delivery or use. In any case, application shall be made on Form PD-602 in the manner prescribed therein, subject to the following special instructions:

(i) Copies of Form PD-602 may be obtained at local field offices of the War Production Board.

(ii) Four copies shall be prepared of which three shall be filed with the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M-306, the fourth being retained for producer's files. At least one of the copies filed with War Production Board shall be manually signed by producer by a duly authorized official. Where the application is for authorization to deliver both uncompounded (bulk) quinacrine and quinacrine in tablet or other dosage form, one set of Form PD-602 shall be filed for deliveries of uncompounded (bulk) quinacrine and a second set of such Form PD-602 for deliveries of quinacrine in tablet or other dosage forms.

(iii) In the heading under "Name of material", specify "Quinacrine"; under "Grade", indicate whether uncompounded (bulk) or in dosage form (specifying particular dosage form); under "WPB Order No.", specify "M-306"; under heading "This schedule is for delivery to be made during month/quarter ----------, 194--", strike out the word "quarter" and specify the month and year during which deliveries covered by the application are to made; under "Unit of measure", specify "pounds" (or number of tablets or other dosage units); under "Name of company", producer should specify his name and the address of the plant or warehouse from which he proposes to make shipment.

(iv) In Column 1, each producer who seeks authorization to deliver uncompounded (bulk) quinacrine to any other person in the applicable month for the manufacture of tablets or other dosage forms, will list the name and delivery destination of each such other person. In no other case, however, whether the product to be delivered is uncompounded (bulk) quinacrine or quinacrine in dosage form, is it necessary to list names and delivery destinations, but classes of customers will be lumped as provided in subparagraph (v).

(v) Except as provided in subdivision (iv), any order or orders falling within one of the following classes need not be itemized, but producer shall list in Column 1 the applicable class heading (viz. one of those specified in this subparagraph) and in each case will specify in Column 4, opposite the applicable class heading, the total quantity of quinacrine ordered for delivery to such class during the month to which the application relates:

Army
Navy
Maritime Commission
War Shipping Administration
Civilian
Lend-Lease
Export other than Lend-Lease to (name country and show separate total for order for each country).

In Column 7, applicant will enter contract numbers applicable to orders placed by Branch of Service or Government Agency or, in case of purchase for export, the export license number, if any.

(vi) Where the application is for authorization to deliver uncompounded (bulk) quinacrine to another person for the manufacture of tablets or other dosage forms, producer will specify in Column 1a "Manufacture of ----------" (specifying particular dosage form).

(vii) A producer requiring permission to use all or part of his own production of quinacrine (whether or not for use in the manufacture of tablets or other dosage forms) shall list his own name on Form PD-602 as a customer, specifying in Column 1a, where that is the case, that his use is the manufacture of tablets or other dosage forms.

(viii) Each producer will fill out Table II in its entirety. In Column 8 under "Grade", producer will specify "uncompounded" or "tablets" or other dosage form.

(2) On or before the 5th day of each month beginning with May, 1943, each producer shall file Form PD-602, subject to the following special instructions:

(i) Two copies shall be prepared of which one shall be filed with War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref: M-306, the second copy to be retained for producer's file. The filed copy shall be manually signed by producer by a duly authorized official. Where in the preceding month producer delivered both uncompounded (bulk) quinacrine and quinacrine in dosage forms, one Form PD-602 shall be filed for deliveries of uncompounded (bulk) quinacrine and a second Form PD-602 for deliveries of quinacrine in dosage form.

(ii) The same information shall be given as specified in paragraph (c) (1) (iii) hereof with the following change; under the heading "This schedule is for deliverie to be made during the month/quarter, ----------, 194--", strike out the words "to be" and "quarter" and specify the month and year preceding the month in which such Form PD-602 is filed.

(iii) In column 1, producer will list the name and delivery destination of each customer (exclusive of Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, Lend-Lease or other person or agency, purchasing for export) to whom he delivered quinacrine in the preceding month, and in Column 4 will indicate the quantity delivered to each.

(iv) In all other respects, Form PD-602 will be left blank.

(3) The War Production Board may require each person affected by this order to file such other reports as may be prescribed, and may issue other and further directions with respect to preparing and filing Form PD-602.

(d) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) Notification of customers. Each supplier shall, as soon as practicable, notify each of his regular customers of the requirements of this order, but failure to give notice shall not excuse any such person from complying with the terms hereof.

(3) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provisions of this order, or who, in connection with this order wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(4) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C.; Ref: M-306.

Issued this 2d day of April 1943.

PART 1340—FUEL

[RPS 88,[1] Amendment 88]

PETROLEUM AND PETROLEUM PRODUCTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Price Schedule No. 88 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1340.159 (b) (14) is added to read as follows:

(14) Heavy fuel oil, District 5 as defined by the Petroleum Administrator for War. A seller's maximum price or prices at a particular shipping or delivery point in District 5 as defined by the Petroleum Administrator for War for (a) Pacific Standard No. 300 fuel oil having a viscosity of not less than 25 and not more than 60 seconds Saybolt Furol (at 122° F.) and for (b) Pacific Standard No. 400 fuel oil having a viscosity of not less than 60 seconds Saybolt Furol (at 122° F.) shall be the sum of his maximum price or prices established prior to April 1, 1943 under § 1340.159 (b) and 25 cents per barrel.

2. Section 1340.159 (d) (2) (i) is amended to read as follows:

(i) Where a contract for the sale of dry gas was in effect on May 1, 1942, the seller's maximum price to the same purchaser for deliveries of dry gas produced from the same source or sources as the dry gas covered by the contract shall not exceed the price that could be charged for such deliveries under the terms of the contract that was in effect on May 1, 1942: Provided, however, That where, under the terms of any contract in effect on May 1, 1942 between a seller and a purchaser, the price for dry gas was adjustable to the price of fuel oil, the seller's maximum price to such purchaser shall be computed by regarding the maximum price of fuel oil on May 1, 1942 as the price of such fuel oil.

This amendment shall become effective April 1, 1943.

[MPR 182,[1] Amendment 5]

KRAFT WRAPPING PAPERS AND CERTAIN BAG PAPERS AND CERTAIN BAGS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 182 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1347.301 (b) (1) (iii) is added to read as follows:

(iii) Zone D ---------- Same as Zone A in the Spokane trading area including Spokane and Pullman, Washington and Coeur d'Alene, Wallace, Moscow and Lewiston, Idaho. In the remainder of Zone D, no differential may be added, but maximum prices may be f. o. b. docks or cars Seattle, Tacoma and Vancouver in Washington, Portland in Oregon, San Francisco, Oakland, San Pedro, Long Beach or Wilmington in California, or f. o. b. cars Los Angeles, California, with no further freight allowance.

2. In § 1347.301 (b) (2) the next to the last sentence is amended to read as follows:

(Quantity includes the total weight of any combination of the grades listed in paragraph (a) of this section and § 1347.11 (a) (6) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 129, and the bags listed in § 1347.315 of this Regulation. * * *)

3. Section 1347.301 (b) (7) (i) is amended to read as follows:

(i) Chipboard top and bottom ------ no differential.

4. Section 1347.301 (b) (7) (vi) is amended to read as follows:

(vi) Ream wrapping, sealing or banding----------[1] 25¢

[1] Plus the actual cost in excess of 25¢.

5. Section 1347.301 (b) (9) is amended to read as follows:

(9) Differentials for colors other than tints, more costly finishes, excluding variety bag paper, special machine markings other than machine glazed striping or felt striping, brightness of over 35 to 50 G. E. inclusive, and test specifications definitely in excess of those herein defined, shall not be in excess of the minimum of each such differential that was actually charged or offered during the period of October 1 to October 31, 1941, inclusive. Within ten days after the first sale involving the application of any such differential subsequent to July 28, 1942, the seller shall submit to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a report setting forth the amount of such differential, to what grade herein defined the differential was applied, a description of the grade sold and the purpose to which it is to be put, and the estimated tonnage of such paper to be manufactured during the succeeding six months. Any changes in differentials already reported by manufacturers shall be reported to the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., within ten days after the effective date of this Amendment No. 5. All such differentials used or reported shall be subject to adjustment or disapproval at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

6. Section 1347.311 Footnote 4 is amended to read as follows:

[4] "Unbleached sulphate" means woodpulp produced by the sulphate process from either coniferous or broadleaf wood either bleached or unbleached to a General Electric brightness of 35 or less.

7. Section 1347.311 (a) (6) is amended to read as follows:

(6) "Standard kraft wrapping paper" means any machine finished wrapping paper 25 lb. basis weight or over, containing 50% or more unbleached sulphate [4] fibre and testing less than 86% of the basis weight Mullen Test under Standard TAPPI testing procedure. Wrapping papers 18 lb. to less than 25 lb. basis weight otherwise meeting these specifications shall be "No. 1 kraft wrapping paper".

8. Section 1347.311 (a) (7) is amended to read as follows:

(7) "No. 1 kraft wrapping paper" means any machine finished wrapping paper 18 lb. basis weight or over containing 100% unbleached sulphate [4] fibre and testing 86% and not more than 96% of the basis weight Mullen Test under Standard TAPPI testing procedure. All rolls and bundles must be stencilled or labeled with a designation including the words, "No. 1 kraft".

9. Section 1347.311 (a) (9) is amended to read as follows:

(9) "Imitation kraft wrapping paper" means any wrapping paper 18 lb. basis weight or over containing 60% or more of any one or any combination of waste paper, groundwood or screenings, but also containing 25% or more of unbleached sulphate [4] pulp or kraft waste, kraft screenings, or kraft clippings. All rolls and bundles must be stencilled or labeled with a designation including the words "Imitation kraft".

10. Section 1347.311 (a) (10) is amended to read as follows:

(10) "Standard unbleached kraft butchers wrapping paper" means any wrapping paper containing 85% or more unbleached sulphate [4] fibre testing less than 70% of the basis weight Mullen Test under Standard TAPPI testing procedure and possessing sizing, formation, etc., to make it suitable for butchers' use and sold for butchers' use.

11. Section 1347.311 (a) (11) is amended to read as follows:

(11) "No. 1 unbleached kraft butchers wrapping paper" means any wrapping paper containing 100% unbleached sulphate [4] fibre testing not less than 70% of the basis weight Mullen Test under Standard TAPPI testing procedure, possessing sizing, formation, etc., to make it suitable for butchers' use and sold for butchers' use. All rolls and bundles must be stencilled or labeled with a designation including the words "No. 1 kraft butchers".

12. Section 1347.311 (a) (13) is amended to read as follows:

(13) "Standard kraft bag paper" means any paper 30 lb. basis weight or over containing 50% or more unbleached sulphate fibre [4] and testing less than 96% of the basis weight Mullen Test under Standard TAPPI testing procedure, and shipped in rolls 20" or more diameter for conversion into grocery bags.

13. Section 1347.311 (a) (14) is amended to read as follows:

(14) "Variety kraft bag paper" means any machine finish paper 25 lb. basis weight or over containing 50% or more unbleached sulphate fibre and testing less than 96% of the basis weight Mullen Test under Standard TAPPI testing procedure and shipped in rolls 20" or more diameter for conversion into variety bags such as millinery bags, notion bags, liquor bottle bags, banana bags, doughnut bags, garment bags, pants bags, laundry bags, nail bags, shopping bags and sugar bags, excluding bags of specialty papers and transparent materials.

14. Section 1347.311 (a) (15) is amended to read as follows:

(15) "Machine glazed kraft bag paper" means any paper 18 lb. basis weight or over containing 50% or more unbleached sulphate fibre, glazed on one side by drying on a Yankee machine and shipped in rolls 20" or more diameter, for conversion into bags and testing less than 90% of the basis weight Mullen Test under Standard TAPPI testing procedure.

15. Section 1347.311 (a) (18) is amended to read as follows:

(18) Zone A means all the area of the continental United States east of the eastern boundaries of the states of New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming, South Dakota and North Dakota, but including the cities of Sioux Falls, Yankton, Aberdeen, Huron, Brookings, Mitchell and Watertown, South Dakota, and Grand Forks, Fargo and Wahpeton, North Dakota.

16. Section 1347.311 (a) (21) is added to read as follows:

(21) Zone D means all the states of California, Oregon and Washington, and Coeur d'Alene, Wallace, Moscow and Lewiston, Idaho.

17. In § 1347.315 (b) the first line following the words "Millinery and notion bags" is amended to read as follows:

25= M. G Brown stripe Kraft--- 25-11/5s

18. Section 1347.315. Footnote 3 is hereby revoked.

19. Section 1347.315 (c) (1) (iii) is amended to read as follows:

(iii) Zone D. Same as Zone A in the Spokane trading area including Spokane and Pullman, Washington and Coeur d'Alene, Wallace, Moscow and Lewiston, Idaho. In the remainder of Zone D, no differential may be added, but maximum prices may be f. o. b. docks or cars Seattle, Tacoma and Vancouver in Washington, Portland in Oregon, San Francisco, Oakland, San Pedro, Long Beach or Wilmington in California, or f. o. b. cars Los Angeles, California, with no further freight allowance.

20. Section 1347.301 (c) (5) is hereby revoked.

21. Section 1347.315 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) Definitions. When used in this Amendment No. 3 the term:

22. Section 1347.315 (d) (5) is hereby revoked.

23. Section 1347.315 (d) (6) is hereby revoked.

24. Section 1347.315 (d) (7) is hereby revoked.

25. Section 1347.315 (d) (8) is hereby revoked.

26. In § 1347.317 List and Discount Table for Handle Shopping Bags is amended to read as follows:

PART 1369—METAL ORES

[MPR 356]

ROYALTIES ON COPPER, LEAD AND ZINC ORES

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper to establish maximum royalties to be paid on the mining of copper, lead and zinc ores in order to ensure that money paid by the Metals Reserve Company under the Premium Price Plan shall not be dissipated but shall make possible greater production of copper, lead and zinc for the war effort. Such regulation is likewise necessary in order to restrain further increases in royalty payments which will so increase costs of production as to discourage the exploitation of marginal ores of copper, lead and zinc or compel the Metals Reserve Company, pursuant to the Premium Price Plan, to pay substantially larger amounts of public moneys in order to enable mine operators to bear the increased cost entailed in higher royalties.

The Administrator has given due consideration to royalties on the mining of copper, lead, and zinc ores which were charged and paid between October 1 and 15, 1941, and to relevant factors of general applicability. So far as practicable the Price Administrator has consulted with representatives of lessors and producers.

In the judgment of the Administrator the maximum royalties on copper, lead and zinc ores established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation, issued simul-

SEC. 1 Royalties covered by this regulation. As the price paid for ores by a miner extracting them from land owned by another person is generally called a royalty, the maximum prices established by this regulation for copper, lead and zinc ores are stated in terms of the maximum royalties which may be paid by the miner of such ores (called the "lessee") or received by the party owning or controlling the mining property (called the "lessor"). The term "royalty," as used in this regulation, means the price or charge paid by the lessee for copper, lead or zinc bearing ores, or the metals contained therein, together with the right of removing the same. It is the charge or price received by the lessor for copper, lead or zinc bearing ores as they exist in the ground and is payable on those ores, or the metals contained therein, as they are mined and processed by the lessee.

This regulation covers royalties charged and paid for the mining of copper, lead and zinc bearing ores and is limited to cases (a) where the lessee pays to the lessor a definite sum for each unit (as per pound of metal or per ton of ore) mined or produced or (b) where the lessee pays to the lessor a part or percentage of the market price of the metals mined, smelter returns, or some other sum, so that the amount paid by the lessee is based on the amount of ore mined or metal produced.

This regulation does not apply to any case where the lessee pays a flat sum for the right to mine any quantity of ore which he may be able to remove from a property during a stated period and any such agreement shall not, for the purposes of this regulation, be considered a lease. Neither does this regulation apply to the sale or grant of mineral rights for a fixed sum as distinguished from a lease granting the right to mine and carrying the obligations to pay for ore mined or metal produced. (This is true even though the purchase price is payable as royalty.) It does, however, apply to a royalty payable under a lease even though the lease contains or is accompanied by an option to purchase. This regulation applies to overriding royalties and to royalties payable under sub-leases as well as prime leases.

For the purposes of this regulation a mine, slag, or tailings dump is considered as ore in the ground and producing from a dump is considered as mining.

SEC. 2 Maximum royalties on copper, lead and zinc ores mined from properties and workings under lease on December 31, 1942. The maximum royalty which may be paid or received on copper, lead and zinc ores mined from any property or working which was under lease on December 31, 1942, shall be a royalty determined according to the terms of the lease in effect on December 31, 1942. A lease shall be considered to have provided for the payment of a royalty determined on the basis of premium or bonus money if during 1942, or within normal settlement time thereafter, a royalty so determined was in fact paid for ores mined during 1942 from the property or working covered by such lease. In no case, however, shall any royalty be calculated, paid or received on the basis of premium or bonus money in excess of 5¢ per pound of copper, 2¾¢ per pound of lead, and 2¾¢ per pound of zinc, which is received from the Metals Reserve Company pursuant to the Premium Price Plan or a special contract with the lessee. Where premium or bonus money is paid by the Metals Reserve Company on the basis of production of concentrates, equivalent figures shall be used in lieu of 2¾¢ per pound of lead and 2¾¢ per pound of zinc. As of the date of the issuance of this regulation $41.80 per ton for 80% lead concentrates and $29.70 per ton for 60% zinc concentrates are the equivalent figures for the Tri-State District.

The maximum royalty payable on copper, lead or zinc ores mined from any property or working shall be determined by the lease in effect on such property or working on December 31, 1942, even though a new lease has been, or may be, made or the lessor and lessee are, or may be, different from the parties to the lease which was in effect on December 31, 1942.

For the purposes of this regulation no property or working shall be considered to have been under lease on December 31, 1942, if the lease thereon was signed or executed prior to January 1, 1941, and no operational or developmental work was done on such property or working from January 1, 1941 to and including December 31, 1942.

As used in this section and hereafter a "property" means a mine or a group of mines operated as one producing unit and a "working" means a limited part of a single producing mine as a specified level or limited area within a mine. In every case where a group of mines was covered by a single lease on December 31, 1942, that lease, for the purpose of this section, shall be considered as having been applicable to each mine separately as well as collectively.

The following are examples of maximum royalties determined on the basis of a lease in effect on December 31, 1942:

Example 1. A five year lease on Mine A was signed in 1939, which provided for a 10% royalty on net smelter returns. This property was mined under this lease through August 1942 but was closed the last four months of 1942.

The maximum royalty which may be paid on ore produced from Mine A is 10% of net smelter returns unless royalty was also paid on the basis of premium money during 1942. If royalty was paid on the basis of premium money received for production for any month from February through August 1942, royalty may be paid on the basis of the first series of premiums but not on the basis of premium money in excess of 5¢ per pound for copper or 2¾¢ per pound each for lead and zinc.

The above is true as to the maximum royalty payable on production from Mine A even though title to the mine or ownership of the lease has changed since the property was last mined.

Example 2. Mine B was under a lease on December 31, 1942, which provided for a royalty of 3% if combined lead and zinc assay was less than 5%, for 10% if 5 to 10% combined grade and for 15% if better than 10% combined grade. The combined assay for December 1942 was 8% and a 10% royalty was therefore paid under the lease.

If lead-zinc assay for April 1943 is 11% the maximum royalty which may be paid is 15%. On the other hand, if the combined grade for April drops to 4.75%, the maximum royalty which may be paid is 3%.

Example 3. In August 1942 a five year lease on Mine C was signed, which provided for a 5% royalty until June 1, 1943 and a 10% royalty thereafter.

In April 1943 the maximum royalty which may be paid on ore produced from Mine C is 5%. For production in June 1943 and thereafter the maximum royalty will be 10%.

Example 4. In 1937 a ten year lease on Mine D was signed, which provided for a 12% royalty. There has been no mining or development of this property since 1938.

The maximum royalty which may be paid on ore produced from Mine D is not 12% but a royalty to be negotiated between the parties and approved by the Administrator as provided in section 3.

SEC. 3 Maximum royalties on copper, lead and zinc ores mined from properties and workings not under lease on December 31, 1942. The maximum royalty which may be paid or received on copper, lead or zinc ores mined from any property or working which was not under lease on December 31, 1942, shall be a royalty approved by the Administrator. No royalty shall, however, be calculated, paid or received on the basis of premium or bonus money in excess of 5¢ per pound for copper, 2¾¢ per pound for lead or 2¾¢ per pound for zinc, or equivalent figures if payment is on the basis of concentrates.

Every royalty covered by the provisions of this section must be reported by the lessor within 30 days after the effective date of this regulation or within 30 days after the lease providing for it has been signed or executed. This report shall be made by letter addressed to the Non-Ferrous Metals Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and the royalty reported may be approved or disapproved by a letter signed by the Price Executive of the Non-Ferrous Metals Branch. In approving or disapproving the royalty provisions of such lease, the Office of Price Administration will take account of the royalty provisions generally in effect for similar properties in the mining district in which the property is situated. Pending such approval or disapproval the lessee may pay and the lessor may receive royalty calculated according to the terms submitted for approval. Where a royalty is disapproved by letter, the Administrator will issue a formal order to the same effect if within 30 days any party to the lease requests him to do so.

The report called for by this section shall include (a) the name and address of the lessee and lessor, (b) the royalty terms submitted for approval, (c) a description of the property as to name and location, (d) a statement of royalty rates paid during the last operation of the property, (e) a list of the major items of equipment owned by the lessor to be used by the lessee, (f) a list of the workings in the property to be used by the lessee, (g) a statement describing any ore reserves in the property to be worked by the lessee with respect to tonnage and grade thereof and the cost, if any, to the lessor of the development of those ore reserves and the dates between which such cost was incurred, (h) a statement that the property or working was not under lease on December 31, 1942. This report may be made by the lessee as agent for the lessor.

SEC. 4 Records and reports. (a) On and after April 1, 1943, every person paying or receiving any royalty on copper, lead or zinc ores shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, for so long as the Price Control Act of 1942 remains in effect, complete and accurate records of each such payment and receipt showing (1) the amount and date thereof, (2) the names and addresses of the parties, (3) the source of the ore on which such royalty is paid and the period during which it was mined, and (4) a copy of the lease under which the payment was made.

(b) Persons affected by this regulation shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may from time to time require.

SEC. 5 Where this regulation applies. This regulation shall apply only to the forty-eight states and the District of Columbia.

SEC. 6 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 7 Prohibition against paying or receiving higher than maximum royalties. (a) On and after April 1, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation, no person shall pay or receive any royalty in excess of the maximum royalty permitted by this regulation and no person shall agree or offer to pay or receive such royalty. This regulation shall not, however, apply to any royalty paid by reason of ores or concentrates shipped to a custom mill or smelter prior to April 1, 1943.

(b) Any practice or device which is an attempt to get the effect of a royalty higher than the maximum without actually charging a higher royalty is prohibited and is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright excessive royalty.

(c) No person operating a custom mill or smelter, and no paying officer thereof, shall be subjected to any liability under this regulation by reason of any disbursement of funds to lessors and lessees when the person disbursing such funds is serving as a paying agent and has no interest in the funds.

(d) Royalties lower than the maximum royalties permitted by this regulation may be paid or received.

SEC. 8 Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 9 Definitions. (a) When used in this regulation the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Royalty" means the price paid on the mining of copper, lead or zinc ores as defined and limited in SEC. 1.

(3) "Copper, lead or zinc ore" means any ore mined from (i) a property or working on which a quota for copper, lead or zinc is established under the Premium Price Plan for Copper, Lead and Zinc or from (ii) a property or working which is being mined pursuant to a special contract with the Metals Reserve Company, or some other governmental agency, which contract is for the purchase of copper, lead or zinc, or ores or concentrates containing these metals.

(4) "Premium or bonus money" means any money paid by the Metals Reserve Company pursuant to the Premium Price Plan for Copper, Lead and Zinc. It likewise includes any money paid by the Metals Reserve Company, or other governmental agency, pursuant to a special purchase contract to the extent that such purchase price is designed to and does exceed the current market price for such copper, lead or zinc ores, concentrates or metals in the locality where delivery is made. It does not include any part of the price which may be paid by the Metals Reserve Company pursuant to a published price schedule applicable to all sellers of such material.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used in this regulation.

Effective Date

This regulation shall become effective April 1, 1943.

NOTE. All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 1st day of April 1943.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[Ration Order 11,[1] Amendment 56]

FUEL OIL RATIONING REGULATIONS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order No. 11 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1394.5001 (a) [1] (15) is amended by inserting a comma after the phrase "any other liquid petroleum product" and by inserting after the comma the phrase "except used lubricating oil whether or not re-refined,".

2. Section 1394.5503 (c) is amended by adding after the period at the end of the paragraph the sentence "If such coupon sheet was issued as a ration for heat or both heat and hot water, however, it need not be so surrendered until application is made for a ration for the same purpose for the next heating year."

3. Section 1394.5503 (h) is amended by inserting the parenthetical phrase "(other than for heat or both heat and hot water)" between the phrase "the current ration" and the phrase "after the expiration date thereof."

This amendment shall become effective on April 6, 1943.

PART 1412—SOLVENTS

[MPR 28,[2] Amendment 1]

ETHYL ALCOHOL

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 28 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1412.263 (b) (1) (ii) is amended by inserting after the phrase "To the maximum tank car price for 100 gallons," the phrase "of the undenatured ethyl alcohol being used," and deleting the phrase "of SD2B ethyl alcohol ($48.00 in the case of fermentation ethyl alcohol and $24.50 in the case of synthetic ethyl alcohol)."

2. The first sentence in § 1412.263 (h) (1) is amended by deleting the phrase "having a capacity of less than 15,000 gallons per day and."

3. The last sentence in § 1412.263 (h) (2) is amended to read as follows:

The prices for each succeeding calendar quarterly period shall be computed on the basis of the actual cost items for the preceding period, except that the costs of grain used in the production of the ethyl alcohol may be computed on the basis of the estimated grain costs for the period for which prices are being determined, in which case the report shall state that grain costs are estimated and shall give the basis of the calculation of the estimated costs.

4. A new § 1412.263 (i) is added as follows:

(i) For the purposes of this regulation, whenever a sale of ethyl alcohol is made by one manufacturer, and ethyl alcohol of another manufacturer is actually delivered in accordance with or pursuant to an order or request of the Office of Defense Transportation, the transaction may be treated as if delivery had been made of ethyl alcohol produced by the manufacturer making the sale, and a price may be charged not in excess of the maximum price established for such ethyl alcohol, except that no purchaser may be required to pay any transportation expenses not actually incurred.

This amendment shall become effective as of February 27, 1943.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[SR 14 to GMPR,[1] Amendment 150]

SALES OF GREASE BY INDEPENDENT COLLECTORS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Supplementary Regulation 14 to the General Maximum Price Regulation is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1499.73 (a) (3) (ii) (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) Six cents per pound on sales by an independent collector to a renderer of grease collected in those areas in which an independent collector or renderer collected fat bearing or oil bearing waste materials during the period from May 1, 1942 to July 6, 1942, inclusive. This maximum price of six cents per pound shall be the maximum price of the grease delivered to the renderer, except that where the grease is shipped to the renderer by common carrier, the maximum price shall be six cents per pound f. o. b. point of shipment.

2. Section 1499.73 (a) (3) (ii) (e) is added to read as follows:

(e) Seven cents per pound on sales by an independent collector to a renderer of grease collected in those areas in which no independent collector or renderer collected fat bearing or oil bearing waste materials during the period from May 1, 1942 to July 6, 1942, inclusive. If the grease is not picked up by the renderer at the place of business of the independent collector but is shipped to the renderer with the cost of transportation being paid by the independent collector, the actual cost of transportation may be added to the maximum prices herein specified.

This amendment shall become effective April 7, 1943.

NEHI CORPORATION

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1792 Approval of maximum prices for sales of new Royal Crown Cola concentrate by Nehi Corporation of Columbus, Georgia. (a) On and after April 2, 1943 the maximum price for new Royal Crown Cola concentrate sold by Nehi Corporation of Columbus, Georgia shall be $12.00 per unit f. o. b. Columbus, Georgia, such unit being the amount of concentrate that will produce 1664-12 ounce bottles of finished Royal Crown Cola by Nehi Corporation's standard bottling formula.

(b) Nehi Corporation shall apply to its maximum price for new Royal Crown Cola concentrate the same discounts, allowances, price differentials and terms with respect to payment of transportation charges as it customarily applied in March 1942 to its sales of its former Royal Crown Cola concentrate, unless a change therein results in a lower selling price.

(c) Before or at the time of its first delivery of new Royal Crown Cola concentrate to any purchaser Nehi Corporation shall give a written notification to such purchasers as follows:

OPA has authorized us to sell new Royal Crown Cola concentrate at a maximum price of $12 per unit f. o. b. Columbus, Georgia. Such unit is an amount of concentrate that will produce 1664-12 ounce bottles of finished Royal Crown Cola by our standard bottling formula. Discounts, allowances, price differentials and terms with respect to payment of transportation charges are to be the same as those customarily applied in March 1942 to our sales of the former Royal Crown Cola concentrate unless a change therein results in a lower price. Your ceiling prices for sales of Royal Crown Cola are not affected by this authorization. OPA requires you to keep this notification for examination.

(d) This Order No. 356 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(e) This Order No. 356 (§ 1499.1792) shall become effective as of April 2, 1943.

[Order 358 Under § 1499.3 (b) of GMPR]

LIBBY, M'NEILL & LIBBY

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1794 Authorization of maximum price for sales by Libby, McNeill & Libby of olives packed in a new style and a new container. (a) On and after April 2, 1943 Libby, McNeill & Libby, Chicago, Illinois, may sell and deliver its "Libby's 24/303 Green Ripe Olives" in 9¼ ounce glass containers at a price, f. o. b. factory, no higher than $2.06 per dozen.

(b) Libby, McNeill & Libby shall apply to its maximum selling price of "Libby's 24/303 Green Ripe Olives" in 9¼ ounce glass containers the same discounts, allowances and price differentials which it customarily applies to sales of comparable items, unless a change in these customary discounts, allowances and price differentials results in a lower selling price.

(c) Until the Office of Price Administration issues a new general regulation governing the sale of this item by wholesalers and retailers, sellers at wholesale and retail of "Libby's 24/303 Green Ripe Olives" in 9¼ ounce glass containers shall determine their maximum selling prices in accordance with the provisions of section 1499.3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(d) On and after April 2, 1943, and until the Office of Price Administration issues a new general regulation governing the sale of this item by wholesalers and retailers, Libby, McNeill & Libby shall supply written notifications to wholesalers and retails of "Libby's 24/303 Green Ripe Olives" in 9¼ ounce glass containers, as follows:

(1) Before or at the time of the first delivery to each of its purchasers, Libby, McNeill & Libby shall supply to such purchaser a written notification including the following appropriate statements:

Notification from Libby, McNeill & Libby to Purchasers. The OPA has authorized us to charge the following price for "Libby's 24/303 Green Ripe Olives" in 9¼ ounce glass containers:

$2.06 per dozen containers, subject to the same discounts, allowances and price differentials which we customarily apply to sales of comparable items, unless a change in these customary discounts, allowances and price differentials results in a lower selling price.

Until the Office of Price Administration issues a new general regulation governing the sale of this item by wholesalers and retailers, sellers at wholesale and retail are required to determine their maximum selling prices in accordance with the provisions of § 1499.3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. A copy of a notification for retailers is included in or on every shipping unit of the item. OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

(2) With every shipping unit of the item, Libby, McNeill & Libby shall include, for each dozen containers, a written notification to retailers. If such retailer's notification is enclosed with the containers in a case, package or carton, a legend shall be affixed to such case, package or carton to read "Retailer's Notice Enclosed". The written notification to retailers shall include the following appropriate statement:

Notification from Libby, McNeill & Libby to Retailers. The OPA requires that, until it issues a new general regulation governing the sale of this item by wholesalers and retailers, sellers at wholesale and retail of "Libby's 24/303 Green Ripe Olives" in 9¼ ounce glass containers shall determine their maximum selling prices in accordance with the provisions of § 1499.3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(e) This Order No. 358 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(f) This Order No. 358, § 1499.1794, shall become effective April 2, 1943.

PART 1358—TOBACCO

[MPR 363]

CERTAIN FLUE-CURED TOBACCO PLANTS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for sales of flue-cured tobacco plants (Type Nos. 11 (a), 11 (b), 12, 13 and 14) by a specific maximum price regulation.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250. So far as practical the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with the members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

§ 1358.251 Maximum prices for flue-cured tobacco plants (Type Nos. 11 (a), 11 (b), 12, 13 and 14). Under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, Maximum Price Regulation No. 363—Flue Cured Tobacco Plants (Type Numbers 11 (a), 11 (b), 12, 13 and 14) which is annexed hereto and made a part hereof, is hereby issued.

Authority: 1358.251 issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

SECTION 1. Prohibition against sales or purchases of flue-cured tobacco plants above maximum prices. On and after April 1, 1943 regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation:

(a) No person shall sell or deliver any flue-cured tobacco plants at a price in excess of the maximum price therefor provided by section 4 of this regulation.

(b) No person in the course of trade or business shall purchase or receive any flue-cured tobacco plants at a price in excess of the maximum price therefor provided by section 4 of this regulation.

(c) No person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

SEC. 2. Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by or under this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

SEC. 3. Definitions. (a) When used in this regulation the term:

(1) "Plants" means seedlings.

(2) "Flue-cured tobacco plants (type numbers 11 (a), 11 (b), 12, 13 and 14)" or "Flue-cured tobacco plants" means plants of United States type numbers 11 (a), 11 (b), 12, 13 and 14 as classified in Regulatory Announcement No. 18 of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture.

SEC. 4. Maximum prices for all sellers. The maximum price of any seller for any sale of flue-cured tobacco plants shall be at the rate of $3.50 per thousand plants sold. Such maximum price includes all charges of the seller for preparing the plants for delivery to the buyer, and all charges for transporting the plants to the place where the seller or his agent delivers them to the buyer.

SEC. 5. Export sales. Maximum prices for which flue-cured tobacco plants may be exported shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Regulation[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[1] 7 F.R. 5059, 7242, 8829, 9000, 10530.

SEC. 6. Evasive practices. (a) The maximum prices provided in this regulation shall not be evaded, either by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale or delivery of or relating to flue-cured tobacco plants, or in connection with any other commodity or by way of commission, services, transportation or any charge or discount, premium or other privilege or by tying agreement or other understanding or otherwise.

(b) Specifically but not exclusively the following practices are prohibited:

(1) Requiring, as part of the purchase price of flue-cured tobacco plants, that the buyer give, or agree to give the seller, or a nominee of the seller, an interest in the tobacco to be produced by such plants.

SEC. 7. Records. Every person selling any flue-cured tobacco plants shall make and keep available for examination by the Office of Price Administration for as long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 remains in effect, records of the same kind as he customarily kept relating to the prices which he charged for such flue-cured tobacco plants sold after the effective date of this regulation.

SEC. 8. Enforcement (a) Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have any evidence of any violation of this regulation or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, or any action or practices which constitute such violation, are urged to communicate with the nearest Field or Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration or with its principal office in Washington, D. C.

SEC. 9. Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment to this regulation of general applicability may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 10. Applicability. The provisions of this regulation shall be applicable to the 48 states of the United States and to the District of Columbia.

Effective Date

This regulation shall become effective April 1, 1943.

Issued this 1st day of April 1943.

PRENTISS M BROWN, Administrator.

[Petroleum Directive 64]

PART 1545—PETROLEUM SUPPLY

The fulfillment of the requirements for the defense of the United States has created in District Two a shortage in the supply of certain crude oils and in the supply of transportation facilities for the movement of crude oil and petroleum products for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following operating directive is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest, to provide for the most effective utilization of such crude oils, and to provide adequate supplies of petroleum products for military and other essential uses:

§ 1545.4 Petroleum Directive 64.—(a) Definitions. (1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "District Two" means the States of Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Michigan, Indiana, Wisconsin, Illinois, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, and Oklahoma.

(3) "Refiner" means any person in District Two engaged in the processing, refining or compounding of crude petroleum or finished or unfinished petroleum products.

(b) Contribution to the crude oil supply pool. (1) The Supply and Distribution Committee for District Two shall prepare and submit to the Director of Petroleum Supply, Petroleum Administration for War, a schedule of all persons in District Two who in the month of December 1942 ran an average of 2,000 barrels or more a day of crude petroleum from producing properties in District Two, indicating the average daily amount of crude petroleum which each such person ran from producing properties in District Two during such month.

(2) The Director of Petroleum Supply, Petroleum Administration for War, shall prepare a schedule of the amount of crude petroleum produced in District Two which each person included within the schedule required by paragraph (b) (1) shall make available for sale to such refiners as the Director of Petroleum Supply, Petroleum Administration for War, may designate pursuant to paragraph (c) (2). The amount of crude petroleum which each person included

General Committee for District Two, to act for and on behalf of the Supply and use of the transportation facilities, including pipe lines, lake tankers, barges, petroleum products and petroleum trans-

petroleum which each person included within the schedule required by paragraph (b) (1) shall make available for sale to refiners pursuant to this directive shall, so far as is practicable, be the same proportion of an amount to be determined by the Director of Petroleum Supply, which shall not exceed 40,500 barrels a day, as such person's average daily run in the month of December, 1942, of crude petroleum from producing properties in District Two bears to the total of the average daily runs in the month of December, 1942, of crude petroleum from producing properties in District Two of all persons included within the schedule required by paragraph (b) (1). In establishing the amount of crude petroleum which each person included within the schedule required by paragraph (b) (1) shall make available for sale to refiners pursuant to this directive, deviations from the proportion established in this paragraph shall be based on a consideration of the person's capacity for contributing to the production of war products, the supply of crude petroleum available to the person, and the efficient use of transportation facilities.

(c) Distribution from the crude oil supply pool. (1) Any refiner, other than a person who is required to make crude petroleum available pursuant to paragraph (b) (2), may apply for permission to purchase any of the crude petroleum made available pursuant to paragraph (b) (2). Such application shall be filed with the Director of Petroleum Supply, Petroleum Administration for War, Washington, D. C. A copy of such application shall be filed with the Supply and Distribution Committee for District Two, which shall within three days forward its recommendation with respect to such application to the said Director.

(2) The Director of Petroleum Supply, Petroleum Administration for War, shall on receipt of applications pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) designate the refiners who shall purchase crude petroleum made available pursuant to paragraph (b) (2), the persons from whom they shall purchase such crude petroleum, and the quantity of such crude petroleum to be purchased. These designations may be made by schedule or directive, at the discretion of such Director, and shall be based upon a consideration of the purchasing refiner's capacity for producing war products, the supply of crude petroleum available to the purchasing refiner, and the efficient use of transportation facilities.

(3) The terms and conditions of any sale to be made pursuant to this directive shall be negotiated between the individual parties to such transaction with such assistance as may be required from the Supply and Distribution Committee of District Two with respect to the details of the physical transfer: Provided, That no price agreed upon shall exceed the applicable ceiling price established by General Maximum Price Regulation, as amended or supplemented, or other order of the Price Administrator and, Provided further, That if the individual parties to any such transaction are unable to agree upon a fair and reasonable price or other terms and conditions for furnishing any of the crude petroleum required to be sold by this directive, any such dispute shall be referred to the Director of Petroleum Supply, Petroleum Administration for War, for such action as he may direct.

(d) Impairment of delivery obligations. Each person who runs crude petroleum from producing properties in District Two shall continue to make such deliveries of crude petroleum, whether or not such deliveries were required by contract obligations, as such person made on January 1, 1943: Provided, That if the supply of crude petroleum available to such person is insufficient to permit continuance of all such deliveries in full, all such deliveries shall be reduced proportionately. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to require the continuance of any such delivery of crude petroleum to the extent that such delivery was arranged by or through the Supply and Distribution Committee for District Two. The Supply and Distribution Committee shall submit to the Director of Petroleum Supply a statement of all such arrangements for the delivery of crude petroleum made by or through such committee.

(e) Effectuation of schedules and directions. (1) All schedules required to be submitted pursuant to paragraph (b) (1) shall become operative only after such modification or revision as the Director of Petroleum Supply, Petroleum Administration for War, shall determine to be necessary to conform such schedules to the terms of paragraph (b) (1).

(2) All schedules prepared by the Director of Petroleum Supply, Petroleum Administration for War, pursuant to paragraph (b) (2) and all designations by such Director pursuant to paragraph (c) (2) shall be transmitted to the Chief Counsel of the Petroleum Administration for War. No such schedule or designation shall become effective until it has been approved by the Chief Counsel of the Petroleum Administration for War and issued by the Petroleum Administrator for War or the Deputy Petroleum Administrator for War. Upon the approval of any such schedule or designation by the Chief Counsel and the issuance of such schedule or designation by the Petroleum Administrator for War or the Deputy Petroleum Administrator for War, copies thereof shall be forwarded to the appropriate committees and subcommittees and to all persons named therein, and all committees, subcommittees, and persons affected by such schedule or designation shall carry such schedule or designation into effect according to its terms, conditions, and intent. Should any person refuse to comply with the provisions of this directive or of any schedule or designation, this fact shall be reported immediately by the appropriate committee to the Director of Petroleum Supply, Petroleum Administration for War.

(f) Administration. In carrying out the duties, responsibilities, and functions under this directive, the committees mentioned and all persons directly affected shall hold meetings and shall consult with other committees and subcommittees to the extent that proposals or activities hereunder may affect such other committees and subcommittees, and to this end all such persons, committees, and subcommittees shall supply the committee or subcommittee charged with the responsibility of carrying any part of this directive into effect with such information, material, and assistance as may be necessary and desirable to accomplish the purposes and intent of this directive. Such committees and subcommittees shall maintain such staff and appoint such persons as may be necessary to carry out their responsibilities, duties, and functions under this directive. Operating expenses of such committees and subcommittees shall be met as provided in § 1500.7 (j) of this chapter.

(g) Appeals. Any person affected by this directive or by any schedule or direction provided for hereunder, who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the Petroleum Administrator for War. Such appeals shall be made in quadruplicate and shall be addressed to the Director of Petroleum Supply, Petroleum Administration for War, Interior Building, Washington, D. C., Ref.: PD 64.

(E.O. 9276, 7 F.R. 10091)

Issued this 12th day of March 1943.

[Petroleum Directive 65]

PART 1545—PETROLEUM SUPPLY

The shortage of facilities for the transportation of petroleum has created in certain areas shortages in the supply of petroleum and has made it imperative that all such facilities be used with maximum efficiency, that all back hauling, cross hauling, and unnecessary movement of petroleum be eliminated, and the following operating directive is deemed necessary for the prosecution of the war:

§ 1545.5 Petroleum Directive 65—(a) Definitions. (1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Original supplier" means any person who, at the date of the issuance of this directive, refines petroleum in the United States and sells petroleum for delivery in District Two, or who distributes petroleum through a terminal in District Two.

(3) "Petroleum products" means motor fuel, kerosene, range oil, tractor fuel, distillate fuel oils, and residual fuel oils.

(4) "District Two" means the States of Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Michigan, Indiana, Wisconsin, Illinois, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, and Oklahoma.

(5) "Manager" means the person designated and appointed as such by the General Committee for District Two, to act for and on behalf of the Supply and Distribution Committee of the General Committee for District Two, in accordance with instructions and policies of the General Committee for District Two in connection with the operation and administration of this directive.

(6) "Terminal" means any storage plant supplied with petroleum products by pipe line or by river barge or lake tanker, as distinguished from bulk distributing stations or refineries.

(b) Surveys and investigations. Subject to the supervision of the Director of Petroleum Supply, or such District Director as he may designate, the Manager and the Supply and Distribution Committee of the General Committee for District Two shall obtain, analyze, and keep current such pertinent and available facts, figures, and other data with respect to the available supplies of petroleum products and petroleum transportation in, to, and from District Two as may be necessary or appropriate in connection with the performance of the functions and duties with which the Supply and Distribution Committee of the General Committee for District Two is charged hereunder: Provided, That whenever available, such facts, figures, and other data shall be obtained from other appropriate committees or subcommittees rather than by new surveys or investigations.

(c) District Two petroleum supply operations. Subject to the supervision of the Director of Petroleum Supply, or such District Director as he may designate, the Manager shall arrange for purchases, sales, exchanges, and loans of petroleum products among, and for the common use of facilities by, original suppliers in District Two only when any such transaction will:

(1) Eliminate or shorten the movement of petroleum products by pipe line, lake tanker, barge, tank car, or transport truck facilities within the confines of District Two: Provided, That such transaction does not result in a wasteful use of any such transportation facility within or outside of District Two; or

(2) Eliminate a movement or movements of petroleum products from District One to District Two; or

(3) Eliminate a movement or movements of petroleum products in a generally southerly or westerly direction and substitute therefor a movement or movements in a generally northerly or easterly direction; or

(4) Result in a substitution of a pipe line movement, or movements, of petroleum products for a movement, or movements, by lake tanker, barge, tank car, or transport truck; or

(5) Eliminate any cross hauling or back hauling of petroleum products; or

(6) Result in furnishing petroleum products to original suppliers from refineries or terminals within each respective area described in Exhibits A and B hereof.

(d) Elimination of unnecessary movements within District Two. In order to balance and coordinate available supplies of petroleum products in District Two with requirements to conserve the use of the transportation facilities, including pipe lines, lake tankers, barges, tank cars, and transport trucks, to increase the movement of petroleum products in a northerly and easterly direction, and to accomplish the other objectives of this directive, the Manager shall, subject to the supervision of the Director of Petroleum Supply, or such District Director as he may designate, arrange for exchanges, loans, sales, and purchases of petroleum products between and among original suppliers in District Two which will tend to eliminate to the maximum extent practicable the movement of petroleum products, except residual fuel oil, between the areas described in Exhibit A hereof, and the movement of residual fuel oil between the areas described in Exhibit B hereof. Original suppliers in District Two shall eliminate to the greatest extent practicable interarea shipments between such areas and shall obtain necessary supplies and dispose of surpluses of petroleum products by means of exchanges, loans, sales, and purchases as provided in the foregoing sentence: Provided, That there shall be no tank car shipments of motor fuel, kerosene or distillate fuel oil to meet the requirements of any individual area except as approved by the Manager and the Director of Petroleum Supply, or such District Director as he may designate. Each original supplier in District Two shall file with the Manager on or before Friday of the succeeding week a complete weekly report of all inter-area shipments made by such supplier, together with a statement of the reasons for each such shipment. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to prohibit or to require the reporting of the shipment from any area into any county adjacent thereto in any adjoining area.

(e) Sales, loans, and exchanges. (1) The terms and conditions of any exchange, loan, sale, or purchase made pursuant to this directive shall be subject to negotiation between the parties to any such transaction: Provided, That no price agreed upon shall exceed any applicable ceiling price established by the Office of Price Administration, and, Provided, further, That if the parties to any such transaction are unable to agree upon the price or other terms and conditions for furnishing any of the petroleum required to be sold, exchanged or loaned under this directive, or for the use of any facilities, any such dispute shall be referred to the Director of Petroleum Supply, or such District Director as he may designate, for such action as he may direct;

(2) All exchanges, loans, sales, and purchases pursuant to this directive shall be effected in such a manner as to provide to customers, including intermediate suppliers, of original suppliers in each of the areas an equitable share of the supplies of petroleum products available in each such area.

(f) Determination of requirements. The Supply and Distribution Committee of the General Committee for District Two, in collaboration with the Refining Committee for District Two, shall analyze and determine the amounts of petroleum products and petroleum transportation facilities available to any area to meet the needs of such area and shall make recommendations to the Director of Refining and the Director of Petroleum Supply with respect to such refinery yields of petroleum products as may be necessary to balance available supplies with requirements without interfering with the maximum production of critical war products.

(g) Movement of surpluses to District One. The Supply and Distribution Committee of the General Committee for District Two shall arrange with the appropriate committee for District One and with the Petroleum Administration for War for transportation facilities to move to District One such surpluses of petroleum as may be created in any area of District Two by the operation of this directive. Such arrangements shall be in accordance with the provisions of Petroleum Directive 59, as Amended (7 F.R. 10621) or as hereafter amended.

(h) Coordination of product pipe lines. The Supply and Distribution Committee of the General Committee for District Two and all persons affected by such arrangements shall coordinate the movement of petroleum products through product pipe lines in District Two in such manner and as directed by the Petroleum Administration for War, so as to adjust such movements to supply requirements and to minimize the use of lake tanker, barge, tank car, or transport truck facilities.

(i) Administration. In carrying out the duties, responsibilities, and functions imposed upon him by this directive, the Manager shall consult with appropriate committees and subcommittees to the extent that activities hereunder may affect such committees and subcommittees. Meetings of the Supply and Distribution Committee of the General Committee for District Two, the Manager, and other persons who may be affected by this directive, may be held from time to time for the purpose of doing all things necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this directive. The Supply and Distribution Committee of the General Committee shall maintain such staff and appoint such persons as it finds necessary to carry out its responsibility, duties, and functions under this directive. Operating expenses of the Committee and the Manager shall be met as provided in § 1500.7 of this chapter.

(j) Appeals. Any person affected by this directive or any action taken hereunder who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the District Director in Charge of the Office of Petroleum Administration for War for District Two, setting forth the pertinent facts and reasons why he considers himself entitled to relief, which Director shall act promptly upon such appeal and render a decision thereon within a period of fifteen days. If dissatisfied with the decision of the District Director in Charge, such person may appeal within fifteen days after receipt of notice of the District Director's decision to the Deputy Petroleum Administrator, or such representative as he may designate.

(E.O. 9276, 7 F.R. 10091)

Issued this 17th day of March 1943.

R. K. DAVIES,
Deputy Petroleum Administrator for War.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Order 111]

PART 3—RULES GOVERNING STANDARD AND HIGH-FREQUENCY BROADCAST STATIONS

MINIMUM OPERATING SCHEDULES

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C. on the 30th day of March, 1943:

It appearing (1) that the demand by the military services has decreased the supply of trained personnel available for the operation of broadcast stations, and (2) that there is a scarcity of materials for the maintenance of broadcast stations, and

It further appearing that a relaxation of the Commission's rules, regulations and other requirements with respect to minimum operating schedules for broadcast stations will serve the public interest; Now, therefore, it is ordered:

That until further order of the Commission § 3.261 (a) and (b) of the rules and regulations with respect to minimum operating schedules of high frequency (FM) broadcast stations be, and it is hereby, suspended; and in lieu thereof, except Sundays, the minimum operating schedule of high frequency broadcast stations shall be six hours during the period from 6 a. m. to midnight, local standard time, of which two hours shall be devoted to programs not duplicated simultaneously as primary service in the same area by any standard broadcast station or any high frequency broadcast station; except that if in an emergency, due to causes beyond the control of the licensee, it becomes impossible to continue operating, the station may cease operation for a period of not to exceed 10 days, provided that the Commission and the Inspector in Charge shall be notified in writing immediately after the emergency develops.

Federal Communications Commission.

[Order 112]

PART 3—RULES GOVERNING STANDARD AND HIGH-FREQUENCY BROADCAST STATIONS

FIELD INTENSITY MEASUREMENTS

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 30th day of March, 1943, the Commission having under consideration the relaxation of certain of its requirements, and

It appearing that the demand of the military services and industry for skilled personnel and equipment has increased as a result of the war and that such demand has decreased the skilled personnel, material and manufacturing facilities available for use by broadcast stations resulting in a shortage;

It is ordered, That until further order of the Commission, § 3.229 of the Commission's rules and regulations requiring that field intensity measurements be made and submitted to the Commission within one year of the first date of regular operation of a high frequency (FM) broadcast station be, and is hereby suspended.

By the Commission.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION AND RAILROADS

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

[Service Order 115]

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

FRUIT AND VEGETABLE CARS HELD FOR DIVERSION OR RECONSIGNMENT

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 1st day of April, A. D. 1943.

It appearing, That carload shipments of fresh or green fruits or vegetables moving from points in the south are being held for diversion or reconsignment at points south of Potomac Yard, Va., and thereby delaying unduly the movement of trains; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action to prevent shortage of railroad equipment and congestion of traffic:

It is ordered, That:

§ 95.306 Cars of fruit and vegetables held for diversion or reconsignment. (a) The operation of Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company Tariff I.C.C. No. 660 (Agent Hoke), Seaboard Air Line Railway Company Tariff I.C.C. No. 660 (Agent Hoke), Southern Railway Company Tariff I.C.C. No. A 10944, and Richmond, Fredericksburg & Potomac Railroad Company Tariff I.C.C. No. 660 (Agent Hoke), which provide rules and charges governing diversion and reconsignment of cars of fresh or green fruits and vegetables is hereby suspended insofar as said tariffs authorize or permit shipments of such commodities originating in the States of Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, and Louisiana, to be held at points on the Atlantic Coast Line east of Atlanta and north of Waycross, Ga., Seaboard Air Line Railway east of Atlanta and north of Savannah, Ga., Southern Railway east of Atlanta and north of Savannah, Ga., and the Richmond, Fredericksburg & Potomac Railroad, Richmond and north, for diversion, reconsignment, or holding for orders as defined in said tariffs.

(b) Each of said railroads, on or before the effective date of this section, and upon not less than one day's notice to the Commission and to the public, shall file and post a supplement to each of its tariffs affected hereby, substantially in the form authorized in Rule 9 (k) of Tariff Circular No. 20, announcing the suspension of the operation of any of the provisions therein. (40 Stat. 101, sec. 402, 41 Stat. 476, sec. 4, 54 Stat. 901; 49 U.S.C. 1 (10)-(17).

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective April 10, 1943, and shall remain in force until further order of the Commission; that copies of this order and direction shall be served upon the above-named railroads and upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register, The National Archives.

By the Commission, Division 3.

501.327 Submission of plans for joint action.
501.328 Records and reports.
501.329 Suspension of provisions.
501.330 Communications.

AUTHORITY: §§ 501.322 to 501.330, inclusive, issued under E.O. 8989, 9156, 9214, and 9294; 6 F.R. 6725; 7 F.R. 3349, 6097; 8 F.R. 221.

§ 501.322 Definitions. As used in this order (§§ 501.322 to 501.330, inclusive), or in any order, permit, regulation, recommendation or certificate issued hereunder or in respect hereof, the term:

(a) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, joint-stock company, business trust, or other organized group of persons, and includes any agency of the United States or of any other government, the Insular Government of Puerto Rico, or any political subdivision or agency thereof, or any trustee, receiver, assignee, or personal representative.

(b) "Motor vehicle" means any rubber-tired vehicle propelled or drawn by mechanical power and used upon the streets or highways (but not on rails) in the transportation of passengers.

(c) "Common carrier" means any person that holds himself out to the general public to engage in transportation of passengers by motor vehicle for compensation.

(d) "Taxicab" means any motor vehicle used in the call-on-demand transportation of passengers for compensation to or from points chosen or designated by the passengers, and not operated on a fixed schedule, between fixed termini, or over specific routes.

(e) "Local service" means all transportation of passengers by motor vehicle performed as a common carrier wholly within any urban zone and an area extending 8 air kilometers from the boundaries thereof, or between contiguous urban zones, except transportation by taxicab.

(f) "Local passenger vehicle" means any motor vehicle used in the transportation of passengers in local service.

§ 501.323 Applicability. This order shall be applicable only within the Island of Puerto Rico.

§ 501.324 Elimination of wasteful operation. Every person engaged in performing local service operations shall:

(a) Eliminate waste in operations and unnecessary duplication of parallel services, and curtail schedules and services to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of this order;

(b) Conserve and properly maintain tires, vehicle equipment, and other facilities necessary in conducting the local service operations of such person.

§ 501.325 Operating requirements. No person shall:

(a) Engage in the performance of local service unless there is in force in respect of such person a license, permit, certificate, or other grant of authority issued by the Insular Government of Puerto Rico, or by a governmental subdivision thereof, authorizing said person to engage in such local service;

(b) Extend or inaugurate local service (notwithstanding the terms of any license, permit, certificate, or other grant of authority referred to in paragraph (a) of this § 501.325) without the prior approval of the Office of Defense Transportation, over any route not being served in local service by such person on the effective date of this order;

(c) Perform local service for the primary purpose of supplying transportation to or from a golf course, athletic field, race track, theatre, dancing pavilion, or other place conducted primarily for purposes of amusement or entertainment;

(d) Operate any local passenger vehicle without distinctly marking such vehicle to indicate that it is engaged in local service;

(e) Operate any local passenger vehicle for any purpose (including social or recreational purposes) personal to the driver or operator.

§ 501.326 Special and general permits. The provisions of this order shall be subject to any special or general permits issued by the Office of Defense Transportation to meet specific needs or exceptional circumstances, or to prevent undue hardships.

§ 501.327 Submission of plans for joint action. (a) Whenever directed in writing so to do by the Regional Director, Office of Defense Transportation, San Juan, Puerto Rico, any two or more persons engaged in performing local service operations competitively shall meet, or cause their representatives to meet, for the purpose of formulating a plan of joint action to the end that maximum utilization of equipment and facilities may be effected during the period of the war emergency by such method or methods as may be recommended or approved by the Office of Defense Transportation.

(b) Within such time as may be fixed by said Regional Director, any such persons shall jointly submit to said Regional Director any plan of joint action so formulated, or a statement setting forth the reasons why no plan of joint action has been agreed on by them: Provided, however, That nothing contained in this order shall be so construed as to authorize any person to engage in such joint action unless directed so to do by specific order of the Office of Defense Transportation.

§ 501.328 Records and reports. Every person engaged in performing local service operations shall prepare and maintain such records, and make such reports, as the Office of Defense Transportation may hereafter require for the purpose of this order, and shall keep all records required hereunder available and open for inspection by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation at all reasonable times.

§ 501.329 Suspension of provisions. The provisions of this order, or any part thereof, may be suspended from time to time by order of the Office of Defense Transportation.

§ 501.330 Communications. Communications concerning this order should refer to "General Order ODT 36", and should be addressed to the Regional Director, Office of Defense Transportation, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

This General Order ODT 36 shall become effective April 1, 1943.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 27th day of March, 1943.

Bituminous Coal Division.

[Docket Nos. A-1874, A-1885]

STEEL TIPPLE COAL CO. AND O. B. C. COAL CO.

ORDER CONSOLIDATING MATTERS, GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

In the matter of the petition of Steel Tipple Coal Company for a change in shipping point. In the matter of the petition of O. B. C. Coal Company, for a change in loading point.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division in Docket No. A-1874 by Chester Wasson, a code member, owner and operator of Steel Tipple Coal Company, requesting a change in shipping point for the coals produced at the Steel Tipple Mine, Mine Index No. 1222, in District No. 10; and in Docket No. A-1885 by Homer Choate, a code member, owner and operator of O. B. C. Coal Company, requesting a change in loading point for the coals in Size Groups 1-16, inclusive, and 26 and 27 produced at the O. B. C. Coal Company Mine, Mine Index No. 1367, located in District No. 10; and Petitions of intervention having been filed in both of these matters by District Board No. 10 and in Docket No. A-1885 by McLaren Fuel Company, in each of which petitions of intervention it is alleged that the original petitions in these matters should be denied because they will prejudice the parties affected by the order, dated February 17, 1942, in Docket No. A-1079; and

It appearing that said matters should be consolidated and that they raise issues upon which the interested parties herein should be given an opportunity to be heard; and

It further appearing, however, that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in both matters in the manner hereinafter set forth, pending further order of the Division; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That said petitions be, and the same hereby are, consolidated.

It is further ordered, That pending final disposition of the above-entitled matters temporary relief be, and the same hereby is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 10 for All Shipments Except Truck is amended and supplemented to include the matters set forth in the schedules marked "Supplement R [1]," which are annexed hereto and made a part hereof.

[1] Not filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

It is further ordered, That a consolidated hearing in the above-entitled matters under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on April 8, 1943, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, in Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Travis Williams, or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matters. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to these proceedings may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petitions is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before April 3, 1943.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matters and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petitions, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petitions, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of these petitions.

The matters concerned herewith are in Docket No. A-1885, in regard to the original petition of Homer Choate, code member, owner and operator of the O. B. C. C. Coal Company, requesting that that company be permitted to load the coals in Size Groups 1-16 and 26 and 27 produced at the O. B. C. Coal Company Mine, Mine Index No. 1367, District No. 10, over its ramp at Marion, Illinois, on the Missouri Pacific Railroad rather than over the tipple of McLaren Fuel Company at Marion, Illinois, on the Illinois Central and Missouri Pacific Railroads, and in Docket No. A-1874, the original petition of Chester Wasson, code member, owner and operator of Steel Tipple Coal Company requesting a change in shipping point from the tipple of McLaren Fuel Company at Marion, Illinois, to New Dennison, Illinois, for the coals produced at the Steel Tipple Mine, Mine Index No. 1222, in District No. 10.

[Supplementary Order ODT 3, Revised-18]

FLAMINGO TRUCK LINES, INC., AND FOGARTY BROS. TRANSFER, INC.

COORDINATED OPERATION BETWEEN TAMPA AND SARASOTA, FLA.

Upon consideration of the application for authority to coordinate motor vehicle service in the transportation of property in less-than-truckload lots between Tampa and Sarasota, Fla., filed with the Office of Defense Transportation by Flamingo Truck Lines, Inc., Jacksonville, Fla., and Fogarty Bros. Transfer, Inc., Bradenton, Fla., as governed by § 501.9 of General Order ODT 3, Revised, as amended (7 F.R. 5445, 6689, 7694), and

It appearing that such coordination is necessary in order to conserve and providently utilize vital transportation equipment, materials, and supplies, and to assure the maximum utilization of such transportation equipment, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war: It is hereby ordered, That:

1. Flamingo Truck Lines, Inc., shall discontinue the transportation of shipments in less-than-truckload lots from Tampa, Fla., or through that gateway, to Sarasota, Fla., and intermediate points on its routes, and in the reverse direction; and in respect of such shipments moving from or through Tampa, Fla., to such other points, shall divert such shipments to Fogarty Bros. Transfer, Inc.

2. Fogarty Bros. Transfer, Inc., shall accept from Flamingo Truck Lines, Inc., all shipments diverted to it pursuant hereto and shall forward such shipments and pursuant to the lawfully applicable rates, charges, rules, and regulations of the carrier issuing the bill of lading.

3. Except as may be otherwise provided by agreement between the carriers, or prescribed by the Interstate Commerce Commission or by an appropriate State regulatory body, the division of revenues derived from the transportation performed pursuant hereto shall be as determined by the Office of Defense Transportation.

4. The records of the carriers shall be available for examination and inspection at all reasonable times by a representative of the Office of Defense Transportation.

5. The provisions of this order shall not be so construed or applied as to require either carrier to perform any service beyond its transportation capacity, or to permit either carrier to alter its legal liability to any shipper. In the event compliance with any term of this order would conflict with, or would not be authorized under, the existing interstate or intrastate operating authority of either carrier, such carrier shall apply forthwith to the appropriate regulatory body or bodies for the granting of such operating authority as may be requisite to compliance with the terms of this order, and shall prosecute such application with all possible diligence. The coordination of operations directed by this order shall be subject to the carriers' possessing or obtaining the requisite operating authority.

6. Each of the carriers shall file forthwith with the appropriate regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction over the operations affected by this order, and publish in accordance with law, and continue in effect until the further order of such regulatory body or bodies or of the Office of Defense Transportation, tariffs, or supplements to filed tariffs, setting forth any changes in rates, charges, rules, regulations, and practices which may be necessary to accord with the provisions of this order, together with a copy of this order; and forthwith shall apply to such regulatory body or bodies for special permission to file such tariffs or supplements to become effective on the shortest notice lawfully permissible, but not prior to the effective date of this order.

7. Communications concerning this order should refer to "Supplementary Order ODT 3, Revised-18," and should be addressed to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington, D. C.

8. This Supplementary Order ODT 3, Revised-18, shall become effective April 5, 1943, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of March 1943.

PORTSMOUTH MILK MARKETING AREA, OHIO

JOINT ACTION PLAN OF DISTRIBUTORS

Recommendation of joint action plan of milk distributors in the Portsmouth Milk Marketing Area of Ohio.

Pursuant to a provision of a general order issued by the Office of Defense Transportation for the purpose, among others, of conserving and providently utilizing motor vehicles and vital equipment, materials and supplies, (General Order ODT 6, as amended, (7 F.R. 3008, 3532, 4184) superseded in part by General Order ODT 17, as amended (7 F.R. 5678, 7694)), the private carriers named in the Appendix hereof have filed with the Office of Defense Transportation for approval a joint action plan relating to the transportation and delivery by motor vehicle of dairy products in the Portsmouth Milk Marketing Area, Ohio.

The participants have agreed that all retail delivery service in such area shall be on an every-other-day basis; that all motor trucks operated in retail delivery service shall transport maximum loads when departing from the plant of any participant; that no motor truck being operated in retail delivery service shall depart from any such plant prior to 8 o'clock a. m. during any calendar day; that all motor trucks shall be operated by the most direct route when used in retail delivery service, making only one trip during any calendar day over any street which is a part of such route, without "back tracking" over any segment of such route.

It appearing that the proposed joint action plan is in conformity with General Order ODT 17, as amended, and that the effectuation thereof will accomplish substantial conservation and efficient utilization of motor trucks and vital materials and supplies, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, I have approved the plan and recommend that the Chairman of the War Production Board find and certify under section 12 of Public Law No. 603, 77th Congress (56 Stat. 357), that the doing of any act or thing, or the omission to do any act or thing, by any person in compliance with said joint action plan, is requisite to the prosecution of the war.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of March 1943.

OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION.

[Order 15 Under RPS 53 [1]]

C. F. SIMONIN'S SONS, INC.

ORDER ESTABLISHING MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 15 under Revised Price Schedule No. 53—Fats and Oils—Docket No. 3053-14.

On November 12, 1942, C. F. Simonin's Sons, Inc. of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, filed an application for adjustment of its maximum prices of its Yolanda Salad and Cooking Oil, Medaglia D'Oro Salad and Cooking Oil, Keystone Cooking Oil, Yolanda Shortening, Century Salad Oil, and Simoco Shortening. On November 26, 1942, and January 7, 1943, it filed supplemental petitions. On February 3, 1943, it withdrew its petition insofar as its Century Salad Oil and its Simoco Shortening were concerned.

Due consideration has been given to the application, and an opinion in support of this order has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register. For the reasons set forth in the opinion, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order 9250, and in accordance with § 1351.151 (b) (12) (vii) of Revised Price Schedule No. 53, It is hereby ordered:

(a) Yolanda Salad and Cooking Oil and Medaglia D'Oro Salad and Cooking Oil. The maximum delivered price of C. F. Simonin's Sons, Inc.'s Yolanda Salad and Cooking Oil and Medaglia D'Oro Salad and Cooking Oil, in the area defined in § 1351.151 (b) (12) (viii) as North, shall be the following prices:

6 1-gallon cans, per case	12 ½-gallon can, per case	24 ¼-gallon cans, per case
$8.20	$8.80	$9.40

(b) The maximum delivered prices of C. F. Simonin's Sons, Inc.'s products hereinabove set forth, on sales made by it in territories other than that defined in § 1351.151 (b) (12) (viii) as North, shall be the maximum prices above set forth plus or minus, as the case may be, the differential set forth in § 1351.151 (b) (12) (iii) for sales in such other territories, adjusted for size and type of container.

(c) The provisions of § 1351.151 (b) (12) (v) and (viii) of Revised Price Schedule No. 53 shall apply to the maximum prices established by this Order for the products hereinabove named.

(d) All prayers of the petition not withdrawn by Applicant that are not granted herein, are denied, except that this order is without prejudice to Applicant's right to sell its Keystone Cooking Oil at the highest price charged by its nearest competitor for the same or most nearly similar product sold by it during the period January 16, 1942 to January 31, 1942.

(e) This Order No. 15 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This Order No. 15 shall become effective April 2, 1943.

FELLOWS BURIAL VAULT SERVICE CO., INC.

AUTHORIZATION OF MAXIMUM PRICE

Order No. 237, Under § 1499.161 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188—Manufacturers' Maximum Prices for Specified Building Materials and Consumers' Goods Other Than Apparel.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and by Executive Order No. 9250, and pursuant to § 1499.161 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, It is hereby ordered, That:

(a) The Fellows Burial Vault Service Company, Inc., of Marlette, Michigan, is authorized to sell, deliver, or offer for sale concrete burial vaults delivered in place and sealed, within the area of Marlette, Michigan, and the surrounding territory of Sanilac, Huron, Tuscola, Lapeer and St. Clair Counties, Michigan, at the maximum prices set forth below:

Trade sizes:	Maximum price
6–6	$50.00
6–3	45.00
5–6	40.00
4–6	35.00
3–6	30.00
2–6	30.00

(b) The Fellows Burial Vault Service Company, Inc., shall cause the following written notice to be sent to all persons to whom it sells concrete burial vaults:

The Office of Price Administration has permitted us to raise our maximum prices for sales to you of concrete burial vaults as follows:

Trade sizes:	Maximum prices[1]
6–6	$50.00
6–3	45.00
5–6	40.00
4–6	35.00
3–6	30.00
2–6	30.00

[1] These prices include delivery in place and sealing after the funeral.

The amount of the increase of these prices over our previous maximum prices represents only that part of cost increases which we were unable to absorb, and was granted with the understanding that wholesale and retail prices would not be raised. The Office of Price Administration has not permitted you or any other seller to raise the maximum prices on a resale of any of these items.

VOLUME 8 NUMBER 67

Washington, Tuesday, April 6, 1943

The President

PROCLAMATION 2582

CAPTURE OF PRIZES

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the Act of August 18, 1942, Public Law 704, 77th Congress, contains in part the following provisions:

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the district courts shall have original jurisdiction of all prizes captured during the present war on the high seas if said capture was made by authority of the United States or was adopted and ratified by the President of the United States and the prize was brought into the territorial waters of a cobelligerent or was taken or appropriated for the use of the United States on the high seas or in such territorial waters, including jurisdiction of all proceedings for the condemnation of such property taken as prize.

* * * * * *

"SEC. 3. The jurisdiction of prizes brought into the territorial waters of a cobelligerent shall not be exercised under authority of this Act, nor shall prizes be taken or appropriated within such territorial waters for the use of the United States, unless the government having jurisdiction over such territorial waters consents to the exercise of such jurisdiction or to such taking or appropriation.

* * * * * *

"SEC. 7. A cobelligerent of the United States which consents to the exercise of the jurisdiction herein conferred with respect to prizes of the United States brought into its territorial waters and to the taking or appropriation of such prizes within its territorial waters for the use of the United States shall be accorded, upon proclamation by the President of the United States, like privileges with respect to prizes captured under authority of such cobelligerent and brought into the territorial waters of the United States or taken or appropriated in the territorial waters of the United States for the use of such cobelligerent. Reciprocal recognition and full faith and credit shall be given to the jurisdiction acquired by courts of a cobelligerent hereunder and to all proceedings had or judgments rendered in exercise of such jurisdiction."

WHEREAS the Government of New Zealand, a cobelligerent, has consented to the exercise of the jurisdiction conferred by the said Act with respect to prizes of the United States brought into the territorial waters of the Dominion of New Zealand and its dependencies and to the taking or appropriation of such prizes within the territorial waters of the Dominion of New Zealand and its dependencies for the use of the United States:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, acting under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the said Act of August 18, 1942, do proclaim that the Government of the Dominion of New Zealand shall be accorded like privileges with respect to prizes captured under authority of the said Government and brought into the territorial waters of the United States or taken or appropriated in the territorial waters of the United States for the use of the said Government.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 1st day of April in the year [SEAL] of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-seventh.

FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT

By the President:

CORDELL HULL,
Secretary of State.

AUTHORITY: §§ 945.1–945.15 inclusive issued under 48 Stat. 31, 670, 675; 49 Stat. 750; 50 Stat. 246; 7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 601 et seq.

§ 945.1 Findings and determinations—(a) Findings. Pursuant to the act and rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR 900.1–900.17; 6 F.R. 6570, 7 F.R. 3350, 8 F.R. 2813), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved amended marketing agreement and to the amended order regulating the handling of milk in the Washington, D. C., marketing area. Upon the basis of evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is hereby found that:

(1) The aforesaid amended order and all of the terms and conditions of said amended order will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the Washington, D. C., marketing area, a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of the act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect marketing supplies of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices set forth in the aforesaid amended order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The aforesaid amended order regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in their respective classes of commercial and industrial activity specified in the aforesaid tentatively approved amended marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(a) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers with at least 50 percent of the volume of milk covered by this amended order which is marketed within the Washington, D. C., marketing area refused or failed to sign the tentatively approved amended marketing agreement, regulating the handling of milk in the Washington, D. C., marketing area; and it is further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign such said tentatively amended marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this amended order is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the act of advancing the interest of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the Washington, D. C., marketing area;

(3) The issuance of this amended order is approved or favored by at least three-fourths of the producers who participated in a referendum on the questions of the approval of this order and who, during the determined representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale in said Washington, D. C., marketing area.

§ 945.2 Order relative to handling. It is, therefore, ordered that, from and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Washington, D. C., marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order.

§ 945.3 Definitions. The following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended.

(b) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or any officer or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture who is, or who may hereafter be, authorized to exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

(c) "Washingon marketing area," hereinafter referred to as the "marketing area," means the territory included within the boundary lines of the District of Columbia and that territory in the State of Maryland included between the District of Columbia line and the following boundaries: Beginning at the junction of the southeastern boundary of the District of Columbia line and Route 224, thence south on Route 224 to Oxon Hill, thence east on St. Barnaby Road to Gordon's Corner, thence northeast on Suitland-Silver Hill Road continuing Suitland to the junction of Route 4, thence northwest on Route 4 to Hillside, thence north on Crystal Spring Road continuing through Capitol Heights to 61st Street, thence north on 61st Street to the District of Columbia line, thence northeasterly and thence northwesterly along said District line to Kenilworth Avenue, thence north on Kenilworth Avenue to Defense Highway, thence east on Defense Highway, thence north on Edmonston Road to Greenbelt, and around the outside limits of Greenbelt, then returning on Edmonston Road to Branchville Road, thence west on Branchville Road to the Baltimore-Washington Boulevard, thence south on the Baltimore-Washington Boulevard to Metzerott Road, thence west on Metzerott Road to Riggs Valley Road, thence to County Road, thence west to Blair Road, thence north to Piney Branch Road, continuing north on Piney Branch Road to White Oak at intersection of Colesville Road, thence continuing north on Colesville Road to Colesville, thence west on Glenmont Road to Brookville Road, thence south on Brookville Road to Wheaton, thence on Lincoln Avenue to Kensington, thence west on Knowles Avenue and continuing west on Strathmore Avenue to Rockville Pike, thence south on Rockville Pike to Grosvenor Lane, thence west on Grosvenor Lane to Old Georgetown Road, thence north on Old Georgetown Road to Bellsmill Road, thence west on Bellsmill Road to the Seven Locks Road, thence south on Seven Locks Road to Bradley Road, thence west on Bradley Road continuing to Conduit Road, thence southeasterly on Conduit Road to the District of Columbia Line.

(d) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

(e) "Producer" means any person, irrespective of whether such person is also a handler, who produces milk on a farm from which milk is delivered direct to (1) a plant located in the marketing area which is approved or licensed for sale of milk for fluid consumption in the marketing area, or (2) a plant located outside the marketing area from which milk was shipped to the marketing area for fluid consumption during May 1942.

(f) "Handler" means any person, irrespective of whether such person is also a producer or a cooperative association of producers, who engages in such handling of milk, skim milk, or cream for fluid consumption in the marketing area as is in the current of interstate commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce, in milk and its products: Provided, That this definition shall not include producers or cooperative associations of producers with respect to milk or cream not handled through their own receiving or bottling plant.

(g) "Market administrator" means the person designated pursuant to § 945.4 as the agency for the administration hereof.

(h) "Cooperative association" means any cooperative association of producers which the Secretary determines (1) to have its entire activities under the control of its members, and (2) to have and exercise full authority in the sale of milk of its members.

(i) "Delivery period" means the current marketing period from the first to the last day of each month, both inclusive.

(j) "Producer's milk plant" means any milk plant currently used for any or all of the handling functions of receiving, weighing (or measuring), sampling, cooling, pasteurizing, bottling, or other preparation of milk of producers for fluid sale or disposition in fluid form in the marketing area.

(k) "Farmer's milk plant" means any milk plant other than a "producer's milk plant" currently used for any or all of the handling functions of receiving, weighing (or measuring), sampling, cooling, pasteurizing, bottling, or other preparation of milk of persons who are not producers as defined in (e) of this section.

(l) "Emergency milk" means all milk, skim milk, cream, condensed milk, condensed skim milk, whole milk powder, and skim milk powder received at a producer's milk plant from a farmer's milk plant; and "emergency skim milk" means all of the skim milk in emergency milk.

§ 945.4 Market administrator.—(a) Designation. The agency for the administration hereof shall be a market administrator who shall be a person selected by the Secretary. Such person shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of, the Secretary.

(b) Powers. The market administrator shall:

(1) Administer the terms and provisions hereof; and

(2) Report to the Secretary complaints of violations of the provisions hereof.

(c) Duties. The market administrator shall:

(1) Within 45 days following the date upon which he enters upon his duties, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, in an amount and with surety threon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(2) Pay, out of the funds provided by § 945.11, the cost of his bond, his own compensation, and all other expenses necessarily incurred in the maintenance and functioning of his office;

(3) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for herein and surrender the same to his successor or to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(4) Publicly disclose to handlers and producers, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, the name of any person who, within 2 days after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not (i) made reports pursuant to § 945.5 or (ii) made payments pursuant to § 945.10;

(5) Promptly verify the information contained in the reports submitted by handlers; and

(6) Check the weight and butterfat test of milk, skim milk, and cream received from producers by each handler each month and report the results of the butterfat tests to producers or to their cooperative association. The market administrator may designate an independent agency to check the weight and butterfat test of such receipts by handlers.

§ 945.5 Reports of handlers—(a) Submission of reports. Each handler shall report to the market administrator, in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator, as follows:

(1) On or before the 5th day after the end of each delivery period the receipts of milk, skim milk, and cream at each producer's milk plant from producers, including milk produced by such handler, the weighted average test thereof, and the utilization of such receipts, computed pursuant to § 945.6.

(2) On or before the 11th day after the end of each delivery period, (i) the receipts of milk, skim milk, and cream at each producer's milk plant for the account of a handler or of a cooperative association, from each producer's milk plant and each farmer's milk plant, and the average butterfat content of each product from each source; (ii) the utilization of all emergency milk received; (iii) the receipts at each producer's milk plant from new producers and the average test thereof; (iv) the name and address of each new producer; (v) the names of handlers from whom or to whom milk, skim milk, or cream was received or delivered; and (vi) the address of each farmer's milk plant from which milk, skim milk, or cream was received at a producer's milk plant.

(3) Within 10 days after the market administrator's request with respect to any producer for whom such information is not in the files of the market administrator and with respect to a period or periods of time designated by the market administrator, (i) the name and address of such producer; (ii) the total pounds of milk, skim milk, and cream delivered and the average butterfat test thereof; (iii) the farm scores and cattle scores recorded by the respective health departments requiring permits to sell milk to handlers in the marketing area; and (iv) the number of days upon which deliveries were made.

(4) On or before the 19th day after the end of each delivery period, at the request of the market administrator, his producer pay roll which shall show for each producer, (i) the total delivery of milk, skim milk, and cream with the average butterfat test thereof; (ii) the premium rate paid; (iii) the net amount of payment made pursuant to § 945.10; and (iv) the deductions and charges made by the handler with authorizations therefor.

(b) Verification of reports. Each handler shall provide the market administrator or his agent with reasonable access to those records and facilities which are necessary for:

(1) The verification of the information contained in the reports submitted in accordance with this section;

(2) The verification of the payments required by §§ 945.7 and 945.10;

(3) The checking of the weighing and sampling of milk, skim milk, and cream received by such handlers; and

(4) Determining the utilization of milk, skim milk, and cream by the handler.

§ 945.6 Classification of milk.—(a) Milk to be classified. All milk, skim milk, and cream received by each handler in his producer's milk plant shall be classified in the classes set forth in (b) of this section.

(b) Classes of utilization. Except as provided in (c) of this section, the classes of utilization of milk shall be as follows:

(1) Class I–A shall be all skim milk in milk, skim milk, and cream received at a producer's milk plant that is not classified as Class II–A.

(2) Class I–B shall be all butterfat in milk, skim milk, and cream received at a producer's milk plant.

(3) Class II–A shall be all skim milk in milk, skim milk, and cream received at a producer's milk plant that is used in the manufacture of ice cream, ice cream mix, skim milk powder, whole milk powder, condensed milk, and condensed skim milk, which is not disposed of by the handler in the form of milk, milk drinks, or cottage cheese.

(c) Transfers of milk and cream. (1) The skim milk in milk, skim milk, and cream received at a producer's milk plant from another producer's milk plant shall be allocated to Class I–A: Provided, That it shall be allocated to Class II–A if the market administrator is requested in writing by the receiving handler and the selling handler to make such an allocation: Provided further, That the amount so allocated to any class shall not be greater than the amount used in that class by the receiving handler after deduction of any skim milk pursuant to (2) of this paragraph.

(2) The skim milk in milk, skim milk, and cream received at a producer's milk plant from a farmer's milk plant shall be allocated to Class II–A, except that any of this skim milk in excess of the amount of Class II–A disposed of at the producer's milk plant shall be allocated to Class I–A.

(d) Responsibility of handlers in establishing the classification of milk. In establishing the classification of any milk, skim milk, and cream received at a producer's milk plant, the burden rests upon the handler who received the milk, skim milk, or cream from producers or from a farmer's milk plant, to prove that it should not be classified as Class I–A and Class I–B.

§ 945.7 Minimum prices—(a) Class prices. Each handler shall pay not less than the following prices subject to (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f) of § 945.10, for milk, skim milk, and cream purchased or received from producers and associations of producers:

(1) Class I–A: Subtract 4 times the price of Class I–B, determined pursuant to (2) of this paragraph, from $4.00 and divide by 96: Provided, That for Class I–A disposed of by a handler from a plant not having a health department permit to sell fluid milk or fluid cream in the District of Columbia, the price shall be 0.48 of a cent less.

(2) Class I–B: Add all market quotations (using midpoint of any weekly range as one quotation) of prices for a 40-quart can of sweet cream approved for "Pennsylvania only" and for "Pennsylvania, Newark, and lower Merion Township" in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, market, reported by the United States Department of Agriculture prior to the 6th day of the month for each of the last 4 weeks ending within the preceding month, divide by the number of quotations, divide by 33.48, and subtract 3.0 cents.

(3) Class II–A: Subtract 4.5 cents from the average of all price quotations for carlots of dry skim milk in barrels for human consumption (roller process), f. o. b. New York City, as published by the United States Department of Agriculture prior to the 6th day of the month for each of the last 4 weeks ending within the month, multiply by 7.5, and divide by 96. In the event the United States Department of Agriculture does not publish such skim milk powder prices, the maximum prices established by the Office of Price Administration for bulk powdered skim milk for human consumption (roller process) shall be used.

(b) Class I–A cost adjustment. When the total pounds of Class I–A disposed of by all handlers from producers' milk plants exceed 97 percent in any month from July to April inclusive, and 92 percent in May and June of the total pounds of skim milk in milk, skim milk, and cream received from all producers during any delivery period, the cost per pound to handlers of Class I–A, computed pursuant to (a) of this section, shall be adjusted through the handler-settlement fund, as provided by § 945.10 (g), by an amount computed by subtracting the total value for all handlers of the emergency skim milk needed by the market, as determined pursuant to (c) and (e) of this section, from the total cost of such emergency skim milk determined pursuant to (d) of this section, and dividing the resulting amount by the total pounds of Class I–A disposed of from producers' milk plants by all handlers.

(c) Emergency skim milk needed by the market. The quantity of emergency skim milk needed by the market shall be considered as not exceeding for any handler the difference between 103 percent in any month from July to April inclusive, and 108 percent in May and June, of his Class I–A disposed of within 21 miles of the milestone in Washington, D. C., and the pounds of skim milk in milk, skim milk, and cream received from producers by such handler.

(d) Cost of emergency skim milk. The cost per pound of emergency skim milk purchased or received by a handler that was needed by such handler, which in no event shall exceed the price per pound for Class I–A plus 0.5 of a cent, shall be determined by the market administrator as follows:

(1) Where a handler purchases or receives emergency skim milk from a farmer's milk plant not owned by such handler, the cost shall be determined by subtracting the Class I–B value from the cost of the emergency milk f. o. b. Washington, D. C., as shown by the sales and transportation records: Provided, That if the total pounds of emergency skim milk purchased or received by a handler exceed the amount needed, as determined pursuant to (c) of this section, the emergency skim milk needed shall be considered to be that skim milk other than that included in condensed milk, condensed skim milk, whole milk powder, and skim milk powder used in products not disposed of for fluid consumption, costing the least amount per pound during the delivery period; and

(2) Where a handler received emergency skim milk from a farmer's milk plant owned by such handler, the cost per pound of emergency skim milk received by a handler from such plant shall be determined by the market administrator on the basis of the prevailing price being paid for milk of similar quality to farmers in the same area, less the Class I–B value of such milk, plus the prevailing charge for hauling milk from the area in which the farmer's milk plant is located to the producer's milk plant, as determined by the market administrator, plus a country station allowance of 0.16 of a cent per pound.

(e) Class value of emergency skim milk needed. The class value of the emergency skim milk needed by each handler shall be computed as follows:

(1) Multiply the pounds of such emergency skim milk allocated to Class I–A by the Class I–A price specified in (a) of this section, less the applicable location differential determined pursuant to § 945.10 (d);

(2) Multiply the pounds of such emergency skim milk allocated to Class II–A, which is not in excess of 3 percent in any month from July to April inclusive, or 8 percent in May and June, of the total pounds of Class I–A disposed of by such handler, by the Class II–A price specified in (a) of this section;

(3) Multiply the total pounds of emergency skim milk needed by such handler by 97 percent in any month from July to April inclusive, and 92 percent in May and June, of the weighted average premium payable to producers by him pursuant to § 945.10 (e) for the delivery period; and

(4) Add together the resulting amounts.

§ 945.8 Application of provisions—(a) Handlers who are also producers. No provision hereof shall apply to a handler who is also a producer and who purchases or receives no milk from producers or an association of producers, except that such handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may request.

(b) Virginia handlers. Any handler whose plant is located in the State of Virginia and who is subject to such regulation of the Virginia Milk Commission as provides for the payment to producers of prices identical with, or in excess of, the prices set forth in § 945.7 hereof, who complies with §§ 945.5 (a) (1), (2), (3), and (b), 945.7 (b), (c), (d), and (e), 945.9 (b), and 945.10 (g), (h), (i), and (j) of this order, and who reports the total payments made for milk received from producers as directed by the market administrator, shall not be subject to other provisions of this order.

§ 945.9 Determination and announcement of uniform prices—(a) Computation and announcement for each handler of uniform prices to be paid producers. On or before the 7th day after the end of each delivery period the market administrator shall announce the Class I–B price and the uniform price per pound of skim milk to be paid producers by each handler for such delivery period. The market administrator shall compute the uniform prices of skim milk as follows: (1) Multiply the pounds of skim milk received from producers that were allocated to each class by the prices applicable pursuant to § 945.7 (a); (2) add together the resulting amounts; and (3) divide the result obtained by the total pounds of skim milk in milk, skim milk, and cream received from producers.

(b) Net pool obligations of handlers for emergency skim milk received at a producer's milk plant. The net pool obligation of each handler for emergency skim milk needed by the market received at producers' milk plants during each delivery period shall be a sum of money computed by multiplying the pounds of Class I–A disposed of by the handler, excluding Class I–A disposed of for the account of an association of producers, by the Class I–A cost adjustment determined pursuant to § 945.7 (b).

(c) Announcement of other market information. As soon after the 11th day to each class.

after the end of each delivery period as such information becomes available, the following data shall be compiled and listed separately by the market administrator for handlers not disposing of any milk, skim milk, or cream for fluid consumption in the District of Columbia and for handlers disposing of milk, skim milk, or cream for fluid consumption in the District of Columbia:

(1) The total pounds of butterfat and skim milk in milk, skim milk, and cream received from producers and the total pounds of such skim milk allocated to each class.

(2) The total pounds of butterfat and skim milk in emergency milk received at each producer's milk plant, the total pounds of emergency skim milk needed at each producer's milk plant, and the total pounds of such skim milk allocated to each class.

(3) The cost of emergency skim milk, received at a producer's milk plant from each farmer's milk plant, that was needed by the market, as determined by the market administrator pursuant to § 945.7 (d).

(4) The name and address of all farmers' milk plants shipping milk, skim milk, or cream to a producer's milk plant during the delivery period.

(5) The Class I–A adjustment determined pursuant to § 945.7 (b).

§ 945.10 Payments for milk.—(a) Time and method of payment. On or before the 10th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall make payments, subject to (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f) of this section, for all milk, skim milk, and cream received from producers at the prices announced pursuant to § 945.9 (a) as follows:

(1) To each producer, except as provided in (2) of this paragraph, at not less than the prices announced pursuant to § 945.9 (a); and

(2) To a cooperative association for (i) milk, skim milk, and cream which is caused to be delivered to a handler from producers by a cooperative association, and for which such cooperative association collects payment, a total amount equal to not less than the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers under (1) of this paragraph, minus an amount equal to the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in milk, skim milk, and cream disposed of for the account of the association, times the composite price of skim milk and the Class I–B price, respectively, announced pursuant to § 945.9 (a), plus the weighted average premium payable to producers by such handler, times the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in such products; and (ii) other milk, skim milk, and cream in each use classification, determined pursuant to § 945.6 (c), received by such handler for the account of an association of producers, at not less than the class prices specified in §945.7 (a), plus the weighted average premium payable to producers by such handler.

(b) Errors in payment. Errors in making the payment prescribed in this section shall be corrected not later than the date for making payments next following the determination of such errors.

(c) Butterfat content of milk, skim milk, and cream received from producers and of emergency milk. The butterfat content of milk, skim milk, and cream received from producers shall be determined by taking the average of not less than 5 separate butterfat tests made from fresh samples during each delivery period. The butterfat content of emergency milk shall be determined at the producer's milk plant where it is received. The market administrator may designate an independent laboratory to make these tests.

(d) Location adjustments to producers. In making payments pursuant to (a) of this section the handlers may deduct 18 cents per hundredweight with respect to milk received from producers who have been delivering their entire supply of milk for the preceding 4 full delivery periods at a plant in which no milk is bottled or finally processed for distribution to consumers and which is located more than 35 miles from the District of Columbia: Provided, That handlers may make such a deduction on all milk received at such plant from new producers whose milk is not received on truck routes transferred to such a plant.

(e) Premiums to be paid by handlers. (1) In making payments pursuant to (a) of this section, handlers shall pay premium differentials on all milk, skim milk, and cream received from producers at producers' milk plants determined by applying the premium rates set forth in this paragraph for each producer on the same percentage of each producer's total deliveries as that percentage which the pounds of skim milk in milk, skim milk, and cream received from producers classified in Class I–A is to the total pounds of skim milk in milk, skim milk, and cream received from producers less the pounds of skim milk in milk, skim milk, and cream returned for the account of an association of producers. The premium rates referred to in this paragraph shall be determined from the following schedule with respect to the cattle scores and farm scores recorded for each producer by the respective health departments requiring permits to sell milk to handlers in the marketing area:

Farm score	With cattle score under 95	With cattle score 95 or over, but under 98	With cattle scores 98 or over
	Per hundredweight	Per hundredweight	Per hundredweight
Under 80	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00
80.0–84.9	.00	.03	.06
85.0–89.9	.02	.08	.11
90.0–94.9	.08	.14	.17
95.0–97.9	.20	.26	.29
Over 97.9	.31	.37	.40

(2) If more than one score has been recorded during any month, the simple average of the scores so recorded shall be used. Producers who are subject to health department regulations which do not provide for cattle scores in their scoring system shall be considered as having a cattle score of 98 or over and the score given them by the health department shall be considered the farm score for the purpose of applying premiums under the above schedule.

(f) Handlers may distribute the payments they are required to make to producers for milk, skim milk, and cream received by them on any uniform basis, other than that specified above in this section, that is approved by the market administrator.

(g) Handler-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the "handler-settlement fund" into which he shall deposit all payments made by handlers pursuant to (h) and (j) of this section and out of which he shall make all payments to handlers pursuant to (i) and (j) of this section: Provided, That the market administrator shall offset any such payment due to any handler against payments due from such handler. Immediately after computing the Class I–A cost adjustment for each delivery period the market administrator shall compute the amount by which each handler's net pool obligation is in excess of or less than the amount obtained by subtracting the cost of emergency skim milk received by the handler that was needed by him, determined pursuant to § 945.7 (d) from the value of such emergency skim milk, determined pursuant to § 945.7 (e) and shall enter such amount on each handler's account as to such handler's pool debit or pool credit, as the case may be, and render such handler a transcript of his account.

(h) Payments to the handler-settlement fund. On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period each handler shall make full payment to the market administrator of any pool debit balance shown on the account rendered, pursuant to (g) of this section, for the preceding delivery period.

(i) Payments out of the handler-settlement fund. On or before the 18th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall pay to each handler the pool credit balance shown on the account rendered, pursuant to (g) of this section, if any, for the preceding delivery period, less any unpaid obligations of the handler. If at such time the balance in the handler-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments pursuant to this paragraph, the market administrator shall reduce uniformly such payments and shall complete such payments as soon as the necessary funds are available.

(j) Adjustment of errors in payments. Whenever verification by the market administrator of reports or payments of any handler discloses errors made in payments to the handler-settlement fund, the market administrator shall promptly bill such handler for any unpaid amount and such handler shall, within 5 days, make payment to the market administrator of the amount so billed. Whenever verification discloses that payment is due from the market administrator to any handler, the market administrator shall, within 5 days, make such payment to such handler, provided the balance in the handler-settlement fund is sufficient to make such payments.

§ 945.11 Expense of administration and marketing services.—(a) Payments by handlers. As his prorata share of the expense of the administration hereof, each handler, except those handlers exempted pursuant to § 945.8, shall pay to the market administrator on or before the 18th day after the end of each delivery period an amount equal to 2 cents per hundredweight with respect to all milk, skim milk, and cream received by him from a farmer's milk plant, producers, associations of producers, or produced by him during such delivery period, or such lesser amount, the exact amount to be determined by the market administrator: Provided, That each handler which is a cooperative association shall pay such prorata share of the expense of administration only on such milk, skim milk, and cream actually received at a producer's milk plant operated by such cooperative association. If the market administrator designates an independent agency to determine the butterfat content of milk, skim milk, and cream received by handlers from producers as permitted by § 945.10 (c), each handler shall pay to the market administrator an amount equal to the cost of such tests of emergency milk and one-half the cost of such tests of producers' milk, skim milk, cream, the exact amount to be determined by the market administrator.

(b) Marketing services. If the market administrator designates an independent agency to determine the butterfat content of milk, skim milk, and cream received by handlers from producers, as permitted under § 945.10 (c), each handler shall deduct from his payments to each producer an amount equal to one-half the cost per test, the exact amount to be determined by the market administrator, and shall pay such deduction to the market administrator on or before the 18th day after the end of each delivery period. Such moneys shall be used by the market administrator to pay the independent laboratory for the verification of weight, sampling, and testing of milk, skim milk, and cream received from producers.

(c) Suits by market administrator. The market administrator may maintain a suit in his own name against any handler for the collection of such handler's prorata share of expense set forth in this section.

§ 945.12 Effective time, suspension, or termination.—(a) Effective time. The provisions hereof, or any amendment hereto, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to (b) of this section.

(b) Suspension or termination. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this amended order or any provision hereof whenever he finds that this amended order or any provision hereof obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This amended order shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

(c) Continuing power and duty of the market administrator. (1) If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, there are obligations arising hereunder, the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any handler, by the market administrator, or by any other person, the power and duty to perform such further acts shall continue notwithstanding such suspension or termination: Provided, That any such acts required to be performed by the market administrator shall, if the Secretary so directs, be performed by such other person, persons, or agency as the Secretary may designate.

(2) The market administrator, or such other person as the Secretary may designate, shall (i) continue in such capacity until removed by the Secretary; (ii) from time to time account for all receipts and disbursements, and when so directed by the Secretary deliver all funds on hand, together with the books and records of the market administrator or such person, to such person as the Secretary shall direct; and (iii) if so directed by the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title to all funds, property, and claims vested in the market administrator or such person pursuant thereto.

(d) Liquidation after suspension or termination. Upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof the market administrator, or such person as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office and dispose of all funds and property then in his possession or under his control, together with claims for any funds which are unpaid or owing at the time of such suspension or termination. Any funds collected pursuant to the provisions hereof, over and above the amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the market administrator or such person in liquidating and distributing such funds, shall be distributed to the contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

§ 945.13 Emergency milk committee. Handlers may select an "Emergency Milk Committee" for the purpose of supervising the purchase and allocation among handlers of emergency milk for all handlers desiring to purchase their emergency milk through a single importing agency. The market administrator may be a member of such committee and may act as chairman thereof. Notice of all meetings of the committee shall be given to the Secretary and such person or persons as the Secretary may designate shall be permitted to attend and take part in such meetings.

§ 945.14 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States or name any bureau or division of the United States Department of Agriculture to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions hereof.

§ 945.15 Liability. The liability of handlers hereunder is several and not joint and no handler shall be liable for the default of any other handler.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 3d day of April 1943, to be effective on and after the 8th day of April 1943. Witness my hand and the official seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] CLAUDE R. WICKARD,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Approved: April 5, 1943.

TITLE 8—ALIENS AND NATIONALITY

Chapter I—Immigration and Naturalization Service

[General Order C-31, Supplement 2]

PART 120—ALIEN SEAMEN

ADMISSION AND DEPORTATION

MARCH 22, 1943.

Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 23 and 33 of the Act of February 5, 1917 (39 Stat. 892, 896; 8 U.S.C. 102, 168); sections 14, 15, 20, and 24 of the Act of May 26, 1924 (43 Stat. 162, 162, 164, 166, 47 Stat. 524, 54 Stat. 711; 8 U.S.C. 214, 215, 167, 222); section 1 of Reorganization Plan No. V (5 F.R. 2223); section 37 (a) of the Act of June 28, 1940 (54 Stat. 675; 8 U.S.C. 458); section 90.1, Title 8, Chapter I, Code of Federal Regulations (7 F.R. 6753) and all other authority conferred by law, the following changes in Part 120 of the said regulations are hereby promulgated:

Sections 120.21 and 120.37 are amended to read respectively as follows:

§ 120.21 Alien seaman seeking entry in pursuit of calling; when ordered detained; waiver of crew list visa. (a) Any alien who upon arrival establishes that he is a bona fide seaman as defined in § 120.2 of this part, is admissible as a nonimmigrant under section 3 (5) of the Immigration Act of 1924 and is not inadmissible under the other provisions of this part and of Part 175, may be temporarily admitted for such period of time as the examining immigrant inspector shall designate, not to exceed, however, the time the vessel on which the alien arrives remains in the United States and in no event to exceed 30 days, if

(1) His name appears on the duly visaed crew list of the vessel on which he arrives, unless such vessel is excepted from the requirement of submitting a visaed crew list under the applicable Executive Order and regulations prescribing the requirements for crew list visas; and

(2) He is in possession of a passport, or some other document in lieu thereof, which is acceptable under the applicable Executive Order and regulations prescribing the documents required of alien seamen and which satisfactorily establishes his identity and nationality; and

(3) He has been registered as an alien and presents an appropriate alien registration receipt card or is registered as an alien at the time of inspection.

(b) Extensions of such a temporary admission may be granted by the officer in charge at the port of arrival if exceptional circumstances exist which justify such extensions, but the officer in charge shall in no event grant an extension or extensions which will authorize the alien seaman to remain in the United States for a period more than 60 days after his arrival. Any request for an extension beyond that period shall be referred to the Central Office for decision.

(c) The period of temporary admission of any seaman admitted for the period of time the vessel on which he arrives remains in the United States shall be deemed to be terminated if such vessel fails to depart to a foreign port or place within 30 days after its arrival at the port where the seaman was admitted, unless an extension of the alien's period of admission beyond 30 days from the date of the arrival of the vessel has been granted.

(d) An alien seaman whose name is not included in the visa of an alien crew list, or who is not in possession of an acceptable passport or document in lieu thereof, may nevertheless be admitted temporarily if otherwise entitled to such admission, if permission of the Secretary of State is obtained.

(e) Where the immigration officer is not satisfied that an alien applying for temporary admission as a bona fide alien seaman is entitled thereto, the immigration officer shall order the owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel on which such seaman arrived to detain him on board and deport him in the manner provided by law.

§ 120.37 Arrest and deportation of seamen; procedure. (a) An alien temporarily admitted as a bona fide seaman pursuant to section 3 (5) of the Immigration Act of 1924 for the time and under the conditions stated in § 120.21 of this part shall be deemed to have remained in the United States for a longer time than permitted by the terms of his admission or to have failed to maintain the status under which he was admitted if

(1) He is found in the United States after the expiration of the time for which he was temporarily admitted or the expiration of any authorized extension of such period; or

(2) He engages in or seeks employment ashore for hire; or

(3) He engages in or seeks employment in the coastwise trade; or

(4) He engages or seeks to engage, for profit, in any business not connected with his calling as a seaman; or

(5) He evidences an intention, by any other conduct or by spoken word, to violate the conditions of his temporary admission or to remain in the United States for a longer period than that for which he was admitted, although the period of his temporary admission has not expired; or

(6) He violates or is found to have violated in any way the terms and conditions under which he was admitted, as prescribed by the regulations in force and effect at the time of his admission.

(b) Any such alien shall be taken into custody and deported in accordance with the provisions of section 14 of the Immigration Act of 1924: Provided, however, And notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, that any such alien, upon indicating a willingness and ability to reship foreign may, in the discretion of the officer in charge, be placed on board any vessel for reshipment foreign at any time prior to the issuance of a warrant of deportation.

DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION IN COMPLETING SELECTIVE SERVICE AFFIDAVIT

Section 81.393 is hereby added as follows:

§ 81.393 Disclosure of information in connection with completing Selective Service affidavit. (a) It appears that some industrial firms have been setting forth detailed information on their war production activities, including dollar value of contracts, in completing the Affidavit—Occupational Classification (Industrial) (D. S. S. Form 42A,[1] Selective Service System).

(b) The information elicited on the reverse side of this form, pertaining to activities, production, contemplated conversion and numbers of employees, will be stated in general terms only. Detailed confidential data will not be included.

(c) All companies holding War Department contracts will be informed by the chiefs of the supply services that they must avoid any inclusion of confidential war production and related data in completing above-mentioned forms.

(Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b) [Cease and desist order, Walter Kidde & Company, Inc., Docket 3866, March 29, 1943].

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of March, A. D. 1943.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of the respondent, and a stipulation as to the facts entered into between the respondent herein by its counsel, Colladay, Colladay & Wallace, and Richard P. Whiteley, assistant chief counsel for the Federal Trade Commission, which provides, among other things, that the Commission may proceed upon said statement of facts to make its report stating its findings as to the facts and its conclusion based thereon and enter its order disposing of the proceeding without the presentation of argument or the filing of briefs; and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That the respondent, Walter Kidde & Company, Inc., a corporation, and its officers, representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device in connection with the offering for sale, sale, and distribution of fire-extinguishing equipment in commerce as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Representing directly or by implication that the respondent originated or pioneered the carbon-dioxide method of fire extinguishing or that respondent has developed every important improvement in carbon-dioxide equipment and technique.

2. Representing directly or by implication that all fire-extinguishing equipment involving carbon dioxide and every basic improvement thereof are developments of the respondent or that any extinguishing equipment or improvement thereof not originated and designed solely by the respondent is a development of the respondent.

3. Representing directly or by implication that any feature or value of respondent's fire-extinguishing equipment is an exceptional or exclusive feature of respondent's fire-extinguishing equipment either through the use of the term "extra values" or any other term of similar import or meaning to designate such features, or in any other manner, when such features so claimed to be exceptional or exclusive are in fact found in, and for a part of, fire-extinguishing equipment other than that sold by the respondent.

4. Representing directly or by implication that no fire-extinguishing apparatus, device, or equipment other than respondent's will put out airplane fires both on the ground and in flight.

5. Representing directly or by implication that respondent's equipment is the only fire-extinguishing apparatus approved by the United States Army or Navy as equipment for use in extinguishing airplane fires both on the ground and in flight.

6. Making or causing to be made in any form or manner any false or disparaging statements with reference to the length of time that any competitor has been in business or the length of time that any competitive equipment has been on the market.

7. Making or causing to be made in any form or manner any false or disparaging statements with reference to the ability of any competitor to supply parts for emergency use or representing that any competitor does not have warehouse facilities for supplying parts for emergency use when such warehouse facilities are in fact in existence.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

Chapter I—Federal Home Loan Bank System

[Bulletin 18]

PART 6—FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK ADMINISTRATION [1]

SEMI-ANNUAL ASSESSMENTS AGAINST FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANKS

MARCH 31, 1943.

Paragraph (a) of § 6.1 of the Rules and Regulations for the Federal Home Loan Bank System is hereby amended, effective April 2, 1943, to read as follows

[1] Formerly Home Loan Bank Board.

§ 6.1 General powers—(a) Assessments against Banks for Administration's Expenses. Each semi-annual assessment under the provisions of subsection (b) of section 18 of the Act to meet the estimated expenses of the Administration shall be made on the following basis: Each Bank will be charged $2,500, and any additional amount which may be necessary to meet the Administration's expenses will be assessed upon the several Banks in the same proportion as the total gross operating income, as determined by the Governor, of the respective Banks for the six months' period next preceding, hereinafter prescribed, bears to the total gross operating income of all the Banks for the same period of time. For the assessment for the first half of a calendar year, total gross operating income shall be determined from information contained in the reports of the respective Banks for each month during the period from June 1 through November 30, and for the assessment for the last half of a calendar year such determination shall be made from information contained in the reports of the respective Banks for each month during the period from December 1 through May 31. Payment by the Banks of said assessment shall be made in such manner as the Comptroller of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration shall request.

(Secs. 17 and 18 (b) of the FHLBA, 47 Stat. 736, 737; 12 U.S.C. 1437, 1438 and Sup.; E.O. 9070, 7 F.R. 1529)

This amendment is deemed to be of a minor character within the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 8.3 of the Rules and Regulations for the Federal Home Loan Bank System.

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter III—Bituminous Coal Division

[Docket No. A-1908]

PART 321—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 1

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 1 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for rail and truck shipments and changes in shipping points for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices and changes in the Freight Origin Group Numbers and the shipping points for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 321.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, and § 321.24 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof; and commencing forthwith, the Freight Origin Group Numbers and the shipping points appearing in the aforesaid Supplement R for mines mentioned therein are effective in place of the Freight Origin Group Numbers and the shipping points heretofore established for these mines.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the rules and regulations governing practice and procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: March 24, 1943.

PART 333—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 13

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 13 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 13.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 13; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 333.6 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–I, § 333.7 (Special prices—(a) Prices for shipment to all railroads and for exclusive use of railroads) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–II, § 333.7 (Special prices—(c) Prices for shipment by railroad, applicable to all coal sold for steamship vessel fuel) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–III, § 333.24 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–IV, § 333.25 (Special prices—(b) Prices for shipment to all railroad for locomotive fuel, station heating, power plants and other uses) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–V, § 333.27 (Prices for shipment by river (free alongside) for all uses (except for railway locomotive fuel) for delivery via the Tennessee River, to f. a. s. consumers in the States of Tennessee and Alabama) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–VI, § 333.34 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T–I, and § 333.43 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T–II, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the rules and regulations governing practice and procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: March 23, 1943.

PART 342—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 22

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 22 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 22;

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with the Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 22 for truck shipments; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled proceeding, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 342.4 (Code member price index) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T–I, and § 342.21 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T–II, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the rules and regulations governing practice and procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: March 23, 1943.

PART 326—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 6

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 6 for a change in shipping point of Bethany Mine, Mine Index No. 5, in District No. 6.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with the Division by the above-named party, requesting a change in the shipping point of Bethany Mine, Mine Index No. 5, of P. V. & K. Coal Company, in District No. 6, from Bethany-Wellsburg, West Virginia, on the Pennsylvania Railroad to Wellsburg (McKinleyville), West Virginia, on the said railroad, for rail shipments; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled proceeding, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, in § 326.6 (Numerical list of mines) the price classifications and minimum prices effective for the coals of the Bethany Mine, Mine Index No. 5, of P. V. & K. Coal Company, for rail shipments, shall be applicable only for shipments on the Pennsylvania Railroad from Wellsburg (McKinleyville), West Virginia, from the P. V. & K. tipple formerly known as the Standard No. 2 Mine tipple, and shall no longer be applicable for shipments on the Pennsylvania Railroad from Bethany-Wellsburg, West Virginia. All allowances or adjustments required or permitted mines in Freight Origin Group No. 30 shall be applicable for all shipments of the coals of the said mine from Wellsburg (McKinleyville), West Virginia, on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the rules and regulations governing practice and procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: April 2, 1943.

[Docket No. A-1747]

PART 337—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 17

ORDER ESTABLISHING MINIMUM PRICES

Order of the Director in the matter of the petition of Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 17 requesting establishment of minimum prices of new size groups—Lump coal over 8", and double-screened coal 12" x 3" and 12" x 1½" or 1¼".

Upon the basis of the findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth in the opinion of the Director, filed simultaneously herewith, wherein it appears that the classification of the coals included in Size Groups 1 and 2 should be revised to include lump coal 8" and larger in size, double-screened coal with a maximum top screen opening of 12" and maximum bottom screen openings of 3" and 1½" (or 1¼") respectively, and pursuant to section 4 II (d) and other provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937,

It is hereby ordered, That effective as of the date hereof § 337.2 (Size Group table) is amended as follows:

1. The classification of coals in Size Group 1 should be revised to include lump coal 8" and larger in size and double-screened coal with a maximum top screen opening of 12" and a maximum bottom screen opening of 3".

2. The classification of coals in Size Group 2 should be revised to include double-screened coal with a maximum top screen opening of 12" and a maximum bottom screen opening of 1½".[1]

Dated: April 3, 1943.

1. Amend paragraph (b) of § 627.2 to read as follows:

§ 627.2 Who may appeal registrant's classification to board of appeal under certain circumstances. * * *

(b) The government appeal agent may take any appeal authorized under paragraph (a) of this section at any time within 10 days after the date when the local board mails to the registrant a Notice of Classification (Form 57) or at any time before the registrant is mailed an Order to Report for Induction (Form 150).

2. Amend § 627.31 to read as follows:

§ 627.31 Action of local board if board of appeal does not change classification. If the board of appeal affirms the local board classification, the local board, upon receiving the file from the board of appeal, shall proceed as follows:

(1) Mail a Notice of Continuance of Classification (Form 58) to the registrant and a Classification Advice (Form 59) to the government appeal agent and to the person who made the appeal, if other than the registrant or the government appeal agent.

(2) If one or more members of the board of appeal dissented from the determination of that board, the local board shall indicate on such notice and advice the numerical division of the board of appeal.

(3) Enter on the Classification Record (Form 100) the date of mailing such notice and advice.

(4) Enter on the Classification Record (Form 100) the fact that the board of appeal affirmed the local board clasification.

3. Amend § 627.32 to read as follows:

§ 627.32 Action of local board if board of appeal changes classification. If the board of appeal does not affirm the local board classification, the local board, upon receiving the file from the board of appeal, shall proceed as follows:

(1) Mail a Notice of Classification (Form 57) to the registrant and a Classification Advice (Form 59) to the government appeal agent and to the person who made the appeal, if other than the registrant or the government appeal agent.

(2) If one or more members of the board of appeal dissented from the determination of that board, the local board shall indicate on such notice and advice the numerical division of the board of appeal.

(3) Enter on the Classification Record (Form 100) the date of mailing such notice and advice.

(4) Enter on the Classification Record (Form 100) the board of appeal classification and, with red ink, draw a line through the local board classification.

4. Amend paragraph (b) of § 627.61 to read as follows:

§ 627.61 Reconsideration of board of appeal determination. * * *

(b) At any time within 10 days after the date when the local board mails to the registrant either a Notice of Continuance of Classification (Form 58) or a Notice of Classification (Form 57), as provided in §§ 627.31 and 627.32, or at any time before the registrant is mailed an Order to Report for Induction (Form 150), the government appeal agent, if he deems it to be in the national interest or necessary to avoid an injustice, may prepare and place in the registrant's file a recommendation that the State Director of Selective Service either request the board of appeal to reconsider its determination or appeal to the President. The registrant's file shall then be forwarded to the State Director of Selective Service. As soon as the State Director of Selective Service has acted upon the government appeal agent's request he shall advise the local board and, if he determines neither to request the board of appeal to reconsider its determination nor to appeal to the President, he shall return the file to the local board.

5. The foregoing amendments to the Selective Service regulations shall be effective immediately upon the filing hereof with the Division of the Federal Register.

PART 802—GENERAL LICENSES

CANCELLATION OF CERTAIN GENERAL LICENSES

Part 802, General Licenses, is hereby amended in the following particulars:

1. Paragraph (a) of § 802.3 General license country groups is hereby amended by placing before the name of the countries Brazil and Argentina listed therein the letter "a" wherever the name of such countries appear in this section.

2. Paragraph (b) of § 802.3 General license country groups is hereby amended as follows:

(b) When a commodity is placed under general license to a particular "country group" it may, subject to the provisions of this subchapter, be exported to any country in that group: Provided, That wherever there appears before the name of a country designated in a "country group" the letter "a" no exportation may be made to such country pursuant to general licenses granted in § 802.7 and in paragraphs (c) and (d) of § 802.10 of this subchapter.

3. Subparagraph (2) in paragraph (b) of § 802.9 General in transit licenses is hereby amended to read as follows:

(2) The words "western hemisphere" when used in this section to designate countries of origin shall include only those countries designated by the following "general license numbers": 3 through 24 inclusive, 61, 62, 68 and 69. Such words when used in this section to designate countries of destination shall include only the following "general license numbers": 3, 5, 7 through 24 inclusive, 61, 62, 68 and 69.

The amendments set forth herein shall become effective on March 1, 1943 for the exportation of commodities to Brazil and effective on April 1, 1943 for the exportation of commodities to Argentina: Provided, That the following commodities may be exported to Brazil under previous general licenses until April 1, 1943.

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-265]

MOHAWK GAS AND OIL CORP.

Mohawk Gas and Oil Corporation, 42 Van Guysling Avenue, Schenectady, New York, is engaged in the marketing of motor fuel. During the months of April, May, June and from July 1 to July 21, 1942, the Mohawk Gas and Oil Corporation delivered to twenty service stations a total of 85,558 gallons of motor fuel in excess of the amounts permitted to be delivered in accordance with the provisions of Limitation Order L-70. These excess deliveries were made by the Mohawk Gas and Oil Corporation in such reckless disregard of the provisions of Limitation Order L-70 as to constitute wilful violations thereof.

These violations have impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States by diverting motor fuel to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing facts, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.265 Suspension order S-265. (a) During each of the months of April, May, June and July, 1943, Mohawk Gas and Oil Corporation, its successors and assigns shall not deliver or cause to be delivered, directly or indirectly, any motor fuel, as defined in Limitation Order L-70, to any of the following service stations in excess of 75 per cent of the average monthly gallonage delivered to each such service station by Mohawk Gas and Oil Corporation during the period of October 1942 through January 1943:

Altrock's Service Station, Broadway and Curry Rd., Schenectady, N. Y.
Albany Street Service Station, 744 Albany Street, Schenectady, N. Y.
Edison Tydol Service Station, Edison Ave. and Weaver St., Schenectady, N. Y.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-252]

H. W. HUNT COMPANY

H. W. Hunt Company, a corporation, of 167 Pleasant Street, Reading, Massachusetts, is engaged in the manufacture of brass pipe nipples and steel pipe nipples, and operates under the provisional of the Production Requirements Plan. During the second and third quarters of 1942 the company applied higher preference ratings to deliveries to it of brass and steel pipe than were authorized under the Production Requirements Plan, and applied preference ratings to deliveries of greater quantities of brass and steel pipe than were authorized by the Production Requirements Plan. These improper applications of preference ratings, and these over-purchases were wilful violations of Preference Rating Order No. P-90, Priorities Regulation No. 11 as amended and Priorities Regulation No. 1 as amended.

These violations have impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States by diverting brass and steel to users unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing facts; It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.252 Suspension Order No. S-252. (a) Deliveries of material to H. W. Hunt Company, its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order, and no preference rating shall be assigned, applied or extended to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the War Production Board, except to enable it to fill orders bearing Preference Rating AA-2X or higher, and except as hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) No allocation shall be made to H. W. Hunt Company, its successors and assigns, of any materials the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the War Production Board, except to enable it to fill orders bearing Preference Rating AA-2X or higher and except as hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve H. W. Hunt Company, its successors and assigns, from any restrictions, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, whether now in force or hereafter issued, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect April 5, 1943 and shall expire on July 5, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order are to be of no further effect.

Issued this 3d day of April 1943.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-260]

KENNY BOILER AND MANUFACTURING COMPANY

The Kenny Boiler and Manufacturing Company of St. Paul, Minnesota, is a corporation engaged in the business of installing, equipping and repairing boilers and related equipment, and operates under the Production Requirements Plan. During the third quarter of 1942 the Kenny Boiler and Manufacturing Company purchased approximately 20 tons of seamless steel boiler tubes, 20,965 feet of oxygen and acetylene, 1,140 pounds of bolts, nuts and rivets, $837.50 worth of pipe and fittings, 18,713 pounds of cast iron bars, doors, frames, grates, etc., and 92 pounds of copper ferrets; and in the fourth quarter of 1942 11.5 tons of boiler tubes, 866 pounds of bolts and nuts, $390.00 worth of valves and fittings, and 8 tons of iron castings. All of this material was in excess of the amount of such material which the company was authorized to purchase under the Production Requirements Plan. The company was familiar with the provisions and limitations of the Production Requirements Plan and consequently, the above over-purchases were wilful violations of Priorities Regulation No. 11 as amended.

These wilful violations of Priorities Regulation No. 11 have impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing facts, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.260 Suspension Order No. S-260. (a) Deliveries of material to Kenny Boiler and Manufacturing Company, its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority, directly or indirectly, over deliveries under any other contract or order, and no preference rating shall be assigned, applied or extended to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the War Production Board, except as specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) No allocation shall be made to Kenny Boiler and Manufacturing Company, its successors and assigns, of any material, the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the War Production Board, except as specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Kenny Boiler and Manufacturing Company, its successors and assigns, from any restrictions, prohibition, or provision contained in any order or regulation of the War Production Board, whether now in force or hereafter issued, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on April 5, 1943, and shall expire on July 5, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this Order are to be of no further effect.

Issued this 3d day of April 1943.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-263]

DART BOARD EQUIPMENT COMPANY

J. W. Tempest and T. W. Tempest, doing business as Dart Board Equipment Company, 306 Cherry Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, are engaged in the production of darts and dart boards, and other toys and games. From November 25, 1942 to December 31, 1942, Dart Board Equipment Company used lead or lead base alloy, iron and steel to make 224,892 darts. Prior to November 25, 1942, J. W. Tempest, T. W. Tempest and Edward A. McTague, General Manager of the company, knew that darts were toys and that Conservation Order M-38-c prohibited the use of lead or lead base alloy in their production, that darts were game devices and that Conservation Order M-126 prohibited the use of iron or steel in their assembly, and that Limitation Order L-81 prohibited the use of iron and steel in the processing, fabrication and assembly of darts, which are toys and games.

This use of lead or lead base alloy, iron and steel constituted wilful violations of Conservation Orders M-38-c, Conservation Order M-126 and Limitation Order L-81, which have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board.

In view of the foregoing facts, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.263 Suspension Order No. S-263. (a) Deliveries of material to J. W. Tempest and T. W. Tempest, doing business as Dart Board Equipment Company or otherwise, jointly or separately, their successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned, applied or extended to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other orders or regulations of the War Production Board except as specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) No allocation shall be made to J. W. Tempest and T. W. Tempest, doing business as Dart Board Equipment Company or otherwise, jointly or separately, their successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the War Production Board, except as specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(c) J. W. Tempest and T. W. Tempest, doing business as Dart Board Equipment Company or otherwise, jointly or separately, their successors and assigns, shall not accept deliveries of, or use, any iron, steel, lead or lead base alloy in the processing, manufacturing, fabrication or assembly of any article whatsoever, except as specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve J. W. Tempest and T. W. Tempest, doing business as Dart Board Equipment Company or otherwise, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(e) This order shall take effect on April 5, 1943 and shall expire on October 5, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

Issued this 3d day of April 1943.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-269]

STAPLETON HEATING COMPANY

Stapleton Heating Company, Johnstown, Pennsylvania, is an individual proprietorship, owned and operated by R. A. Stapleton, engaged in the business of selling metal heating equipment. From July 1 to September 11, 1942, the company sold and delivered thirteen new metal hot water heating systems to ultimate consumers at prices ranging from $430 to $1,750. All of these sales were made on orders which did not bear any preference ratings or certifications and which had not been specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations. During this period the company knew of the restrictions contained in Limitation Order L-79 and its sales constituted wilful violations of that order.

These violations of Limitation Order L-79 have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.269 Suspension Order No. S-269. (a) R. A. Stapleton, individually or doing business as Stapleton Heating Company or otherwise, shall not sell, transfer, deliver, install, accept delivery of or otherwise deal in any new metal heating equipment as the same is defined in Limitation Order L-79, except as specifically authorized by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve R. A. Stapleton from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on April 6, 1943, and shall expire on October 6, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

PART 3229—FISH NETTING

[General Limitation Order L-282]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of fish nets for defense, for private account and export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3229.1 General Limitation Order L-282.—(a) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order.

(1) "Fish netting" means any meshed fabric of the type customarily used for catching fish for commercial purposes.

(2) "Military order" means an order for delivery to or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development, the governments of Belgium, China, Czechoslovakia, Free France, Greece, Iceland, Norway, Poland, Russia, Turkey, United Kingdom, including its Dominions, Crown Colonies and Protectorates, or Yugoslavia, or the government of any country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States." (Lend-Lease Act.)

(c) Restriction on production and sales. (1) After April 5, 1943, no person who produced during the calendar year 1942 more than twelve tons of fish netting shall manufacture, or process in any stage of manufacturing, any netting except

(i) That required to fill specific military orders for camouflage netting;

(ii) Fish netting.

(2) No such person shall sell or deliver any netting which he knows or has reason to believe will be used for any purpose other than camouflage or the catching of fish for commercial purposes.

(d) Assignment of preference rating to producers of fish netting. A preference rating of A-2 is hereby assigned to producers of fish netting for deliveries of yarn. No person shall utilize any yarn obtained by the use of this rating, except in the manufacture of camouflage netting covered by specific military orders or fish netting.

(e) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(f) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as may from time to time be required by said Board.

(g) Records. All producers of fish netting shall preserve such records for not less than two years as will clearly and adequately indicate his compliance with this order.

(h) Communications to the War Production Board. All reports, applications, forms or communications required under or referred to in this order, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Textile, Clothing and Leather Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L-282.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or who furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority assistance.

Issued this 3d day of April 1943.

(ii) Any Class B distributor in an amount not to exceed that specified in Schedule A of this order;

(iii) Any Class B producer in such amounts as the War Production Board shall, from time to time, determine after taking into account the amounts of 35 mm. film which such Class B producer has obtained from, or, through a charge against the account of, any Class A or Class B distributor;

(iv) Any Class C producer or Class C distributor in an amount not to exceed 22% of the 35 mm. film exposed by or for the respective account of such Class C producer or Class C distributor during the calendar year 1941.

(3) In addition to the amount of 35 mm. film which the War Production Board will authorize to be transferred pursuant to paragraph (b) (2) of this order, the War Production Board will authorize the transfer of additional amounts of 35 mm. film to any Class A, B or C distributor in amounts equal to 50% of the linear feet of 35 mm. film contained in positive prints of entertainment pictures which such distributor turned over to the Army of the United States for distribution and exhibition by the Army of the United States in the preceding calendar quarter, and 100% of the linear feet of 35 mm. film contained in positive prints of entertainment pictures which such distributor turned over to the Navy of the United States for distribution and exhibition by the Navy of the United States in the preceding calendar quarter.

(c) Restrictions on transfers of 35 mm. film for exposure in connection with factual pictures. (1) No person shall transfer any 35 mm. film to any other person (including government agencies) for exposure in connection with factual pictures except pursuant to (i) Such rules and regulations as the Bureau of Motion Pictures of the Office of War Information shall from time to time specify; or

(ii) The specific authorization of the War Production Board.

(2) During the three months period beginning April 1, 1943, and during each three months period thereafter until otherwise ordered, the War Production Board and the Bureau of Motion Pictures of the Office of War Information shall not authorize the transfer of more 35 mm. film for exposure in connection with factual pictures than 25,150,000 linear feet.

(d) Restrictions on transfers of 35 mm. film for exposure in connection with special pictures. No person shall transfer any 35 mm. film to any other person (including government agencies) for exposure in connection with special pictures except pursuant to the specific authorization of the War Production Board.

(e) Restrictions on transfers of 35 mm. film for exposure by Class A newsreel producers. (1) No person shall transfer any 35 mm. film for exposure by Class A newsreel producers in connection with newsreels produced by them, except (i) Motion picture laboratories or other service organizations processing 35 mm. film may transfer 35 mm. film to or for the account of Class A newsreel producers; or

(ii) Pursuant to specific authorization of the War Production Board.

(2) During the period of three months beginning April 1, 1943, and during each three months period thereafter until otherwise ordered by the War Production Board, the War Production Board

tion Board, the War Production Board, upon proper application, will grant authorizations for the transfer of 35 mm. film to or for the account of Class A newsreel producers for exposure in connection with newsreels in an amount not to exceed the amount specified opposite such Class A newsreel producer's name in Schedule B of this order.

(f) Restrictions on exposure of 35 mm. film by laboratories. No motion picture laboratory or other service organization processing 35 mm. film shall expose any such film, except (1) For the account of any person who has been authorized by the Bureau of Motion Pictures of the Office of War Information to obtain a transfer of 35 mm. film;

(2) For the account of any Class A or Class B distributor;

(3) For the account of any person who has been authorized by the War Production Board to obtain a transfer of 35 mm. film; or

(4) With the specific authorization of the War Production Board.

(g) Applications for authorizations to transfer 35 mm. film. Any person may apply to the War Production Board for a specific authorization to transfer 35 mm. film by executing and filing Form PD–763 with the Motion Picture and Photographic Section of the Consumers Durable Goods Division of the War Production Board, Washington, D. C.

(h) Reports. (1) All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(2) Every motion picture laboratory and other service organization processing 35 mm. film shall execute and file with the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref: L–178, on or before the 10th day following the close of each calendar month, Form PD–764.

(i) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(j) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order must be made on Form PD–500.

(k) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(l) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(m) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L–178.

Issued this 1st day of April 1943.

[F. R. Doc. 43–5286; Filed, April 5, 1943; 11:20 a. m.]

PART 1198—GLASS CONTAINER AND CLOSURE SIMPLIFICATION

[Limitation Order L–103 as Amended April 5, 1943]

Section 1198.1 Limitation Order L–103 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1198.1 Limitation Order L–103—(a) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Glass container" means any machine made bottle, jar, or tumbler which is made of glass and which is suitable for packing any product.

(2) "Closure" means any sealing or covering device affixed or to be affixed to a glass container for the purpose of retaining the contents within the container.

(3) "Finish" of a glass container means the configuration of the neck or opening which serves to engage specific parts of the closure in order to affix it to the glass container.

(4) "Design" of a glass container means the particular shape, weight, size, capacity, and contour of the body of such container (other than the finish), and shall include any lettering or decoration molded thereon, except the container manufacturers' identification marks.

(5) A "design in existence" means a design for which one or more molds have been cast and is further limited to the exact size and capacity of container produced therefrom.

(6) Any specification which refers to or includes the letters "G. C. A." means a specification (including the tolerances recognized with respect to such specification) issued by the Glass Container Association of America and in effect on May 11, 1942.

(7) "Exhibit" refers to the particular specifications set forth opposite an exhibit number (e. g. 10–40; 10–75; 50–23, etc.) as applied to the shape or contour appearing on the drawing, attached to this order, in connection with which such exhibit is listed. Any applicable footnotes appearing on said drawing shall be deemed to be incorporated in such specifications.

(c) Issuance of schedules of simplification of lines. The War Production Board may from time to time issue schedules establishing simplification practices with respect to the designs and/or finishes of glass containers for specific products. From and after the date of issuance of any such schedule no such containers shall be manufactured or used contrary to the provisions of such schedule, Provided, however, That

(1) Subject to the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph (c), nothing in this order or any schedule hereof shall prevent the manufacture, sale, delivery or use, for the packaging of any product, of any glass container which differs from any standard glass container established for such product by any schedule solely by reason of:

(i) The location of indented or other label space;

(ii) The degree of curvature of the shoulder and heel of the container;

(iii) The amount and location of any lettering which indicates capacity only;

(iv) A difference in height or weight when such difference does not exceed 5 percent of the height or weight shown for the applicable standard glass container;

(v) The existence or location of stippling or fluting.

(2) No person shall manufacture, sell, deliver or use any glass container pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (c) unless

(i) Such glass container is manufactured within nine months after the date of issuance of any applicable schedule; and

(ii) Such glass container is manufactured from a mold which was actually in existence prior to the date of issuance of any applicable schedule; and

(iii) The design of such glass container has been submitted to the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref. L–103, and approved as within the exemption provided by subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (c).

(d) Exhibits. The exhibits listed on the drawings attached to this order shall have no application except as they are specifically referred to in this order or are established as standard glass containers by the provisions of any schedule issued pursuant to paragraph (c) hereof.

(e) Freezing of all glass container designs not established as standards pursuant to any schedule of this order. No person shall manufacture a glass container except:

(1) Where the design of such container was in existence on May 11, 1942; or, failing this, where any variations from a design then in existence have been effected by alterations of molds in existence on or before May 11, 1942.

(2) Where the design of such container corresponds to any exhibit attached to this order.

(3) Where the design of such container has been submitted by any person to the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref. L–103, and approved under one of the following conditions:

(i) When no suitable glass container exists for packing a product not previously packed in glass;

(ii) When it is necessary to design a special glass container in order that it can be used on an existing filling or packing line.

(4) Nothing in subparagraphs (1), (2) or (3) of this paragraph (e) shall be deemed to permit the manufacture or use of glass containers contrary to the provisions of any schedule issued pursuant to paragraph (c) of this order.

(f) Allowance of normal operating tolerances. (1) Nothing in this order or any schedule hereof shall

(i) Prevent variations in the design or finish of a glass container within the limits of normal operating tolerances.

(ii) Prohibit the usual differences in glass container design when manufactured on glass container machinery of different types.

(g) Interchangeable finishes. (1) Unless specifically stated to the contrary in any schedule, nothing in this order or any schedule hereof shall prevent the interchange of finishes on glass containers described in an exhibit attached to this order, Provided:

(i) Such interchange can be effected without alteration of the specified body mold; and

(ii) The interchanged finish is no greater in diameter than that appearing on the exhibit for the body design to which it is to be applied, or, if another type of finish is used, no larger than the corresponding size of that type of finish.

(iii) The capacity resulting from such interchange is no less than the capacity shown in the applicable exhibit.

(2) Nothing in this order or any schedule hereof shall prevent the modification of the weight, height, or capacity of a glass container described in any exhibit of this order to the minimum extent required by any interchange of finishes in accordance with the conditions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (g).

(h) Extent of prohibitions against replacement of molds. (1) Whenever any provision of this order or any schedule hereof prohibits the replacement of existing molds, such prohibition shall extend to the body mold only and shall not be deemed to prohibit the use of new neck rings nor new blank molds or other equipment necessary for use with a body mold.

(i) Export. Nothing in this order or any schedule hereof shall affect the manufacture, sale or delivery of glass containers intended to be shipped outside of the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia: Provided, That the said glass containers are made from molds in existence on or before May 11, 1942.

(j) Miscellaneous provisions.—(1) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(2) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(3) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Containers Division, Washington, D. C., Ref. L–103.

Issued this 5th day of April 1943.

PART 1198—GLASS CONTAINER AND CLOSURE SIMPLIFICATION

[Schedule A to Limitation Order L-103, as Amended April 5, 1943]

DISTILLED SPIRITS

§ 1198.2 Schedule A to Limitation Order L-103—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this schedule:

(1) "Distilled spirits" means whiskey, gin, brandy, and rum.

(2) A "standard glass container for distilled spirits" means a glass container described in Exhibits A-1-a, A-2-a, A-3-a, A-4-a, A-5, or A-6 of this schedule which possesses the finish prescribed for the respective container in the said exhibits or any other finish which is interchanged therewith in accordance with paragraph (g) of Limitation Order L-103.

(b) Simplified practice. (1) Until further order of the War Production Board, the manufacture of glass containers for distilled spirits is limited to the following capacities: 1 quart (32 fluid ounces); ⅕ quart (25.6 fluid ounces); 1 pint (16 fluid ounces), and ½ pint (8 fluid ounces) and the manufacture of glass containers for all other liquors (such as cordials, cocktails, and specialties) is limited to capacities of ½ pint (8 fluid ounces) or more.

(2) (i) Prior to September 1, 1942, no glass container for distilled spirits shall be manufactured which has a glass weight heavier than the following:

(a) If of quart capacity, not more than 22 oz. avoir.;

(b) If of ⅘ quart capacity, not more than 20½ oz. avoir.;

(c) If of pint capacity, not more than 15 oz. avoir.;

(d) If of half-pint capacity, not more than 10 oz. avoir.

(ii) On and after September 1, 1942, and prior to January 1, 1943, no glass container for distilled spirits shall be manufactured which has a glass weight heavier than the following:

(a) If of quart capacity, not more than 20½ oz. avoir.;

(b) If of ⅘ quart capacity, not more than 19 oz. avoir.;

(c) If of pint capacity, not more than 13½ oz. avoir.;

(d) If of half-pint capacity, not more than 8½ oz. avoir.

(3) (i) No mold for a glass container for distilled spirits may be replaced—whether because of wear or for any other reason—except by a mold which conforms to the specifications of a "standard glass container for distilled spirits."

(ii) On and after January 1, 1943, only standard glass containers for distilled spirits may be produced.

(4) No provision of this schedule shall be construed to restrict the sale, delivery or use of glass containers which were completely manufactured on or before the 12th day of September 1942.

(c) Lettering. (1) Except as specifically permitted by the exhibits of this schedule, the lettering on standard glass containers for distilled spirits shall be limited to manufacturers' identification (which may include trademark, name or symbol), place of manufacture, date of manufacture by year, design number and mold or cavity number.

Issued this 5th day of April 1943.

PART 1198—GLASS CONTAINER AND CLOSURE SIMPLIFICATION

[Schedule B to Limitation Order L–103, as Amended April 5, 1943]

MALT BEVERAGES

§ 1198.3 Schedule B to Limitation Order L–103—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this schedule:

(1) "Malt beverages" means beer, ale, stout, near-beer, and beverages of a similar kind, made by alcoholic fermentation of malted barley with or without other food products, and with hops or hop extracts.

(2) A "standard glass container for malt beverages" means a glass container described in Exhibits B–1, B–2, B–3–a, B–4, B–5–a, B–6 to B–9, inclusive, B–10–a, and B–11 to B–13, inclusive of this schedule, which possesses the finish prescribed for the respective container in the said exhibits or any other finish which is interchanged therewith in accordance with paragraph (g) of Limitation Order L–103.

(b) Simplified practice. (1) Until further order of the War Production Board, the manufacture of glass containers for malt beverages is limited to the following capacities: 12 fluid ounces; 1 quart (32 fluid ounces); and one-half gallon (64 fluid ounces).

(2) No glass container for malt beverages shall be manufactured which has a glass weight heavier than the following:

(i) If of one-half gallon capacity, not more than 39 oz. avoir.;

(ii) If of quart capacity, not more than 30 oz. avoir.:

(iii) If of 12 fluid ounce capacity, and (a) in the so-called "steinie" shape, not more than 10½ oz. avoir.; (b) in the so-called "export", "ale", or "select" shapes, not more than 12 oz. avoir.

(3) (i) No mold for a glass container for malt beverages may be replaced—whether because of wear or for any other reason—except by a mold which conforms to the specifications of a standard glass container for malt beverages.

(ii) On and after January 1, 1943, only standard glass containers for malt beverages may be produced.

(iii) On and after April 15, 1943, the standard glass containers described in Exhibits 12 and 13 shall be manufactured only for malt beverages to be shipped outside of the forty-eight states of the United States of America and the District of Columbia.

(4) No provision of this schedule shall be construed to restrict the sale, delivery, or use of glass containers which were completely manufactured on or before the 12th day of September 1942.

(c) Lettering. (1) Except as specifically permitted by the exhibits of this schedule the lettering on standard glass containers for malt beverages shall be limited to manufacturers' identification (which may include trademark, name or symbol), place of manufacture, date of manufacture by year, design number and mold or cavity number.

PART 1198—GLASS CONTAINER AND CLOSURE SIMPLIFICATION

[Schedule C to Limitation Order L–103 as Amended April 5, 1943]

GLASS CONTAINERS FOR CERTAIN FOOD PRODUCTS

Section 1198.4 Schedule C to Limitation Order L–103 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1198.4 Schedule C to Limitation Order L–103—(a) Definition. For the purposes of this schedule:

"Standard glass container" means a container constructed in accordance with the specifications and design prescribed by any exhibit set forth in Drawings 1 to 15, inclusive, annexed to Order L–103, which possesses the finish prescribed for such exhibit or, subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) (2) hereof, any other finish which is interchanged therewith in accordance with paragraph (g) of Limitation Order L–103.

(b) Restrictions on use. (1) With the exceptions set forth in paragraph (c) of this schedule, on and after July 4, 1943, no person shall use a glass container for the packing for sale of any product listed in the annexed table, except a standard glass container, having a capacity equal to or greater than that specified for such product in column II of said table.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (g) of Order L–103, no person shall use for the packing for sale of any product listed in the table annexed to this schedule any glass container with a "deep screw cap" finish, except as specifically permitted by an exhibit authorized for such product.

(c) Exceptions. (1) Nothing in this schedule shall prevent the use, for the packing of any product listed in the annexed table, of any glass containers which were completely manufactured before the 4th day of July 1943.

(2) Nothing in this schedule shall restrict the sale, delivery, use or manufacture of glass containers with a capacity larger than 140 fluid ounces, or designs that existed on May 11, 1942.

(3) Nothing in this schedule shall prohibit any person who packed less than a total of 5,000 containers with all of the products listed in the annexed table during the calendar year 1942 from purchasing, accepting delivery of, or using without restriction, during any subsequent calendar year, a maximum of 5,000 glass containers for packing such products.

(4) Except as specifically permitted by the drawings and exhibits annexed to Order L–103 molded lettering or decoration on standard glass containers for the respective products listed in said table shall be limited to the manufacturer's identification (which may include trademark, name, symbol), place of manufacture, date of manufacture by year, design number, and mold or cavity number.

(d) Manufacture. (1) No person shall manufacture, sell, or deliver any glass container which he knows, or has reason to believe, will be used in violation of any provision of this schedule.

(2) On and after the 5th day of April 1943, no molds may be manufactured for a container for any of the products listed in the annexed table which does not conform to the specifications of a standard glass container usable for such product, nor may any mold for a container for a product listed in the annexed table be replaced—whether because of wear or for any other reason—except by a mold which conforms to said specifications.

Issued this 5th day of April 1943.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

[Schedule D to Limitation Order L–103, as Amended April 5, 1943]

GLASS CONTAINERS FOR WINES

§ 1198.5 Schedule D to Limitation Order L–103—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this schedule:

(1) "Wine" means the product of the normal alcoholic fermentation of the juice of grapes, fruits, or other agricultural products, with or without added brandy or other spirits, and shall include, but shall not be limited to, sparkling and carbonated wine vermouth, flavored wines, cider, perry, sake, in each instance only if containing not less than 7 per centum and not more than 24 per centum alcohol by volume.

(2) A "standard glass container for wines" means a glass container described in Exhibits D–1–A, D–2–A, D–3, D–4, D–5, D–6, D–7, D–8–A and D–9–A of this schedule, which possesses the finish prescribed for the respective container in the said exhibits or any other finish which is interchanged therewith in accordance with paragraph (g) of Limitation Order L–103.

(b) Restrictions on use. (1) With the exceptions set forth in paragraph (c) of this schedule, on and after October 1, 1942, no person shall use a glass container of other than the following capacities for the packaging of wines for sale:

(i) One gallon.
(ii) One half-gallon.
(iii) 26 fluid ounce champagne.
(iv) 13 fluid ounce champagne.
(v) 1 quart, flat bottom.
(vi) 4/5 quart, push-up bottom.
(vii) 4/5 quart, flat bottom.
(viii) 4/5 pint, flat bottom.
(ix) 1 pint, flat bottom.

(2) With the exceptions set forth in paragraph (c) of this schedule, on and after March 1, 1943, no person shall use a glass container other than a standard glass container as herein defined for the packaging of wines for sale.

(c) Exemptions. (1) Nothing in this schedule shall prevent the use for the packaging of wines of any non-standard glass containers which were:

(i) Completely manufactured on or before the first day of October, 1942, or

(ii) Which have the same capacity as any standard glass container described in this schedule and which were completely manufactured prior to March 1, 1943, from a mold actually in existence prior to the 2d day of January, 1943.

(2) Except as specifically permitted by the exhibits of this schedule, the lettering on standard glass containers for wines shall be limited to manufacturers' identification, (which may include trademark, name or symbol), place of manufacture, date of manufacture by year, design number and mold or cavity number.

(d) Manufacture. (1) No molds may be manufactured for a wine bottle or finish which do not conform to the specifications of a standard glass container for wines, nor may any mold for a glass container for wines be replaced, whether because of wear or for any other reason, except by a mold which conforms to said specifications.

Issued this 5th day of April 1943.

PART 1198—GLASS CONTAINER AND CLOSURE SIMPLIFICATION

[Schedule E to Limitation Order L–103, as Amended April 5, 1943]

GLASS CONTAINERS FOR PROTECTIVE COATINGS

§ 1198.6 Schedule E to Limitation Order L–103—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this schedule:

(1) "Protective coatings" means paints (including paste water paints), varnishes, lacquers, shellacs, stains, linseed oil, turpentine, benzine, mineral spirits, varnish and paint removers, thinners and driers. The term shall not include inks or artists' supplies.

(2) A "standard glass container for protective coatings" means:

(i) A glass container described in Exhibits E–1 to E–9, inclusive, of this schedule;

(ii) A glass container described in Exhibits 10–14, 10–20, 10–40, 10–48, 10–67, 10–72, 10–77, 51–86, 51–88, 51–92, 51–94, 51–96, 51–98, 12–86 and 12–96 of Limitation Order L–103; which possesses the finish prescribed for the respective container in the said exhibits or any other finish which is interchanged therewith in accordance with paragraph (g) of Limitation Order L–103.

(b) Restrictions on use. With the exceptions set forth in paragraph (c) of this schedule, on and after January 1, 1943,

(1) No person shall use a glass container other than a standard glass container as herein defined for the packaging of protective coatings for sale or for sample purposes.

(2) [Deleted April 5, 1943]

(3) No person shall use any standard glass containers with a finish larger than 38 mm. for the packing, for sale or for sample purposes, of shellacs and clear varnishes, and jobbing items (including but not limited to linseed oil, turpentine, benzine, mineral spirits, lacquer thinners, varnish and paint removers, and driers).

(c) Exceptions. (1) Nothing in this schedule shall prevent the use for the packaging of protective coatings of any non-standard glass containers which were completely manufactured on or before the 1st day of February, 1943, and in the hands of the user thereof on or before the 1st day of March, 1943.

(2) Nothing in this schedule shall restrict the sale, delivery, use or manufacture of glass containers, made from a mold actually in existence on the 7th day of December, 1942, which have an overflow capacity of between 65 and 70 fl. oz. or between 130 and 140 fl. oz.; but such molds may not be replaced except in accordance with paragraph (d) of this schedule.

(3) Lettering on standard glass containers for protective coatings shall be limited to the manufacturers' identification (which may include trademark, name, symbol), place of manufacture, date of manufacture by year, design number, and mold or cavity number.

(d) Manufacture. On and after the 7th day of December, 1942, no molds may be manufactured for a protective coating jar or finish which does not conform to the specifications of a standard glass container for protective coatings, nor may any mold for a glass container for protective coatings be replaced—whether because of wear or for any other reason—except by a mold which conforms to the said specifications.

Issued this 5th day of April 1943.

PART 1273—STYRENE

[Supplementary Order M-170-a]

POLYSTYRENE

§ 1273.2 Supplementary Order M-170-a—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Polystyrene" means the polymers of styrene (vinyl benzene), but does not include the copolymers of styrene with other monomers such as butadiene or methyl methacrylate. The term "polystyrene" does not include fabricated forms of polystyrene such as sheets, rods, tubes, molded parts or coated fabric, and does not include polystyrene scrap or polystyrene consisting entirely of reprocessed scrap.

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of polystyrene.

(3) "Distributor" means any purchaser of polystyrene who resells it in the form of polystyrene as defined, with or without further compounding or processing.

(b) Restrictions on use and delivery of polystyrene. (1) On and after May 1, 1943, no producer or distributor shall use or deliver polystyrene, and no person shall accept delivery of polystyrene from a producer or distributor, except as specifically authorized by the War Production Board upon application pursuant to paragraph (d).

(2) Each person authorized to accept delivery of polystyrene shall use such polystyrene for the purpose authorized, except as otherwise specifically directed by the War Production Board.

(3) The War Production Board at its discretion may at any time issue special directions to any person with respect to use or delivery of polystyrene by such person, or of products made from polystyrene allocated to such person, notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (c) hereof, or special directions to any producer with respect to the kinds of polystyrene which he may produce or manufacture.

(c) Small order exemption. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) (1):

(1) Any person may accept delivery of, and any producer or distributor may use, 50 pounds or less of polystyrene in the aggregate during any one calendar month without specific authorization.

(2) Each producer or distributor may deliver during each calendar month to persons entitled to accept delivery pursuant to paragraph (c) (1), without regard to preference ratings, a quantity of polystyrene not exceeding in the aggregate the total amount which he shall have been specifically authorized by the War Production Board to deliver for small orders during such month.

(d) Applications and reports. (1) Each person seeking authorization to accept delivery of polystyrene from a producer or distributor, and each producer or distributor seeking authorization to use polystyrene during any calendar month, shall file application on Form PD-600, in the manner prescribed therein, subject to the following instructions for the purpose of this order.

Form PD-600. Copies of Form PD-600 may be obtained at local field offices of the War Production Board.

Time. Applications shall be made in time to ensure that copies will have reached the producer or distributor and the War Production Board on or before the 15th day of the month preceding the month for which authorization for use or acceptance of delivery is sought, except that distributors may apply on Form PD-600 on or before the 19th day of the month.

Number of copies. Five copies shall be prepared, of which one (in which Tables II, III and IV may be left blank) shall be forwarded to the producer or distributor, and three certified and completely filled out copies shall be forwarded to the War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M-170-a.

Number of sets. A separate set of PD-600 application forms shall be submitted for each supplier and each different delivery destination or plant of the applicant.

Heading. Under name of chemical specify polystyrene; under War Production Board order number, specify M-170-a; under unit of measure, specify pounds or gallons; and otherwise fill in as indicated.

Use from stock. If application is made exclusively for use of polystyrene in inventory, specify "own stock" as supplier in heading. If application is made partly for use of polystyrene in inventory, and partly for delivery of polystyrene by a producer or distributor, so indicate in Column 10 and specify the producer or distributor as "supplier" in the heading.

Table I. Specify in the heading the month and year for which authorization for use or acceptance of delivery is sought.

Column 1. Specify supplier's formula number or identification symbols or trade name specification, if known. If not known, identify physical form, as molding powder, solution, etc.

Column 2. Specify separately quantities required for each primary product and product use, and indicate whether unit of measure is pounds or gallons.

Column 3. Fill in as follows (as the case may be):

Molded coil form.
Extruded rod.
Battery cement.
Other (specify).
Resale (as polystyrene).
Inventory (as polystyrene).

Column 4. Identify and specify end use of finished product or assembly, and identify where possible the government agency as, for example: Signal Corps radio.

Opposite "inventory" in Column 3, add "subject to paragraph (e)" in Column 4.

In the case of a distributor, opposite "resale" in Column 3, add "pursuant to further authorization or for paragraph (c) small orders" in Column 4.

Columns 5 through 10. Leave blank, except for remarks, if any, in Column 10.

Tables II and III. Fill in as indicated.

Table IV. Leave blank.

(2) Each producer or distributor seeking authorization to make delivery of polystyrene shall file application each month on Form PD-601 in the manner prescribed therein, subject to the following instructions for the purpose of this order:

Form PD-601. Copies of Form PD-601 may be obtained at local field offices of the War Production Board.

Time. Producers and distributors shall apply on Form PD-601 in time to ensure that copies will have reached the War Production Board on or before the 22nd day of the month prior to the allocation month.

Number of copies. A set of four copies shall be prepared; one copy shall be retained by the applicant and three certified copies shall be sent to the War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Reference: M-170-a.

Number of sets. Each producer or distributor shall file a separate set of PD-601 reports for each of his plants or principal distribution points.

Heading. Under name of chemical, specify polystyrene; under War Production Board order number, specify M-170-a; specify allocation month; under unit of measure, specify pounds or gallons; and otherwise fill in as indicated.

Column 1. List all customers who have filed Form PD-600 with the applicant. After the customers' names, list "aggregate small orders" and fill in other columns accordingly.

Column 2. Fill in as indicated.

Column 3. Specify grade or physical form as stated in each customer's PD-600.

Column 4. Fill in as indicated, specifying pounds or gallons as the unit of measure.

Columns 5, 5a, 6. Leave blank.

Column 7. Use to correct any inaccuracies in grade listed by customer, as shown in Column 3.

Rolling stock. Leave blank the columns at the end of Table I referring to hopper cars and tank cars required.

Table II. Producers shall fill in as indicated, leaving Columns 15 and 16 blank. Distributors shall fill in Columns 8, 10, 12, and 13 as indicated, leaving the rest of the table blank.

(3) The War Production Board may require each person affected by this order to file such other reports as may be prescribed and may issue special instructions to any such person with respect to preparing and filing forms PD-600 and PD-601.

(e) Allocations for inventory. Polystyrene allocated for inventory shall not be used for any purpose except as specifically authorized by the War Production Board, or except to fill orders for specifically authorized uses pending arrival of the polystyrene allocated to fill such orders. Upon arrival of such polystyrene the allocated inventory shall be restored.

(f) Notification of customers. Each producer is requested to notify his regular customers as soon as possible of the requirements of this order but failure to receive such notice shall not excuse any person from complying with the terms hereof.

(g) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected hereby are subject to all applicable War Production Board regulations, as amended from time to time, except Priorities Regulation No. 13, which shall be subject to this order to the extent that it is inconsistent herewith.

(2) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(3) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Reference: M-170-a.

Issued this 5th day of April 1943.

PART 3053—CONVEYING MACHINERY AND MECHANICAL POWER TRANSMISSION EQUIPMENT

[General Limitation Order L-193 as Amended April 5, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain critical materials, and in the engineering and other facilities, used in the manufacture of conveying machinery and mechanical power transmission equipment, for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3053.1 General Limitation Order L-193—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Conveying machinery" means any machinery (and any important component part thereof) used for the mechanical handling of materials; except (i) belting, (ii) farm machinery, (iii) machinery or parts used on board ship in the operation of any vessel owned or operated by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration, or used in the operating of aircraft, tanks, ordnance, or similar combat equipment, (iv) power and hand lift trucks, (v) cranes, hoists and platform elevators, (vi) construction mixers, pavers, graders, drag lines and power shovels, and similar construction machinery, (vii) cars and car dumpers, (viii) steel mill tables, (ix) sintering conveyors, (x) metal pig conveyors, and (xi) underground mining machinery;

(3) "Mechanical power transmission equipment" means equipment (and any important component part thereof) of the following kinds (except equipment or parts used in the operation of any vessel owned or operated by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration, or used in the operation of aircraft, tanks, ordnance or similar combat equipment):

(i) Open and enclosed gearing for transmitting more than ¼ horsepower; except marine propulsion gears, gears manufactured by a person for incorporation into other machinery also produced by him, gears built into turbines, and gears used on household, manually powered, automotive, or farm machinery;

(ii) Mechanical drives and parts thereof for transmitting more than ¼ horsepower; except belting, drives manufactured by a person for incorporation into other machinery also produced by him, and drives used on household, manually powered, automotive, or farm machinery.

(4) "Order" includes any arrangement for the delivery of conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment, whether by purchase and sale, lease, rental or otherwise.

(5) "Engineering services" means services of an engineering nature rendered for a customer or prospective customer in connection with an order or prospective order for the planning, designing, manufacture, delivery, installation, extension, or rearrangement of conveying machinery, or in connection with any bid or estimate or prospective bid or estimate for such an order; but does not include preliminary conferences, discussions, or advice, or the making of line drawings for preliminary purposes, prior to the formulation of a bid or estimate.

(6) "Bid or estimate" means a definitive bid or estimate for the planning, designing, manufacture, delivery, installation, extension, or rearrangement of conveying machinery, but does not include preliminary estimates not intended to form a basis for a firm order.

(7) "Manufacture" means fabrication or shop assembly of conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment, or any component part thereof; but does not include the making of engineering drawings, blue prints, designs, estimates, or surveys.

(8) "Restricted order" means any order for new conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment or parts, in the amount of $5,000 or more (not including amounts applicable to foundations or erection labor); and any order which is part of a planned group of orders for new conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment, aggregating $5,000 or more in amount (not including amounts applicable to foundations or erection labor) for items, units or parts of conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment having related operational functions.

(9) "Anti-friction bearings" means all types of ball, needle and roller bearings.

(b) Restrictions on acceptance and placing of orders. (1) On and after October 7, 1942 no person shall place or tender, and no person shall accept, any restricted order, unless the order has been authorized by the War Production Board as provided in paragraph (d) below.

(2) On and after October 7, 1942 no person shall render engineering services, or make any bid or estimate, for any restricted order, and no person shall order or request any such engineering services or invite any such bid or estimate; except with respect to an order theretofore authorized by the War Production Board, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (d) below.

(3) The provisions of paragraph (b) shall not apply to any order for machinery or equipment for the direct use of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration (as defined in paragraph (c) (3)) or to any engineering services or bid or estimate in connection therewith.

The provisions of paragraph (b) (2) above shall not apply to any engineering services in connection with any restricted order accepted by the manufacturer prior to October 7, 1942, or to any engineering services in connection with any bid or estimate which was in the process of formulation on that date.

(c) Restrictions on manufacture and delivery. (1) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (c) (3) hereof, on and after October 7, 1942 no person shall commence or continue the manufacture of any conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment or parts therefor, in fulfillment of any restricted order, and no person shall deliver or accept delivery of any such machinery or equipment or parts therefor, in fulfillment of any restricted order; unless the order shall have been authorized by the War Production Board, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (d) below. No person shall maintain an inventory of parts for conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment in excess of a minimum practicable working inventory.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (c) (3) hereof, on and after October 7, 1942 no person shall manufacture or deliver, and no person shall knowingly accept the delivery of, any conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment, or parts therefor, unless such machinery or equipment or parts are manufactured in accordance with the restrictions on the use of materials prescribed in Schedule A hereto: Provided, however, That parts fabricated or processed, prior to October 7, 1942 to the point where other use is impracticable, may be used in fulfillment of any order at any time.

(3) The limitations and restrictions of paragraph (c) shall not apply:

(i) To the manufacture or delivery of any conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment in the process of manufacture on October 7, 1942 in fulfillment of any order accepted by the manufacturer prior to August 1, 1942.

(ii) For ninety days following October 7, 1942, to the manufacture or delivery of any conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment in the process of manufacture on October 7, 1942 in fulfillment of any order accepted by the manufacturer on or after August 1, 1942 but prior to October 7, 1942.

(iii) For ninety days following October 7, 1942 to the manufacture or delivery in fulfillment of any order for the use of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration, to the extent that any applicable specifications of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration, require construction, design, or materials not in accordance with the provisions of this order. As used herein, the terms "Army", "Navy", "Maritime Commission" or "War Shipping Administration" shall not include any privately operated plant or shipyard financed by or controlled by any of those organizations, or operated on a cost-plus-fixed-fee basis. For the purposes of this paragraph (c) an order for machinery or equipment shall be deemed to have been in the process of manufacture on October 7, 1942 only if fabrication or assembly of a component part, in fulfillment of such order and not for inventory or stock, was begun prior to October 7, 1942.

(d) Procedure for obtaining authorization of War Production Board. (1) The authorization of the War Production Board for orders accepted on or after October 7, 1942, required by the provisions of paragraph (b), may be applied for by the purchaser by filing an application on Form PD-681 with the War Production Board.

(2) The authorization for orders accepted prior to October 7, 1942 by the manufacturer, required by the provisions of paragraph (c) (1), may be applied for by the manufacturer. Such application shall be made by letter in duplicate filed with the War Production Board and shall contain a list of restricted orders of such manufacturer then on hand, together with the name of the purchaser, the date of each order and value thereof, a description of the equipment or machinery, the specified delivery date, the percentage of completion of the order on October 7, 1942, the Production Code symbols, the preference rating and preference rating certificate or general preference rating order number applicable to each order.

(3) The authorization of the War Production Board shall apply not only to the order by the original purchaser for the machinery or equipment covered by the above mentioned Form PD-681 or the application under subparagraph (2) above, but also to any orders for conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment placed by such purchaser's suppliers in fulfillment of the authorized order. The original purchaser shall either (i) transmit a reproduction of the authorization of the War Production Board to his supplier of the authorized order or (ii) furnish him with the following certification (on the order or in an attached document):

I hereby certify that the within (or attached) order has been authorized by the War Production Board under the provisions of paragraph (d) of General Limitation Order L-193, by authorization No. , dated , , covering the within described machinery or equipment.

---------- Company

By ----------
(authorized official)

The purchaser's supplier shall furnish a similar certification on or in connection with any restricted order which he places in fulfillment of the purchaser's authorized order.

Any such certification shall be signed by a duly authorized official of the purchaser or supplier making the certification and shall constitute a representation to the War Production Board, as well as to the person to whom addressed, of the facts certified therein.

(e) Production schedules. On or before November 15, 1942, and on or before the 15th day of each succeeding calendar month, every manufacturer shall file, in triplicate, a report on Form PD-682 showing such production and delivery schedules for restricted orders and such other information as shall be required by said form. The War Production Board may at any time change such schedule of deliveries or production or direct the adoption of any other schedule; allocate any order listed on the schedule to any other manufacturer; or direct the delivery of any conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment listed on the schedule to any other person, at the price and terms previously established with such variation as may be justified under the circumstances.

(f) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Manufacturers' responsibility with respect to orders less than $5000. Notwithstanding any other provision of this order, an order in an amount less than $5000 which is a restricted order (as defined in paragraph (a) (8)) because it is part of a planned group of orders aggregating $5000 or more, shall be deemed to be unrestricted with respect to the manufacturer (but not the purchaser), unless the manufacturer has reason to believe that such order is a restricted order.

(2) Records and reports. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production, and sales. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board, such reports and questionnaires as the War Production Board shall from time to time request.

(3) Other limitation orders. Nothing in this order shall be construed to permit any person to sell, deliver, or otherwise transfer, or any manufacturer to purchase, receive delivery of or otherwise acquire any raw materials, semi-processed parts, or finished products in contravention of the terms of any L or M order, or amendments or supplements thereto, or other regulation of the War Production Board effective at the date of any such sale, delivery, or other transfer. Where the limitations imposed by any other L or M order are applicable to the subject matter of this order, the most restrictive limitation shall apply, unless otherwise specifically provided herein.

(4) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who wilfully furnishes false information to the War Production Board in connection with this order is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the War Production Board.

(5) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the War Production Board setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief. The War Production Board may thereupon take such action as it deems appropriate.

(6) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L-193.

Issued this 5th day of April 1943.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

SCHEDULE A

RESTRICTIONS AND LIMITATIONS ON THE USE OF MATERIALS IN CONVEYING MACHINERY OR MECHANICAL POWER TRANSMISSION EQUIPMENT

(a) As used in this schedule, (1) "alloy steel" and "alloy iron" mean alloy steel and alloy iron as defined in Order M-21-a, as amended and supplemented from time to time; and (2) "line shafting" means any shaft driving two or more machines or any single length or rigidly coupled lengths of shafting supported by three or more bearings.

(b) Conveying machinery. The materials listed below are restricted or prohibited in the construction of conveying machinery, as prescribed below; except as the War Production Board may waive compliance with any such restriction or prohibition, upon application by the manufacturer or purchaser by letter or other communication, setting forth pertinent facts disclosing the necessity for such waiver.

(1) Bins, bunkers, hoppers and tanks (when used as part of conveying machinery or equipment). No metal shall be used in bins, hoppers, tanks, or bunkers having a capacity of more than 400 cubic feet, level filled, except in clips, gussets, bolts, nuts, screws, lag screws, hinges, tension rods, reinforcing bars or mesh, washers, and hopper bottoms of less than 400 cubic feet capacity. No steel plate of a thickness in excess of ¼ inch shall be used in bins, tanks, or hoppers with a capacity of less than 400 cubic feet, level filled. No liner plates of steel or rubber shall be used in steel bins, steel tanks, or steel hoppers. Steel liners for wood bins or wood bunkers shall not exceed No. 10 U. S. gage in thickness.

(2) Conveyors and elevators. No alloy steel or alloy iron shall be used for parts of chains (other than chains for the transmission of power); except for (i) pins and bushings in steel conveyor chains or cast sprocket chains, or (ii) chains used in the heat zone of heat treating and metallurgical furnaces, to the extent permitted under Order M-21-g. No bushings other than carbon steel or gray iron shall be inserted in bores of conveyor chain rollers.

(3) Conveyor and elevator sprockets. No alloy steel or alloy iron shall be used in chain sprocket wheels, except for sprockets to be used in the heat zone of heat treating and metallurgical furnaces, to the extent permitted under Order M-21-g.

(4) Conveyor structures. (i) No steel, except in clips, bearing brackets, gussets, bolts, nuts, screws, lag screws, hinges, tension rods, reinforcing bars, mesh, and washers, shall be used in the following structural parts:

(A) Supports for fixed conveyor frames, except supports for gravity, live roll and package conveyors when the height of the support does not exceed 36 inches.

(B) Fixed bulk material belt conveyor frames (including stringers).

(C) Conveyor galleries.

(D) Belt conveyor decking.

(E) Walkways, toe boards, handrails, stairways, and platforms.

(F) Guards of housing used only for protection.

(G) Bucket elevator casings; except corner angle iron for self-supporting casings, and boot lining and loading legs. Such corner angle iron for self-supporting casings, and boot lining and loading legs shall not exceed ¼ inch in thickness.

(H) Troughs or trough covers for fixed flight, drag, scraper or screw conveyors; except where liquids or semi-liquids are being conveyed, or where the trough is a structural member of the supporting framework; and except for materials or parts used for repairs to such troughs or trough covers. The above mentioned exception for repairs shall not be construed to permit the replacement of non-metallic parts with metal parts, the use of steel to a greater extent or with a greater thickness than used in the part being repaired or replaced, or the use of alloy steels for the replacement of carbon steel materials.

(I) Continuous stream, conduit elevator-conveyor casings; except for (1) terminal sections, (2) curved sections, (3) straight casings for carrying strands only, and (4) wearing bars for return strands only: Provided, however, That no steel exceeding $\frac{3}{16}$" in thickness shall be used in the manufacture of such exempted items.

(ii) Trough linings for fixed conveyors shall not exceed No. 10 U. S. gage in thickness.

(iii) Steel for chutes and spouts shall not exceed $\frac{3}{16}$ inch in thickness.

(iv) No steel or rubber liner plates shall be used in steel chutes or steel spouts.

(v) Steel linings for wood chutes or wood spouts shall not exceed No. 10 U. S. gage in thickness.

(vi) No copper bearing sheets or plates shall be used.

(vii) Steel troughing belt carriers and steel return belt idler rolls shall not exceed 5 inches nominal diameter on idlers up to 42 inches; and shall not exceed 6 inches on idlers 42 inches and over; provided that this limitation shall not apply to parts used for repair or replacement purposes.

(c) Mechanical power transmission equipment. The materials listed below are restricted or prohibited in the construction of mechanical power transmission equipment as prescribed below; except as the War Production Board may waive compliance with any such restriction or prohibition, upon application by the manufacturer or purchaser by letter or other communication, setting forth pertinent facts disclosing the necessity for such waiver.

(1) Anti-friction bearings. (i) Anti-friction bearings shall not be used in hangers, pillow blocks, loose pulleys, and clutch pulleys for line shafting except for the following purposes, as certified by the purchaser:

(A) The reduction or elimination of fire hazards resulting from the combustible nature of the material being processed.

(B) Reduction or elimination of waste due to spoilage.

(C) Reduction of starting or running loads where the use of anti-friction bearings will correct an overload pertaining to the primary source of power.

(D) The repair or replacement of bearings for line shafting: Provided, however, That no anti-friction bearings shall be used for repair or replacement purposes for line shafting not previously equipped with such bearings.

The above mentioned certification by the purchaser shall be included in or shall accompany the purchase order, shall be signed by a duly authorized official of the purchaser, and shall be in the following form:

"The undersigned hereby certifies that the anti-friction bearings covered by order ------ (here give ---------- order number or other pertinent description) are for the following purposes as permitted by the provisions of Item (c) (1) of List A to Order L-193:

---------- (here fill in the purposes for which the bearings will be used)

---------- Company

By ----------"

Such certification shall be deemed a representation to the War Production Board as well as to the supplier to whom the order is tendered.

(ii) No alloy steel or alloy iron shall be used in bearing housings.

(2) Bearings. No alloy steel or alloy iron shall be used in base, cap or liner castings for sleeve bearings; or in bearing hangers, base plates, floor stands, or wall brackets for line shafting.

(3) Chains. (i) No alloy steel or alloy iron shall be used in cast sprocket chains.

(ii) No alloy steel shall be used in semi-finished or finished roller chain, bushed drive chain, or silent chain except in those parts thereof which the manufacturer made of alloy steel prior to January 21, 1943.

(4) No alloy steel or alloy iron shall be used in chain sprocket wheels.

(5) Shafting appliances. No alloy steel or alloy iron shall be used in the construction of shafting appliances in rigid couplings, collars, or pulleys and sheaves.

(6) Gears. No alloy steel or alloy iron shall be used in cast teeth or molded teeth gears and pinions or in gear housings.

(d) Rust proofing. No metallic plating or coating shall be used in the rust proofing of conveyor machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment, except that galvanizing may be used to prevent contamination of feed or in the case of anchor bolts set in concrete and subject to corrosive chemical action.

PART 3115—CONSTRUCTION MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT SIMPLIFICATION AND CONSERVATION

[Schedule IX to Limitation Order L-217]

TANK CAR HEATERS AND PUMPING BOOSTERS OR CIRCULATORS

§ 3115.10 Schedule IX to Limitation Order L-217—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this Schedule IX:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the manufacture of tank car heaters or pumping boosters or circulators.

(3) "Tank car heater" means a mechanical device consisting of a steam boiler (with adjustable low pressure oil burner and a type of closed circuit return condensation system), designed for raising the temperature of bituminous materials in railroad tank cars to permit proper temperature applications thereof.

(4) "Pumping booster," otherwise known as a "circulator," means a mechanical device consisting of a direct fired heating unit with asphalt pump and engine assembly equipment and adjustable low pressure oil burner system, designed for the heating, circulating, and pumping of bituminous materials to a distributor or other unit.

(5) "Repair part" means any part manufactured for use in the repair of tank car heaters or pumping boosters or circulators.

(6) "The military" means the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration.

(b) Limitation on production. (1) On and after April 30, 1943, no producer shall put into process any materials for the manufacture of tank car heaters or pumping boosters or circulators which do not conform to the sizes and types established in paragraphs (c) and (d) hereof. Nothing in this paragraph (b) (1) shall be deemed to prohibit the use of any such materials which may have been in transit to such producer or in process by him on April 5, 1943.

(2) No person who is not actively engaged in the current production of tank car heaters or pumping boosters or circulators, as indicated on any Form PD-697 filed by him prior to March 31, 1943, pursuant to Order L-192, shall enter into the production of any tank car heaters or pumping boosters or circulators.

(3) Nothing in this schedule shall be deemed to restrict the production of repair parts.

(c) Limitation on sizes and types of tank car heaters. Producers are limited to one model in each of the following sizes and types of tank car heaters:

(1) Two car size of 26-36 boiler H. P. at not less than 125 pounds per square inch working pressure, two wheel trailer mounted.

(2) Three car size of 40-55 boiler H. P. at not less than 125 pounds per square inch working pressure, two wheel trailer mounted.

(d) Limitations on sizes and types of pumping boosters or circulators. Producers are limited to one model of pumping booster or circulator, which shall be of a size capable of raising the temperature of a 10,000 gallon tank car 50 degrees per hour when pumping and unloading, at 175 gallons per minute, bituminous materials of a viscosity less than penetration asphalt; this size may be two or four wheel trailer mounted or truck or skid mounted.

(e) Conservation of materials. On and after April 5, 1943, except to fill orders placed by or for the account of the military, no producer shall manufacture any tank car heaters or pumping boosters or circulators requiring rubber tires.

(f) Limitation Order L-192. Nothing in this schedule shall be deemed to affect the applicability of the provisions of Limitation Order L-192.

Issued this 5th day of April 1943.

BITUMINOUS PAVING FINISHERS

§ 3115.11 Schedule X to Limitation Order L-217—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this Schedule X:

(1) "Persons" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the manufacture of bituminous paving finishers.

(3) "Bituminous paving finishers" means a self-propelled, hopper type machine, designed for spreading, levelling, and screed-finishing either hot or cold mix bituminous materials for road surfacing.

(4) "Repair part" means any part manufactured for use in the repair of bituminous paving finishers.

(b) Limitation on production. (1) On and after April 30, 1943, no producer shall put into process any materials for the manufacture of bituminous paving finishers, except in one model of the 10-foot size, with cut-off and extension attachments. Nothing in this paragraph (b) (1) shall be deemed to prohibit the use of any such materials which may have been in transit to such producer or in process by him on April 5, 1943.

(2) No person who is not actively engaged in the current production of bituminous paving finishers, as indicated on any Form PD-697 filed by him prior to March 31, 1943, pursuant to Order L-192, shall enter into the production of any bituminous paving finishers.

(3) Nothing in this schedule shall be deemed to restrict the production of repair parts.

(c) Limitation Order L-192. Nothing in this schedule shall be deemed to affect the applicability of the provisions of Limitation Order L-192.

Issued this 5th day of April, 1943.

[Schedule XI to Limitation Order L-217]

BITUMINOUS DISTRIBUTORS AND BITUMINOUS DISTRIBUTOR PUMPS

§ 3115.12 Schedule XI to Limitation Order L-217—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this Schedule XI:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the manufacture of bituminous distributors or bituminous distributor pumps.

(3) "Bituminous distributor" means a truck or trailer mounted heater and application machine, consisting of a tank, flues and burners heating system, positive displacement pump, gasoline engine, applying spraybar, and temperature and application gauges and controls, designed for bituminous road surfacing.

(4) "Bituminous distributor pump" means a rotary gear or impeller, or rotating plunger type pump, positive displacement, and positive uniform pressure, which is designed to pump no more bituminous material than is sprayed, and which is mounted at rear lowest drain point of the bituminous distributor in direct line flow to spraybar.

(5) "Repair part" means any part manufactured for use in the repair of bituminous distributors or bituminous distributor pumps.

(b) Limitation on production. (1) On and after April 30, 1943, no producer shall put into process any materials for the manufacture of bituminous distributors or bituminous distributor pumps, which do not conform to the sizes and types established in paragraphs (c) and (d) hereof. Nothing in this paragraph (b) (1) shall be deemed to prohibit the use of any such materials which may have been in transit to such producer or in process by him on April 5, 1943.

(2) No person who is not actively engaged in the current production of bituminous distributors or bituminous distributor pumps, as indicated on any Form PD-697 filed by him prior to March 31, 1943, pursuant to Order L-192, shall enter into the production of bituminous distributors or bituminous distributor pumps.

(3) Nothing in this schedule shall be deemed to restrict the production of repair parts.

(c) Limitation on Sizes and Types of Bituminous Distributors. Producers are limited to one model in each of the following sizes and types of bituminous distributors:

(1) 800 gallons capacity, trailer or truck mounted.

(2) 1,250 gallons capacity, trailer or truck mounted.

both sizes to be manufactured in accordance with U. S. Army, Corps of Engineers Specification AB-1503.

(d) Limitation on Sizes and Types of Bituminous Distributor Pumps. Producers are limited to bituminous distributor pumps of the following specifications only:

The rated capacity of the pump shall be not less than 375 gallons per minute, and the pump shall have not less than 4" intake and 3" discharge openings.

(e) Limitation Order L-192. Nothing in this schedule shall be deemed to affect the applicability of the provisions of Limitation Order L-192.

Issued this 5th day of April 1943.

BITUMINOUS HEATING KETTLES

§ 3115.13 Schedule XII to Limitation Order L-217—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this Schedule XII:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the manufacture of bituminous heating kettles.

(3) "Bituminous heating kettle" means a wheel, skid or leg mounted device, consisting of a steel container with burner heating equipment with or without flue system, or with other heating equipment, together with miscellaneous operation attachments, designed for the heating of tars, asphalts and like bituminous materials, and the applying thereof.

(4) "The Military" means the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration.

(5) "Repair part" means any part manufactured for use in the repair of bituminous heating kettles.

(b) Limitation on production. (1) On and after April 30, 1943, no producer shall put into process any materials for the manufacture of bituminous heating kettles which do not conform to the sizes established in paragraph (c) hereof. Nothing in this paragraph (b) (1) shall be deemed to prohibit the use of any such materials which may have been in transit to such producer or in process by him on April 5, 1943.

(2) No person who is not actively engaged in the current production of bituminous heating kettles, as indicated in paragraph (c) hereof, shall enter into the production of any bituminous heating kettles.

(3) Nothing in this schedule shall be deemed to restrict the production of repair parts.

(c) Limitation on sizes. Producers are limited to one model in each of the following sizes of bituminous heating kettles:

(1) 30 gallons capacity.
(2) 80 gallons capacity.
(3) 110 gallons capacity.
(4) 165 gallons capacity.

(d) Conservation of materials. On and after April 5, 1943, except to fill orders placed by or for the account of the military, no producer shall incorporate any of the following items into bituminous heating kettles:

Rubber tires
More than one draw off cock
Mercury type thermometers (except hand inspector pencil type)
Power spray attachments
Barrel warming hoods
Barrel hoists
More than one burner shut off valve
Mud guards

(e) Limitation Order L-192. Nothing in this schedule shall be deemed to affect the applicability of the provisions of Limitation Order L-192.

[Schedule XIII to Limitation Order L-217]

BITUMINOUS MATERIALS MAINTENANCE UNITS

§ 3115.14 Schedule XIII to Limitation Order L-217—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this Schedule XIII:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the manufacture of bituminous materials maintenance units or pumps.

(3) "Bituminous materials maintenance unit", otherwise known as a sprayer, utility, or tank unit, means a wheel or truck mounted mechanical unit, consisting of a tank and pump, one or more spray attachments, and with or without tank heating system and spraybar, designed for spraying light bituminous materials.

(4) "Pump" means a rotary, positive displacement type pump, designed for use on bituminous materials maintenance units.

(5) "The Military" means the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration.

(6) "Repair part" means any part manufactured for use in the repair of bituminous materials maintenance units or pumps.

(b) Limitation on production. (1) On and after April 30, 1943, no producer shall put into process any materials for the manufacture of bituminous materials maintenance units or pumps which do not conform to the sizes and types established in paragraphs (c) and (d) hereof. Nothing in this paragraph (b) (1) shall be deemed to prohibit the use of any such materials which may have been in transit to such producer or in process by him on April 5, 1943.

(2) No person who is not actively engaged in the current production of bituminous materials maintenance units or pumps, as indicated on any Form PD-697 filed by him prior to March 31, 1943, pursuant to Order L-192, shall enter into the production of any bituminous materials maintenance units or pumps.

(3) Nothing in this schedule shall be deemed to restrict the production of repair parts.

(c) Limitation on sizes and types of bituminous materials maintenance units. Producers are limited to one model in each of the following sizes of bituminous materials maintenance units:

(1) 120 gallon capacity, two wheel mounted.

(2) 300 gallon capacity, two wheel mounted.

(3) 600 gallon capacity, two wheel mounted.

(d) Limitation on types of pumps. Producers are limited to pumps of the following specifications only:

The rated capacity of the pump shall be not more than 100 gallons per minute.

(e) Conservation of materials. On and after April 5, 1943, except to fill orders placed by or for the account of the military, no producer shall manufacture any bituminous materials maintenance units requiring rubber tires.

(f) Limitation Order L-192. Nothing in this schedule shall be deemed to affect the applicability of the provisions of Limitation Order L-192.

BITUMINOUS PATCH PLANTS

§ 3115.15 Schedule XIV to Limitation Order L-217—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this Schedule XIV:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the manufacture of bituminous patch plants.

(3) "Bituminous patch plants" means maintenance plants of any of the following types:

(i) Drum type, in which the aggregate and bitumens are mixed in a power driven revolving drum;

(ii) Cold mix portable or stationary type plant, consisting of a horizontal pug mill mixer, side elevating charging skip, side discharge gates, and equipped with pump, power unit, and heater (optional);

(iii) Hot or cold mix patch portable type, consisting of an aggregate hopper and measuring device, feeder or weighing device, pug mill, bitumen kettle, metering pump, optional heaters and dryers, and with or without boiler (depending upon the type of mix), with devices for delivering aggregates to and from the mixing unit; all driven from one central power unit; or

(iv) Continuous portable type, consisting of a calibrated gate measuring device, pug mill, asphalt metering pump, optional bitumen heaters and dryers, with devices for delivering aggregates to and from the mixing unit; all driven from one central power unit.

(4) "Repair part" means any part manufactured for use in the repair of bituminous patch plants.

(b) Limitations on production. (1) On and after April 30, 1943, no producer shall put into process any materials for the manufacture of bituminous patch plants which do not conform to the sizes established in paragraph (c) hereof. Nothing in this paragraph (b) (1) shall be deemed to prohibit the use of any such materials which may have been in transit to such producer or in process by him on April 5, 1943.

(2) No person who is not actively engaged in the current production of bituminous patch plants, as indicated on any Form PD-697 filed by him prior to March 31, 1943, pursuant to Order L-192, shall enter into the production of any bituminous patch plants.

(3) Nothing in this schedule shall be deemed to restrict the production of repair parts.

(c) Limitation on sizes. Producers are limited to one model in each of the following sizes of bituminous patch plants:

(1) 10 tons per hour capacity.

(2) one size only between 15 and 30 tons per hour capacity.

(d) Limitation Order L-192. Nothing in this schedule shall be deemed to affect the applicability of the provisions of Limitation Order L-192.

ASPHALT SURFACE HEATERS

§ 3115.16 Schedule XV to Limitation Order L-217—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this Schedule XV:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the manufacture of asphalt surface heaters.

(3) "Asphalt surface heater" means a machine designed for heating sheet asphalt and for softening old bituminous surfaces for the purpose of levelling and patching.

(4) "Repair part" means any part manufactured for use in the repair of asphalt surface heaters.

(b) Limitations on production of surface heaters. (1) On and after April 30, 1943, no producer shall put into process any materials for the manufacture of asphalt surface heaters except in one model of the 4' x 6' size (24 sq. ft. area). Nothing in this paragraph (b) (1) shall be deemed to prohibit the use of any such materials which may have been in transit to such producer or in process by him on April 5, 1943.

(2) No person who is not actively engaged in the current production of asphalt surface heaters, as indicated on any Form PD-697 filed by him prior to March 31, 1943, pursuant to Order L-192, shall enter into the production of any asphalt surface heaters.

(3) Nothing in this schedule shall be deemed to restrict the production of repair parts.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[Interpretation 3 of CMP Reg. 1]

A manufacturer of equipment who also sells controlled materials merely for use in the operation of such equipment may include such controlled materials in his application for allotment as manufacturer of the equipment, but such requirements must be separately indicated. For example, a manufacturer of a metal gun or a wire stitcher who sells rod or wire for use with his product (whether he makes such sales with the product or separately) may include his requirements for such rod or wire in his application for controlled materials needed to manufacture the gun or stitcher, but he should indicate separately on his application or in an attached note the amount of controlled material required for such purposes as distinct from the manufacture of the gun or stitcher.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[Interpretation 1 of CMP Reg. 5]

Office supplies are not included in List A of CMP Regulation No. 5 and consequently the procedures provided by the regulation may be used to obtain such supplies provided they do not come within the following categories which are specifically mentioned in List A:

Item

2. Printed matter and stationery. This refers only to printed matter and items such as letterheads, envelopes and forms.

3. Paper, paperboard, and products manufactured therefrom; molded pulp products.

5. Office machinery or office equipment.

Safety shoes are included in List A of the regulation and consequently the procedures provided by the regulation may not be used to obtain them. Safety shoes are not included among the items constituting exceptions to item 6 of the list.

PART 3177—MOTOR TRUCK AND TRAILER BODIES

[Limitation Order L-253,[1] as Amended April 5, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States having created a shortage in the supply of iron, steel and other materials required in the production of motor truck and trailer bodies for defense, for private account and export, the following limitation order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest:

§ 3177.1 Limitation Order L-253—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Truck" means a motor truck chassis designed for use on or off the highway for the transportation of property or materials.

(2) "Trailer" means a semi-trailer chassis or full trailer chassis designed for use on or off the highway for the transportation of property or materials.

(3) "Body" means a superstructure, including built-in parts, produced for mounting on a truck or trailer, or built integrally as a trailer by the attachment of axle and wheel equipment, but does not include concrete and asphalt mixers, crushing plants and similar items of construction and machinery.

(i) "Dump body" means a body designed to transport solid materials in bulk and to unload by tipping, through bottom openings or otherwise by gravity.
